"Well I remember in my boyish days, How deep the feeling when my eye look'd

On nature, in her loveliness, and storms : How my heart gladden'd as the light of spring Came from the sun, with zephyra and with

Waking the earth to beauty, and the woods To music, and the atmosphere to blow, Sweetly and calmly, with its breath of balm, Oh! how I gaz'd upon the dazzling blue Of summer's heaven of glory, and the waves That roll'd in bending gold, o'er hill and plain-

And on the tempest, when it issued forth, In folds of blackness from the northern sky, And stood above the mountains, silent, dark, Prowning, and terrible; then sent abroad
The lightning, as its herald, and the peal
That roll'd, in deep volleys, round the hills,
The warning of its coming, and the sound
That usher'd in its elemental war.
And O! I stood, in breathless longing fix'd, Trembling, and yet not fearful, as the clouds Heav'd their dark billows on the roaring

That sent, from mountain top and bending

A long hourse murmur, like the rush of waves That burst, in foam and fury, on the shore."

HILLSBOROUGH MASONIC LOTTERY THE Managers of the Hillsborough Masonic Lottery conceive themselves to be in duty bound to state to those who have purchased tickets of them, the reasons why the drawing did not commence on Saturday the 2d inst. as had been previously announced. They are as follows: The returns from agents at a distance were not complete as to the number of sold tickets. From the best estimate which the returns made would admit of, it was thought, that although a drawing on that day would be safe according to all probable calculations yet a loss might be sustained; and they felt unwilling to proceed to draw, so long as there could be the least possible risk.

By delaying the drawing until a few hundred more of the tickets could be sold, there would then be no risk whatever; and the managers would be able not only to pay to the fortunate adventurers the prizes they draw, but in addition thereto fully to succeed in raising a sum of money adequate to the building a commodious house for the use of the

The managers have determined to draw on TUESDAY the FOURTH DAY OF JUNE next; but should the drawing, however, not then take place, the managers pledge themselves to return the money on demand to every person who may be dissatisfied.

INFORMATION WANTED.

BOUT 30 or 40 years ago, a man by the name of DAY (perhaps Thomas, who married MARY WARREN) removed from Southampton or some adjacent county in Virginia, to some of the Western or Southern States or Territories, carrying with him his wife, and, as is supposed, two daughters. By the last will | 812 David Easter and testament of Michael Warren (bro- 813 John Erwin ther of the said Mary Day) the children and grand-children of said Mary, are entitled to a legacy. As it is supposed the legatees aforesaid are in indigent circumstances, it is desirable that they should have a knowledge of their interest in the estate of said Warren.

As we are ignorant of their place of residence, we have to request those Editors of Southern and Western Newspapers, who are disposed to serve the cause of humanity, to give this a place in their respective papers for three months; and if they will not do so without a charge, then the Editors of the State Gazettes in Tennessee and Georgia alone, are requested to to publish it and forward their accounts to Murfreesboro', N. THE MUCH ADMIRED AND HIGHLY CELEBRATED MALTESE JACK, SANCHO;

NOURTEEN hands high-Will stand the ensuing season at my Plantation adjoining the town of Tarborough, at Ten Dollars the season, Five Dollars the single leap and Fifteen Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal. The Season will commence the 1st March and end the 1st August. I will not be liable for either accidents or escapes.

Sancho can be seen at Joseph Bell's plantation from this time until the 1st of March next, where he will be shewn with much pleasure.

At the Agricultural Show and Pair, held in the State of Maryland on the 7th and 8th days of June last, at the Maryland Tavern, 4 miles from the City of Baltimore, the committee appointed by the Agricultural Society to view the Asses and Mules, reported as fol

The uncommonly large and valuable Maitese Jack, Sancho, shewn by John S. Skinner. Esq. attracted and deserved our particular attention, but being an imported animal, he was not considered a candidate for the pre-

Extract from a letter written by J S. Skinner

" BALTIMORE, 228 Nov. 1821. " DEAR SIR-The Maltese Jack, Sancho, was selected at Malta, by the late Capt. Gordon, of the United States Navy. He was 8 years old last Spring, and is the largest and best covering Jack in America, as well as the finest figure I have ever seen. The Mules from this race of Jacks are more docile and much more spirited and active than those from Spanish Jacks. Mr. Nabb, of the Council of Maryland, will vouch for the character here given of Sancho. He says he has mules by common Mares fifteen hands high by him, and that he will cover ten mares a day. I have seen many, I have never yet seen any equal to him for size and vigour. Yours, "JOHN S. SKINNER."

I deem it unnecessary for me to say any thing more in favor of Sancho, only, that a fair opportunity is now offered to the farmers of this section of the country to improve their stock, by obtaining mules of a superior size and quality.
