No 695.

THE NEW ARMY BILL.

The debate which has taken place on this bill is much too long for insertion in a weekly paper.

Mr. MACON moved to strike out one and insert five years as the term of enlistment. He regretted as much as any one the disasters which had befallen the country; and there was but one way to obviate their effects, and that was by rising superior to them, as a part of the nation had already done—he meant the Western country, where a patriotism had been exhibited equal to that which might have distinguished Rome in its best days.

nation—I care not of what political sect, many as there are—who believes that the war is not undertaken on just grounds—that we had not borne with their indignities till we could have borne them no longer? After plundering your property and impressing your seamen on the ocean, their agents have been sent into this nation to sow divisions among us, who ought to be but one family.

With respect to the term of service, enlistments for one year will look as if we were afraid to go the whole length of the war. Raising men for five years would convince the enemy you meant to maintain and enforce your rights; but while you take men for one year or eighteen months, they will think we are temporising, and instead of lowering their tone by this means, you will raise it.

BY AUTHORITY.

Laws of the United States,

An Act directing the Secretary of the Treasury to remit fines, forfeitures and penalties, in certain cases.

Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That in all cases where goods, wares and merchandize, owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, have been imported into the United States from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which goods, wares and merchandize were shipped on board vessels which departed therefrom between the twenty-third day of June last, and the fifteenth day of September last, and the person or persons interested in such goods, wares or merchandize, or concerned in the importation thereof, have thereby incurred any fine, penalty and forfeiture, under an act, entitled "An act to interdict the commercial intercourse between the United States and Great Britain, and France, and their dependencies, and for other purposes," and an act, entitled "An act concerning the commercial intercourse between the United States and Great Britain and France, and their dependencies, and for other purposes," and the act supplementary to the act last mentioned, on such person or persons petitioning for relief to any judge or court proper to hear the same, in pursuance of the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to provide for mitigating or remitting fines, forfeitures and penalties, in certain cases therein mentioned;" and on the facts being shown, on enquiry had by said judge or court, stated and transmitted, as by said act is required, to the Secretary of the Treasury; in all such cases wherein it shall be proved to his satisfaction that said goods, wares and merchandize, at the time of their shipment, were bona fide owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, and shipped and did depart from some port or place in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, owned as aforesaid, between the twenty-third day of June last, and the fifteenth day of September last, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to remit all fines, penalties and forfeitures, that may have been incurred under the said acts, in consequence of such shipment, importation or importations, upon the costs and charges that have arisen or may arise being paid, and on payment of the duties which would have been payable by law on such goods, wares and merchandize, if legally imported; and also to direct the prosecution or prosecutions, if any shall have been instituted for the recovery thereof, to cease and be discontinued: Provided nevertheless, That no case in which the purchase of such goods, wares and merchandize, was made, after war was known to exist between the United States and Great Britain, at the port or place where such purchase was made, shall be entitled to the benefit of this act.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives. WM. H. CRAWFORD, President of the Senate, pro tempore. January 2, 1813—APPROVED, JAMES MADISON.

An Act to increase the Navy of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States shall be, and he hereby is authorized, as soon as suitable materials can be procured therefor, to cause to be built, equipped and employed four ships to rate not less than seventy-four guns, and six ships to rate forty-four guns each.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be employed on board each of the said ships of seventy-four guns each, one captain, six lieutenants, one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one surgeon, one chaplain, one purser and three surgeons-mates.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be employed in each of the said ships, carrying seventy-four guns, the following warrant officers, who shall be appointed by the President of the United States: one master, one second master, three master's mates, one boatswain, one gunner, one carpenter, one sail maker and twenty midshipmen; and the following petty officers, who shall be appointed by the captains of the ships respectively in which they are to be employed, viz. one armorer, six boatswain's mates, three gunner's mates, two carpenter's mates, one sail-maker's mate, one cooper, one steward, one master at arms, one cook, one coxswain, one boatswain's yeoman, one gunner's yeoman, one carpenter's yeoman, ten quarter gunners, eight quarter masters, and one clerk and one schoolmaster, also to be appointed by the captain.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the crews of each of the said ships of seventy-four guns shall consist of one hundred able seamen, three hundred ordinary seamen and boys, three sergeants, three corporals, one drummer, one fifer and sixty marines.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the pay of the ship-master shall be twenty-five dollars per month and two rations per day.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the sum of two millions five hundred thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the building and equipping of the aforesaid ships of war.

HENRY CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives, WM. H. CRAWFORD, President of the Senate pro tempore. January 2, 1813—APPROVED, JAMES MADISON.

SELECT REVIEWS.

