NOTICE.
THE Public is cautioned against a couple of journeymen Hatters who are tramping through the country imposing upon the unwary and passing for Gentlemen, when at the same time they are two of the most accomplished scoundrels.
MAJOR JACKSON is a small man, with very round shoulders, tries to express himself in very pompous language and would pass himself upon the most suspicious for an honest man. But beware of him! He had on when he absconded a blue broad-cloth coat and pantaloons, generally carries a walking cane, and wears a Watch, not his own, but one that he bargained for a few days before he went off.
The other, ALEX. NEER CROWDER, is a tall young man with stoop shoulders, a yellow complexion, black hair and eyes, and very ugly, generally walks with a staff.
It is thought that the last named is the most of a gentleman, but has been led away by keeping company with Jackson. They left this place on the night of the 16th instant; it is not known where they will go, but suspicion traces them towards Danville, Virg.
This is a caution on those who have been deceived by them; to an unsuspecting public to be upon their guard.

VALUABLE REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY FOR SALE.
THE Subscriber intending to leave this county, offers for sale that valuable Plantation well known by the name of PINEHURST HALL, Bladen county, formerly owned by Eric Lallerstedt, Esq. situated on the west side of the north west branch of Cape Fear river, nineteen miles below Fayetteville and the same distance above Elizabeth town, containing in all about two thousand Acres. This tract in goodness of soil, salubrity, elegance of situation and buildings is inferior to few in the State; it consists of two dwelling Houses, two Kitchens, two Barns, Stable, Carriage House, Blacksmith Shop and a Saw Mill at a short distance from the river, the creek affording two mill seats besides, being about three miles from Big Swamp, which water may be brought by a ditch to supply any machinery that may be established.
Also, about 28 NEGROES of different sexes and ages, which may be sold with the Plantation, they being acquainted with the soil and its culture. The purchaser may be accommodated with Cattle, Hogs, Horses and all the Utensils used on the said Plantation, with Corn, Potatoes, Hay, &c. with Household and Kitchen Furniture, &c.
For terms, which will be made accommodating to the purchaser, apply at the place aforesaid.

RALEIGH:
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1819.

Raleigh Academy.—The semi-annual Examination of the Students of this Institution commenced on Friday last, and will close to-day. As an Abstract of the Report of the Trustees will appear in our next paper, it is unnecessary to speak of the particular merits of any of the Classes. We may, indeed, say generally, that the Examination has been a very satisfactory one. The Trustees Report will be read this morning at the State-House, when five young Ladies, viz: Misses Sarah J. Bradley from Salem District, South-Carolina; Margaret M. Crichton from Brunswick County, Virginia; Sarah T. Davidson, from Mecklenburg, in this State; and Mary A. Bond and Maria W. Coman of this City, who having passed through the full course of Studies prescribed by this Institution, will receive honorary Certificates and Gold Medals, and deliver their Valedictory Addresses. After which, Chief-Justice Taylor will address the Students in behalf of the Trustees of the Academy.

Halifax Superior Court.—We are glad to hear that Judge Donnell had sufficiently recovered from his late sickness, so attend to the business of this Court. We learn that a young man, of 18 years of age, named Henry Sexton, was found guilty of shooting a man while sitting by his own fire; and a Negro for committing a Rape on a white girl. Both are ordered to be executed on Friday the 19th inst.

Counterfeit Bank Notes.—Two of the denomination of $20 purporting to be of the State Bank of this State, have lately been received by the Cashier of the State of Illinois. But they are so clumsily executed that scarcely any one who has ever seen one of the genuine Notes of this Bank, could be imposed upon by these Counterfeits. It is proper, however, to put those citizens on their guard who are not conversant with money of this description.

Melancholy and fatal accident.
On Wednesday evening the 26th ult. about 9 o'clock, the Driver of the Mail Stage between Louisville and Warrenton, arrived at the latter place without the Stage or Horses. He stated that immediately after he had crossed the Bridge on Fishing Creek, he was commanded to stop, by a person who rose up from the abutment of the Bridge; he was struck off the Box and the Horses ran away—when he recovered from the stunning effect of his fall, he hastened on to Warrenton, and saw neither the Stage, Horses or Passenger. Assistance was immediately sent out, when the Stage was discovered overturned and the Horses standing still. On further search, the unfortunate Gentleman was found in a ditch 70 yards from the Stage, without his Coat, Waistcoat, Boots or Stockings, with a violent contusion on his head, occasioned, it is presumed, by his jumping from the Stage, when the Horses were running. The mysterious part of this sad accident is, the Cloths been off, in the coat pocket of which was found a Pocket-Book, containing nine hundred dollars. The unfortunate man never spoke again, or appeared sensible of his situation—medical aid was in vain exerted, and he died without any elucidation of this extraordinary event. As he must have received his death-blow when he fell, how came his cloths off?—if this was effected & he was murdered by a Highwayman, why did not the assailant reap the fruits of his villainy? The deceased, as appeared by papers in his Pocket-Book, was a Paymaster in the United States Army, has a family at Norfolk, and was designated 'Major Leroy Opie.'

