SONNET.

There is a mood, to madness near allied,
When visions of the past—that will not rest—
And thoughts long banished—feelings long suppressed—
Gush on the heart, in wild o'erwhelming tide—

A NIGHT PIECE.

FROM BYRON'S SIEGE OF CORINTH.

'Tis midnight: on the mountains brown
The cold, round moon shines deeply down:
Blue toll the waters, blue the sky
Spreads like an ocean hung on high,

BEGIN IN TIME.

Albert possessed at the death of his father, a wide domain; he planned vast improvements: and intended to meliorate the condition of his tenants.

Clariissa was an enchanting girl; handsome, but not accomplished. She wished to be pious and godly; but she was so young, and had so many admirers—and it would do when she grew older.

Tom Dashall had a habit of swearing. He would fain mend it; he resolved on doing it;—and he would begin soon.

Sam Thirsty was fond of strong drink. His friends told him if he persisted, it would kill him. Sam laughed, thinking he could leave it off when he pleased.

Timothy Giddy chose to be a lawyer. He would study hard, that he would. He frolicked with the men and coquetted with the girls.

Time wastes too fast; every letter that I trace, tells me with what rapidity life follows my pen; the days and hours of it, more precious, my dear Jenny, than the rubies about the neck.

Who can tell how much may be compressed into the farewell moments of life? Oh, who can tell how much of fear may be mingled with how much of hope in the brief shallow draught of the unresisted cup?

exerted for sorrow, for joy, for memory, for foresight."

'Time is money,' said the celebrated Franklin. His meaning doubtless was, that a wise improvement of time in some proper business, procures money. In the same latitude of speech, we may say, that time is knowledge, usefulness, honor, character; that is, the proper use and wise improvement of time procures all these.

One truth aids another truth: and one duty another duty. Detach private devotion from public, or public worship from private, and both sustain an injury. Separate practice from principle, or principle from practice; faith from works, or works from faith; promises from commands, or commands from promises—and in the same proportion you diminish and destroy the effect of the whole.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA. A Proclamation. 200 DOLLARS REWARD.

WHEREAS it has been made appear to me, that a certain THOMAS CURTIS, of Anson county, stands charged by a bill of indictment of the Grand Jury, with the Murder of one Thomas Cash, of said county; and that, he the said Thomas Curtis, did on the night of the 7th of February last, make his escape from the Jail of the aforesaid county of Anson:

Now therefore, to the end that he the said CURTIS, may be brought to justice, the above Reward will be given to any person or persons, who will apprehend and confine the said fugitive in any jail in this State, so that he may be brought to justice.

CURTIS is between twenty-five and thirty years of age, about five feet nine or ten inches high, spare made, dark hair, blue eyes, long sharp nose, rather dark skin, thin visage, slow speech and down look, has a knot on one of his fingers, which causes it to be a little crooked and stiff, supposed to be on the left hand.

In testimony whereof I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same at the City of Raleigh, on the 29th day of April, 1823.

By the Governor, L. B. HARRIS, P. Sec'y.

THE LATE CAPT. BENJAMIN WARD, OF WARREN COUNTY.

THIS is to give Notice, that Capt. Benjamin Ward of Warren County is dead, and that at the last Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions held for the County of Warren, on the 4th Monday of last month, administration on the estate of the said deceased was granted to the subscriber; this is therefore to require all persons having claims against the said deceased to bring them forward within the time required by law, lawfully and regularly authenticated for payment, or this notice will be plead as a barrier to the same, and those indebted to the same are required to make immediate payment.

I will observe that as the heirs are all of age and wish their portion of the estate as soon as they can get it, and are not disposed to grant indulgence, that it will be prudent for those indebted to make speedy payment, or they may expect to be waited on by the Sheriff or other Officer, particularly those whose assurances I cannot rely upon for payment in a short time, as there is a tolerable large sum due the estate, and I wish to wind up the estate as speedily as possible.

HILLSBOROUGH ACADEMY.

At the late Examination of the Students of the Hillsborough Academy, held in presence of the Faculty of the University of this State, fifteen young Gentlemen were approved on the Studies preparatory to the Freshman Class, and six for the Sophomore.

The Exercises of the Academy will be resumed on the last Monday in the present month. The subscriber has engaged the assistance of a Gentleman, who has taught for several years in one of the most distinguished classical seminaries in Maryland.

Idle, dissolute, and profane young men, who may think of resorting to this Institution, are hereby forbidden, that neither at the Academy, nor in the town, will immorality meet with the least countenance.

Exclusive of the time allotted for recitation, regular hours for studying at the Academy, under the inspection of the Teachers, are prescribed, morning and evening; so that the time usually mis-spent by Students at their lodgings will be here usefully employed.

The Editors of the Carolina Centinel, Edenton Gazette, Carolina Observer, American Recorder and Western Carolinian, are requested to insert the above in their respective papers for 4 weeks, and forward their accounts to me in Hillsborough. J. R.

