And strew its turf with flowers; He was my lov'd and only one, The charm of my lonely hours: O! he was in life's freshest bloom, He cheer'd me many a day; His smile and his beauty lit my gloom, And chas'd its night away.

Day after day, like an opening flower, His mother's pride he grew He seem'd like an infant germ of power So bright he met my view; I saw, in his gay exulting face, The future greatness glow; And I thought his light infantine grace To manhood strength would grow.

I read, in every word and smile, The father's look and tone; And I hung on those dear eyes, the while As when first our hearts were one; So bright a vision could not last, That dear illusion fled;

Like a rainbow-cloud it pass'd To the cold and voiceless dead.

But there is a home where dear ones meet And blend their innocent love ; Where the hours of happiness never fleet, In the peaceful world above; Where the links that bind our souls, by

Shall never be broken more, But a better life, with its quick'ning breath,

Shall every charm restore: Then cease, ye bitter tears to fall; My heart its grief shall bear, Till I hear, from heaven the tender call Of lave invite me there.

HILLSBOROUGH MASONIC LOTTERY. FITHE Managers of the Hillsborough Masonie Lottery conceive themselves to be in duty bound to state to those who have purchased tickets of them, the reasons why the drawing did not commence on Saturday the 2d inst. as had been previously announced. They are as follows :

The retur is from agents at a distance were not complete as to the number of sold tickets.

From the Lest estimate which the returns made would admit of, it was thought, that although a drawing on that day would be safe according to all probable calculations yet a loss might be sustained; and they felt unwilling to proceed to draw, so long as there could be the least possible risk.

By delaying the drawing until a few hundred more of the tickets could be sold, there would then be no risk whatever; and the managers would be able not only to pay to the fortunate adventurers the prizes they draw, but in addition thereto fully to succeed in raising a sum of money adequate to the building a commodious house for the use of the

The managers have determined to draw on TUESDAY the FOURTH DAY OF JUNE next; but should the drawing, however, not then take place, the managers pledge them-selves to return the money on demand to every person who may be dissatisfied.

THE MANAGERS. March 5. TICKETS in the above Lottery, may be had at the Book-store of J. Gales, Raleigh.

THE MUCH ADMIRED AND HIGHLY CELEBRATED MALTESE JACK, SANCHO:

The Senson will commence the 1st March and end the 1st August. I will not be liable for either accidents or escapes. Sancho can be seen at Joseph Bell's plantation from this time until the 1st of March next, where he will be shewn with much pleasure.

At the Agricultural Show and Fair, held in the State of Maryland on the 7th and 8th days of June last, at the Maryland Taverr, A miles from the City of Baltimore, the committee appointed by the Agricultural Societyto view the Asses and Mules, reported as fol-

The uncommonly large and valuable Mal-tese Jack, Sancho, shewn by John S. Skinner, Esq. attracted and deserved our particular attention, but being an imported animal, he was not considered a candidate for the pre-

Extract from a letter written by J & Skinner,

" BALTIMORE, 22p Nov. 1821. "DEAR SIR-The Maitese Jack, Sancho, was selected at Malta, by the late Capt. Gordon, of the United States Navy. He was 8 years old last Spring, and is the largest and best covering Jack in America, as well as the finest figure I have ever seen. The Mules from this race of Jacks are more docile and much more spirited and active than those from Spanish Jacks. Mr. Nabb, of the Council of Maryland, will vouch for the character here given of Sancho. He says he has mules by common Mares fifteen hands high by him, and that he will cover ten mares a day. I have seen many, I have never yet seen any equal to him for size and vigour. Yours, " JOHN S. SKINNER."

I deem it unnecessary for me to say any hing more in favor of Sancho, only, that a fair opportunity is now offered to the farmers of this section of the country to improve their stock, by obtaining mules of a superior size and quality.

SHARON FOR SALE.

THE place on which I reside, may be had on reasonable terms, for negotiable paper with Bank accommodation. It contains about 49 acres of Land, of good quality, hordering on the City of Raleigh, and on a public road leading from the City. Sixteen or eighteen acres are cleared and under cultivation, the rest is covered with a heavy forest growth, abounding with fire-wood and timber. The land contains an excellent rock quarry; is well watered by branches, and has two rock springs near the house, equal probably to any in the county. My dwelling is about 300 yards from the town line. The situation, therefore, has the advantages of town and country united, and is, in my estimation, the most desirable spot for a residence that I know in the State. Apply soon.

STOP THE THIEF.

CTOLEN out of my Stable on the night of the 8th instant, a Dark Chesnut Sorrel HORSE, (nearly black) with a star in his forehead, back slightly rubbed by the saddle, about 9 years old, upwards of 5 feet high, is a gentle pacing horse, the rather stiff in his movements. This Horse is supposed to be stolen by a man who called his name WILLIAM LEWIS, and had been lurking about here several days. He stated that he was rused in Chesterfield county, Virginia, and worked at the Carpenter's trade in Richmond for several years. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, rather dark complected, has a pleasing countenance when spoken to, has a sharp nose, and is thought to be about 25 years old; the first and third fingers on the left hand are marked with a Ring and Heart and an Eagle on the inside of one of his arms, supposed to be done with indelible ink. He had a new blue bombazette coat with pockets outside, a pair of nankeen pantaloons, a drab colored frock coat with capes, and a black hat somewhat worn; his other clothing not recollected.

Any information respecting the said Horse or Thief to the subscriber, or to Dr. John T Garland of Milton (the owner of the horse) will be thankfully received. THOMAS GRAVES. Caswell Courthouse, N. C. May 10.

All persons in the habit of receiving or handling money, will confer an obligation on those concerned, carefully to look out for Notes answering the above description, and if discovered, to stop such, and use every possible means to endeavor to trace them back to where the robbery was committed, and to communicate (as early as possible) any useful information on the subject either to Messrs, Gibson, Falconer & Co. Merchants, Charleston, S. C or to

in my hand-writing, with the word London. The above hand-bill was published under the date it bears, and was sent in various directions through this and the adjoining States. It was also published in the Raleigh Star; as yet, however, no discovery has been made of the money. It is believed, that by this time, at least part of the Notes may have been put into circulation. A REWARD OF FIFTY DOLLARS will be paid to any person who shall give information of any of the above described Notes, which may lead to the recovery of the whole, and to a conviction of the thief: or a proportionate part of the Reward for any part of the money recovered. Application can be made to either of the subscribers.

GIBSON, FALCONER & Co. Charleston, B. B. SMITH, Postmaster, Raleigh; or to WILLIAM SHAW, Raleigh.

N. B. It will be observed, that the whole of the above are Branch Notes of the State Bank of North-Carolina, and when inclosed in the letter for transmission, were all endorsed on the back with the word " London."-There is little doubt though, that before they are or may be put in circulation, the word "London" will be obliterated, either by extracting the ink, or cutting the Note through the word and pasting it over: therefore it is presumed that the only mode of detection will be from the corresponding number, date, payee, letter, &c. Cook, of said county, to secure me in a security debt on an appeal case from the County to the Superior Court, in a sum of near eight hundred dollars. have just cause to believe the Negroes were taken from my house on the 6th instant, by some designing person during my absence at Petersburg, as judgment had been just obtained against me a few days before their absence. I am informed that Benjamin Haw. kins is in Tennessee, but before and after he left the county he gave several instruments of writing purporting to be Powers of Attorney, to answer the special purpose to fix matters in their own way right or wrong. Ido not believe that Benjamin Hawkins ever had any intention to cause me to pay the debt : but by the interference of one or more of his near relatives, when he was intoxicated, urg. ed him to do and say things contrary to his inclination.
