

POETRY.

We recommend the following stanza to the attention of our readers. They possess the soul of tender sensibility and feeling, and are as much to be admired for their chaste and classic expression, as for the sweetness of their pensive melody.

From the New-Hampshire Patriot. I love the memory of that hour, When first in youth I found thee, And infant beauty gently threw A morning freshness round thee, A single star was rising then, With mild and lovely motion, And not the zephyr's gentlest breath Went o'er the sleeping ocean, I love the memory of the hour— It wakes a pensive feeling, As when within the winding shell, The playful winds are stealing, It tells me of my earliest days, Ere hope went down in sorrow, And the joys of yesterday Were painted on to-morrow, Where art thou now?—The bending grass A dewy stone discloses, And love's young footsteps paint the ground Where all my peace reposes, But where are they?—Thy funeral flowers Thy yellow leaves are twining, Yet still upon the peaceful wave That single star is shining, Farewell! my tears are not for thee, 'Twere madness to deplore thee, Or vainly mourn thy absence here, When angels half adore thee, Thy days were fair and quickly told, Thy life, a mournful story, Hath ended like the morning star, That melts in deeper glory.

FRIENDSHIP

Has been finely termed by the Poet "the sweetener of life and the solder of society." In every situation of life, its consolations are requisite. Prosperity, without a friend to participate, is insipid—and adversity without a friend to assist or console, is misery indeed. Friendship is no less productive of every moral happiness and duty, and is in all respects essential to the well being of society, inasmuch as "the world would be a wilderness without it." devoid of hope, and bereft of that feeling which giveth security to that enjoyment.

BENEVOLENCE.

Happy the sons and daughters of benevolence, who, uninfluenced by the endearing ties of sympathy, cease not to extend the kindest offices of friendship and the Godlike gifts of charity. The heart of the unhappy dilates as benevolence approaches, for her aspect is angelic and her deportment endearing. The wretched distinguish her from afar, and her presence giveth unspeakable joy and consolation.

PARENTAL AFFECTION.

Throughout the extended bounds of the universal world, how beautifully do the planets, the elements, and in fine every thing in nature conspire to harmony and affection; each species coagulating with its kind, all promoting beatitude of existence which delights, enraptures, and astonishes. This is the source of love, pure and unsophisticated, and is the best gift of the Divinity—its balmy influence, like the fragrant zephyr, wafts happiness and comfort. It is also a source of infinite anxieties and infinite duties; and hence parental kindness is entitled to pre-eminence, inasmuch that no other duty precedes it in the eternal scale of estimation. For HE, who giveth life and being to all things created, expecteth from his creatures due love and obedience.—In like manner it behoves the child to regard with affection his earthly parent, to whom he unquestionably owes gratitude & love.

INDUSTRY.

The wisest sages of antiquity and the soundest moralists of the present age, freely admit the vast importance of activity and industry. Industry is zealous, void of idleness, dissipating idleness and all her train of evils, and raising monuments of greatness. It is industry that achieves that which appears impossible.—It is she who continually addeth comforts to society and, who banisheth indolence and vice. Fostered by her, liberty exalts a nation, commerce waits her sails, the arts and sciences flourish, and plenty openeth her door to health and contentment.

BEHAVIOUR.

There is no greater mark of ill-breeding or of ill-manners, and impetuosity, than behaving unseemly and disorderly in a place of worship. One that should behave indecently and rudely in, or about a gentleman's house—who should insult or disturb company assembled at his invitation to enjoy his converse and partake his bounty—would be pronounced by every man of sense and feeling a blackguard or a ruffian, unfit for civil society, and deserving to be taught lessons of politeness in a pillory or a prison.—Yet how much greater is the offence when committed in and around the House of God, the Creator, and preserver of mankind and to the molestation of his creatures cravened to acknowledge his goodness and invoke his grace!

