LATEST FROM EUROPE.

New-York, Nov. 19.

Yesterday afternoon the ship Cortes, Capt. De Cost, arrived from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 9th of October. By this arrival the editor of the Commercial Advertiser have received London papers to the 9th, inclusive, with a Lloyd's List of the 5th. The packet ship Nestor arrived below yesterday; she sailed from Liverpool on the 7th.

English old wheat, per 70lbs. 12 to 12s. 9d; new do. 7 to 10s. 6d; Canada, in bond, 10s. to 35s; all nominal.

Accounts from Stockholm and Petersburg, mention, that the harvest proves very bad in the northern provinces of the Kingdom.

A speculative demand has appeared for Virginia stemmed tobacco, and considerable sales have been effected at an advance of 1 to 3d per lb. The export demand has subsided, and little has been done in leaf tobacco.

ENGLAND.

From the papers before us, it appears the King left London for the Continent on the 24th Sept. He arrived at Calais on the next day, and proceeded to Brussels on the 27th, accompanied by the Duke of Wellington. His Majesty, in company with the Duke, visited the field of Waterloo. On the 28th he dined with the King of the Netherlands. On the 29th the King attended the Theatre at Brussels.

A great reduction is about to take place in the establishment of the bank of England. The number of clerks to be discharged is stated to be 125. The cause assigned by the directors, is the general falling off of the business of the bank.

SPAIN.

The papers contain very little on Spanish affairs. At Saragossa, on the 6th of September, some members of the National Guard wished to parade the streets with the bust of Gen. Riego, but the Political Chief opposing this measure, it was abandoned.

Gen. Morillo has been re-established in his functions of Superior Governor of Madrid, and Captain General of New Castile.

FRANCE.

The papers state that a dreadful epidemic has broken out at Marseilles and Barcelona. Five physicians had been sent by the French government to ascertain the nature of the disease.

TURKEY AND GREECE.

The appearances of a war between Russia and the Porte have subsided. The accounts from Frankfort mention, that an amicable understanding exists between those powers. The London papers contain the correspondence between the Porte and the Russian Minister, Baron Stroganoff. In introducing these documents, the Editor of the London Courier remarks, "We think there has been too little of that conciliation, on the part of Stroganoff, which would be inspired by a sincere anxiety for the maintenance of pacific relations."

The following is copied from a Liverpool paper of Oct. 6:

Letters have been received by commercial houses in London, which appear to confirm the intelligence of a victory gained by the Greeks and Thesalonians over the troops commanded by the Pacha of Salonica. The engagement, which seems to have been very bloody, took place in the environs of Casandra. All the monks of Mount Athos took part in it; they carried crosses, and animated the insurgents with their voices and gestures. The Turks were completely defeated.

There are reports through Frankfort, that the Turkish fleet has sus-trined a new defeat. It is also said that the Greek Bishop of Salonica, and many merchants, have been massacred by the Turks.

SOUTH-AMERICA.

Sir Gregor Mc Gregor has recently published, at Edinburgh, a vindication of his conduct at the retaking of Porto Bello by the Spaniards. He asserts that the place was surprised by the enemy, through the treachery of an officer who had the command of the out-posts, and "who had engaged to the Duke of San Carlos, in London, to seize the earliest opportunity of delivering him into the hands of the Spaniards." The General adds, that, after having escaped on board his ship he was preparing an attack upon the town by his squadron, which was frustrated only by the premature surrender of the forts commanded by Col. Rafter.

From the N. Y. Advertiser of Nov. 15.

FLOUR!

Our readers will find, under the foreign head, some interesting intelligence of the English market. It will be seen that the crops have suffered much from the weather, &c. A large portion of this year's bread stuff must be kiln dried; and application has been made to the Board of Excise to grant permission. The commissioners have issued a circular to the collectors, in which they say—"That no objections will be made by the officers of the revenue, to corn, grain, and pulse of every description, which has received injury in the field, being dried on the kilns, &c. After examining the papers and letters, and particularly the increase of the average, we think there is a very strong probability of the ports opening to the admission of grain from Canada. It will be perceived that there is a difference of thirteen shillings per quarter, between wheat from the U. States and Canada. To admit grain from the United States, wheat for the quarter, which will end in October, must be at 80s. while that from Canada will be admitted at 67.

Since the arrival of the Cortes, some flour has been bought in this city, on speculation, at from $7 to 7 1-8. There has been no offer made for any other description of bread stuff.

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.

