

TRANSLYVANIA UNIVERSITY. MEDICAL LECTURES.

THE Medical Lectures in this Institution, will commence on the First Monday in November next, and end the 1st week in March following. The Course of Instruction will be on Anatomy and Surgery by Dr. Dudley, Institutes of Medicine & Materia Medica by Dr. Caldwell, Theory and Practice of Medicine by Dr. Brown, Obstetrics & Diseases of Women & Children by Dr. Richardson, Chemistry by Dr. Blythe.

Wm Meredith, of Philadelphia, appointed Secretary. After hearing a written statement of the affairs of the Bank, and an oral address by the President, a numerous general committee was appointed to take into consideration the affairs of the Bank; when the meeting adjourned to meet again on the 11th instant, to hear the report of the general committee on the state and condition of the Institution.

Kentucky.—The following is a complete List of the Members elected in the State of Kentucky to the Eighteenth Congress:

- David Trimble *T. P. Moore
Thomas Metcalfe *David White
John T. Johnson *Charles A. Wickliffe
Francis Johnson *Philip Thompson
H. Clay *Robert P. Henry
R. P. Letcher and *Richard A. Buckner.

Those marked thus* are not Members of the present Congress.

The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States (Wm. H. Crawford, Esq.) is at present on a visit to his private residence in Georgia. Advantage has been taken of the opportunity to give him several public dinners. The regular toasts drunk on these occasions are spirited and patriotic, as might be well expected. The volunteers are more pithy than profound—

The following toasts appear to us to express sound constitutional sentiments.

1. The United States—May all attempts at either sectional or political division, acquire neither length of acquiescence or strength of influence, but be resisted with unceremonious contempt.

2. The State Governments—May they preserve their sovereignty in all constitutional points; but due subordination to the great federative head, will be the best means of securing permanent national existence.

“Voice from St. Helena”—A Work bearing this title has lately appeared, which has excited no little attention, and has afforded for the news-papers ample food, in the shape of copious extracts.

On the 28th of the last month the proprietors of the Cross Canal completed the digging, by which a communication is opened from the Dismal Swamp Canal into Gates county, in North-Carolina. The Cross Canal is on the west side of the main Canal, commencing in Camden county, about six miles from the southern outfall of the Dismal Swamp Canal; is about eight miles in length, and will be navigable this fall for boats carrying forty barrels.

“Mr. Surgeon O’Meara, is determined to make the most of his short acquaintance with Bonaparte, by imposing upon the public a work of his own fabrication, entitled a “Voice from St. Helena,” in which he professes to give an account of the conversations which he held with the Ex-Emperor. He represents himself as being upon such intimate terms with his distinguished companion, that all the secrets and private opinions of the latter were freely disclosed to him, and places himself in the light of a familiar with whom an unreserved communication was held; such as Bonaparte never held with any man.

The book is one of the most barefaced impositions ever foisted upon the world—being a pretended narration of actual conversations; while it is nothing but a romance from beginning to end; made up of hearsay stories, the babble of gossips, and the gleanings of tell-tale authors and newspaper scribblers.”

The most unfounded and exaggerated reports (says the Western Carolinian) having gone abroad, respecting the health of Salisbury—such as that the Yellow Fever is prevalent, and that many are daily falling victims to its ravages,—a regard to truth requires that we should contradict this idle, or malicious falsehood. Indeed, the reports carry their own refutation on the face of them; for if the mortality stated had existed here for the time these reports have been in circulation, the village ere this, must have been completely depopulated. The usual autumnal fever, of a mild type, has been rather more frequent than for some years past. We know only of two instances of death from fever, and but very few from any cause.

Major James Hamilton, jun. has been re-elected Intendant of the city of Charleston. It will be recollected that the duties of that office have been considerably increased, and that a salary of $35,00 is now attached to it.

