

POETRY.

A HYMN

Written by the late Rev. S. B. Ingersoll, of Connecticut, three weeks before his death on the words, "Be still, and know that I am God"

And does affliction press thee down,
And dost thou see thy Father's frown?
Turn not away but kiss the rod,
"Be still, and know that I am God."

Is God my Father? then may I
W thin his arms in safety lie;
That word, my Father, stills my pains,
That arm, the universe sustains.

My Father sees me prostrate lie;
Sees my flesh waste, hears every sigh;
Knows every wish and every fear,
Knows why his wisdom placed me here.

"This pain," he says, "is needful now,
Needful that sorrow shade thy brow;
Most of my children home are brought
In ways themselves had never sought.

"Thy elder brother, Christ, my Son,
Obtain'd thy suffering what he won;
His soul, his body, knew no stain,
Yet suffer'd more than mortal pain.

"And shall thy Captain perfect be,
Thro' sufferings borne for such as thee—
And would'st thou shun the fire that tries,
That pains thee, while it purifies?"

"That armour but for one day tried,
I saw 'twas best to lay aside,
That thou might learn to kiss the rod—
My people learn that I am God."

Father, thy goodness now I own,
Tho' clouds and darkness veil thy throne;
I turn to Thee - I kiss the rod—
Thy people own that thou art God.

* Alluding to his preaching but one day after his ordination, being taken ill the day following, from which illness he never recovered.

NOTICE TO CLAIMANTS.

Office of the Commissioners.

Washington, 14th June 1821.

THE Commissioners, appointed under the 11th article of the Treaty of Amity, Settlement, and Limits, between the United States of America and his Catholic Majesty, concluded at Washington, on the 22d day of February, 1819, to ascertain the full amount and validity of the claims mentioned, or referred to, in the said treaty, being organized as a Board, according to the provisions of the Treaty and the act of Congress in that case made and provided, have passed the following Orders; of which, all those interested will be pleased to take notice:

"ORDERED, That all persons having claims under the Treaty of Amity, Settlement, and Limits between the United States of America and his Catholic Majesty, concluded at Washington, on the 22d day of February, 1819, which are to be received by this Commission, do file a memorial of the same with the Secretary of the Board; to the end, that they may be hereafter duly examined, and the validity and amount thereof decided upon, according to the suitable and authentic testimony concerning the same, which may then be required. The said memorial must be addressed to this Board; must set forth particularly and minutely the various facts and circumstances whence the right to prefer such claim is derived; and must be verified by the affidavit of the claimant."

"And, in order that claimants may be informed of what is now considered by the Commission as essential to be ascertained and established before any such memorial can be received by this Board, it is further—"

"ORDERED, That each claimant shall declare, in his said memorial, for and in behalf of whom the said claim is preferred; & whether the amount thereof, and of every part thereof, if allowed, does now, and at the time when the said claim arose, did belong solely and absolutely to the said claimant, or to any other, and, if any other, what person and in cases of claims preferred for the benefit of any other than the claimant, the memorial to be exhibited must further set forth, when, why, and by what means, such other has become entitled to the amount, or any part of the amount, of the said claim—The memorial, required to be exhibited by all claimants, must also set forth, and certainly declare, whether the claimant, as well as any other for whose benefit the claim is preferred, is now, and at the time when the said claim arose, was a citizen of the United States of America—where he is now, and at the time the said claim arose, was domiciliated—and if any other, what change of domiciliation has since taken place. The said memorial must also set forth, whether the claimant, or any other who may have been at any time entitled to the amount claimed, or any part thereof, hath ever received any, and, if any, what sum of money or other equivalent or indemnification, for the loss or injury sustained, satisfaction for which is therein asked."

"And that time may be allowed to claimants, to prepare and file the memorials above mentioned; it is further—"

"ORDERED, That, when this Board shall adjourn to-day, it will adjourn to meet again, on the 10th day of September next; at which time it will proceed to decide whether any memorials which may have been filed with the Secretary, in pursuance of the above orders, shall be received for examination."

