From the National Intelligencer.
ON THE RE-ELECTION OF JAMES MADISON, TO THE Presidency of the Union.

"O! bear its vast import, ye waves as ye roll
"O! wait it, ye winds, as ye blow!"
The tidings are dear to each virtuous soul, The Faction's last hopes are laid low!
Ambition must lower his turbulent crest,
And Party abandon its zeal;
To the voice of the People, so clearly express Public virtue again set its seal.
Ye Patriots, whose hearts with energy glow, I greet ye—Whatever your name, Your feelings, your actions in union flow, Warm'd by Liberty's heavenly flame.
On Freedom's vast base see our MADISON stand;
Hear, hear it, ye nations around!
"Tis the triumph of Truth—she waves her bright wand,
Your folly, your madness to bound.
Tho' Albion threaten our ship to overwhelm, And Honor's rude breath swirls the wave We are safe, for our Pilot again takes the helm Our bark from destruction to save.
When the white sails of Commerce again are unfurled,
And peace to our shores shall return, Then War to Tartarean gulfs shall be hurl'd And Discord's foul torch cease to burn.
And see Agriculture its blessings extend,
To its magic the Desert shall yield, Cultivation and Nature their efforts shall blend,
And the Swamp be a bright-waving field.
Manufacture, that true "Philosopher's Stone,"
Which transmutes what it touches to gold, Shall transfer from the Elbe, the Thames and the Rhone,
As much wealth as our coffers can hold: Raise, raise the loud Praise—Our country is said!
Proclaim it "ye winds as ye blow," The Pilot who oft the rude tempest has brav'd, Triumphantly stands on the prow.

From the Boston Patriot.

REPUBLICANS! BE VIGILANT!

We have unceasingly declared and still declare that the emissaries of Britain, the enemies of the Union, and of the happiness and commercial prosperity of America, have never given over their treasonable design of array-ing the North against the South and the South against the North. Altho' foiled and grievously discomfited by the issue of the Presidential election they still have hopes; and are encouraged and supported by the British in all their plans of disunion, and in all their plots of sowing discontent, distrust, and discord among the people.
A late London paper, the Courier, says, that their HOPES rest on the counteracting influence of the FEDE-RALISTS! This is speaking so plain that we perfectly understand it, But we need not have recourse to English newspapers. The Centinel of Saturday speaks a language which we also understand.

It says—"It is now solemnly ascertained that THE PEOPLE of these States (the N. England States) are alive to a common interest; and awake to the project of dividing their affections & prostrating their strength.
It shews New-England, one and indivisible, (a French phrase of fusion long since rendered contemptible) New York and New Jersey, as a great people united by sentiment, as well as policy and interest, and capable of giving that "form and pressure," to their PLANS which the occasion may require." Thus far the Centinel. Let us now consider its meaning and drift.
New-England it seems then, is a great people united in sentiment [the proof of which is that in election for governor, half voted for one candidate and half for the other!] and the Republicans have a project for dividing the affections of the people, [most strikingly exemplified, be sure in the late Clintonian coalition!]

The real truth is, the Republicans, in New-England are one and indivisible in their wishes to carry on the war with vigour, a few childish hopes excepted. New-York, who voted for Mr. Clinton from very different views that some of us did, is lugged in as actuated by the same sentiment; than which nothing can be more false.
Their views are merely local.

As to the "form and pressure," which the Centinel speaks of we would fairly remark that if the Forces should pass over a certain line, so as to make a single move towards pressure, the touted Republicans, the unsophisticated friends of America, the words of the soil, would press the hardest, and crush traitors to dust.

We are at no loss to guess at their PLANS. John Henry, the British spy, has developed them, and told us in plain terms that the ships of war on the Halifax station would co-operate in it; and we presume that Admiral WARREN is now at BERMUDA busily engaged in forwarding these plans, in which he doubtless expects the co-operation of "our friends in Congress," and at the head-quarters of their good principles.

Be on your guard Americans! Your malignant enemy without; and your reasonable one within, never sleeps.
Without the utmost caution you may receive a wound "between the joints of your armour." With your vigilance be animated with this hope, that heaven never gave to man such a country, and to a country such a people to leave it miserable. Virtuous individuals are sometimes miserable to be remunerated hereafter; but a virtuous nation is never left miserable for vice either debases it, or "righteousness exalteth it" forever!

THE IMPORTED HORSE

STRAP, IS IN FINE ORDER.