It would be well, if this, amongst many other dreadful accidents of the kind, would determine Stage Proprietors to employ only able bodied, steady and determined Drivers, as a Youth cannot be supposed capable of that bodily strength or mental discretion in such cases of emergency as call for the exertion of these qualities—above all, the Drivers ought to be sober men. Another idea of importance suggests itself, that neither Passengers nor Drivers, ought, as they value their lives, to leap from a flying carriage.—They always reach the ground far from the spot aimed at, never fall upon their feet, and are thrown with a force, little less than if projected from a Cannon.

An extraordinary fact.—This country imports annually, from England; Cotton Goods to the amount of $35,590,582, over and above the value of the raw Cotton which she gets from us; and that the manufacture of those goods employ 189,777 persons!!—If a like view were taken of the Woollen, Hardware, Earthenware and Glass, we should, so far from being surprised at the scarcity of money amongst us, wonder that there was any left!!

The Western Counties.—Judge Murphy, who may, with truth, be termed the Father of Internal Improvements in this State, has favored the Editor of the Register, with an interesting "Memoir on the Internal Improvements contemplated by the Legislature, and on the Resources and Finances of the State" which he hopes to publish by the middle of the present month. In speaking of the western Counties in this Memoir, the Judge says,
"Within this section of the State, there are more than five millions of acres; its territory equals in extent that of the Judicial districts of Edenton and Newbern; and some of the finest lands in N. Carolina are found here.—The whole is a rich mountainous country.—The writer of this Memoir, although he had sought many opportunities of obtaining information, had but a very imperfect idea of its extent or value, until he visited it in the fall of 1819. It is a portion of the State little known to the people of the Middle, Southern & Eastern Counties; but its extensive territory and growing population, added to the circumstance that there are at least a million of acres belonging to the State within the Cherokee Nation of Indians tender this country an object of peculiar consideration with the Legislature."
"Upon this subject, it may be proper to remark, that no time should be lost in settling the South-Western Boundary between this State and Tennessee. By the session Act of 1789, this Boundary is not defined beyond the Great Unica Mountain. From that Mountain to the line of Georgia, the act of 1789, declares, the line shall run on the summit of the principal ridge of Mountains. But there are several ridges; and from the late Survey made by the States of Tennessee & Georgia for the purpose of settling the lines between those States, it appears that Tennessee has selected a ridge of Mountains that has heretofore been considered by us as lying within our Territory, and including a large portion of the most valuable lands within the Cherokee Country in North-Carolina.—As the Cherokee Title is on the point of being extinguished, it becomes a matter of interesting concern to us to have the conflicting claims of Tennessee and this State speedily settled.—When this shall be done, the Boundaries of North-Carolina will be determined."

State of Ohio.—In our first page appears an extract from a late Address of General Harrison to his Constituents, which we think contains a correct opinion on the subject of the present embarrassed state of the circulating medium of the country, and on the best remedy for correcting the evil. His sentiments will, no doubt, meet with the attention from the public which they would seem to deserve.

Dramshops!—The Grand Jury of Pittsburg present the dramshops of that city as a nuisance, tending in an extensive degree, to the destruction of morality, the promotion of vice, and as the direct, or remote cause of nine-tenths of the Indictments, that are filed in Court!

By a late arrival from Gibraltar, it is stated that a Spanish frigate had imported the yellow fever into Cadiz, from the Havana, which was rapidly spreading over Spain, and made its appearance within three miles of the gates of Gibraltar. The plague was also raging on the coast of Barbary.

The Board appointed for the examination of the Midshipmen who were candidates for promotion, adjourned on Saturday the 23d ult. The whole number of candidates proposed, comprising the first class, was twenty-five, twelve of whom were rejected. The following are the names of those who passed examination:
Midshipmen—Newcomb, Nixon, Newton, Bowden, Bell, Biglow, Cambreling, Ellery, Fretton, Jarvis, Stallings, Vanatum, Waipple, Wolbert, Young and Williams.

The Gibraltar correspondent of the Norfolk Herald writes, under date of September 5, that the King of Spain had appointed the Duke San Fernando, Minister Extraordinary to the U. S. States. The same letter observes, "with the plague on one side of us, and the yellow fever on the other, the gates of the garrison are shut against all communication."

We understand that His Danish Majesty has been pleased to consent that an American Consul shall be accredited at the Island of St. Thomas. We further learn, that Nathan Levy, Esq. of Baltimore, will soon take his departure to resume the functions of that Consulate.—Nat. Int.

Rapid sailing.—A balloon ascended from New-York on the 21st inst. (prepared by Mr. Guille, who was to have gone up with it, but was prevented by want of time to inflate it sufficiently), which fell in the town of Bozrah two hours and a half after its ascension. Bozrah is about 115 miles in a straight line from New-York; so that the balloon went at the rate of 45 miles an hour.

