SONNET.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

Imitated from the Italian of Creseembini.

From Montgomery's Greenland.

I ask'd the Heavens;— "What foe to God hath done This unexampled deed?— The Heavens exclaim, "Twas man; and we in horror snatch'd the sun From such a spectacle of guilt and shame."

TO OWNERS OF LAND WARRANTS.

HAVING formed a partnership with Mr. James Vaulx, for the purpose of locating Land Warrants, in the late acquired territory from the Chickasaw Indians, in this State, we have spared no pains to make ourselves well acquainted with the situation of the good vacant land in this section of country. To enable us to locate these lands, without interfering with the old surveys, we have procured a complete transcript of all the old surveys and entries, from which we have formed a connected plat of nearly all of them; and from searches and surveys we have already made, we have succeeded in finding a number of the original corners and marks, whereby we are enabled to identify the greater portion of these lands. Mr. Vaulx & Co. with one other Surveyor & Co. have been constantly employed for several months past, in ascertaining the situation of the old surveys, and surveying out the good vacant lands, so as to enable us to locate with certainty when an office opens; we shall continue our united exertions until our information shall be full and complete.

We now offer our services to all Warrant-holders, who may wish their warrants located. We will locate all warrants which may be placed in our hands, survey the lands so located, and obtain the grants in the name of the owners, all at our own expense; and charge for such, reasonable portions of the lands so located, as is customary in such cases; we will cause all warrants, placed in our hands for location, to be adjudicated, as may be required by law; and do whatever else may be requisite to perfect titles on such warrants. All communications addressed to me at Nashville, shall be promptly attended to, and any information I can give to those living at a distance, relative to their warrants, or lands, will be given on application. LAND IN HALIFAX COUNTY.

THE subscriber living in the upper end of Halifax county on Fishing Creek, and in the neighborhood of Gideon Alston, wishes to sell the Lands on which he resides, containing about 1000 Acres.

Also one-half of 333 Acres adjoining the above lands, on which there is a newly erected Saw and Grist Mill. The above lands would be divided so as not to injure the sale thereof.—The quality ranks with the land in the neighborhood, and I think I would be justified in saying it is as healthy as any in the State. However, those wishing to purchase will please call and view for themselves, as I am determined to sell.
