

REGISTER OFFICE.

THE Editor of the Register will, on the 1st day of January next, admit his son...

Being determined to spare no exertions to render the Register an interesting vehicle...

All persons indebted to J. Gales will be pleased to settle their Accounts to the end of the present year.

Dec. 6, 1821.

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

Published at the City of Washington. Printed, Daily, at Ten Dollars per annum...

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER publishes, originally, the Proceedings and Debates of Congress...

Subscriptions for the paper may be transmitted to the office of the National Intelligencer at Washington...

In Boston, Mr. Thomas Rowe, In New-York, Mr. William A. Colman, In Philadelphia, Mr. Abraham Small...

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA, WILKES COUNTY.

Superior Court of Law, Sept. Term, 1821. Lucy Cook vs. Petition for Divorce and Alimony.

IT appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Allen Cook, the Defendant, is not an inhabitant of this State...

Raleigh Register.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1821.

The Supreme Court of this State will commence its sitting on Monday next.

The Statue of Washington.—This exquisite specimen of the Art of Sculpture arrived in this city on Monday last.

The next tribute of respect is due to the Artist. This beautiful specimen of the sculptural Art received its first lines and its last finish from Conova, Prince of Ischia.

man has been compared to Praxiteles and Phidias, & his Statue and Pedestal are said by Connoisseurs in the Fine Arts...

1. The surrender of Cornwallis. 2. The resignation of Gen. Washington at the close of the War.

3. Represents the Hero, like Cincinnatus, holding the Plough, on his return to private life.

4. In the act of accepting the Presidency of the United States.

The Statue and Pedestal are of the whitest and purest marble. The General is represented in a sitting posture with a stylus in his hand...

It has been objected, that an American General should be clothed as a Roman, sitting in a Roman Chair; but for this style of dress many reasons are adduced.

That the Legislature of N. Carolina have had the patriotism to procure this superb Monument of their gratitude to the memory of the illustrious Washington...

The Statue was brought from Wilmington to Fayetteville by the Steam-Boat, and from thence on carriages constructed for the purpose...

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Moore, Stanly, J. S. Smith, Fisher, Graves, Bryan, Williamson, Person, Seawell and Vanhook, was appointed by the Legislature to make arrangements for the reception of the Statue...

1. That a Procession be formed on this ground where the Statue is halted, at 3 o'clock.

2. That the Artillery be drawn in front of the Capitol, and fire 24 rounds, the firing to commence at the first movement of the Procession.

3. That the Adjutant-General be the Marshal of the Day, to give all orders, and to take charge of the whole detail of business.

ORDER OF PROCESSION.

- 1. A Band of Music. 2. Military. 3. Citizens. 4. Clerks and Assistants. 5. Heads of Departments. 6. Judges. 7. Members of the Assembly. 8. Speakers of both Houses. 9. The Governor of the State. 10. The Revolutionary Officers, of whom Col. Polk is designated to carry the Flag of the United States. 11. Statue, with the State Architect.

The procession having reached the State-House Square, Col. Wm. Polk, (agreeably to appointment) delivered in a very impressive manner, to the large assembly collected on the occasion, the following excellent and appropriate Address:

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

An enlightened Legislature, faithful to the emotions of a grateful People, has procured the Statue of our beloved Washington; formed by the highest skill of an artist, whom all agree in calling the Michael Angelo of the Age.

Rome, once the citadel of the earth, the terror of Kings; now fallen, now defaced; still nourishes for the arts, those talents by which patriotism and republican virtue are honored and recorded in the new world.

America may justly glory in her Washington, the founder of her liberty; the friend of man. History and tradition are explored in vain for a parallel to his character...

of mankind, he united all the qualities necessary to an illustrious career; nature made him great; he made himself virtuous.

A spectacle so new and so sublime, was contemplated with the profoundest admiration, and the name of Washington adding new lustre to humanity, resounded to the remotest regions of the earth...

The record of such virtues should be transmitted to posterity by every means the Muse of History, of Painting, and of Sculpture can employ...

It is gratifying to know that the task was a favorite one to the Artist; he had an exalted admiration of the character of Washington, and has accordingly lavished on the work, some of the richest treasures of his genius.

After the Address had been delivered, the company retired, highly gratified with the manner in which the whole business had been conducted.

Mr. Nichols, the State-Architect, has since raised the Pedestal and Statue in the place assigned them in the Capitol, so that the Members of Assembly and other strangers at present in the city, have had the satisfaction of viewing this superb Work before their departure...

A bill to repeal the act of last session for relief of honest debtors, was yesterday passed in the House of Commons, 70 votes to 44.

We have no doubt the act of last session had its defects; but we wish it had been amended, not repealed; as we cannot think it consistent with the principles of justice or humanity, that the unfortunate debtor should be imprisoned like a criminal.

The bill for establishing a Bank entirely on the funds and faith of the State, was also yesterday rejected in the Senate, by a small majority.

The Cherokees.—We learn that this tribe of Indians have recently divided their country into several districts; have laid a tax on their people to build a court-house in each; have appointed four circuit judges, and in other respects are rapidly adopting the laws and manners of civilized life!

Agriculture.—The Albany county society have awarded a premium to Rensselaer Van Rensselaer, for raising six hundred and forty bushels of ruta baga on one acre of land; and to Gilbert Ward for raising six hundred and thirty five bushels of flat turnips on one acre of land.

The Governor of South Carolina, in his message to the Legislature recommends that persons of distinguished talents shall be appointed for the purpose of forming a digest of the laws of the State: He particularly recommends a revision of their penal code and suggests the propriety of constructing solitary cells in each district...

