

FOREIGN NEWS.

FROM CARACCAS.

We are informed by Capt. Donnick, that the affairs on the Maine were in a very unsettled state, the Royalists being still in alarm at the expected return of General Bolivar, reinforced. Bolivar is stated to be wounded, as is also General Morillo, at the sanguinary battle of Cabrera, near Caraccas.

Gen. Morillo had retired in person to Valencia, in consequence of a lance wound in the breast, and the command of the troops devolved on General Morales.

On the 1st of March a squadron of royal ships left La Guayra, for the purpose of blockading the Oronoko, consisting of one frigate, two brigs, and five schooners, with two felucca gun boats.

FROM BUENOS AYRES.

Baltimore, April 30.

Capt. Partlow, arrived here yesterday, informs, that on the 12th of Feb. the Chilean government made a solemn declaration of Independence, which the inhabitants of Buenos Ayres were preparing to celebrate, by illuminations, &c. at the time of his sailing.

Mr. De Forest came passenger in the Plattsburg, and has proceeded on to Washington with despatches from the Commissioners. This gentleman came to this country as Consul General of the United Provinces of South America.

The Political and Military state of South America has varied but little for many months past, with the exception that the army of Royalists in Chili has been augmented by reinforcements from Europe, and were again making offensive operations, but nothing was feared from the result.

NOTABLE OCCURRENCE.

The North-American Sloop of War Ontario, James Biddle, Commander, sailed from New York the beginning of September, and touched at Brazil, whence a Russian frigate was to sail, bearing passengers from all the maritime Nations—her voyage to be of three years duration. She may be expected from day to day.

The American Corvette spoke the frigate Venganza on the 24th, when it was proposed to let her pass either to Lima or Talcahuana, to receive wood and water; but they refused to let her go into Valparaiso, saying the Royal orders forbid her permitting the blockade to be broken.

The American Corvette carries 22 cannonades of 32 pounds, & 2 long 18 pounders, with a fine crew & officers. The Commander of the English frigate Amphion, has told me that he should put to sea in two or three days, if the Spanish men of war should make their appearance, to make them understand that the blockade cannot be continued, since they had permitted the American Corvette to enter.

The above is from the Governor at Valparaiso to the acting Director at St. Jago.

ANOTHER INDIAN BATTLE.

Milledgeville, April 28. Copy of a letter from Gen. William McIntosh, commanding the Creek Warriors, to David B. Mitchell, Esq. Agent for Indian Affairs, dated at Camp 30 miles from Milledgeville, (on the way to Suwannee,) April 13, 1818. Sir—Since I have left you I have not sent you a talk of what we have done, and I now send you this. I heard yesterday of Peter McQueen being near the road we were travelling, and I took my warriors and went out and fought him. There seemed to be a considerable number collected there. When we first began to fight them, they were in a bad swamp, and fought us there for about an hour, when they ran and we followed them three miles. They fought us in all about three hours. We killed 37 of them, and took 28 women and children, and 6 men prisoners, and about 700 head of cattle and a number of horses, with a good many hogs and some corn. We lost 3 killed and 5 wounded. Our prisoners tell us that there were 120 warriors from six different towns. From what we saw, I believe there were more than they say, as some of our prisoners say there were 200 of them. Tom Woodward, and Mr. Brown, and your Son, our Agent, and all the white men that live in our country, were with us through the whole fight, and fought well. All my officers fought so well, I do not know which is the bravest. They all fought like men and run their enemies. Gen. Jackson waited for us about 6 miles from where we fought. After the fight I went and joined him, and we are going this morning to fight the Negroes together. They are at Suwannee, and we shall be there in four days. There was among the Hostiles a woman that was in the boat when our friends, the white people, were killed on the river below Fort Scott. We gave her to her friends—her husband and father are with Gen. Jackson—Major Kinnard took her himself. This is all I have to tell you. I wish you would send a copy of this to the Big Warrior and Little Prince.

WILLIAM M'INTOSH.

Brigadier General Comm'g. C. W. D. B. Mitchell, Esq. Agent I. A.

We have just received information that the two Chehaw Towns, on Flint River, were attacked by a detachment of Georgia Militia, commanded by Capt. Wright. The Towns were burnt and a number of Indians killed, our informant says about 50. The detachment did not lose a man, and had but one wounded.

FROM THE ALABAMA.