Late papers from Havana state, that Col. Callaya, late Governor of W. Florida, has been appointed to the command of the Castle of St. Juan de Ulua, (Mexico) and sailed a few days since from Havana, in the sloop of war Majico.

It appears from a late N. York paper that a number of extensive robberies have been committed (in what is termed the infected district) upon the property of individuals, who have been forced to abandon their homes to preserve their lives. These depredations have been of the most wanton kind; after plundering the houses of whatever portable articles necessity might have forced the occupants to leave, the villains concerned have proceeded in many instances to split in pieces sideboards, bureaux & chests, no doubt in search of money.

A thief near Wheeling, Va. recently succeeded in stealing from a wagon a large trunk. He supposed that he had made a “good haul.” Eager to reap the reward of his labours, at a convenient place, he carefully opened the trunk by taking off the hinges, and emptied it of its contents, when lo! instead of finding something to gratify his avarice, he beheld a human form!

It was the mummy of one of the female aborigines, that had remained for ages in a cavern in Kentucky, and which was on her way to the eastward to be exhibited for the gratification of the curious.

Norfolk, Sept. 2. On the 28th of the last month the proprietors of the Cross Canal completed the digging, by which a communication is opened from the Dismal Swamp Canal into Gates county, in North-Carolina.

The United States ship John Adams, yesterday left her anchorage off this bar, where she arrived the day previous, and proceeded on her voyage, having on board Mr. Poinsett, of this city, who is on a visit to Mexico.

The John Adams, we understand, will touch at Porto Rico, for the purpose of protesting against the fitting out in that port of privateers, which capture American vessels, under an alleged order of the Spanish Government, blockading the South-American Provinces, which blockading decree has never been officially communicated to the United States.

Baltimore, Aug. 30.

Capt. Piscall, of the schr. Colonel Ramsay, arrived this morning in 13 days from Port-au-Prince, states that, six days previous to his sailing, Gen. Romeyne, who had been detained a state prisoner at Leogane, on parole, was shot, by secret orders from the government. It was supposed he had been detected in carrying on a secret correspondence with the north, with a view to revolutionize that quarter.

We are informed by a gentleman just arrived in this place, directly from Monterey, that Stephen F. Austin, who went on to the city of Mexico, in order to obtain a confirmation of his grant, (which our informant states he actually obtained) sailed from thence for the mouth of the Colorado, on board of a small sloop—but unfortunately the sloop was lost. The crew consisted of 11 men, all of whom perished, save two. It is with regret we state that Judge Austin is among those that are consigned to the deep. This gentleman further states that he never witnessed such a scene of distress as pervades throughout the country. The unfortunate families that have gone on with a view of settling, have become disgusted with the scene, and are now on their return to the United States—but from want and fatigue, it is doubtful whether all will effect a safe return. He states that it had not rained for the last ten months, and that the crops of corn were entirely burnt up—and that the Camanchee Indians were killing and plundering the Spaniards daily. This, we think, is sufficient to teach people to stay at home, and abandon the idea of trying new experiments of this kind.

Mr. Jefferson on the subject of Christianity.—This eminent Patriot, Philosopher and Statesman, who is at once the pride of his Country and the ornament of human nature itself, in a late Letter to a Gentleman in the vicinity of Boston, thus expresses his sentiments in relation to Christ and his doctrines:—Petersburg Intel.

“Their blasphemies, [the corrupters of Christianity] have driven thinking men into infidelity; who have, too hastily, rejected the supposed author HIMSELF, with the honors so falsely imputed to HIM. Had the doctrines of JESUS been preached always as purely as they came from his lips, the whole civilized world would now have been Christian. I rejoice that in this blessed country, of free enquiry and belief, which has surrendered its creed and conscience to neither Kings nor Priests; the genuine doctrine of ONE GOD is reviving. But much I fear that when this great truth shall be established, its votaries will fall into the fatal errors of fabricating formulas of creed and confessions of faith, the engines which so soon destroyed the religion of JESUS, and made of Christendom, a mere akademia.”