MOSES THOMAS, the publisher of the new series of the SELECT REVIEWS, and SPIRIT OF FOREIGN MAGAZINES, commencing Jan. 1, 1813, to be edited by Washington Irving, Esq. of New-York, Author of Salmagundi, &c. proposes to enrich the work occasionally with Portraits of several of the most distinguished American Naval Officers, accompanied with Biographical Sketches. The work will be published in monthly numbers, price Five Dollars per annum, payable on the delivery of the sixth number in each year. Subscriptions received by the Publisher, in Chestnut-street, Philadelphia; by J. Gales, Raleigh; by D. M'Rae, Fayetteville, and by most other Booksellers.

A NEW STORE.

THE Subscriber is now opening a handsome Assortment of newly imported DRY GOODS, and a good Stock of HARDWARE and GROCERIES, in a new Store on Fayetteville Street, opposite to Captain Scott's Tavern, which he will sell low for Cash. JOHN FAIRES. Raleigh, Jan. 1, 1813.

HYCO ACADEMY.

Notwithstanding the Wood Work of this Academy has again been consumed by Fire, Preparations have been made for the reception of Students, and the School will go into operation on Monday the 4th of January, 1813, under the superintendance of Mr. ABEL GRAHAM, as Principal Teacher. This Gentleman's moral character and literary improvements eminently qualify him to discharge the duties attached to his station.—The English Language grammatically, the Latin and Greek Languages, and the usual branches of Science, will be taught in this Institution. The Wood Work of the elegant Brick Building will be completed again perhaps by the first of May, for the reception of Students and for the operation of the School. Caswell County, N. C. Dec. 23.

LAUREL HILL ACADEMY.

THE Trustees feel a pleasure in being able to announce to the public, that Mr. M'LEAN, an experienced Teacher and a young man of integrity and talents, a Graduate of the University of North-Carolina, has undertaken the charge for the present year, where students may be prepared for any Class in the University. The price of Tuition is $17 per annum, if paid in advance, otherwise $20 and Boarding may be had in decent families at the moderate rate of $10 per quarter. The strictest attention will be paid to the morals and general deportment of the students. The situation is handsome, and esteemed as healthy as any part of the State, affording the earliest opportunity of receiving the public papers and other communications by the Mail Stage of the U. States passing every other day in the week. Jan. 1, 1813.

PROSPECTUS

Of a new Periodical Work, to be published semi-annually at Raleigh, by J. Gales, entitled the

CAROLINA LAW REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a Law Character. The primary design of this Work, is to convey to every part of the State early intelligence of the Cases adjudged in the Supreme Court, and abstracts of the Public Laws passed at each session of the Legislature. One number will therefore be published on the first of March, and another on the first of September in each year, just before the commencement of the circuits, so that the Profession, and the citizens in general, may be apprized of the progressive change and exposition of the law, soon after they respectively occur, and at a time when such information is most desirable. But the plan will also comprehend a variety of subjects connected with Legal and general Political Science, which, it is hoped, will render the work instructive and entertaining, not merely to the practicing Lawyer and the Student, but also to the Legislator and intelligent Citizen, who desires to contemplate, in their origin, spirit and effect, those principles of Legal Policy and Civil Freedom which form the basis of our own admirable institutions. Hence, each number will contain select Biography of eminent Judges and Lawyers—Extracts from scarce and valuable publications—Opinions of foreign Jurists upon cases sent from Virginia and North-Carolina before the Revolution, never before published—Arguments and Opinions of Judges and Counsel in important cases—and such Essays as have a tendency to enlighten the progress of Public Sentiment on certain projected alterations of the Law, particularly that deeply interesting topic, the reformation of the Criminal Code. Specimens of merit on subjects of permanent interest, discussed in the Legislature, will occasionally be inserted. CONDITIONS—Each number will contain from 140 to 160 octavo pages, printed on fine medium paper, and with an elegant new type, cast in Philadelphia for the work. The price will be one dollar and fifty cents per number, four of which will form a volume. Each number to be paid for on delivery. The first number is in the press, and will be published on the first of March. Subscriptions received by the Publisher and other Booksellers, and by Gentlemen of the Bar in whose hands the Prospectus has been placed. Jan. 14.

ALMANACKS.

