In preparing the foregoing list, great care has been taken to avoid error; but the information afforded by or to be obtained from, the books and papers of the Office, is not such as to promise entire success; if, therefore, any error should appear, it will not, I trust, be said it was for want of attention; but is imputed to the true cause, the want of correct information.

I have thought it better to omit in this list the names of those on the Books that appear doubtful, which are not a few; because, by inserting them, much trouble and some expense might be occasioned to the individuals concerned, or to their Heirs, without obtaining the expected reward, whilst the Books will, as heretofore, remain open to all, and their claims, such as they may be, will stand on them, not at all injured or invalidated, by the omission of their names in this publication.

By an Act of the last Assembly, it will be seen that all claims of this description are to be passed on by a Board of Commissioners established for that purpose, and it is believed none will be granted except in cases where the act of 1811, Chapter 15th is strictly complied with.

WILLIAM HILL, Secretary.

CAUTION.

THIS is to forewarn all persons from trading for a Note of Hand signed Thomas P. Ellibe and Zechariah Ellibe, payable to David Stewart, (of Mecklenburg county, North-Carolina,) for one hundred and thirty-seven Dollars, dated the 22d or 23d of February, 1820, due five months after date; which note I am determined not to pay, as it was given in part pay of a Negro which, it appears, was not the property of said David Stewart, and it likewise appears that his proper name is David Stewart Kerr.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

New-York, May 15.
By the Maria Theresa, at this port, and the arrivals at Boston, Bordeaux papers to the 4th, and Paris to the 1st of April, are received.
The law to suspend the exercise of the liberty of the press was passed by the French Chamber of Deputies, on the 30th March—for it 136 against it 109.
The Students of Medicine at Paris have presented an address of thanks to the 150 Deputies who voted against the law abridging individual liberty.
Other addresses of the same nature were preparing at Paris.
PARIS, MARCH 27.
The Danish Press cannot treat of politics, nor give news, without special permission. In Belgium many Editors have been arrested. It appears that from the Baltic to the Pyrenees there is a "holy alliance" against the Press.
MARCH 28.
Yesterday and this day the commission of the Chamber of Peers has continued to examine Louvel the assassin.
We have had communicated to us the minute of a decree dictated by the Holy-Office, which was intended to rivet the chains that the people of Spain have just broken. They assure us it was ready to be executed. This decree consisted of 12 articles, principally directed to keeping out of the country books that were disliked by those who issued the decree, and farther to restrain the domestic Press.

There is a report in circulation that a disposition to revolt has been manifested among the troops in Prussia.
Notwithstanding the extreme watchfulness of the government, the Spanish news is known to every one. Prussia has not forgotten that a Constitution was promised her as a reward for her efforts in favor of National Independence. The constitution, announced in danger, refused after victory, is the object of all wishes. We are assured that some superior officers, sincere friends to the King, have recalled the promises made to the people, & have insisted on the necessity of fulfilling them. These officers, it is added, have been broken, & the troops have loudly called for them to be reinstated. We are ignorant of the consequences of this affair.
A daily paper announces as a report, that an explosion, like to that of Spain, seems so threaten the kingdom of Italy. The movement began at Bologna, and the example was soon followed at Milan. A unanimous determination was manifested for the independence of the country. The Revolutionists demand for their King the Arch Duke Reynier, with a constitutional government.

A letter from Bordeaux, of the 4th ultimo, states that "troops are on their march to Bayonne; probably a storm is gathering which may burst on Spain.
The Holy Alliance will, perhaps, assist Ferdinand. If they do, farewell to the tranquility of Europe for a long season." A postscript to the above says "Italy is in a state nearly like that of Spain previous to the establishment of the Cortes."
"The two late laws passed for the restriction of the press, and against personal liberty, are extremely unpopular."

It is said Mina has intercepted a correspondence from Madrid, of the highest importance; and he will not communicate it but to the Cortes.
An ultra journal announces this day with a triumphant air, that Alava, Guisuscoa and Biscay, are nearly in insurrection, to re-establish the throne and arbitrary power.

It is confirmed that agitation prevails at Portugal. The British pride, before which every one abased himself, excites at this day a daring indignation. The English are often publicly braved, & advised to relieve the country from their presence. We are assured distinguished persons have already been designated by an independent party, to propose to the Cortes at Madrid a Federation between the two people of ancient Ibero.
MARCH 31.
Persons of all classes eagerly subscribe for the relief of the victims of arbitrary power. Among the signers are Lafitte, La Fayette, Benj. Constant, and many other Deputies.
What a satire on the Ministry!
What a characteristic trait of the system to which France is delivered!
Now that the discussion upon the liberty of the Press is terminated, it is thought that M. Clausel des Cousergues will develop his project of an accusation against the Duke de Cazé.
He engaged, in the face of all France, to do it.

BORDEAUX, APRIL 4.
The Spanish nation proceeds in the work of reformation with a calmness which becomes a people determined to be free. Letters from Cadiz confirm the previous accounts of the tranquility of that city. The government is occupied in forming a corps of 20 thousand men, to support the new constitution of the nation, and to act against those who may disturb the public peace. The prefects, sub-prefects, and municipalities, are organized, and co-operate with the government in maintaining tranquility.

MADRID, MARCH 21.
Yesterday we had a double fete at the court, to celebrate, at the same time, the birth day of the Queen, and the anniversary of the publication of the Constitution.
The Junta have required the dismissal of all who were of the 70 who petitioned for