President Adams has recently given in immediate possession to his native town Quincy, nearly 200 acres of land, containing in a part of it, an inexhaustible quarry of stone for building houses, the whole proceeds to be appropriated to religious and literary purposes from generation to generation. He has also given to the town his whole library consisting of his highly valuable books, in various languages.

Labour and the Raw Material.—It is stated in an article in the Aurora, that one pound of Sea Island Cotton worth 20 cents in Savannah, when sent to England and converted into green gauze, sells for about 80 dollars; and that one pound of flax converted into fine Brussels lace will obtain nearly $400!

Dogs.—From the 20th of May to the 10th inst. 552 dogs have been killed in Philadelphia; yet, says the Union, notwithstanding this care of our police officers to prevent that dreadful affliction, hydrophobia, coming on the people, another small child, as we are informed, was bitten on Wednesday morning, in 9th street, by a dog supposed to be mad.

A diving bell under the direction of a submarine adventurer called Crusoe, of this place, has been shipped from London for Holland, to recover the Cargo of a vessel sunk there 22 years ago. She is stated to have 22 brass guns on board, 30,000 in gold, 32 casks of gold in bars. The vessel lays in 80 feet at high water, which being very clear, the most sanguine expectations are formed of their saving the whole of the property. One of the casks of gold bars were lately raised to the water’s edge, but from the bursting of the hoops, only one bar was saved, which weighed 7 1-2 lbs.

Murder in the first degree.—Died, in St. Andrew’s jail, on Sunday last, Mr. Israel Perley, belonging to Salem. (Mass.) aged 32 years. Mr. P. had been imprisoned the last 15 months for debt. His brother, Mr. John Perley, took passage a short time since in a vessel from Salem for the purpose of going to St. Andrews and liberating his brother. On the passage he fell from the mast head, a distance of about 50 feet, and was so much injured, (though no limbs were broken) that his life was despaired of for several days. He is still confined to his bed in this place, but we are happy to state is fast recovering. An inquest was held on the body of Mr. Perley, and the following is the verdict, which is taken from the St. Andrew’s Herald. His remains were interred on Tuesday last from the boarding house of Mr. Joseph Parker, in St. Andrews. “That the aforesaid Israel Perley, on the 4th day of August, instant, being a prisoner in the jail at St. Andrews, in the county aforesaid, then and there died of the visitation of God; and the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths further say, that they believe his death has been hastened, in consequence of his confinement in the lower room of the jail, where he was exposed for three months to a pestilential effluvia arising from the vault in said room, which occasioned insanity & disease, by which he came to his death.”

We understand that the Court of Naval Inquiry, now in session at Boston, has been instructed to investigate the state of the frigate Macedonian prior to her last leaving Boston, and from the facts which have been stated to us, and the high character and diligent habits of the gallant Capt. Shubrick, whose particular duty it was to attend to the minutiae of fitting out that ship, there cannot be a doubt that the idea of her having left Boston in a filthy state is totally destitute of foundation.—Nat. Int.

At a late trial in England of a suit brought against the proprietors of a Stage Coach for personal injury received from its being overset, by being imprudently loaded and driven, a verdict of Nine Thousand Dollars was given for the plaintiff, subject to reference.

In the thunder-storm on Thursday, the 15th inst. a small dwelling house, towards the north-westerly part of Sciuate, R. I. belonging to the widow Little, in the occupation of Ephraim Hopkins, jun. was struck with lightning, and the westerly end laid open, and one post struck out, and other parts thereof very much shattered; some cotton yarn in the chamber set on fire; pewter in the closet below melted; crockery broken, and other things damaged; but, strange to relate, there were nineteen persons in the house, consisting of the family and neighbours, who had run there for shelter, who were all struck down, but no one materially injured.