For Sale, wholesale and retail, at J. Gales's Store in Raleigh, and at the Store of D. Ochiltree, merchant, in Fayetteville, and retail at most of the Stores in the State,

Gales & Seaton's

N. CAROLINA ALMANACK, For 1813.

The Astronomical Calculations by P. Brooks of Richmond County, and the Weather Predictions by John Beasley, of Wake County. Its miscellaneous matter is, as usual, interesting, useful and entertaining.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

DESERTED, from the Camp near Tarborough, N. Carolina, on the 1st day of January, ROBERT LASSITER, a Corporal in the 18th Regiment of the U. States Infantry. Lassiter was born in Gates county, and lived part of last year as Overseer for Stanley Ketterell of Berne county. He is 24 years old, 5 feet 9 inches & half high, light complexion, blue eyes, light hair, and has that decency of deportment which would prevent a suspicion of his having been guilty of so base an act. Whoever will deliver said Lassiter to the Subscriber, or any other Officer of the U. States Army, shall receive the above Reward. J. G. BLOUNT, Captain 18th Reg. Infantry, Camp near Tarboro', Jan. 4.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

DESERTED, from Camp near Tarboro' in the night of the 6th instant, ISAAC SKITTELTHORPE, EDMUND SKITTELTHORPE, BENJ. TITTERTON and JOSEPH SPRUVEL, Soldiers in the 18th Reg. ment of Infantry. Isaac Skittelthorpe was born in Washington county, N. C. aged 25 years, 5 feet 11 inches high, of dark complexion, black eyes, black hair, and is stout built.—Edmund Skittelthorpe was born in Washington county, aged 32, 5 feet 10 in high, of dark complexion, dark hair, well-built, has a savage countenance.—Benjamin Titterton was born in Washington county, is 23 years old, 5 feet 11 inches & 3 quarters high, light complexion, small dark eyes, black hair.—Joseph Spruvel was born in Washington county, aged 26 years, 5 feet 7 inches & half high, light complexion, blue eyes, light hair, stoops in his shoulders, and has a hypocritical whine when speaking. I have good reason to believe that the above mentioned Deserters have returned to the Neighborhood where they were born. To any person who will deliver the said Deserters at Tarboro', before the Company to which they belong marches from thence, I will pay the above Reward, or ten dollars for each.—Should the Company have marched previous to their apprehension, a delivery of them to any Officer of the U. States Army will answer the purpose. J. G. BLOUNT, Captain 18th Reg. Infantry, Camp near Tarboro', Jan. 7.

COMMITTED

To Wake Jail, on the 25th of December, A NEGRO MAN, named Briton, who says he belongs to Thomas Thompson, of Orange County. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him away. Jan. 7. WM. SCOTT, Jr.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RUN AWAY, from the Subscriber, on the 17th of December, a MULATTO MAN, named Jim, about 20 years old, 5 feet 8 or nine inches high, rather slender, has the mark of a burn on one of his cheeks scarcely visible: Took with him two horses, a saddle faced with red plush, one black and one white hat, one mixed homespun and one black broad cloth coat, two or three fine shirts and two or three vests, and perhaps other clothing.—One of the horses is a sorrel, 10 years old, 14 hands 3 inches high, blaze faced, blind of the nery eye, and one foot white, was not shod. The other a black, 10 years old, 14 hands and a half high, blaze faced, blind of the nery eye, and his off hind foot white. It is probable that he has a white woman with him, as one that he was too intimate with was seen with him 15 miles beyond Lincolnton. She is very tall, has light hair, grey eyes, good complexion, and, for so large a woman, may be called handsome. The above reward will be given for said runaway and horses, by NICHOLAS GIBNEY, Mecklenburg County, N. C. Jan. 1.

EXCHANGE

OF Old Six Per Cent & Deferred Stocks

PURSUANT to the Act of Congress, entitled "AN Act authorising a Subscription for the OLD SIX PER CENT and Deferred Stocks, and providing for the exchange of the same," passed on the 6th day of July, 1812, books will be opened on the 1st day of October next, at the Treasury, and at several loan offices, and will continue open to the 17th day of March next, for receiving Subscriptions, of the Old Six Per Cent and Deferred Stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New Certificates, bearing interest from the 1st day of the quarter in which the Subscription shall be made, at the rate of Six Per Centum Per Annum, payable quarterly yearly, for the unredeemed amount of principal of the Old Six Per Centum and Deferred Stocks which may be subscribed, will be issued at the Treasury or at the Loan Offices respectively where the Old Stock Subscribed may at the same time stand credited. The New Stock will be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States at any time after the 31st day of December, 1824; but no reimbursement will be made except for the whole amount of the Stock standing at the time, to the credit of any proprietor, on the books of the Treasury or of the Commissioners of Loans respectively, nor till after at least six months previous public notice of such intended reimbursement. ALBERT GALLATIN, Treasury Department September 10, 1812.

The highest Price given at this Office FOR CLEAN LINES OF EASTON RAGS.