An Act providing for the execution of the titles to land in that part of the State of Louisiana, situated between the Rio Hondo and the Sabine River.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That all that tract of country situated between the Rio Hondo & Sabine River, within the State of Louisiana, and previously to the Treaty of the twenty-second of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, between the United States and Spain, called the neutral territory, be, and the same is hereby, attached to the District south of Red river; and the Register and Receiver of the Land Office, in said District, are required to receive and record all written evidences of claim to land in said tract of country, derived from, and issued by, the Spanish Government of Texas, prior to the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and three, according to the regulations, as to the granting of lands, the laws and ordinances of said government, and to receive and record all evidences of claim, founded on occupation, habitation, and cultivation, designating particularly the time and manner in which each tract was occupied, inhabited, or cultivated, prior to, and on the twenty-second of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the continuance thereof subsequent to that time, with the extent of improvement on each tract, and to receive and record such evidence as may be produced, touching performance of the conditions required to be performed by any holder of any grant, concession, warrant, or order of survey, or other written evidence of claim, and on which the validity of such claim may have depended under the government from which it emanated, and to receive and record all evidence of fraud in obtaining or issuing the written evidence of such claims, and of their abandonment or forfeiture.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Register and Receiver, as aforesaid, shall transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury a complete record of all the claims presented to them under this act, and the evidence appertaining to each claim, and shall also make out and transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury an abstract, containing the whole number of claims, in four distinct classes, the first of which shall contain a specification of the nature and extent of complete titles, the time when, and by whom issued, and to whom, with the date of any transfer, the name of the person transferring, and to whom transferred, and where the conditions of such grant or patent have been complied with; the second shall contain all claims founded on written evidence and embraced in the first class, and where the conditions on which the perfection thereof into complete titles may have depended according to the laws and ordinances of the Spanish Government, are shown to have been complied with; the third class shall consist of claims founded on habitation, occupation, or cultivation, previously to twenty-second of February, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and in the manner which would have entitled the claimants to a title under the government exercising the sovereign power over that tract of country, and which, in their opinion ought to be confirmed; the fourth class shall consist of those claims, which, in the opinion of the Register and Receiver, ought not to be confirmed: Provided, That nothing contained in this act shall be considered as a pledge on the part of Congress to confirm any claim thus reported.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Register and Receiver aforesaid, after suitable notice to claimants, of the time and place of their meeting, and the order to be observed by them, to hold their session at Natchitoches, so long as may be necessary for the performance of the duties herein prescribed, and shall be also the sum of five hundred dollars each, as a full compensation for the services required to be performed by this act.

Approved, March 3, 1823.

An Act appropriating moneys for the purpose of repairing the Public Road from Cumberland to Waverling.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, of moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of repairing and improving the Public Road from Cumberland to Waverling, under the direction of the President of the United States.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the faithful and speedy accomplishment of this object, the President, with the advice of the Senate, shall appoint some fit person as Superintendent of the said road, whose duty it shall be, with all practicable dispatch, to contract for, and personally superintend, the execution of the repairs and improvements which shall be deemed necessary on the said road, as well as to receive, disburse, and faithfully account with the Treasury for, the sum of money which may be received by him in virtue of this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the superintendent, so to be appointed, shall, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties enjoined by this act, execute bond, to the United States, with security, to be approved of by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, enjoined by this act; he shall hold his office during the pleasure of the President, and shall receive, as a compensation for his services, the sum of three dollars per day, during the time he may be employed in the discharge of the duties enjoined by this act.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD. RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, on Friday last, a Mulatto Boy called HARRY, about 20 years of age, badly grown, would not weigh more than 115 or 20, left handed, very awkward at any out-door work, having been a House Servant. The little finger of his right hand is still sore, from a recent cut by chopping. He also has a little scar on his forehead, above his right eye. He wore away a round jacket and pantaloons of brown yarn homespun, much worn, which it is likely he may change, as I expect he will endeavor to pass as a free Boy. For the delivery of him to me, in this place, or in any Jail, so that I get him again, I will pay the above reward. JO. HAWKINS. Raleigh, April 21. 31-tf

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's Plantation in Chesterfield District, South-Carolina, early last autumn, two Negro Men, CHARLES and BILL.

Charles is of ordinary size, well made, yellow complexion; remarkably intelligent, speaks quick, is about 25 years of age.—He was purchased in Beaufort county. Bill absconded with him, is about 20 or 25 years of age, is low, and has a scar I believe on one of his cheeks, perhaps a scar on his head; he is also inclined to yellow complexion, and beats on the drum tolerably well. Bill was purchased in the neighborhood of Snowhill.

Charles may perhaps attempt to pass himself as a free man.

The above reward will be given to any person who will return them to my plantation; or half the above reward will be given to any person who will secure them in Jail, or in proportion for either of them, and give me information. PLEASANT H. MAY. March 10.

The Editors of the Raleigh Star, and Northern Centinel, are requested to insert the above until otherwise ordered, and in the mean time forward their papers to me at Statesburg, S. C.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

In the vicinity of Raleigh. A Tract of Land containing 1634 acres, about nine miles from the City, lying in Swift and Williams's Creeks, on the Road leading to Haywood, formerly occupied by Joseph Lane, Jun. and at present in possession of T. L. West. It is situated in possession of T. L. West. It is believed that for soil, beauty and healthiness of situation, it is scarcely equalled by any Plantation in this part of the country. A considerable portion of this land is fine low Ground, and the high land is fertile and very well timbered. A better Range for Cattle and Hogs is no where to be found. There are considerable improvements, good Orchards, a Grist-Mill &c. and fine Springs. Apply to J. Gales, in Raleigh, or to T. L. West, on the premises. With the above Tract of Land may be had 300 Acres of Pine Land, in the vicinity. January 14.
