FORGET THEE! NO, NEVER.

From thee, Bianca? No, not for the earth!
A Not for earth's brightest?—Milton.
Forget thee!—No, never!—Why cherish a thought
To the friend of thy soul, with injustice so fraught?

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
ON the 13th of February, 1823, Ran away from my Plantation on Fishing Creek, opposite Millbrook, a likely Negro Man by the name of BERRY, about 6 feet high; I believe he would weigh 180 pounds; he is nearly three and twenty years of age, inclined to be knock-kneed, and his foreteeth are black & apparently rotting. As well as I recollect he has a dark spot under one of his eyes, the effect of a blow received in combat. His intention, I suppose, is to pass for a free man, it being pretty certain that he has obtained, as evidences of freedom, some papers from a free man of color by the name of BEN TAN, which name it is probable he will assume to correspond with his papers.

Also, in the month of January, 1819, eloped from my custody as guardian, a Negro Man named SOLOMON, the property of James and Thomas N. Mann. He is a large man, being nearly 6 feet high, of a dark copper complexion, and from 30 to 35 years of age. This man is well known in the neighborhood of Tarborough, as a ditcher, in which business he was engaged for several years, having as his associate or partner, Jim, Reuben, Lewis, Will or Moses. In the pursuit of his employment he acquired such habits of wandering and insubordination, as to become incapable of the slightest control, and at length entirely disappeared. It has been frequently understood that he is in some of the lower Counties, employed sometimes as a ditcher, at others in boats from Tarborough to Washington, to Plymouth and on the Roanoke. More recently it was heard that he was engaged in the neighborhood of Murfreesboro' by a Mr. Times or Tiner, to get shingles or to ditch. He passes by different names, but usually calls himself Scott, or Captain Scott.

This fellow is certainly a dangerous associate for slaves, his ideas of servitude having often and openly been avowed, as well as his determination never to submit to it; and it is known that he has seduced and prevailed with many others to abscond and accompany him. A reward of Fifty Dollars will be given for Berry, and One Hundred Dollars for Solomon, payable on confinement so as to be delivered to me; to which will be added, if brought home, all reasonable expenses.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.
In the vicinity of Raleigh.
A Tract of Land containing 1834 acres, about nine miles from the City, lying on Swift and Williams's Creeks on the Road leading to Haywood, formerly occupied by Joseph Lane, Jun. and at present in possession of T. L. West. It is believed that for soil, beauty and healthiness of situation, it is scarcely equalled by any Plantation in this part of the country. A considerable portion of this Land is fine low Ground, and the high land is fertile and very well timbered. A better Range for Cattle and Hogs is no where to be found. There are considerable Improvements, good Orchards, a Grist-Mill &c. and fine Springs.
Apply to J. Gales, in Raleigh, or to T. L. West, on the premises.
With the above Tract of Land may be had 300 Acres of Pine Land, in the vicinity.

STRAYED
FROM the Plantation occupied by Dr. Ward near the Falls of Tar River, about the 5th of February a large BAY HORSE, about 5 feet high, has two white feet, high weathers, sunk neck, carries his head high and has a wild look. The last intelligence had of him, he was seen a few miles east of Raleigh; it is highly probable he is now wandering about that city or its vicinity. Whoever may take up said horse and give information thereof to the subscriber living near Tarboro, or convey him hither by some waggoner or other person that may pass this way, shall be well rewarded for their trouble.

Treasury Office, 10th March, 1822.
THE Purchasers of Lots of the Public Lands near Raleigh, sold in 1820, who remain in arrears to this State on that account, are hereby again called upon to pay off and take up the Bonds given by them respectively to secure the amount of their purchases.—It might be added, that the proceeds of these bonds are appropriated, and the money must therefore be had; it is considered, however, unnecessary to say more, as all concerned are aware of the duties of the Treasury in regard to the collection of monies due to the public, and will of course bear in mind, that the laws in that respect are imperative, allow no opportunity to that officer, and most of necessity be carried into effect by him.

WAKE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.
THE Legislature of this State having, at their last session, appropriated Five Thousand Dollars a year, for two years (which will probably be continued if found to be attended with public advantage) for the promotion of Improvements in Agriculture, to be distributed in proportion to their federal numbers, amongst such Counties, and such only, as shall form Agricultural Societies; it is hoped the Farmers of Wake County will not be backward in promoting this great object. A Meeting is therefore hereby called, at the Court-House in Raleigh, on the 1st day of May next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of forming a Society, to be called The Wake Agricultural Society, which it is hoped will be well attended.

LOOK HERE!
STOP THE RUNAWAY.
DEPARTED from the subscriber in Wake county, N. C. near Raleigh, on the 26th of February, a Negro Fellow named LEWIS, about 23 or 24 years of age, and about 5 feet 11 inches high; of a dark complexion; his countenance resembling much that of a free negro; he is slim made and well proportioned, features and figure much like those of a white person. He took with him two pair of pantaloons, one dark mixt, the other white woollen, one pair thread stockings, one shirt, and one round coat lined with black yarn, and a fine broadcloth coat of bottle green color, made by a tailor, also a twilled blanket with three points. He once ran away and passed under a free man by the name of Lewis Pettiford and other names in several towns. It is believed that he will try to make his escape by water or to pass in some town as a free man and likely form some connection with free negroes—also will undoubtedly try to get into some business. Endeavour in opening the Navigation are cautioned against him, and likewise boatmen and owners of vessels of any kind whatever. He can tell a smooth story, but when earnestly attacked conviction will be visible.
Any person who will deliver said Negro to me or confine him in Jail and give me notice thereof immediately, so that I get him, shall be amply rewarded and all reasonable expences paid.