"ORDERED, That a copy of these proceedings be published by the Secretary of this Board, in all the public gazettes in which the laws of the United States are usually printed."

"Those Editors, who are authorized to publish the laws of the United States, are requested to insert this notice in their respective papers once a week, until the 10th day of September next, and forward their accounts to the Secretary, immediately thereafter."

By order, T. W. KINGS,

Secretary to the Commission

Under the 11th article of the Florida Treaty.

CAPE-FEAR NAVIGATION COMPANY.

PURSUANT to a resolution of the President and Directors, Notice is hereby given, that the 7th instalment of the increased capital of December 1818, Ten Dollars, on each and every Share, is required to be paid to the Treasurer in Fayetteville, on or before the 16th day of July next.

$100 REWARD.

DAN off from my Plantation near Elizabethtown, Bladen county, on the 10th instant, my negro Man WELCOME. He took with him a surtout coat of grey cloth, blue pantaloons of cloth and o' velvet, a suit of mixed homespun, the chat cut with plain busts, also a suit of striped homespun dyed with copperas, coat cut double breasted, a white hat, and probably other clothing. Welcome is about 34 years of age, is stout and well set, legs a little bowed, full face, large thick neck, a man of great strength, has large thick and flat feet, walks rather slow and heavy, his countenance somewhat heavy, speaks easy and with some address, and generally not in a high tone, is a negro of fine understanding, can read and write a little and has some knowledge of figures, has no appearance of hard usage, much inclined to be fleshy, would weigh about 180, and supposed to be about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high.

Welcome took with him his daughter BETSEY, in her 16th year—she is well grown, complexion very fair for a negro, stout features, a small dimple in her chin, looks growing and thrifty, was raised a house servant, when vexed sticks out her mouth and look impudent; took with her some homespun frocks, and a calico one blue with white spots, and a tippet of the same. Betsey had a good pair of leather shoes, and Welcome had a pair with high quarters.

I was absent for 8 days; Welcome was entrusted with the farm and stock. He took his daughter in the day time from the possession of their mistress.

Welcome, I think, was raised in Pasquotank; he will probably attempt to pass both himself and daughter as free persons; he may a forged pass, and will likely make for some seaport. Betsey knows her letters and can spell a little—Welcome likely has books, pen, ink and papers with him, and I expect he has money.

One hundred dollars will be given for their apprehension and delivery to me—if taken out of the county fifty dollars for lodging them in Jail so that I get them, either in or out of the State.

Also, ran off from my White Farm in Bladen, a negro fellow named GEORGE, 45 years of age, spare built, scrawny thin features, about 5 feet 10 inches high, large mouth, and is talkative. George left the farm last summer, and should be now in Jail will probably not discover to whom he belongs. I will give Ten Dollars for his apprehension and lodging him in any Jail.

PROPOSALS

For publishing by subscription, IN PENNSACOLA,
The proposed Seat of Government for the Floridas,
A Newspaper, to be called
THE FLORIDIAN.

THE recent acquisition of the Floridas has been hailed throughout the Union as the attainment of an all-important political desideratum. For although some object to the terms, none hesitate as to the necessity for the purchase. As yet, we know little or nothing of the country, and can make but very imperfect estimates—we have an indistinct, undefined idea of its relative, Political and Commercial importance; but we are almost wholly ignorant of its Soil and Climate—we know that it connects and completes our Atlantic Seaboard from Passamaquoddy to the Sabine,—we know that it affords several excellent Harbors—we know that it effectually excludes foreign influence, from the councils of various warlike and mischievous tribes of Indians—but we wish further to know, what are its Agricultural advantages—what the character of its soil—what its produce—what the temperature and influence of its climate—its Geography—its Topography, its political and natural History and delineation.