Longevity.—Mr. Ebber Lewis, of the town of Penfield, N. Y. in the 102d year of his age, being taxed this year for highway work two days, contemplates working the same himself.—He enjoys good health, and works daily in his garden. He was born at Lyme, Conn. At the age of 86 he had a rencontre with a bear, in which he was dreadfully lacerated, but succeeded in conquering him.

The above instance of longevity and capacity to endure fatigue, reminds of a case which, we believe, is far from being singular, which fell under our observation a day or two ago, of an individual from the same state. On Friday evening the 18th instant, arrived in this city, Paine Hines, an indigent soldier of the Revolution, in search of a pension, which had been refused to him upon a previous application by a Member of Congress. Although upwards of sixty-five years of age, he travelled on foot from Ovid, in Seneca county, in the state of New-York, in fourteen days. The distance is three hundred and thirty-three miles by the post-office books. On the day after his arrival here, his case was investigated, and it was found that there was an insuperable bar to the allowance of his pension, though he had served nearly the whole war, and is now miserably poor. The old man, having learnt his fate, meekly took up his scrip and wallet, and on the same day began to retrace his steps, and will no doubt reach home in two weeks, making a pedestrian tour in one month, in this warm weather too, of nearly seven hundred miles.—Nat. Intel.

Another instance of longevity.—Thaddey Doorley, a respectable farmer, died last May, near the Hill of Allen, county of Kildare, Ireland, at the age of 126 years and 3 months. His faculties were perfect to the last; and he could, until about six months before his decease, join in any of the sports of the field. He was married a second time about 19 years ago, at the age of 107 to a woman of 31 years of age.

POSTSCRIPT.

The packet ship William Thompson, arrived at New-York, brings English papers to the 1st of August.

These papers contain but two articles of news of any importance. The first is, that the Greeks had succeeded in destroying the Turkish fleet, commanded by the Captain Pacha. This fact seems to be as authentic as it is agreeable. The second item of news would be extremely unwelcome, if it were true, but it is considered very doubtful. It is, that a counter revolution had taken place in Madrid, which resulted in placing that city and the King in the hands of the Royalist party, and the overthrow of the constitutionalists. This story is, however, improbable.

MARRIED. In Duplin county, on the 3d inst. at the residence of David Wright, Esq. Dr. L. B. Bush, of Wayne, to Miss Mary G. Wright.

DIED. On the 20th July last, near Woodville, Mississippi, Mr. John J. Briggs, formerly of this county.

In Washington City, on the 4th instant, Hon. Josiah Meigs, Commissioner of the General Land Office, aged 65 years. His ability and integrity as a public officer, and his amiable qualities as a citizen, secured him universal confidence and esteem. The Clerks in the General Land Office, have voted to wear crepe on the left arm for thirty days, as a tribute of respect for his memory.

At Harper’s Ferry, a few days ago, after a short illness, Col. Jacin Laval, aged about 60 years. Col. Laval came to this country during our Revolutionary War, as a comar of dragoons in the French army under Gen. Rochambeau. He served to the end of the war with that gallantry which is the characteristic of his nation, and carried to his grave honorable scars of the wounds he received in battle.

Raleigh Register. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1822.

A lamentable occurrence took place in this city on the night of Friday last. In consequence of some difference arising in a Billiard Room between Richard Hains, the owner of the table, and Mr. James Boylan, of this vicinity; the latter was stabbed in the throat by the former, in such a manner as to cause his instantaneous death. The coroner’s inquest resulted in a verdict of wilful murder by the said Hains, who is now confined in the county jail to take his trial for the offence. This transaction has naturally produced a deep sensation here; but, as it is to undergo a judicial investigation, we content ourselves with stating the facts as they have occurred. Mr. Boylan’s premature death has deprived a wife and two children of their natural protector.

Bank of the United States.—On Monday, the 2d instant, pursuant to public notice, was held at Philadelphia, the triennial meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of the United States. Thomas Elliott, of Baltimore, was called to the Chair, and
