W. C. & R. TUCKER. Raleigh May 6. 72 3W.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, April 27th, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the several acts of limitation heretofore passed, and which barred the allowance and settlement of certain evidences of public debt, have been suspended for two years, by an act passed the 15th of April, 1818, of which the following is a copy.

WM. H. CRAWFORD, Secretary of the Treasury.

An act to authorize the payment of certain certificates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That as much of an act, entitled, "An act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt," passed the third day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and so much of the act, entitled, "An act respecting loan office and final settlement certificates, indents of interest, and the unpaid and registered debt, credited on the books of the Treasury," passed the twelfth day of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, as bars from settlement and allowance, certificates commonly called loan office and final settlement certificates, and indents of interest, be, and the same is hereby, suspended for the term of two years, from and after the passing of this act; a notification of which temporary suspension of the act of limitation shall be published by the Secretary of the Treasury, for the information of the holders of the said certificates, in one or more of the public papers in each of the United States.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all certificates commonly called loan office certificates, countersigned by the loan officers of the states respectively, final settlement certificates, and indents of interest, which, at the time of passing this act, shall be outstanding, may be presented at the Treasury, and, upon the same being liquidated and adjusted, shall be paid to the respective holders of the same, with interest, at six per cent. from the date of the last payment of interest, as endorsed on said certificates.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That, for carrying this act into effect, the sum of eight thousand dollars be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN GALLARD, President of the Senate pro-tempore. JAMES MONROE. April 13, 1818—Approved. 75 101.

To the Flour and Rice Millers of the United States.

GENTLEMEN,

It appears that many have refused to pay for licence to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in Rice Mills—waiting the decision of the United States Courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my licence; and there exists no reason why some should pay and others be exempt.

There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law that each infringer is liable to pay treble his actual damages which cannot be rated less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greater part of a long, arduous, active and indefatigable life, in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation, several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users; and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I intended to apply to put others in operation, which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant to my great mortification, and the public injury.

I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor. The great expenses that I have incurred in advertising, repeatedly over the United States, and of my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, & to instruct millwrights to make, and the millers to use them, an in prosecuting my claims the law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration. And by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my licence for the remainder of the term, should be the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only with lawful interest until paid. But to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22d, 1816, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum become due and running on interest also; and so on the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter, a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due and runs on interest until licence be purchased; demanding the interest only, on all these new sums, leaving the principals in the hands of the users, which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses that they have compelled me to incur.

The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licences; and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licence may apply to John Love, Esq. Buckland Prince William county; to Captain John Mordy, Richmond Va. or to Moses John deca, Esq. Raleigh, N. C.

That one moiety, or half of the principal of said Stock, will be redeemed on the 21st of October next ensuing the date hereof, & that the same will be paid to the respective proprietors, or to their attorneys duly authorized, on the day before mentioned, at the Treasury in Washington, or at such Loan Office, or the books whereof any portion of said Stock may then stand.

INFORMATION IS FURTHER GIVEN, That the interest due at the time of redemption, on such part of said Stock as is held in Europe, will be paid as heretofore in London and Amsterdam; and that the interest on such part of said Stock as has been domesticated will be paid at the same time with the principal, either at the Treasury or at the Loan Offices as before mentioned. WM. H. CRAWFORD, Secretary of the Treasury.

TOWN OF MACON, ON TOWNE RIVER.

ON Wednesday the 26th of May, will commence the Sale of Lots in the Town of Macon Situated in Warren, one of the richest Tobacco Counties in the State of North-Carolina within a short distance of the main stage road leading to Petersburg; this Town cannot fail to command a large portion of the produce of an extensive and wealthy section of country, which has heretofore been compelled to resort to the distant markets of Petersburg and Richmond. The situation is high and healthy, protected from the inundation of the river, of which it commands an extensive and romantic view, and rendered more desirable by several never failing springs of excellent water.

In the northern margin of the Town, nature has formed a cove, where Boats may, at all seasons lie in perfect security. A Warehouse for the reception of Tobacco, will be commenced in a few days and a public inspection established without delay—Tobacco, Wheat and Cotton constituting the staple commodities of this and the adjoining Counties; to commercial men this place will afford advantages which are seldom found united—Terms of Sale, 9 and 12 months—bonds and security will be required.

JAMES KIMBELL, JACOB MORFECAL, PETER R. DAVIS, STEPHEN DAVIS.

Warren County, April 29th. 71 3w

RALEIGH:

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1818.

