THE WAR.

From the Milledgeville (Geo.) Argus Extra of Dec. 3.

Were happy to try before our respects the following highly gratifying intelligence. It will be seen that the magic charm of British influence is completely dissolved in a quarter from which we had most reason to dread its potency. Superstition and Cupidity have fled before Patriotism and Valor and long, long, will the Savage lament his fate while he curses the treachery of the civilized barbarian.

OFFICIAL

Extract of a letter from Maj. Gen. Jackson to Gov. Early, dated

Head Quarters 7th Military District, Near Fort Mifflin, Nov. 16, 1814.

Before this reaches you information will have been received of my visit to Pensacola: It was occasioned by the unprecedented conduct of the governor of Pensacola, in harboring siding and countenancing the British and their red allies. Fented it sword in hand with about 3000 brave followers, in the face of the Spanish batteries, and a British fleet of seven sail, anchored abreast opposite the town. The British by intrigue and base falsehood, induced the Spaniards to abandon the works commanding the harbor, we entered them and blew them up; otherwise they would have fallen a sacrifice to their own plans. When this took place the fleet being at liberty to go out did so; and evacuated the town, leaving the Spaniards favorably impressed with our conduct, and disgusted with their British friends. The hostile Indians fled across the bay at our approach; and have, no doubt, lost all confidence in the assurances they have received of British protection. They have retired it is believed towards Apalachicola in great alarm.
The Seminoles however, it appears from information given by Col. Hawkins are preparing to assume an hostile attitude. When they hear of the shameful manner in which the red sticks were deserted by their allies, they will wish to retract.
The following was in M. S.
Gen. Jackson was opposed by the Spaniards—and several men were lost on both sides in taking the town. The British retreated to their ships, from which they fired at Jackson but with out effect. They attempted to decoy Jackson into the fort at the time the muzzle was burning; but he cautiously avoided it until the tremendous explosion took effect and injured none.

From the Savannah Republican, Dec. 15.

Extract of a letter to Gen. J. Floyd, dated St Mary's, Dec. 10, 1814.

Sir—I hasten to communicate to you the information that I received yesterday in Darien. The English frigate Macedonian is at anchor outside of Do-by; eight of her barges are stationed in the Sound, and the rig of the Captain with a whale boat, are stationed at the entrance of the inlets, so that the communication is entirely interrupted.

SAUCY JACK.

Extract of a letter from Savannah, dated Nov. 28th 1814.

I have pleasing in- ligence to communicate to you, the Saucy Jack has arrived here to day, I have been with Capt. Chazell, who mentioned to me that the Jack has a cargo of dry goods on board worth 90000. sterling; and a piece of r, below laden with rum and sugar, worth 50000, and expects daily a tender worth from 5 to 6000 dollars; besides 21 prisoners on board the Saucy Jack; the Saucy Jack has had an engagement with a Bomb vessel in which she lost 7 men killed and 15 wounded; one of which is since dead and unfortunately her crew is at this time very sickly.

Savannah Dec 1.

On Friday last 10 British Barges entered Dodo Sound; and captured out of Tea Kettle Creek 2 sloops and 2 schooners—one sloop in Darien River, & three or four more in the Sound—Capt. Caesar owner of the captured sloop Diana has arrived and informs that he saw seven sail of the captured vessels go over St. Simon's Bar about 12 o'clock the same day. It is reported that two of the above vessels have been ransomed the name of only one of which we have been able to obtain, the sloop Hermi. Capt. Gale, for a bill on Amelia for 2,500 dollars.

From the Buffalo Gazette.

BRITISH ATROCITY.

We have never experienced such sensations of indignation, as were excited on learning that a few days after the battle of the Catacact, commonly, and improperly called Bridge-water, & Lundy's Lane, the British Lieut. Gen.
Drummond denying the rites of sepulture to our fallen heroes, caused them to be collected in heaps and burnt together with several others of a deeper dye have long been well known to the left division—these brave men disdained to vent their rage in words, but with their swords have taken vengeance on this monster in human shape; his imitator of Tamurlane and Khan. He may have hoped that the memory of his defeat and disgrace at the Catacact would have perished with the bodies of the brave who fell in victory. Vain delusive hope; The thunders of the catacact shall cease and records be extinguished, before the memory of that glorious battle shall fade from the mind of man. The recital of it will furnish a splendid page in American history, & add another proof to the truths taught at Zima Marathon and Platae, that slaves and hirelings must always yield to the brave and the free.

Did American troops ever omit the honors of the grave to a fallen foe? No never! After the repulse of the assault of the enemy on Fort Erie, the slain were interred with all the pomp and honors of war, and the party of troops engaged in this sacred duty were freed upon by the enemy, and many of them slain, notwithstanding he was repeatedly informed they were burying his dead.

