

POETRY.

"WHAT IS CHARITY."

'Tis not to pause, when at my door
A shivering brother stands;
To ask the cause that made him poor,
Or why he help demands.

'Tis not to spurn that brother's prayer,
For faults he once had known;
'Tis not to leave him in despair,
And say that I have none.

The voice of CHARITY is kind—
She thinketh nothing wrong;
To every fault she seemeth blind,
Nor vaunteth with her tongue.

In penitence she placeth faith—
Hope smileth at her door;
Believeth first—then softly saith,
"Go, BROTHER, sin no more!"

AN ACCOUNT

Of the late intended Insurrection among a portion of the Blacks of Charleston,
South-Carolina.

CONTINUED.

Before we proceed to a brief (and it necessarily must be very brief) abstract of the testimony offered in the cases brought before the Court, it may not be unimportant to observe, that, previous to their proceeding to the painful investigation with which they were charged, they laid down a variety of rules for their government, all of them subservient to justice as well as humanity. In the first place, it was decided, that the testimony should be regulated by those established rules of evidence, which are elsewhere found so important in the exposition of truth; that no slave should be tried but in the presence of his Master or his Attorney; that the testimony of one witness, unsupported by circumstances, should lead to no conviction involving capital punishment; and that the statement of the party himself, should be heard in explanation of such particulars, as seemed most inculpatory.

The Court being thus organized, they proceeded to the trial of ROLLA, the slave of Governor Bennett. Jacob Axson, Esq. attending as Attorney for his master.

It was proved, that Rolla had confessed to two persons, both of whom were examined by the Court, that he belonged to the conspiracy, and with one of these witnesses (his friend) he used every effort to induce him to join in the insurrection, which Rolla stated was to take place on the night of the 16th of June. Finding that this friend (the witness in question) would not join the association, he urged him to go out of town on Sunday night, lest some harm should come to him. Rolla represented himself as the commander of the force which was to rendezvous in the vicinity of his master's mills, and explained to the witness fully the order of attack; the division of the forces; and said, "that his troops, in their way into town, would fix his Old Buck (his master) and the Intendant." On being asked whether it was intended to kill the women and children, he remarked, when we have done with the men we know what to do with the women. On this testimony Rolla was found guilty, and sentenced to be executed on the 2d of July.

BATTEAU was next tried. It was proved that Bateau confessed to two persons (both of whom were introduced as witnesses) that he belonged to the conspiracy, and made efforts to induce them to join in the rising, by representing the extent of their preparations, and the probability of their success. He stated he was to head a party near Canon's bridge, and that he expected aid from the country. More than one interview took place between Bateau and the witnesses on the subject; the last, on the Sunday fixed for the insurrection, on which he renewed his solicitations that the witnesses should join him. Bateau was found guilty, and sentenced to be executed on the 2d of July.

STEPHEN, belonging to Th. R. Smith, Esq. was next brought before the Court, but the testimony being deemed insufficient, and indeed, the Court being satisfied of his innocence, directed his discharge.

PETER, the slave of Mr. James Poyas, was next tried. It was distinctly in proof, against Peter, that he had made great efforts to induce others to join in the insurrection; and the testimony represented him quite in the character of a chieftain or leader, for which his boldness and sagacity unquestionably qualified him. He appeared from the testimony, to have employed uncommon pains to remove all the objections arising in the minds of those whom he attempted to enlist, as to the probability of the success of the effort. And spoke with great confidence of the success which were expected from San Domingo. It was strongly to be inferred, from all the witnesses stated, that the difficult and dangerous sally of endeavoring to carry the Main Guard House was to have been confided to him, for he particularly acquainted one of the witnesses with the combination of stratagem and force with which he proposed to accomplish this object.

Peter was found guilty on this testimony, and sentenced for execution on the 2d of July.

The following Note appears on the Journals of the Court, in relation to the trial of Rolla—"Five witnesses were introduced and examined in behalf of Rolla, but so far from impeaching the credibility of the witnesses against him they rather supported it."

After the execution of Peter, his guilt, in the most flagrant degree became most abundantly established; affording, in every particular, the strongest corroboration of the testimony by which he had been convicted. It was apparent that he was the most efficient of all the ringleaders, and one who possessed the largest share of the confidence of Denmark Vesey, who was, in every sense of the term, the father of the plot. Peter was a slave of great value, and for his colour, a AMHERST, belonging to Mrs. Lining, was next examined, found not guilty and discharged.