In a late suit in Pennsylvania, respecting two pigs of the value of $2, the costs were $13. This was certainly paying too dear for the pig.

The murderous traffic.—Though we cannot approve the motive which prompts Great-Britain to suppress the slave trade, we are truly grateful for her practice in respect to it. We observe that two other vessels have been captured at Bohey, on the coast of Africa...

Notes Register.

Riley, the Indian who some time ago shot Mr. John Lucas, of Georgia, and carried off his horses & equipage into the nation, having been tried according to the laws of his country, and found guilty by confession, was sentenced to be shot, and suffered death accordingly.

Kelaukah, the Chippewa Indian who murdered Dr. Madison near the Manitowach river on the west side of Lake Michigan, last summer, was brought to trial at Detroit before the Supreme Court, held at that place, found guilty, and sentenced to be executed on the 27th of December last.

Kemabiskim, a Menomine Indian, was also tried for the murder of Chas. Ulrick, at Green Bay, he was found guilty, and sentenced to be executed on the same day.

The London Times gives a laughable account of an awkward mistake which recently occurred in England. It appears, in short, that a popular preacher, who was intimate in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Whitbread...

Copy of the first note.—Dear Dutchess, a thousand thanks for your delightful invitation. I must, I will accept it, tho' to do so I am compelled to put off the brewer and his wife.

Copy of the second note.—The Rev. Mr. H. presents his respectful compliments to Lady Elizabeth Whitbread, and regrets that the sudden disposition of his aunt, from whom he has great expectations, will prevent him from indulging himself in the high honor of waiting upon the family to dinner this evening.

No man could ever have been more chagrined, than when he received the following note from Mrs. Whitbread:

"Lady Elizabeth Whitbread presents her compliments to the Rev. Mr. H. and doubts not but that when fatigued with the society of Dukes and Duchesses, he would kindly condescend to put up with the humble fare of a brewer & his wife."

Among the deaths mentioned in the London Journals for October, is that of Francis Hargrave, Esq. a name well known to the legal profession of the United States. The obituary notice of him terminates as follows:

"Being unable to pursue his studies, by ill-health, and having expended a considerable sum in the purchase of scarce law books and manuscripts, he applied to Parliament for aid, and 200l. was unanimously voted for the purchase of his collection, which is deposited in Lincoln's Inn, and kept for the use of the students."

Genuine Christianity.—"We may die" says the celebrated Wesley, "without the knowledge of many truths and yet be carried into Abraham's bosom; but if we die without love, what will knowledge avail? Just as much as it avails the devil and his angels! I will not quarrel with you about any opinion; only see that your heart be right toward God, that you love the Lord Jesus Christ, that you love your neighbor, and walk as your master walked, and I desire no more. I am sick of opinions: I am weary to hear them; my soul loathes this frothy food. Give me solid and substantial religion; give me an humble gentle lover of God and man; a man full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy; a man laying himself out in the work of faith, the patience of hope, the labor of love. Let my soul be with these Christians, whosoever they are, and whatsoever opinion they are of. Whosoever thus doeth the will of my Father which is in Heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

Wednesday, Dec 26.

The balloting committee for a Colonel of Cavalry attached to the 3d Brigade, reported that John B. Stoves was duly elected.

The bill directing the time and place of sale of slaves under execution, was read the 2d time, when Mr. Wells moved its indefinite postponement.

The bill to change the mode of electing clerks of the superior and county courts, was indefinitely postponed, 43 to 14.

The bill for amending the court system, providing relief in superior courts where business accumulates so that it cannot be tried at the regular terms, was indefinitely postponed, 40 to 14.

The bill to exempt deputy sheriffs from the performance of militia duty, and the bill to repeal an act to alter the mode of punishing horse-stealers, and a bill to repeal the act directing the manner of selling property levied upon by sheriffs, &c. were indefinitely postponed.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Wednesday, Dec 26.

The following bills were presented: By Mr. Hard, a bill to amend an act passed in 1796, to remedy certain inconveniences arising under the present land laws.

Mr. Stanly, a bill regulating the fees of Notaries, and a bill to amend the acts making provision for the poor.

Mr. Hassell, a bill to alter the time of holding the General Assembly; and Mr. Boykin, a Bill to increase the rate of toll at the big bridge in New Hanover county. Which bills passed their first reading.

POSTSCRIPT.

Our visit to high waters, we have received no Northern Mail since Saturday until to-day, when we got the papers which ought to have reached us on Sunday and Monday.—The following article is the only one of moment which we have observed.

We have received the proceedings of Congress on the 19th and 20th inst. but we must defer them till next week, where appears nothing material.

Revolution in Brazil.—The brig Revolution, in 36 days from Pernambuco, brings the news of a complete Revolution throughout the Brazil. The Governor and Staff had been stripped off from Pernambuco, and the Prince Royal had been sent from Rio Janeiro.

In this city, on Wednesday evening last, Mr. Frederick Freeman, of Newbern, to Miss Elizabeth Nichols.

In this county, on the 20th inst. Mr. John Pulliam, of Granville, to Miss Amelia Jones.

On the 24th inst. Col. Charles W. Johnston, of Warren county, to Miss Mary Jane Robinson, daughter of Braxter Robinson, Esq. of Bellfield, Va.

DIED.

On the 19th inst. Mr. James Bedell, merchant of Newbern, and late of New-York. In Mecklenburg, Va. lately, Mrs. Ravenscroft, wife of the Rev. Mr. Ravenscroft, of the Episcopal Church.