HE will stand the ensuing year at Mr. Pro-bet Collier's, 5 miles from Waynesboro' (on Neuse River) and will cover Mares on his usual accommodating terms. STRAP, for correctness of symmetry, great beauty, performances on the British Turf, acknowledged superior racing blood, and as a foal getter, will, I presume, stand in the estimation of unbiased Judges higher than any other Horse in America. Strap has not only come from the best racing stock in England, but of the most large and elegant. His sire, Bem-brough, is 5 feet 3 and a half inches high; Zachariah, full brother to Bembrough, 5 feet 4 inches; King Fergus, their sire, 5 feet 4 inches, and his sire Eclipse, of such powers as to carry 168 lbs. on his back 4 miles & 350 yards in 8 minutes, only running at his common rate, &c. Highlier, the sire of Strap's dam, was not only a Horse of uncommon size, (between 5 feet 4 and 5 inches high) but was allowed to have been the best Horse ever in England. Strap's dam produced the Morland Gelding, by Cavendish, Sir Bertrand, by Bembrough, who was, from his blood and beauty, selected by an agent, to send to a Nebleman in Russia. She is the dam also of Weaver by Shuttle, who at 5 years old, won 6 times, running different courses, for large sums, and never was beat that year. Strap's dam is nearly full sister in blood to the dam of Joe and Jack Andrews, two of the most celebrated runners that have ever appeared on the British Turf, &c. &c. Further particulars will be given in due time.

THE LAND

Whereon I now live,—the former Residence of Green Duke, senior, LONG known for its healthiness and beauty of situation. This Tract of Land is supposed to contain 3600 acres; and situated within 7 miles of Warrenton—its convenience to which affords a ready Sale for all surplus produce. There is on the Tract a large quantity of excellent Wheat and Tobacco Land.— On Fishing Creek, which intersects this Land, there is a very valuable Saw and Grist Mill—Convenient to the former there is a large quantity of excellent timber, and its convenience to Warrenton affords a ready sale for the Lumber. On the Mill Stream is at least 100 Acres of Bottom Land, a large proportion of which is finely adapted for meadow.
3000 dollars will be required in advance—payments for the balance will be made accommodating. Wheat will be put in, and the Plantation be delivered in complete order for the working of 15 or 20 hands.

EXCHANGE

Old Six Per Cent & Deferred Stocks
PURSUANT to the Act of Congress, enti-

October next, at the Treasury, and at the several local offices, and will continue open till the 17th day of March next, for receiving Subscriptions, of the Old Six Per Cent, and Deferred Stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New Certificates, bearing interest from the 1st day of the quarter in which

Land in Warren,

I Will sell, or barter for Lands in West-Tennessee, the Tract of Land lying in Warren County, in the fork of Fishing Creek and Shocco, containing 432 acres, 100 of which are cleared, under good fences, and in good order for cropping.
A further description of the Land is deemed unnecessary—suffice it to say, it is surpassed by none in the neighbourhood in the advantages of its situation and the fertility of its soil.
The Dwelling House is 23 by 18 feet, and will have borne repairs sufficient to render a small family comfortable. There is a Granary, Smoke house, Corn-crib, &c.
Also, about 500 acres of unimproved Land, in the upper part of Halifax County, not very fertile, but the beauty and healthiness of its situation, and its excellent range which it would furnish, would make a pleasant Summer Retreat for any Gentleman living in the low Country. EDMUND JONES, ral encouragement they have given him heretofore,

North of the State-House, is now in complete order to receive Boarders and Travellers—where he earnestly solicits a continuance of their patronage. He pledges himself that nothing on his part shall be wanting to render general satisfaction to all those who favor him with their custom. Honest and active servants alone will be engaged; and his Stables will perhaps be excelled by none.

tember.

To the Gamblers and Others OF BERTIE COUNTY.

MR. GALES, SHOULD you find a vacant place in your paper for this narrative, you will oblige your friend by giving it one insertion. I have once claimed the epithet of a Gambler, but have not thrown a card in twelve months and better, have, lately, been accused of gambling and drinking to excess by A. B. In order to prove the reverse, he may call on G. and D. The words of these gentlemen can be taken, if mine cannot. He may know of those pernicious habits within the period above mentioned. I defy the face of man to say that I have. It appears as though some persons wish to be dipping in where they have no business, in order to set A. B. against W. D. I believe those persons are not destitute of common sense; perhaps they do not think that they are dealing with a man and not with a child. How often it is that we have to struggle with the world. We can find months that will annoy our clothes. How often we wish to pursue the right way, while others, who are watching every snare and every path we pursue, are trying to condemn us, and for no cause whatever at present. I do not deny my having gambled some time back; but at this time I abhor and detest the act. It appears that there is an old woman, who professes to be a great Christian, which puts me in mind of a barking dog; that will bark, but will not come out and bite for fear of being seen and chastised. Friend—reflect on this, and take it to thyself. I do not profess to be a writer, but this attempt is made, in order to prove myself exempt from the charges that have been alleged against me; W. D JUPITER.