A letter from Fort Claiborne, dated the 9th inst. to the editor of the Reflector, states that "much alarm has prevailed throughout this country, and even at this place the inhabitants have built forts for their security, but the alarm has measurably subsided, and the inhabitants generally have returned home; many, however, have not, and some have sought new homes, and affairs generally extremely deranged. Three companies have been drafted from Tombigny, and will be stationed at the Forts on the road. One company where the 1st murders were committed, Fort Dale, near the place commonly called the Poplar Spring, seventy miles from here; another ten miles nearer (a little off the road.) at the Pine Barrel Fort; and the other at the Pine Orchard Fort. These men will occasionally scour the road and woods, and render passage and residence probably safe. The Tensaw settlement, (old Ft. Mims, 40 miles below,) have also apprehended an attack, and a company has gone to their relief. Governor Bibb is at present at his plantation near Fort Jackson, and has ordered all friendly Indians off the public lands of the territory, or be considered and treated as hostile. A gentleman here, direct from the mouth of the Cahawba, a remote and weak settlement 90 miles above here, states that some parties about there had refused to do so, had committed some depredations and had assumed very hostile appearances. He was sent to confer with Col. Dale, who demands the troops in service—Fort Gayey, near the Poplar Spring, was burnt by the Indians on the 2d inst. This was a temporary defence first thrown up by the inhabitants, & where they deposited the principal part of their common moveables. No lives were lost. This was two miles from Fort Dale. Back of Fort Dale and between Pine Barren creek and the Alabama, are thick and almost impenetrable coverts of cane-brake and cedar, where these nefarious & blood-thirsty savages revel with their plunder and scalps, and are apparently safe from early chastisement, and able to make incursions at pleasure."

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas an arrangement was entered into at the City of Washington, in the month of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, between Richard Rush, Esquire, at that time acting as Secretary for the Department of State, of the United States, for and in behalf of the government of the United States; and the Right Honorable Charles Baggot, his Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, for and in behalf of his Britannic Majesty, which arrangement is in the words following, to wit:

"The naval force to be maintained upon the American lakes, by his Majesty and the Government of the United States, shall henceforth be confined to the following vessels on each side; that is— "On Lake Ontario, to one vessel not exceeding one hundred tons burthen, and armed with one eighteen pound cannon. "On the Upper Lakes, to two vessels not exceeding like burden each, and armed with like force. "On the waters of Lake Champlain, to one vessel not exceeding like burden, and armed with like force. "All other armed vessels on these Lakes shall be forthwith dismantled, and no other vessels of war shall be there built or armed. "If either party should be hereafter desirous of annulling this stipulation, and should give notice to that effect to the other party, it shall cease to be binding after the expiration of six months from the date of such notice. "The naval force so to be limited shall be restricted to such service as will, in no respect, interfere with the proper duties of the armed vessels of the other party."

And whereas the Senate of the United States have approved of the said Arrangement, and recommended that it should be carried into effect; the same having also received the sanction of his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Britannic Majesty:

Now, therefore, I, JAMES MONROE, President of the United States, do, by this my Proclamation, make known and declare that the Arrangements aforesaid, and every stipulation thereof, has been duly entered into, concluded, and confirmed, and is of full force and effect.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this twenty eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States the forty-second.

JAMES MONROE, By the President, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, Secretary of State.

By the President of the United States.

WHEREAS, by an act of Congress, passed on the 17th of February, 1818, entitled "an act making provision for the establishment of additional Land Offices in the Territory of Missouri," the President of the United States is authorized to direct the public lands which have been surveyed in the said Territory, to be offered for sale:

Therefore, I, James Monroe, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known, that public sales for the disposal (agreeably to law) of certain lands in the Territory of Missouri, shall be held as follows, viz: At St. Louis, in the said Territory, on the first Monday in August, October, December, February and April next, and three weeks after each of the said days, for the sale of lands in the land district of St. Louis. Thirty townships shall be offered at each sale, commencing with the most eastern ranges west of the fifth principal meridian line, and proceeding westerly.

At the Seat of Justice for Howard County, in the said Territory, on the first Monday in September and November next, and three weeks after each of the said days, for the sale of lands in the land district of Howard County. Thirty townships shall be offered at each sale: The first to be in a square form, and to include the seat of justice of the said County, as nearly in the centre as the situation of the surveys will admit, and the second immediately east of the first, and in the same form; excepting from sale in each district, the lands which have been or may be reserved by law for other purposes.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, on the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

JAMES MONROE, By the President, JOSEPH MEIGS, Commissioner of the General Land Office.

KIDNAPPING.

ON or about the 29th of December last, a certain THOMAS WIGGINS, a small impudent looking fellow, about 35 or 40 years old, endowed with an extraordinary gift of the gab, departed hence for the upper Counties, with three Horses and a Waggon loaded with Brandy, intended for sale; and took with him as an assistant, JESSE MANDLY a free lad of color, spare made, 17 or 18 years old, curly hair, sharp forehead and fierce looking eyes; his clothes I am unable to describe. Wiggins has but lately returned, without the Boy, and says that he was killed by the tongue of the waggon. There are strong circumstances to induce a belief, that he has sold him for a Slave; indeed, I entertain not the smallest doubt of it.

He who will behold a fellow-citizen deprived of his liberty, without giving aid to rescue him, is unworthy the enjoyment of it himself. It is therefore, that I offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for such information as will enable me to punish the guilty WIGGINS, and relieve the innocent and suffering Mandly.