JUSTICE.

Extract of a letter from near Tappahannock, Va. dated 13th Dec. 1814.

"The enemy have a list of us after burning a part of Tappahannock.
They then landed, and marched to Farnham Church, seven miles from the river—burnt the post office, and took away many negroes, and returned unmolested to their shipping; after defeating our small force, took from us one gun, wounded and took prisoner Capt. Shackelford of artillery, whom they paroled. He is doing well, though the ball is not extracted. Capt. Barrie of the Dragon and Col. Malcolm, of the Marines, commanded this brilliant expedition as they will no doubt call it.— Thirteen prisoners and deserters of the enemy, Cap. Lomax has taken on to Washington."

31st received via Philadelphia.

UNIVERSITY.

THE Trustees of the University of North-Carolina have engaged Mr. Thomas Mitchell, of Wake County, (formerly of Granville) as a Steward for the ensuing year.
While the increased prices of articles necessary for the Steward's table seemed to demand an augmentation of the price of Board, the dissatisfaction manifested by many of the Students during the two last sessions, indicated the propriety of making better provision for the next year.

The Trustees, therefore, have been obliged to stipulate for Board for the ensuing year at seventy-five dollars, or thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents a Session;—but in yielding to this necessity, they have been careful to make ample provision for good fare and attendance—and they trust that in addition to the express stipulations obtained they have no small pledge, for a bountiful and cleanly table, in the character which the undertaker and his companion have acquired as public house-keepers.

RALEIGH:

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1814.

Our Legislature is drawing its business to a close. It is expected to adjourn to-morrow. An act has passed giving the power to the Supreme Courts to take cognizance of Divorces reserving to the Legislature a final decision.

A further balloting was had yester-terday for a Senator without an election. The votes were, Clark 84, Davis 76, blanks 20.

Another balloting was had in which Clarke had 63, Davis 63 and 30 blanks.

The Bill for extending the Charters of the Newbern and Cape-Fear Banks has become a law.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society of North-Carolina was held on the 12th inst. at the State House. In the afternoon, according to appointment, an appropriate Discourse was delivered by the Rev. Joseph Caldwell. In the evening, the Society met, and after a suitable address from the President, proceeded to the election of their Officers, and to the transaction of business. Dr. Hall was re-chosen President; and Judge Cameron declining the Vice Presidency, the Rev. Wm. M'Pheeters was elected in his stead, and the Rev. Joseph Caldwell was appointed as an additional Vice-President. The Rev. Mr. Woodberry, John Haywood, D. Cameron, and F. Nash, were named Managers, to supply the places of deficiencies; and Mrs Woodberry was appointed to preach the next annual sermon. A fresh supply of Bibles was directed to be purchased.

Gen. D. B. Williams is elected Governor of the State of South-Carolina for the ensuing year.

The National Bank Bill—Has PASSED the Senate of the United States. It will be read in the House of Representatives to day; and we hope its fate will be speedily decided, to relieve all important fiscal arrangements and pecuniary transactions from the suspense in which they are held during its pendency.
We need not repeat, what we have so often said, that we hope it will become a law.

It is rumored, and generally believed that the President yesterday made the following nominations to the Senate:

Benjamin W. Crowninshield, of Massachusetts, to be Secretary of the Navy of the United States.

William Eustis, (late Secretary of War) to be our Minister to Holland.

The Flying Squadron—Authorised by Congress, are in a state of active preparation and will unquestionably make a sensible impression on the commerce of the enemy during the winter. Five capital vessels, (among which is the Macedonian) we understand, have been purchased by government within a few days past. And Capt. Porter is raising 400 men and Capt. Perry 500, for public service.

The Wasp—Is not taken by the Lacedemonian. We have a clue to the firing off Charleston—it was doubtless the capture of the Rozel by the Kemp privateer.

The privateer Macedonian [arrived at Portsmouth] informs that they found on board a prize a London paper of the 28th Oct. which stated that the negotiations at Ghent had taken a favorable turn, and that a speedy peace was expected to result.
The American commissioners were to stay at Ghent, &c.—Phil. Gaz.

FROM JAMAICA.
Christophe and Petion.—By the Express, Capt. Taylor, the Editors of the N. Y. Gazette, have received Jamaica papers to the 29th Oct.
They state that a treaty of peace has been signed between Christophe & Petion, by which they mutually agree to surrender St. Domingo to the French government; and all the property, except that occupied by General Officers, to be given up to respective owners.

MARRIED.

In this city, yesterday morning, Dr. Sym-ons J. Baker, of Martin county, to Mrs.
Nancy Hunter, widow of the late Mr. Harry Hunter.

DIED.

On Wednesday the 13th inst. near this City, aged 75 years; who had been diseased with lived before her death for twelve
