From the Petersburg Intelligencer.

THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE.

There was a day—but it is gone,
That day was in life's early morn—
When pleasing hopes were brightly gleaming
And pleasures sweet were on me streaming,
When mirth of sorrow I was dreaming,
And parent's smiles were on me beaming,
Each moment bliss, with thought between it,
That day has been—and I have seen it!
There was a day—when I could smile
And pleasure idle hours beguile—
When ne'er a thought was to distress me,
And ne'er a care was to oppress me,
When friends and kindred all did bless me,
And oft with rapture did caress me—
When for me pain'd—they would not own it,
That day has been—and I have known it!
There was a day—the day of love—
When tender passion did me move,
Till my fair mistress from me turned,
Another detention I discerned.
When love's soft flame no longer burned,
And ne'er to trust them more, I learned—
The path of love—what snare beset it,
That day has been—and I regret it!
There was a day—when fortune smil'd
And competence each care beguiled,
When now, as for future I was caring,
No future woes or ill was fearing;
And each soft breeze was quite endearing
That me to pleasure's port was steering—
Ah! sweet that day—memory cheers it,
That day has been—and that endures it!

There was a day—and shall I tell,
(While sorrows keen my heart shall swell)
I had a friend who ne'er deceiv'd me,
I lov'd that friend and he believ'd me,
But of that friend had death bereav'd me,
Oh! at that stroke, had he too cleav'd me—
It op'd a world—and time can't heal it,
That day has been—and still I feel it!

These days have been—but they're no more,

My hours of bliss have all past o'er,
For now has come the day of mourning,
When fortune, dark, is on me frowning—
And care each blessing that's crowning,
With hopeless woe—my misery crowning—
No path is left, for me to flee it,
This day has been—and still I see it.

The day may come, when hope again
Shall smile and sooth the keenest pain—
When dry shall be each tear of sorrow,
And care my cheeks no longer furrow,
When each new tho' some zest shall boardw,
To cheer those scenes which come to-morrow—

And friendship's tie—chance may renew it,
That day—may come—and shall I view it?

WARRENTON FEMALE ACADEMY.

A CHILLES PLUNKETT, being now in possession of this Institution, no exertions will be spared to render it worthy of public patronage. To the objects of accomplishment, great care will be used in adding the important lessons of propriety of manners. The efforts of his own family to attain these objects, will be aided by the talents of Mr. MORSE, (an American gentleman) and his daughter.

All the branches constituting a complete course of English Education, will be taught by Mrs. PLUNKETT, Mr. J. D. PLUNKETT, and Mr. MORSE. The French language and Music will be under the direction of A. PLUNKETT. Painting on Paper and Velvet will be taught by Miss MORSE; and should there be a sufficient number of pupils in Dancing, Mr. L. T. TARRA will preside over that branch. The price of Board and £ 65 per Session. English tuition will be £ 30.

Music, 30

Painting, 10

Needle-work, 5

The only extra charge will be 50 cents per session, for pens and ink.

Pupils entering for one session, pay in advance: those for a year, pay half in advance, and half at the end of the classical year: those that come after the beginning of the session, pay from their arrival.

The first session will begin on Monday the 6th of January, 1823, & end with the examination in June. There will be no vacation before the end of the second session, in November, when the second examination will close the year.

Articles of Stationery, Printed Music, and implements for Painting will be kept for the convenience of the pupils, who will be furnished with such as are indispensable, at the Philadelphia and Petersburg retail prices.

Each boarder must be provided with a pair of sheets, a counterpane, blankets and towels.

For the information of persons unacquainted with Mr. Morse, it may be proper to state, that he is recommended by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Moore, the Hon. Judge TUCKER, and Mr. E. Campbell, Professor of Mathematics at William and Mary College. A. P. has also in his possession, letters of recommendation of Mr. Morse, written in 1819 and 1821, by Com. Macdonough, Com. Shaw, and Capt. Crane, of the United States Navy, the Rev. Usher Parsons, of Dartmouth University, and the Rev. Wm H. Wilmer of Alexandria. From the well tried abilities and character of Mr. Morse, A. Plunkett feels himself warranted in expressing the full confidence in the superior capacity of that gentleman for communicating instruction in that most desirable branch of Female Education, the correct knowledge and expression of the English language.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

I HAVE resolved to occupy my former dwelling, near my Medicine Store. Letters for sale the LOT on which I now live on Hillsborough street, adjoining Dr. Burgess's and others. This place is handsomely situated, & has on it a Dwelling House with four rooms below and four above stairs, with six fire places, and all other Outhouses, with a large Garden and Well of water in the yard inferior to none in the vicinity of Raleigh. This property is well worth the attention of those wishing a pleasant seat a little retired from the bustle of business. Good accommodation will be given for the whole of the purchase money. Possession given immediately.

SHARON FOR SALE.

THE place on which I reside, may be had on reasonable terms, for negotiable paper with Bank accommodation. It contains about 49 acres of Land, of good quality, bordering on the City of Raleigh, and on a public road leading from the City. Sixteen or eighteen acres are cleared and under cultivation, the rest is covered with a heavy forest growth, abounding with fine wood and timber. The land contains an excellent rock quarry, is well watered by branches, and has two rock springs near the house, equal probably to any in the county. My dwelling is about 300 yards from the town line. The situation, therefore, has the advantages of town and country united, and is, in my estimation, the most desirable spot for a residence that I know in the State.—Apply soon.