150 DOLLARS REWARD. RANAWAY from the subscriber about the 19th October last, near Pollock's Ferry on Roanoke River, Halifax county, North-Carolina, a Mulatto Boy, named PATRICK, about 18 years old, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, with one or two of his upper fore teeth out, had on when he went away a roundabout and pantaloons of corded velvet, and a half-worn fashionable fur hat. It is probable he will endeavor to get to Baltimore by passing himself for a free man, under the name of Patrick Cooper, as it is believed he can write. Fifty Dollars reward will be paid to any person who will secure said fellow in any jail in North-Carolina, Virginia or Maryland, and give me notice thereof so that I get him, or ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS will be paid for delivering him to me in Milledgeville, Georgia.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, April 10, 1818. NOTICE is hereby given to the Proprietors of the Old Six Per Cent. Stock, that the last payment on account of the Principal and Interest of the said Stock, will be made due on the first of October next, on the date hereof and that the same will be paid on that day, at the Treasury and at the Loan Offices, having such Stock Standing on their Books, to the Stockholders or to their attorneys, upon the surrender of the original certificates of the said Stock.

It is further made known, for the information of the Proprietors of said old six per cent. Stock residing in foreign parts, that in order to obviate as far as practicable any inconvenience which might result by reason of loss at sea or otherwise, it will be advisable to retain correct copies of their certificates authenticated by a Notary Public duly appointed. WM. H. CRAWFORD, Secretary of the Treasury.

25 DOLLARS REWARD!

WILL be given for the delivery or discovery, so I get them again, of two Bank Notes, one of $100 and the other $50; both of the United States' Bank. I left said Notes on Mr. Jeter's counter, in his Bar Room in Raleigh, wrapped in an old Newspaper, on the morning of the 30th April, 1818. I did not miss them till the evening, after riding 18 miles on the road home, when on returning to look for them, they were gone. Merchants in Raleigh, Fayetteville, & Petersburg are requested to notice if they should have such Notes offered them, from suspicious persons, and give me early information, as I think I shall know them from their numbers. A. MASON. Mason's Hall, Orange County, May 1. 3t

NOTICE.

ABOUT the 21st of March last, on my way to Iredell County, N. C. I overtook, and travelled about 15 miles with, a Man who calls his name REUBEN ROGERS: in this journey, he frequently solicited me to swap Horses—believing, from his personable appearance, that I was swapping with an honest man, it was effected after arriving at Captain Bittin's in Stokes County; whose certificate is at the bottom. Rogers is light complexioned, red whiskers, a little bald headed, and by profession, he says, a WRITING MASTER. On my return home I have been informed he is a notorious HORSE THIEF—as such, believing the Horse swapped for to be stolen property; this is therefore to notify the owner of said Horse, to come forward at Henry Courthouse, Virginia, for information of him, prove property, pay charges, and take him away. The Horse is a chestnut sorrel, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, 10 or 12 years old, blazed face, right hind foot white and a little white on the right fore foot, & sway backed. RICHARD M. BEAVERS. April 28, 1818. 72 3t

State of North-Carolina—Stokes County.

I DO hereby Certify, that on the 21st of March, 1818, Richard M. Beavers and a man who calls his name Rogers, swapped Horses in my presence, and the said Beavers called on me to take notice that they had swapped horses, and that the said Rogers gave him five dollars to exchange—as the said Rogers was a total stranger to him. Given under my hand, this 26th day of April, 1818.

ANTHONY BITTING.

STOP THE VILLAIN. Twenty-five Dollars Reward, if a white man.

STOLEN on the night of the 17th ult. from my plantation, on Hyco, known by the name of Leasbridge, on the main Road from Paine's Tavern to Leasburg, a large SORREL HORSE, about ten years old; when rode trots high, and holds his head high and spirited, carries his tail to one side, has a white streak in his face which inclines to one side, one or more white feet, long tail, unshod. What gives a deeper die to the villainy, he was the only horse of a widow woman, who has sold her property for the purpose of removing to Tennessee in a few days, and relied on him to carry her on.

Two other Horses were stolen on the same night, which gives it the appearance of company business. The above reward will be given for the apprehension of the villain, or a reasonable reward for the Horse.

DUNCAN ROSE

Scotchton, April 11 70 4w N. B. A young Man called at said place late in the evening, as he said, for the purpose of having his horse fed, and was directed on to Leasburg, but said he should not go that way, as he wished to go on toward the Red House some nearer way,—and he has not been heard of since. Two more Horses were stolen near the bridge, in the direction which he went—the man rode a small grey horse or mare, was tolerably well dressed, (coat and waistcoat snuff-colored,) large red whiskers, and freckled face if clean. If unjustly suspected, it is hoped he will immediately produce evidence of the same. It is not as yet ascertained from what place he came. He called at my house and purchased a saddle blanket. D. R.