The cold weather still continues. On Tuesday morning we had a considerable white frost. We learn that 44 years ago a blighting frost happened on the 4th of May. This happened on the 5th. If we have not an immediate change of weather, there will be a great deficiency in the ensuing crops. The fruit is mostly destroyed. It will doubtless have been remarked, that our unlettered Astronomer, Beasley, is, as usual, very correct in his prediction of this extraordinary season.

Neuse River.—We learn that the President and Directors of the Neuse River Navigation Company have entered into a Contract with Mr. John D. Delacy, to open and render the River at all times Navigable from Judge Stone's Mill to Newbern, for Boats of seven tons burthen, within six months, and for Boats of fourteen tons burthen, within three years.—Another Contract, it is expected, will be made to bring Navigation much nearer to the city.

John Cameron, Esq. is appointed President of the Fayetteville Branch of the U. States Bank, in place of the late Wm. B. Grove.

We are concerned to state, that on Monday last, in the afternoon, the large and elegant Mansion-House of Blake Baker, Esq. of Warren county, was entirely consumed by fire. The Kitchen was also destroyed. Most of the furniture, &c. was saved. It is supposed the fire was communicated from a crack in the chimney near the roof. There was a strong westerly wind.

Execution.—Abram Hendricks was executed at Salisbury on the 1st instant, having been convicted before Judge Daniel, at the late Superior Court, on a charge of Negro & Horse-stealing. He is said to have been an old offender. He petitioned the Executive in vain.

Benjamin Gray and a Mulatto called Braveboy were condemned by Judge Hall, at the late Superior Court at Fayetteville; the former on a charge of Burglary, the latter of murder, having killed a man of his own colour. Both cases are before the Executive; but have not yet been acted upon.

Leaksville.—The 50 Lots lately advertised for sale in the Register in the new Town of Leaksville, on Dan River, were disposed of on the 22d ult. to Gentlemen of the first respectability of this State, and of the State of Virginia, for $24,716.

Mr. Salmon Hall, of Newbern, the Editor of the Carolina Federal Republican, gives notice in his paper of the 25th ult. that its publication will cease after that date.

A new paper has been lately established at Newbern, by Mr. John I. Pasteur, entitled the Carolina Centinel.

Our readers are cautioned to be on their guard in receiving $5 notes of the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, some of which are so ingeniously altered from One Dollar Notes, that without a careful examination of them the best judges may be deceived.

The late George Rose, Treasurer of the British Navy, ordered in his will, that a sermon should be preached at his interment—it was complied with; after which, the Minister gave a written paper to the Clerk, who read from it, that 10 shillings sterling would be given to every person present who would accept of it. It is needless to say, that many regretted they had not paid obituary respect to the deceased.

We observe advertisements in late English papers, headed Liberty of the Press and Trial by Jury, purporting that subscriptions have been opened for the benefit of Mr. HOKE (prosecuted for Parodies upon the Athanasian Creed &c.) The signatures affixed to the sums subscribed are in many instances very curious—"An Enemy to Persecution," "Truth no Lie," "To stir a stomachic orgasm in Lord Castlereagh," "From the petitioning Ragamuffins of St. Peter's Plain," "Detestation of ex officio Informations, &c." "Brutus," "A warm Friend to vital Religion, but an indignant Enemy to side-mouthed Hypocrisy," "Sufferers by the arbitrary conduct of Ministers," &c.

At public meetings held to consider upon Addresses of Condolence to the "Queen" and "Prince Cologne," on the untimely and lamented death of the Princess Charlotte,—opposition was made to addressing the former.—At Somerset, in particular, Col. Tynte, a man of high standing and undoubted loyalty, stood forward. He observed, that the Queen had failed in those attentions, which, as a mother, were due from her to the late Princess in her peculiar situation. At a moment when it might be expected she would have devoted herself with assiduous and affectionate care to the Princess.—on a plea of ill health, she travelled to Bath in one day. The general sentiment at the Queen's conduct, he said, was well known, and the public feeling could not be mistaken. Severe strictures appear in other papers, and it is recommended to the Queen to peruse the 31st Chapter of Job, from the 15th to the 28th verses. Even in the House of Commons, there was "a squinting" towards the same subject.

The British Chancellor of the Exchequer has moved in Parliament that a million of pounds sterling be appropriated to the building of additional Episcopal Churches.

It is stated in a London paper, that the villain who attempted to assassinate the Duke of Wellington in Paris, is named Cantillon, of the French army.

The King of France has refused to sanction the law recently passed by Legislative Body, after many days discussion, for increasing the army.—This use of the veto had caused a considerable sensation.