The Court then proceeded to the trial of Ned, the property of Governor Bennett. Ned's guilt was proved fully by the same witnesses that appeared against Peter Poyas, with whom it was established he was in the habit of frequent consultation on the efforts that were to be made. Subsequent disclosures have justified very strongly the finding of the Court against him, and placed it beyond a doubt, that he was a ringleader, and was to have headed a force in the vicinity of the Lines. He was found guilty, and sentenced for execution on the 2d July.

On the 24th June, the Court discharged as not guilty, Samuel Gifford and Robt. Hadden, two free persons of colour, as also Matthias, the slave of Governor Bennett; Mungo, the slave of Mr. Poyas; Robert, the slave of Mr. Harth, and Richard and John, the slaves of Mr. Lucas.

On the 25th of June, the Court examined the cases of Jim, belonging to Mr. Annum; Sandy, belonging to Mr. Holmes, and Friday, the property of Mr. Rout, all of whom were found not guilty, and discharged.

On Wednesday, the 26th of June, the Court proceeded to the trial of ABRAHAM, the slave of Dr. Poyas. The only proof adduced against Abraham, was the following letter, found in the trunk of Peter Poyas, and acknowledged by Abraham to have been written by himself:

"DEAR SIR,—With pleasure I give you an answer. I will endeavour to do it. Hoping that God will be in the midst to help his own. Be particular and make a sure remark. Fear not, the Lord God that delivered Daniel is able to deliver us. All that I inform agreed, I am gone up to Beach Hill"

(Signed) ABRAHAM POYAS

Although this letter was extremely suspicious, yet, there being no other testimony against Abraham, he was found not guilty of the charge of attempting to raise an insurrection among the blacks against the white.

On Thursday the 27th, DENMARK VESSEY, a free black man, was brought before the Court for trial, assisted by his Counsel, G. W. Cross, Esq.

It is perhaps somewhat remarkable, that at this stage of the investigation, although several witnesses had been examined, the atrocious guilt of Denmark Vesey had not been as yet fully unfolded. From the testimony of most of the witnesses, however, the Court found enough and amply enough, to warrant the sentence of death, which, on the 28th, they passed on him. But every subsequent step in the progress of the trials of others, lent new confirmation to his overwhelming guilt, and placed him beyond a doubt, on the criminal eminence of having been the individual, in whose bosom the nefarious scheme was first engendered. There is ample reason for believing, that this project was not, with him, of recent origin, for it was said, he had spoken of it for upwards of four years.

These facts of his guilt the journals of the Court will disclose—that no man can be proved to have spoken of or urged the insurrection prior to himself. All the channels of communication & intelligence are traced back to him. His house was the place appointed for the secret meetings of the conspirators, at which he was invariably a leading and influential member; animating and encouraging the timid, by the hopes of prospects of success; removing the scruples of the religious, by the grossest prostitution and perversion of the sacred oracles, and inflaming and confirming the resolute, by all the savage fascinations of blood and booty.

The peculiar circumstances of guilt, which confer a distinction on his case, will be found narrated in the confessions of Rolla, Monday Gell, Frank and Jesse, in the Appendix. He was sentenced to be executed on the 2d July. [An anecdote showing how near Vesey was to bearing a part in the bloody events of San Domingo, appeared in the Register of the 30th ult.]

The Court tried JESSE, the slave of Mr. Thomas Blackwood. The testimony against Jesse was very ample. His activity and zeal, in promoting the views of Denmark Vesey, in relation to the plot, were fully proved. He had engaged with Vesey to go out of town on Sunday the 16th, to bring down some negroes from the country, to aid in the rising on that night; and remarked to the witness, on his way to Hibbens' ferry, "if my father does not assist I will cut off his head."

All the particulars in proof against him, he confirmed after receiving his sentence, by his own full and satisfactory Confession, which will be found in the Appendix, marked (G.)

This man excited no small sympathy, not only from the apparent sincerity of his contrition, but from the mild and unostentatious composure with which he met his fate.