Vaccination.—Some attempts have been made lately to weaken the public confidence in the efficacy of Vaccination, as a preventive of the Small Pox. We find in the northern papers a fact stated, which, if true, will be taken as conclusive by those who yet entertain doubts on this important question. Every body knows how prevalent and how fatal Small Pox was in all European cities previously to the use of Vaccination. It is now asserted, that for the last eight years not a single case of small pox has occurred in the dominions of the King of Denmark, owing to the whole of the inhabitants having been vaccinated, by order of the King.

Sixteenth Congress.—Members elected from Massachusetts, are Benj. Adams, Sam'l C. Allen, Joshua Cushman, vice Rice, Edward Dowse, vice Ruggles, Walter Folger, jun. Timothy Fuller, Mark L. Hill, vice Orr, John Holmes, Jonas Kendall, vice Strong, Martin Kinsley, Mills, Broch Lincoln, Jonathan Mason, Marcus Morton, Jeremiah Nelson, James Parker, vice Gage, Zabdiel Sampson, Henry Shaw, Nathaniel Silsbee, Ezekiel Whitman.
Of these, Messrs. Adams, Allen, Kendall, Lathrop, Nelson, and Whitman, (six) are federal; and Mr. Mason neutral; the other 13 are republican.

Messrs. Holmes, Whitman, Hill, Kinsley, Parker, Cushman, and Lincoln, (seven, six of whom are republican) are from the District of Maine. Fifteen were elected at the first vote in November last; 3. (Messrs. Lathrop, Parker, and Shaw,) at the second, in April; and two, (Messrs. Hill and Kinsley) at the third, in July.
Of the forty one members from the five New England States, but six are federal. A few years since, thirty-eight of them were federal.
Of the 186 members from the twenty-two states, about twenty-five are federal, and five or six neutral. Of the whole number, 100 were members of the last Congress, and 86 are new members; of the latter including several members of Congresses preceding the last.

A constitution has been reported to the Convention of Maine by their committee. The Boston Centinel observes that the draft reported is modelled on the salutary provisions of the Constitutions of the United States and Massachusetts, and that where it deviates from them, the bias is democratic.—In one particular, this bias is carried too far—we mean in that (extra) which requires in candidates, for public offices, as well as in those who elect them, no other property qualification than that they shall not be paupers. The men selected by the people of Maine to frame a Constitution, are doubtless enlightened and virtuous, and, from our knowledge of some of them, we have every reason to expect a sound republican charter from their hands; and if a provision such as the one stated above, has been reported, we hope it will undergo some modification; for, in its present unbounded extent, it would be stretching the democratic principle beyond a just and salutary point. The State is to be called the State of Maine. —Nat. Int.

The question has been taken in several states recently, by the true democratic test of universal popular suffrage, on the subject of authorising Conventions of the People to amend or revise their respective Constitutions; and the question has been uniformly decided in the negative. In general, there already appears among the people an attachment to their Institutions as they stand, and an objection to laying hands upon them, even to improve them. —Nat. Int.

The Venezuelan privateer schooner Almeida, of 9 guns, George Wilson, commander, arrived at Norfolk last Sunday, from a cruise. On the 1st inst. off Cape Antonio, had a severe engagement with a Spanish Ship (a king's packet) of 18 guns, and, as was afterwards understood, of 138 men, including some troops which she was carrying from Vera Cruz to Havana, and, after an action of two hours, the Almeida was obliged to haul off, having her rigging very much cut up, one man killed, and Capt. Wilson badly wounded.

For the information of those who have forwarded to the General Land Office claims for Military Bounty Lands, we are authorised to state, that the lands appropriated for that purpose in Illinois & Missouri (north) having been distributed several months ago, no more Patents can be issued until the Lottery for Military Lands in Arkansas shall be prepared; and that, probably, that Lottery will not be drawn until after the next Session of Congress.—Nat. Int.

Salmagundi.—We have read the first number of this admirable work. We do not find in it that broad grin downright humor, with which Salmagundi, more than any other book, abounds; but the same spirit, style, and manner is manifest, tempered with more sobriety and dignity. We must say, (although a grave critic, and classical critic will laugh at us for it,) that we have always read Salmagundi with more delight than the Spectator. The wit of Addison is very refined and delicate, we grant—so much so we scarcely feel it—that of Salmagundi is prominent, bold and palpable. The Spectator resembles mellow, old Madeira; but Salmagundi is like Champagne; it opens upon us with explosion, and laughs audibly, and dances visibly while it is poured out. We smile at Addison's wit, but we never laugh; but Salmagundi shakes our risibility to the foundation. Give us deep Tragedy or broad Farce—let us cry heartily or laugh heartily—a tame medium is nauseous.—Georgian.
