

FOREIGN.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

NEW-YORK, May 22.

By the arrival of the ship Maria from London, and last from Cowes, we have received London papers to the 10th of April inclusive. We have only time to-day to give the following extracts:

LONDON, APRIL 11.

Letters were this morning received in the city by eminent mercantile houses, dated Odessa 15th, and Constantinople, 11th ult. The writers appear sanguine that the differences between Russia and the Porte would be amicably adjusted.

PARIS, APRIL 10.

A report was yesterday circulated in Paris, that the officers of the British Navy living in France, had received orders to repair to their respective stations.

ODESSA, MARCH 15.

It is stated from Galatz, that on the 12th of the month, the Turks chased three Russian vessels in the Black Sea, and captured two of them, on a pretext that they were conveying goods belonging to the Greeks.

AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, APRIL 4.

In consequence of orders received from St. Petersburg at Constantinople, the fleet in that port was equipped with the greatest activity.

LATEST FROM CANTON.

From the Providence Journal.

The ship General Hamilton, Baron, arrived at this port on the 18th inst. 112 days from Canton. We are indebted to the politeness of the Supercargo, Mr. Wm. Cooke, for the following intelligence:

When the news reached Canton, that the British frigate had fired upon and killed several Chinese, they, as usual in such cases, demanded an equal number of English to be delivered to them, to be put to death. This was refused on the part of the English. The trade was immediately stopped. Determined not to give up their men, as demanded, the company, (supercargoes) resolved to quit the factory, and take refuge on board their ships. The Chinese did not believe, at first, that they were serious, and concluded they were only making a feint. Finding, however, that their flag was struck, and that their wives and families had left Macao, that the treasure was embarked, and all the shipping had dropped down to the second bar, they became seriously alarmed. The Vice Roy had gone so far as to promise that the trade might go on as before, on condition, that when the English ships should have arrived in their own country, they should relate the affair to their sovereign, and "next year," they might bring the specified number of Englishmen, to be butchered according to their absurd laws.

Two days before the General Hamilton sailed, the Hong merchants, in a body, had gone down to endeavor to settle matters; but, at the time of sailing, no settlement had taken place.

The British supercargoes have behaved with the greatest firmness and resolution, and seemed determined to protect their countrymen from those unjust laws which consider an accidental homicide as equal to a deliberate murder.

FROM GIBRALTAR.

The Editor of the Boston Evening Gazette has received Gibraltar papers of as late a date as March 27th, but they do not contain any more recent advices from Spain, than those previously received by way of Liverpool.

United States' frigate Constitution, captain Jones, the sloop Ontario, captain Chancey, and the schr. Nonsuch, lieutenant commandant Turner, arrived at Gibraltar on the 17th of March, in five days from Port Mahon. On the 24th the Constitution and Ontario sailed from Cadiz. The Nonsuch departed for Mahon on the 22d.

The Asia, in 52 days from La Vera Cruz and the Havana, had arrived safe in Cadiz with her convey, having three millions of dollars on board.

LATEST FROM SOUTH-AMERICA.

NEW-YORK, May 22.

By the arrival this morning of the schr. Endymion, Capt. Hathaway, in 14 days from Lagaira, we learn that the Patriot blockading squadron of Porto Cabello, had summoned the garrison to surrender. The fleet consisted of three brigs and six schooners, and had been firing for some days into the town. The effect of the summons was not known when Capt. H. put to sea.

A report had reached Lagaira that the Spanish General Morales defeated in all his projects, and perceiving that he was about to be surrounded, had effected his escape, and arrived at Porto Cabello. This is extremely probable, as, by accounts received here.

last evening, it is ascertained that Coro had been re-taken by the Patriots on the 17th of April, after an engagement with the force under Colo. Tello and Barinas, in which the latter were completely defeated.

In addition to the above particulars, we learn, by Capt. Hathaway, that Com. Daniels had just arrived at Lagaira from the blockading squadron off Porto Cabello, having been ordered by the Colombian government on other service. The Spanish frigate Lagaira had made an attempt to break through the blockading squadron at Porto Cabello, but did not succeed, and returned into port with the loss of her foremast. A Spanish brig of war had been more successful, having eluded the squadron and arrived at Curacao. Capt. H. saw a three masted schooner in the Mona Passage, supposed to be a Spanish cruiser. The British brig Thebis, of Newcastle, from Greenock, via St. Thomas, was wrecked two miles to windward of Lagaira; cargo partly saved.

By the Endymion we have received Carracas Gazettes to the 29th of April. Translations of the operations of the Republican army against Coro, shall be given to-morrow.