With these views, the undersigned propose to publish a paper at PENNSACOLA—whose main object will be the collection and diffusion of the required information. Their earliest attention and most assiduous enquiry, shall be directed to these objects; and they are confident in the assertion, that they will possess advantages, which no other establishment can have.

The political events and changes of the general government, and of the Territory of Florida, will meet with proper attention and consideration.

THE FLORIDIAN, will be conducted on pure American and Republican principles; and as such, the Editors confidently rely on the patronage of their fellow-citizens.

They will commence publication, immediately after the United States receive possession; and no exertions on their part shall be wanting to render their paper useful and interesting.

TERMS.

THE FLORIDIAN will be published weekly on a Super-Royal sheet, with a new and elegant type at Five Dollars per annum—Three Dollars to be paid on receipt of the first number—the balance at the expiration of six months.

CAMPBELL'S MAGAZINE.

LARGE editions of the Edinburgh & Quarterly Reviews have long been regularly circulated in the United States, and several other British periodical works of less note have been successfully reprinted in this country, but it is believed that there has never been offered to the American public a work possessing claims to such general patronage as the NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
The advertisers have good authority for saying that it has long been beyond dispute at the very head of all publications of the kind. If this opinion should accord with that of the public, it would seem not unreasonable to hope that from its more lively nature and popular character, this Magazine will be more generally read than either of the celebrated quarterly journals which sway the sceptre over the literature and politics of Great-Britain. A very large class of readers, who have neither time nor inclination to study the profound philosophical and political disquisitions of the EDINBURGH and QUARTERLY, would turn with pleasure and advantage to the sprightly essays, the rational poetry, the entertaining biography, and the vigorous criticisms of the NEW MONTHLY.

To the American woman, it is confidently believed that it will be an acceptable acquisition, and it is offered to them without hesitation, as at a time when some of the most popular authors of the age have so far forgotten their duty, and mistaken their interests, as to lend their influence against the cause of virtue, the writers for this Magazine have found the art of being easy and cheerful without licentiousness, and have excited the imagination without corrupting the heart. So far as our knowledge of the Work extends, it contains

"Not one immoral, one corrupted thought!"
That such will be its character in future, no other assurance need be given, than the name of the author of the PLEASURES OF HOPE, and GERTRUDE OR WORMING. At the beginning of the present year, a new series commenced under the editorial care of THOMAS CAMPBELL, and is enriched, as may be seen by the following table of contents of the January number, by much valuable original matter from this writer:

ORIGINAL PAPERS.

ARTICLE I. Lectures on Poetry, the substance of which was delivered at the Royal Institution, by T. Campbell. Lecture I. Part II. To the Rambler, by T. Campbell. III. The Lover to his Mistress on her Birth day, a song, translated from the Bohemian, by T. Campbell. IV. To a Child, by Joanna Baillie. V. A Journey to Palmyra, VI. Political Economy. VII. CONTENTS.

Each number will contain about 180 pages, just double the number in the Analytic Magazine, making three volumes per year of near 550 pages each. The price will be nine dollars per annum, payable on delivery of the June number; but to those who pay in advance, a deduction of one dollar will be made. Subscribers at a distance from any agent of the publishers, can have them sent by mail, not exceeding the postage of a letter. It is particularly requested that orders for it may not be sent, unless accompanied by a remittance. A compliance with this is so easy to every person who may want the Magazine, and it is so difficult and expensive to collect moneys from a wide extent of country, that it is presumed no offence can be given by the rule to disregard all applications in which this condition is not attended to. The numbers will be packed so strongly as to go safely to any part of the United States, or of British America, and will be regularly forwarded as soon as published.

The republication will date from the January number, and arrangements have been made, that after April, will enable the advertisers to issue them from their press in less than two months after their appearance in London. It will be necessary to delay the appearance of the first numbers for a while, in order to ascertain the probable extent of patronage that will be given. An early application from all who intend to receive the Work, is respectfully requested by the publishers.