A new Bank has been established in the city of New-York, called the Franklin Bank, of which Robert Bogardus is President, and Henry Post, Jr. Cashier.

Two men supposed to be the persons who lately robbed the Pittsburg Bank, have been carried to Philadelphia in irons, and committed to prison to meet their trial.

The Legislatue of Louisiana, at its late session, incorporated a Bank, to be known by the name of "The State Bank of Louisiana," with a capital of two millions of dollars.

Something remarkable.—Out of the five Presidents of the United States, who have served since the organization of the general government, only one has had male issue. This one is John Adams, of whom John Q. Adams, the present Secretary of State, is the only son.

The Fisheries.—A ship has arrived at Nantucket with 1400 casks sea-elephant oil. This vessel performed her voyage to the South-seas and back, in seven months and 23 days.

At the late session of the Legislature of New-York, a bill passed the Senate, with a very few dissenting voices, for abolishing Imprisonment for Debt.—We are sorry to say that this humane experiment failed in the other branch of the Legislature, by a neglect or refusal to act on it. Its success in one branch, however, augurs its final passage. It certainly is contrary to reason, that a debt can be satisfied, all the property of the debtor being surrendered, by the incarceration of the debtor, at the pleasure of the creditor. Whilst the debtor is thus perhaps forever disabled from paying any part of his debts, by his confinement, so much as his labor is worth is taken from the general stock of industry, and so much added to the sum of national expenditure as is necessary to his maintenance. On mere calculation, then, the measure may be sustained. But there is a higher motive for it: The chains which are forged for the guilty, ought never to manacle the hands of the unfortunate, whose benevolence itself may have induced the distress by which they already suffer enough.—N. Int.

Appointments.—The following appointments have been made by the President and Senate:

- Albion K. Parris, Judge of the United States for the District of Maine. Henry Y. Webb, of North-Carolina, Judge of the Alabama Territory. John H. Morel, Marshal for the District of Georgia. Augustus Chouteau, Commissioner to treat with the Illinois, Kickapoos, Pottawatamies, and other tribes of Indians, within the Illinois Territory. Duncan Campbell, Collector of Direct Tax and Internal Duties of the 10th District of North-Carolina. William Bayard Shields, Judge for the District of the State of Mississippi. Bela Metcalfe, Attorney for the District of the State of Mississippi. Henry G. Johnson, Marshal for the District of the State of Mississippi. Lemuel Mead, Henry Chambers, George Philips, George Gayle, and Matthew D. Wilson, Members of the Legislative Council of Alabama Territory.

William Clarke & Augustus Chouteau, Commissioners for holding a treaty with the Quapaw tribe of Indians.

Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass and Benj. Park, Commissioners for holding a treaty with the Indians in the State of Indiana.

Isaac Shelby and Andrew Jackson, Commissioners for holding a treaty with the Chickasaw nation of Indians.

John M'Kee, William Carroll and Daniel Burnett, Commissioners to treat with the Choctaws.

John Brown, of Tennessee, Agent for taking the Census of the Cherokee Indians on the west side of the Mississippi river.

William Young, of Tennessee, agent for taking the Census of the Cherokee Indians on the west side of the Mississippi river.

Jonathan H. Walker, of Pennsylvania, Judge of the United States for the western district of Pennsylvania.

Andrew Stewart, of Pennsylvania, Attorney of the United States for the western district of Pennsylvania.

William B. Irish, Marshal for the western district of Pennsylvania.

Henry Hitchcock, Secretary for the Territory of Alabama.

Alexander M'Rae, of Virginia, Consul of the U. States for Amsterdam.

John B. Roberts, of Virginia, Collector of the district of East River, and Inspector of the Revenue therein, in the State of Virginia.

George M. Dallas, Thomas Cooper, and Samuel Jackson, have been appointed by the President to be Commissioners of Bankruptcy in Pennsylvania.

In answer to some enquiries, and to prevent mistakes, it may be proper to remark, that the late appointment of Colonel George Gibson, as Commissary, does not interfere with the office of Callender Irvine, Esq. who is Commissary General of army purchases, stationed at Philadelphia. The clothing, camp equipage, &c. for the army, are supplied through Mr. Irvine, and Colonel Gibson is Commissary for army subsistence, to supercede the present mode of supplying rations to the troops by Contractors.

By the brig Homer, Capt. Thomas, arrived at Baltimore from Port au Prince, intelligence has been received of the death of Alexander Petion, President of Hayti, on Sunday, the 29th March, after an illness of eight days. On the following Tuesday, his body was interred with much pomp and splendor under the Liberty Tree, opposite the Capitol, his bowels in the National Fort, and his heart bequeathed to his daughter.