Sentence of death was passed on these six men, on the 28th of June, and they were executed on the 2d of July. With the exception of Jesse and Rolla, they made no disclosures; all of them, with those exceptions, either explicitly or implicitly affirming their innocence. It is much to be lamented that the situation of the Work House, at this period, precluded, after their sentence, their being separately confined; at least, that Vesey could not have been subjected to the gloom and silence of a solitary cell. He might have been softened, and afforded the most precious confessions, as his knowledge and agency in the nefarious scheme very far exceeded the information of others, who, however guilty, seemed but the agents of his will. But these men mutually supported each other, and died obedient to the stern and emphatic injunction of their comrade (Peter Poyas) "Do first rate ship-carpenter. He had the confidence of his master in a remarkable degree, and had been treated with indulgence, liberality and kindness.

not open your lips! Die silent, as you shall see me do!" It was, perhaps, alone in Denmark Vesey's power, to have given us the true character, extent and importance of the correspondence, it was afterwards proved, was carried on with certain persons in San Domingo. (To be continued.)

NORTH-CAROLINA.

TREASURY OFFICE, 2d Sept. 1822. THE Public Treasurer, reflecting with state pride and self complacency, on the punctual and praise-worthy manner in which the Sheriffs and the other Revenue Officers of North-Carolina have, for many years past, acquitted themselves of the trusts and duties enjoined on them by law, with respect to the collecting and accounting for the public dues; holds it unnecessary here to call on them or any of them, in regard to the Taxes of the current year; and will therefore consider that enough is said when they are reminded, that the time fixed by law for settling their Accounts and making Payment at the Treasury, is now at hand; and that it, of course, remains for those concerned to continue so to conduct themselves, as effectually to support and sustain that reputation and high standing which have been hitherto so generally and deservedly accorded to them, as Revenue Officers aforesaid.

AMERICAN ATLAS.

THE Author of the NEW AMERICAN ATLAS, deems it necessary to apprise his Patrons and the Public generally, lest any misapprehension should arise, from a similarity of names, that the work about to be published by Messrs. Carey and Lea, Booksellers, of this city, under the title of the "American Atlas," is a distinct and separate work from the former, in which the subscriber has no interest nor concern. The author of the first mentioned work, embraces this opportunity to inform his Patrons, that the fifth and last number of his Atlas will be prepared as soon as the surveys and other documents shall be arranged; the publication of which will, it is hoped, take place in the course of the present year. This number will embrace Maps of the following states: Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Missouri, North & South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama, all arranged on a uniform scale of 17 miles to the inch, being the same as the Maps of the other States, already published.

SHARON FOR SALE.

THE place on which I reside, may be had on reasonable terms, for negotiable paper with Bank accommodation. It contains about 49 acres of Land, of good quality, bordering on the City of Raleigh, and on a public road leading from the City. Sixteen or eighteen acres are cleared and under cultivation, the rest is covered with a heavy forest growth, abounding with fire-wood and timber. The land contains an excellent rock quarry; is well watered by branches, and has two rock springs near the house, equal probably to any in the county. My dwelling is about 300 yards from the town line. The situation, therefore, has the advantages of town and country united, and is, in my estimation, the most desirable spot for a residence that I know in the State.—Apply soon.

NORTH-CAROLINA.

A Proclamation.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to me, that a certain Negro Man, named JIM, believed to be the property of David Stone, Esq. of Wake County, stands charged by the verdict of a Jury of Inquest, with the murder of a young Negro Man, named Burton, the property of Green Ligon, of said county, a minor, and that said negro Jim has made his escape:

Now, therefore, to the end that he may be brought to justice, the above Reward will be given to any person or persons who shall apprehend and confine the said negro Jim in any Jail, so that he may be brought to trial for said offence: And I do moreover enjoin and command all Officers, Civil and Military, within this State, to apprehend and bring said negro Jim to justice.

Negro Jim is well known in this County and in Bertie, where he formerly lived: he is about five feet ten inches high, not very stoutly made, but is a negro of desperate character, and will probably resist all attempts to take him. He has a slit in his lower lip, one of his ears has been bitten off, and he wears his hair platted and turned up under his hat.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same at the City of Raleigh, this 12th day of July, Anno Domini, 1822.