LATE FROM MEXICO.

Philadelphia, May 18.

The Mexican minister Elizaldi, who has been for some time expected from that country, is not now expected before June. Some changes have taken place in the internal concerns of the Revolutionary government, which appeared to diminish the idea of permanent submission to the three guaranties.

There are three parties in Mexico, as there has been in all the other of the states of South America—a party inclined to the European connexion—a party which unites the desire to be independent of Spain with that of substituting a despotism of their own—the third party is for independence and representative government upon the principles of the Colombian and United States' republics—the first is composed of a few persons, but very powerful—the second is more numerous, more active, and is at present the party which holds the attachment of the military force—the third is the most numerous, having some few of the opulent, and all the liberal people, and the great mass of the population—this latter party gains its due place gradually, and many of the second party have come over to the third; the first appears to retain its limited numbers undiminished, but without retaining its influence; and the third, or popular party, which pursues a very moderate and steady course, appears likely to obtain, as in other parts of Spanish America, the ultimate ascendancy.

Gen. Wilkinson's visit to Mexico is to claim debts long due to him, from men who are now of great wealth, and with whom he had many years ago mercantile transactions which he could not obtain returns from after repeated application for many years. He is also acting as agent for several persons who have claims on the revolutionary government.—Aurora.

SHADY GROVE ACADEMY, Warren County, North-Carolina. THE semi-annual Examination of the pupils (male and female,) of this Institution, will commence on Thursday, 13th June, and close on Saturday the 15th with Public Speaking. No vacation at this time. Terms of Tuition, Ten Dollars per session: Board Forty Dollars per session, payable in advance. Medical aid free in the Academies. Young ladies and little misses will board in the Female Academy, under the immediate care of Mrs. COTTRELL. Small boys also can be accommodated in the family of Doctor COTTRELL. Young gentlemen can be well accommodated in respectable houses in the neighborhood. The two Departments are superintended at the distance of three hundred yards apart: the Male by Mr. BENJAMIN COTTRELL, who has highly distinguished himself as a teacher, by his indefatigable attention and success in the improvement of youth. The Female, under the principal care of Mrs. SUSAN L. COTTRELL, before mentioned, whom we believe to be inferior to no lady in our country for teaching both the literary and ornamental branches of female education.

We, whose names are here annexed, do recommend this Seminary to the public, as being situated in a healthy, pleasant part of the country, having the advantage of a stated and regular ministry, and remote from any place of dissipation. We do promise to attend these Schools frequently, and use all possible influence to preserve the morals of all who may come under our care. We do also respectfully invite the public, and especially the friends of Literature, to attend our examination, and judge for themselves of the merits of this Institution. HENRY G. WILLIAMS, SAM. WILLIAMS, WILL JONES, W. M. D. BARRETT, THOS. COTTRELL. Warren Co. May 27, 1822. 84 2t

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE UNION TAVERN. I WILL sell privately, on accommodating terms, this Establishment. As a Stand for a Public House, it is believed to be equal if not superior to any in the City, being situated immediately at the Courthouse and in the centre of the city. The House is large and convenient. There is a large Stable convenient to the Tavern, with a Well of excellent water in the lot. A person disposed to enter into a business of this kind, will find this situation can be recommended as a healthy and profitable stand. The payments will be made easy to any person disposed to purchase.—For terms, apply to the Subscriber, or Mrs. Jeter on the lot, who will continue to keep up the House as heretofore. She begs leave to tender her gratitude to her friends, and solicits a continuation of their custom; and assures them that every attention shall be paid to the comfortable accommodation of those who may call on her. THOMAS COBBS, Ex'or of C. JETER, dec'd. May 23. 83 tf

Raleigh Register. FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1822.

Counterfeit Bank Notes.—It has lately been discovered that there are in circulation Counterfeit Notes of our State Bank, which, though not well executed, may pass for genuine, if not inspected with some degree of care.—It is therefore thought necessary to caution the public against them. The Note which we have seen is of the letter B dated March 4, 1812, payable at the Principal Bank to H. Potter.—The signatures of the President and Cashier are not written, but engraved and printed, and the filling up, especially the figures, is badly done. The paper is of inferior quality, and the general appearance of the note is suspicious.

Mr. Russell's Letter.—The private letter written by Mr. Russell, from Paris, in Feb. 1815, to the President of the U. States, on the subject of the Treaty entered into at Ghent (especially in relation to the Fisheries and the navigation of the Mississippi by the British) being again called for by Congress, was laid before them just before they adjourned, accompanied by a letter from the Secretary of State, (who was one of Mr. R's colleagues) in which he charges Mr. R. with having, in the duplicate of the letter which he furnished, greatly deviated from the original, and with having in both misstated and perverted the facts about which he writes. The letters are too long for insertion. Mr. Adams's letter alone occupying nearly a whole side of the Intelligencer.

