In preparing the foregoing list, great care has been taken to avoid error; but the information afforded by or to be obtained from the books and papers of the Office, is not such as to promise entire success: if, therefore, any error should appear, it will not, I trust, be said it was for want of attention; but be imputed to the true cause, the want of correct information.

I have thought it better to omit in this list the names of those on the Books that appear doubtful, which are not a few; because, by inserting them, much trouble and some expense might be occasioned to the individuals concerned, or to their Heirs, without obtaining the expected reward, whilst the Books will, as heretofore, remain open to all, and their claims, such as they may be, will stand on them, not at all injured or invalidated, by the omission of their names in this publication.

By an Act of the last Assembly, it will be seen that all claims of this description are to be passed on by a Board of Commissioners established for that purpose, and it is believed none will be granted except in cases where the act of 1811, Chapter 15th is strictly complied with.

WILLIAM HILL, Secretary.

A part of the land is now in cultivation. This stream is a very lasting one, and in a good neighborhood for cultivation, and in the neighborhood of Col. Edward Jones. $25 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber living in Caswell county, N. C. in the month of June, 1818, a Negro Boy named CHARLES. He is black complected, about 20 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, well made, and inclined to be slim, and has an open, prepossessing countenance. The last time I heard of him was his having been taken in Martin county, N. C. in April last, where he was apprehended. He had a free pass, and had been passing as a free man for some time—there was another fellow in company with him, who also had a free pass. It is more than probable they will continue together and obtain a new set of passes. Charles was purchased of Mrs. Little of Sussex county, Virginia, where it is probable he may be—or he may remain lurking about in the lower part of this state near Newbern and Edenton, where he has been for some time.

Any person who will secure said fellow Charles so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable expenses paid. Any letters addressed to me at Leesburg, Caswell, N. C. on the above, will be received and attended to by WILLIAM FULLER.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

New-York, June 13.

The Criterion, Capt. Avery, brings London papers to the 3d ult. inclusive. The execution of Arthur Thistlewood, James Ings, Thomas Brunt, Richard Tidd, and William Davidson, took place on the first of May. The remaining six, who pleaded guilty to their indictments, were respited during the King's pleasure. A subsequent order directs the transportation for life of Strange, Bradburn, Cooper, Harrison, and Wilson. Gilchrist has been respited without mention of the commutation of punishment. That part of the sentence which directed those who were executed, to be quartered, was remitted.

A minute account of the execution is given in the London papers, occupying five columns. The crowd which assembled to witness it, was beyond all calculation. In the event of a riot, the Lord Mayor was prepared with large banners, ready to be exhibited, should it become necessary to read the Riot Act, with these words inscribed upon them—"The Riot Act has been read—disperse immediately."—But no occasion offered to have recourse to them.

The Queen left Rome on the 9th ult. with her suite, in seven carriages, on her way to England, by the way of Pesaro and Milan.

The celebrated Volney died at Paris of an inflammation of the bowels. He was conscious of the danger of his situation, and met his fate with a truly philosophical courage.

The Chamber of Commerce of Edinburgh has petitioned Parliament on the subject of the present depressed state of commerce in all its branches. The merchants of Leith have also petitioned Parliament on the same subject.

The London Sun says that Sir Henry Wellesley, Ambassador to Spain, was likely to return soon, without the formality of taking leave of the Spanish Court. His lady, we understand, is already on her journey home.

The papers furnish us nothing of any importance from France. The recent alarm appears to have entirely subsided, and all is tranquil.

Intelligence from Stockholm, dated April 14, states that the American minister had addressed a remonstrance to the Swedish government against certain provisions in the new navigation act, which are considered contrary to the commercial treaty concluded between Sweden and the United States.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 10.

All the military force of Russia has now a uniform organization. The army is divided into divisions and brigades. Each division of infantry is composed of six regiments of infantry and two of chasseurs, with one brigade of foot artillery. A division of cavalry is composed of four regiments and two troops of light artillery. Three divisions of infantry and one of cavalry and artillery men, to make use of 168 pieces, besides a strong detachment of gens d'armes pioneers and pontonniers, form a corps of the army. All the divisions, besides the regular and irregular Cossacks, are so disposed as to be able to take the field at the signal. The Emperor makes known his orders, as it was the custom in the old French army, through an officer who exercises the duties of Major-General. The troops which contain a mass of more than six hundred thousand men are successively colonized. The soldier is employed in the labors of agriculture; from which it results that his support is less burthen-some to the state. [In that it is the French system in all its details.]

There is much said of a treaty of offensive and defensive alliance between the two great powers, which will not be published till after the proposed interview between the Emperors of Austria and Russia shall have taken place, at Pesth, in Hungary.

ST. PETERSBURG, MARCH 24.

A new voyage of discovery in the north is to take place the approaching summer. The expedition will leave the mouth of the Lena for the icy Ocean, for the purpose of examining the coast of Siberia and the islands which were discovered north of that coast, some years since. As it is not yet decided whether those islands do not form a continent, and as they have only been visited during the winter, it will be very interesting to learn how nearly they may be approached during the summer, and to fix the extent of them.

NAPLES, MARCH 19.

The arrangement entered into between our court and that of Rio Janeiro respecting the exportation of Neapolitan galleys slaves to Brazil, an arrangement which was some time since announced in the journals, has been put in execution. It is a singular fancy, but fortunately it turns out favorable to the cause of humanity. The government of Brazil sends for galleys slaves from Naples to people the Brazilian deserts. In consequence of this, 500 criminals have been embarked the last month upon two frigates at Naples, for the purpose of being sent to Rio Janeiro. The future colonists, it is said, evinced the greatest delight; two sick men, afraid of being left behind, concealed themselves in one of the frigates. Married men were permitted to take their wives. Some criminals married before their departure.

It is said that thousands of criminals have petitioned the King of the two Sicilies for permission to be sent to the Brazil.

There is one important remark to be made on this subject. While 20,000 free emigrants increase every year the population of the United States of America
