NEW MODE OF DUELLING.

One Sam Stylish, writing in the American Watchman, on duelling, mentions a late instance of two midshipmen having the "satisfaction" to kill each other, and that they were buried with military honors.

"It is said of the much abused General Wilkinson, that he inflexibly resisted all applications for the burial of his own favorite nephew with military honors—he having been killed in a duel, and this refusal was given with tears in his eyes, so much stronger within him was duty than feeling."

"This writer not expecting to root out the practice of duelling, while living duellists are caressed, and dead ones buried with military honors," gives some hints of a plan he proposes to bring forward for its improvement.

"Among the JAPANESE, (he says) if a man is mortally offended, he rips out his bowels; and if the aggressor declines following the same example, he is as much disgraced as one of our people who refuses to kill another! This kind of duel has decidedly the advantage in one respect; satisfaction being the subject, each party is sure of it by executing the business himself, instead of risking the blunders of another."

"But I would not go this length, except in very aggravated cases. If a man should insolently reproach me with poverty, I would throw a ten dollar bill into the fire (provided I had one) and if he should not do the same, I think myself and all bystanders would be satisfied of my innocence and his guilt. If he should angrily reproach me for not performing a promise, at a given hour, I would throw my watch against the wall (provided as before) and exclaim "hoare are slaves," and let him do the same if he dares—or rather let him neglect it, if he dare encounter the disgrace."

"I should say I was a hard drinker. I would forwith swallow a half pint of raw brandy and pepper, and break the tumbler over my shin, to show that I did not care a fig for him; and let him demand a challenge at his peril. As a case of extremity, if he should give me cause, I would bite my tongue thro' and thro', provided I had sufficient confidence in his honor that he would afford me the very comfortable satisfaction of biting his own in the same manner."

NOTICE.

THE subscriber being anxious to close his concerns, and to enable him to go to the southward, wishes to dispose of his PROPERTY lying and being in the city of Raleigh, and in the county of Wake.

The Lot containing one acre on which he resides, certainly one of the most eligible in the City, it being a street's width only from the State House square and Mr. Ruffin's Hotel; the improvements are such as to suit the accommodation of a genteel family, or any person disposed to do business of any kind, it being an excellent stand, and in the immediate neighborhood of the most wealthy and polite part of the city.

Likewise a tract of Land, about 4 miles from the City, containing 333 acres, by no means inferior to any one in the neighborhood; having on it a SAW MILL newly erected on a never failing stream, with a rock dam made as permanent as any other perhaps in the world, and the adjoining country, affording as much timber of the best quality, as will be sufficient for one hundred years consumption. The great demand for timber of all kinds in the City, and the adjoining country, renders this Mill a source of much profit; also, a large MERCHANT MILL, partly finished, which, when completed will be of more value than any other within fifty miles, being in the heart of a rich neighborhood, and no manufacturing mill near it.

In the city I have a Lot, in a convenient part of it, of 3 acres of ground, with small improvements, yet sufficient for a family residence; and near the market-house, a lot which I purpose to divide to accommodate those who wish to obtain eligible sites for stores, shops, &c. &c. being in a most convenient and suitable situation; this last mentioned lot near the market house, I will sell at auction, on the 15th inst.—Terms at sale; and for the other property a reasonable credit, to wit: one third part on the 9th of October next, and the balance in one and two years upon good and sufficient security. Possession will be given by the 9th of October next, or sooner if required.—JESU SCOTT takes this opportunity of informing all those who have claims against him to exhibit them for settlement, and those who stand indebted to him are earnestly desired to make payment without delay, as the situation of his business absolutely forbids longer indulgence. J. SCOTT.

Raleigh, Feb. 4, 1819. P. S. As I am determined to sell the above described property, a great bargain may be had by an early application.—I avail myself of this opportunity of returning my sincere thanks to a generous public for past favors, and inform them that I have a large and handsome assortment of Jewels, Ladies and Gentlemen's Gold Patent Letters, Silver do and a great variety of other Watches, and good eight day Clocks, with Mahogany cases, warranted to keep time;—also, a quantity of silver plate, military articles, canes, &c. &c. at reduced prices, for cash only. Every kind of work in my line, will be done as former until I remove. J.

IN THE PRESS.

And will be published about the 10th of next month, at the office of the NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

A REPORT OF THE DEBATE

In the House of Representatives of the United States on the subject of

THE SEMINOLEAN WAR.

FOR the use of Members of Congress and others, we shall publish before the termination of the Session, that is to say on the 2d day of next month, a volume containing so much of that Debate, being of course the early part of it, as we shall be able, up to that day, to throw from the press, in pamphlet form. The price for this part of the work will be at the rate of one-third of a cent per page.

As no Debate of the same length, which has taken place in Congress, has excited more public attention, and few have been characterized by greater displays of eloquence and learning, it is presumed, on taking on ourselves the responsibility of embodying it in a permanent form, that we perform a service acceptable to the community, and by which we shall not incur a loss.