The following article, which appears in the shape of an advertisement in the Columbian Telescope, is respectfully submitted to the opponents of the enfranchisement of the honest debtor; and, we should like to see an answer to the argument it presents against that system which America is about to set the example of abolishing. If we mistake not, the imprisonment of our own citizens for debt, which there has been no fraud in contracting, and which they have no means to pay, will, ere long, be looked back upon as a barbarity which had no claim to respect but its antiquity.

TO MY CREDITORS.

Whereas, by process of law, I am now confined in the jail of Fairfield district, unable to extricate myself from embarrassments, to which, in the lot of humanity, we are all subject, I have taken this method to give vent to my feelings and reflections, in the hope that those on whom my enlargement from these gloomy walls depend will take my situation into consideration, and grant that relief which is consistent with the best feelings of our nature, and the soundest policy of a creditor. The latter part of our Revolution is still in my memory, and it is a subject of some consolation when I reflect, that, in the glorious scene at Little York, in September, 1781, (if my recollection serves me,) I was one of the number who participated in the honors of that day. I do not mention this boastfully, for my services were a free-will offering to my beloved country, and I acted from the impulse of my own feelings. My republican sentiments from that time are known to all my friends. I have with pleasure viewed the rising greatness of these states, and welcomed the honest emigrants to our shores, who are now partaking of the blessings which my arm assisted in gaining. But, O! how sad to look around on my own little domestic matters! While many of these men, who came after our struggle, have risen into opulence, I am confined to the walls of a prison, in the land where liberty is emphatically said to dwell—debarred from any exertions for my helpless family or myself, and doomed to fit in solitary and unfruitful inaction; while the infirmities of advanced years, brought on prematurely by many days and nights of exposure in the tented field, and often on duty in the pitiless storm, with nothing but the canopy of heaven for my covering, are fast increasing upon me. Without the lenity and indulgence of my creditors, my helpless family must inevitably suffer. Although the present situation of my affairs has a gloomy aspect, if my creditors unanimously would indulge their humanity, and grant a suspension of their different claims, I should not feel the least dread in mind, or doubt, that I will be able to meet each and every one of them, and settle their respective demands against me with punctuality and justice. I leave the whole to the direction of my friends and creditors.

THE Rev. C. A. HILL, A. M. having purchased a plantation with suitable buildings thereon near the middle ground between Warrenton and Louisburg, will open a BOARDING SCHOOL on the first day of January next, at the low price of One Hundred Dollars per annum for Board & Tuition, and no extra charges.

The high character sustained by the Warrenton Academy while under his direction, the repeated publications of the Trustees at the different Examinations, and his success in preparing his pupils for an admission into their respective classes at College, are deemed sufficient testimonials of his skill, qualifications and attention as a Teacher. It is required that one half of the Board and Tuition should be paid in advance, the other half at the end of the year.

MONEY LOST.

ON the 18th of March last, I enclosed the two halves of a Hundred Dollar Note, in separate letters; the one addressed to Mr. Christopher Mason, Norfolk, Virginia, the other to Charles Donaldson, of the same place. Neither of these letters has ever come to hand; it may be possible that they were broken open at Lewisburg. The Note was No. 663, letter A, dated 8th March, 1816, Newbern—M. C. Stephens—Jos. McKinlay.

The Public and particularly all Banks, are cautioned against receiving said Note, except from myself, or my assigns.

JOSEPH ROSS

IS authorised by Dr. John R. Lucas to sell 526 ACRES OF LAND, from 5 to 7 miles below Raleigh, on the River Neuse. On the Land are the Saw and Grist Mills of the late Judge Stone. This is the best Tract of Land to the number of Acres, in the County of Wake, and excellently adapted to the growth of Cotton. On the Mill-race is a house which could easily be converted into use for a Cotton Gin. This place being the probable depot for the produce sent down the river, when its navigation is completed, renders it truly desirable to a person who intends to reside in this section of country. There are cleared of the whole Tract, about 15 to 20 Acres. There are sundry improvements on the place, amongst them a new Store house.

Under this authority, he offers for sale the said Tract of Land, on the following terms, viz: one-fifth the amount at 90 days, negotiable and payable at the Bank of Newbern; the balance in four annual payments, on the 25th December, 1822, 23, 24 and 25, also negotiable and payable at the said Bank—on four equal annual payments at the above period; and the above Bank. Or Negro men 18 to 24 years old—Women 15 to 20 years, at a liberal price, deliverable in one and two years. Good and sufficient security will be required.

Should the above property not be sold at private sale before the 15th of Dec'r. next it will, on that day, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, be sold at Public Auction at his Auction Room.

Mr. WM POOLE will shew the Lands to those wishing to purchase.

Raleigh, Nov. 20, 1821.

J. ROSS'S AUCTION ROOM