Mr. Gallatin is said to be expected from Paris. Letters are stated to be received from him by his friends, in which he says that he would sail from France in the month of April.

M. Politeca, Minister from Russia to the United States, sailed from New York in the ship Columbia on the 7th inst. with his servants, &c.

New Church.—We understand (says the Philadelphia Franklin Gaz. of the 21st inst.) that at a meeting yesterday of a number of Episcopalian gentlemen, a committee was appointed to receive subscriptions for a new Church, proposed to be built for the Rev. Mr. Bedell, a clergyman of distinguished abilities belonging to that denomination, late of Fayetteville.

A chariot propelled by steam is now exhibiting in New-York. Another is building on a larger scale, intended to ply in one of the public gardens.

The Report of the British National Vaccine Institution, appears in the last National Intelligencer. We will hereafter give it a place. It is a document of great interest at the present moment, from the extensive experience of that Institution, and the respectability of the names attached to the Report. It will have a tendency, we believe, to give ease and satisfaction to many families in the United States who have had children vaccinated, and to those also who may have children neither vaccinated nor inoculated.

It was but yesterday (says the National Intelligencer) that we saw in our account in a table in one of the Public Offices the following letter, of which we asked for a copy of publication.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Comptroller's Office, 8th May, 1822. SIR: On a further settlement of your account at the Treasury, in relation to opening and making roads under the treaty of Brownstown, it appears that you have fully accounted for the sum of $5,500, being the amount advanced to you for the above mentioned object. Your account will, therefore, be closed on the books of the Treasury. With great respect, JOSEPH ANDERSON, Compt'r. R. J. MEIGS, Jr. Esq. Now Postmaster-General.

Here is another bubble dissipated at a breath! And yet from materials of so frail a texture, do we find woven most glaring tissues.

Col. John L. Hopkins, who in the spring of 1819 had an affair with Mr. McQueen McIntosh, at Darien, Geo. (in which Mr. McIntosh was killed) and who was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary, but escaped by the connivance (as was supposed) of the Sheriff, has arrived at Savannah from Liverpool, in the ship Georgia. Immediately upon his arrival he gave himself up to the custody of the Sheriff.

Jacob Barker, of New-York, well known in the commercial world, as a merchant and banker, has lately been convicted of sending a challenge to fight a duel! The effect of this conviction, in that State, is a general disqualification to hold any office of trust, profit or honour, under the Government!

A New-York paper mentions, that upwards of one thousand houses are now building in that city; nearly all are of a very respectable class; among them several elegant churches.

English Wheat.—The ship Vulcan, arrived at New-York from Liverpool, has brought, as a part of her return cargo, a small parcel of English wheat—which, it is said, will yield a small profit to the importer. In the various changes to which commerce is subjected, we believe few ever calculated upon witnessing the fact, that English wheat would become an article of mercantile speculation in our markets, and still fewer could have dreamed, that the speculation would have been crowned with success.—Pet. Rep.

American Apples—Five varieties of Apples raised in the State of Maine, was last season sent to the Horticultural Society in London. They were said to be of English origin, but better than the same kinds grown in England!

On a late occasion, in the British House of Commons, it was stated by Lord Russel, that Mr. Arbuthnot, Secretary of the Treasury, had written circulars to members, requesting their attendance, "to resist the dangerous practices of Lords Althorp and Normanby, and Mr. Cleevy," members of the opposition. There was also a sentence in these words: "the opposition, in despair of being able to get into power themselves, are endeavoring to undermine and destroy the institutions of the country, and make it impossible for any set of men to carry on the business of the country." The Secretary made no difficulty in avowing the letter, but alleged that it was a private letter, and that he meant nothing personal. The Marquis of Londonderry (Castlereagh) treated the mention of it as an attempt to violate the freedom of opinion as to public measures. "He trusted they lived in a land of freedom, and were not to be gagged!" The assurance of this patriotic minister is not easily matched.—The attempts of the ministry to control the opinions of members, and the gross libel on others by name, are vindicated as the freedom of opinion by Castlereagh!

Duties on Iron.—The British diplomatic correspondence on this subject was communicated by the President to Congress, towards the end of the session. It appears that by the act of Congress, iron in bars and bolts, except iron manufactured by rolling, pays a duty of 75 cts. per cwt. and that iron in bars and bolts, when ma-