Twenty-four hours after, Gen. John P. Boyer was unanimously elected President of the republic of Hayti, by the Senate; and every thing remained tranquil on the 14th April.

General Boyer is the youngest general officer in Hayti.

The Editor of the Nashville Clarion supposes that the Governor will immediately convene the Tennessee Legislature, to make regulations to carry into effect the law lately passed by Congress, authorising the state of Tennessee to perfect titles to the vacant and unappropriated lands lying in what is commonly called the congressional reservation, including all the lands north of Tennessee river; with a further provision that, as soon as the Indian title south and west of said river can be extinguished, it shall also be appropriated in the same manner until all the claims of North-Carolina and Tennessee shall be fully satisfied.

The books for the sale of Stock in the Farmers and Mechanics Bank in Nashville were opened on the 13th ult. and before night nearly 5,000 shares were sold. The next day they would be all sold.

Mr. Pinkney, our late minister to Russia, arrived at Berlin on the 19th March, on his return to this country.

Private accounts from the Congress Freigate, which bore our three Commissioners, Rodney, Graham, & Bland, to the South, and which was, at the last dates, at Rio Janeiro, represent the conduct of the Portuguese authorities to our commissioners, not to have been marked by any very friendly feeling or hospitable deportment. On the contrary, it is suggested that they were received with a sort of indifference amounting nearly to rudeness. Some difficulty arose, too, between the officers of the Congress and the government, respecting a seaman of the frigate, required to be delivered up as a Portuguese citizen; in which Captain Sinclair is said to have exhibited the spirit which belongs to our naval character. Of these occurrences we have heard only from general report, and know nothing of the particulars; nor, perhaps, if we did, would they be sufficiently important to narrate. If they are, we shall no doubt have them in time.—Nat. Int.

Citizens, look out!—An attempt was made this morning to fire the city; but it was discovered before it had done any injury. There is not a doubt but that we have among us a gang of incendiaries. The Mayor of the town has now in his possession, the combustible matter (coals of fire wrapped up in cotton, and matches attached thereto) which was thrown into the stable of Mr. Thomas Clark, at the west end of the city, early this morning. Savannah Re-pub, 28th.

Incendiaries.—An attempt was made in the night of the 2d inst. to set fire to the Store of Messrs. Heslop & Brander, in Petersburg.—Luckily the combustible materials with which it was intended to effect this diabolical purpose, lodged on the cellar wall, after they had been forced thro' the grating. Had the flames gained an ascendancy, it would be impossible to calculate what damage might have been sustained, as a high westerly wind prevailed the whole night. Citizens should be on their guard.

Norfolk, April 28.

The Steam Boat Sea Horse, formerly employed between New-York and Elizabeth-Town, N. J. has been purchased by a merchant of this town; and is intended, we understand, to ply as a tow-boat between the Lower Falls of Roanoke and Elizabeth City, N. C. She left New-York on Sunday the 12th inst. for Elizabeth City, where she probably arrived on Saturday last.

MARRIED,

In Bertie County at the seat of Doct. Pugh, on the 25d ult. Mr. John Smallwood, to Miss. Mary Pugh.

DIED,

At his residence, in the upper end of Halifax county, Jos. John Williams, Esq. in his 85th year. This venerable man was forty years a member of the Methodist Church; and all who knew him will attest the piety and zealous sincerity with which he supported the Christian character. His benevolence, philanthropy, and hospitality, will long be remembered by his numerous acquaintance, and his Children and relatives have sustained a loss which cannot be supplied. The death of this gentleman is another instance of longevity in the above neighborhood.—Within a short time, Mrs. Scott died aged 84—Samuel Harper 90, and there is now living, a man named Moody a 100 years old—John Mabry, who lived in that neighborhood died at 102 years old, and Thomas Moody, still living, is nearly 100!

In Washington County, in this State, on the 18th ult. suddenly, Mr. Samuel Wiggins.

In Bertie County, on the 24th ult. very suddenly, Solomon Cherry, Esq. Clerk of the County Court of that County.

At Edenton, on the 25th ult. after a long and lingering attack of the dropsy, Captain John Bateman.

On the 28th ult. Mrs. Agnes Latham, relict of James Latham, Esq. late of Tramer's Creek, Beaufort County.

At Baltimore, a few days ago, the gallant Col. George Armstrong, who distinguished himself at the time of the attack on Fort M'Henry.
