

POETRY.

THE LAND OF THE BLEST.

By Percival.

The sunset is calm on the face of the deep,
And bright is the last look of day in the west.

Like the path that conducts to the land of the blest:
All golden and green is the land as it flows

In billows just leaving its tide to the shore,
And crimson and blue is the sky, as it glows

With the colours, which tell us that day-light is o'er.
I sit on a rock, that hangs over the wave,

And the foam heaves and tosses its snow-wreaths below:
And the flakes, gilt with sun-beams, the flowing tide pave,

Like the gems that in gardens of sorcery grow:
I sit on a rock, and I watch the light fade

Still fainter and fainter away in the west,
And I dream I can catch, through the mantle of shade,
A glimpse of the dim distant land of the blest.

And I long for a home in the land of the soul,
Where hearts always warm, glow with friendship and love,

And days ever cloudless still cheerily roll,
Like the age of eternity blazing above:
There, with friendships unbroken, and loves ever true,

Life flows on, one gay dream of pleasure and rest:
And green is the fresh turf, the sky purely blue,

That mantle and arch o'er the land of the blest.
The last line of light is now crossing the sea,

And the first star is lighting its lamp in the sky:
It seems that a sweet voice is calling to me,

Like a bird on its path-way of brightness to fly:
"Far over the wave is a green sunny isle,

Where the last cloud of even now shines in the west,
'Tis the island that spring ever woos with her smile:

O! seek it—the bright happy land of the blest."

"A LITTLE WILL NOT HURT YOU."

These words have done more mischief among mankind than perhaps all the artillery of Satan besides.
A little of the forbidden fruit, said the arch tempter to the mother of mankind, will not hurt you.

It will, on the contrary, open your eyes to behold hidden mysteries.
The unsuspecting fair believed too readily, and we all know and feel the consequences.

It is indeed, as every person of observation knows, by little and little, that every species of human frailty gains upon its victims, till it subdues their mental fortitude, and bids defiance to their noblest resolutions.

Cincinnatus, the Roman Patriot, weeding in his turnip garden;
Burke, the British Cicero, dining upon a matton chop;
and Franklin, one of the Patriots of America, feasting upon bread and water in a printing office!

What illustrious examples for modern philosophers and modern plough-boys!

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in each and every case where a judgment has been recovered, or may be hereafter recovered, in either of said Circuit Courts it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff in any such action to cause the writ of fieri facias, alias fieri facias, or other process of execution, to be directed and delivered to the marshal of either East or West Tennessee, at his election; and it shall be the duty of such marshal to whom the same may be directed, to do execution thereof, in the same manner, and under the same penalties, that he would be if the judgment had been rendered in the court of the district of which he is marshal.

SHARON FOR SALE.

THE place on which I reside, may be had on reasonable terms, for negotiable paper with Bank accommodation. It contains about 49 acres of Land, of good quality, bordering on the City of Raleigh, and on a public road leading from the City. Sixteen or eighteen acres are cleared and under cultivation, the rest is covered with a heavy forest growth, abounding with fire-wood and timber. The land contains an excellent rock quarry; is well watered by branches, and has two rock springs near the house, equal probably to any in the county. My dwelling is about 300 yards from the town line. The situation, therefore, has the advantages of town and country united, and is, in my estimation, the most desirable spot for a residence that I know in the State.—Apply soon.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

Gates County. Superior Court of Law and Equity, April Term, 1832.

Timothy Freeman, vs. Thomas Freeman, Job Winslow, and Harman Hurdle, Ex'rs.

IT appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, that Thomas Freeman is not an inhabitant of this state; on motion, therefore, it is ordered, that publication be made in the Raleigh Register for three months, that unless the said Thomas Freeman shall appear at the next Court of Equity, to be held for the County of Gates, at the Courthouse in Gates, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday in September next, and plead, answer or demur, the same will be taken pro confesso as to him, and heard ex parte.

Moore County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—May Term, 1832.

Darius Mills, vs. James Smith and Samuel Abel Douglas, Share of the Estate of Smith, deceased.

IT appearing to the Court that some of the legatees in this case are not inhabitants of this State; it is therefore ordered, that this suit be published in the Register and the Star, printed at Raleigh, two months, that those who may be concerned may have notice to appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to be held for the County of Moore, at the Courthouse in Carthage, on the third Monday in August next, and shew cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted.

87-9t CORR DOWD.

Paper Mill, Saw and Grist Mill and Crushing Machine, ON CRABTREE, NEAR RALEIGH.

THE above Mills being now in complete operation, the Proprietor requests good Housekeepers throughout the State, to lay aside for the use of his Paper Mill every piece of useless Rag, & send them, as they accumulate, to Merchants who will receive them, (of which there are a number in different parts of the State) or hand them to some poor person who makes a living by collecting materials for the Mill, or send them to his Bookstore in Raleigh; as, from the improved and enlarged construction of his present establishment, a greater quantity of this essential article will be required than formerly.

Persons wanting Plank and Lumber of any description, will be furnished immediately, or on short notice, by leaving their orders at J. Gales's Bookstore; and the neighbouring Farmers who have Lumber, which they wish to have sawed on Shares, will be accommodated.

The Grist Mill being in fine order (with a good Bolting Cloth) and a careful Miller provided, Families who may send their Grist to this Mill may rely on its being well and expeditiously ground. And having erected an excellent Rock Dam, it is presumed there will be no want of water in the driest times.

The crushing of the Cob with the Corn having been found to be not only a great saving, but to furnish a more wholesome food for Horses than feeding them with Corn alone, it is presumed the Crushing Machine will be considered an acceptable addition to this Establishment. Such as may wish it, may have their crushed Corn and Cobs put through the Grist Mill also.

A good Road having been opened to the Mills on the South side of the Creek, the Wagon Road from town is thereby shortened and greatly improved.

NORTH-CAROLINA.

A Proclamation.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to me, that a certain Negro Man, named JIM, believed to be the property of David Stone, Esq. of Wake County, stands charged by the verdict of a Jury of Inquest, with the murder of a young Negro Man, named Burton, the property of Green Ligon, of said county, a minor, and that said negro Jim has made his escape:

Now, therefore, to the end that he may be brought to justice, the above Reward will be given to any person or persons who shall apprehend and confine the said negro Jim in any Jail, so that he may be brought to trial for said offence: And I do moreover enjoin and command all Officers, Civil and Military, within this State, to apprehend and bring said negro Jim to justice.

Negro Jim is well known in this County and in Bertie, where he formerly lived; he is about five feet ten inches high, not very stoutly made, but is a negro of desperate character, and will probably resist all attempts to take him. He has a slit in his lower lip, one of his ears has been bitten off, and he wears his hair platted and turned up under his hat.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same at the City of Raleigh, this 12th day of July, Anno Domini, 1832.

His bed rooms are numerous and airy and well provided with every article of furniture necessary to afford comfort. His Bar will always be supplied with Ice and the choicest liquors, and his Table with the best the country will afford.

His Stable is large, and he pledges himself it shall at all times be well supplied with forage. Connected to his stable is a large Carriage House newly built.