THE ACADEMY IN PITTSBOROUGH

IS still in operation, under the superintendance of the Rev. Nathaniel H. Harris.—The 2nd Session will commence on the 8th of July next. There is also an excellent Female School in the same village under the charge of Miss Mary McKenzie. Board can be obtained at from $6 to 8 per month. It is unnecessary to make any mention of the healthfulness of the place, as it is well known to be as much so, as any situation in the State.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's Plantation in Chesterfield District, South-Carolina, early last autumn, two Negro Men, CHARLES and BILL.

Charles is of ordinary size, well made, yellow complexion, remarkably intelligent, speaks quick, is about 25 years of age.—He was purchased in Beaufort county. Bill absconded with him, is about 20 or 25 years of age, is low, and has a scar I believe on one of his cheeks, perhaps a scar on his head; he is also inclined to yellow complexion, and beats on the drum tolerably well. Bill was purchased in the neighborhood of Snowhill.

Charles may perhaps attempt to pass himself as a free man. The above reward will be given to any person who will return them to my plantation; or half the above reward will be given to any person who will secure them in Jail, or in proportion for either of them and give me information.

PLEASANT H. MAY. March 10. The Editors of the Raleigh Star, and Newbern Centinel, are requested to insert the above until otherwise ordered, and in the mean time forward their papers to me at Statesburg, S. C.

VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND FOR SALE.

BY virtue of a Deed of Trust executed to me by Samuel Hobson, bearing date the 30th day of January, 1819, and duly registered in Rockingham county; and by virtue of a Decree of the Court of Equity for Caswell County, made at May Term, 1823, in a cause wherein Thomas Ruffin and James H. Ruffin, Executors of Sterling Ruffin, deceased, and myself are Complainants, and Samuel Hobson, Samuel Hill, Charles Mills and others, are Defendants; I shall, on the last Wednesday of July, 1823, on the premises, sell to the highest bidder, for ready money, at public auction, the Tract of Land whereon Samuel Hobson resides, in Rockingham County: The Tract contains, according to the deeds, 1828 acres, more or less, and is situate on both sides of Lickfork Creek. There is a considerable quantity of excellent Creek Land, probably from 120 to 150 acres—A fine plantation is cleared on the Tract, sufficient for the working of 15 or 18 hands, though much the larger part is in wood, fit for the cultivation of Tobacco, Corn, and all other kinds of grain. Taken altogether, this is one of the most valuable estates off Dan River, in the County, and was sold in 1818, for Twenty Thousand Dollars. According to the Decree, Capt. Hobson is to retain possession until the 25th of December next, when the purchaser is to be let into the full enjoyment: but in the mean while, the purchaser may enter at all times, after the 10th of September, to sow small grain. A conveyance will be made by the subscriber in fee simple, with special warranty, though no doubt is entertained of the title, as the sale is made by consent of the persons interested; and Captain Hobson is likewise to convey with general warranty.

RICHARD W. MICHAUX, Trustee and Com'is'r.

N. B. If the subscriber should not personally attend to make the said sale, it will be conducted by Andrew Harrison, Esquire, the Clerk and Master of the Court of Equity for Caswell County, who is appointed a Commissioner by the Court for that purpose.

R. W. MICHAUX, Trustee and Com.

I assent to this sale, and will convey to the purchaser as stated above. SAMUEL HOBSON.

FURTHER SALE OF LAND.

WHEN the sales of Capt. Hobson's property, above advertised, shall be closed, the Subscribers, as Executors of the will of Sterling Ruffin, dec'd, will at the same day and place, offer for Sale the very valuable Tract of Land owned by their Testator, on Dan River, in Rockingham County. It adjoins the lands of Mr. Broadnax, Messrs. Yancey and Bethel, and others, and extends along the River for more than a mile. It contains about one thousand acres of land, including upwards of two hundred acres of prime River bottom, which is equal to any land in the County for fertility and convenience, and is in good order for cultivation. The low grounds have been under lease for several years past upon a rent equal to five hundred dollars.

The terms will be made known on the day of sale: but it is expected a credit will be given of one and two years, upon satisfactory personal security, and a deed of trust on the premises.

MONEY LOST.

ON the 2d day of July, 1822, a letter was deposited in the Post-Office at Waynesboro' in Georgia, directed to the Subscriber, at Clinton, Sampson County, N. C. and contained the right hand halves of the following notes: viz.

1 20 Dollar Bill, State Bank of N. Carolina, dated 22d February, 1813, No. 840, letter B, payable at the Wilmington Branch Bank to Hanson Kelly.

1 $10 do. dated December 25, 1815, letter E, payable at the Principal Bank at Raleigh to Daniel Dupre.

1 $10 on the same bank, dated 5th November, 1811, letter A, payable to Trotter, (some part defaced.)

This sum, amounting to $40, has never come to hand; and this notice is given, that persons receiving money may be on the look out, and the Banks within the State may be on their guard, and confer a favor on the Subscriber, by stopping the above described notes, should they be offered for acceptance.

Thomas & Wife, vs. John Moreland. Petition to revoke the will of Wm. Moreland, deceased.

JAMES MORELAND, Isaac Moreland, Thomas Holliman and Nancy his wife, George Sweat and Betsy his wife, Jacob Douthel and Polly his wife, Francis Moreland, Thomas, Nancy and Joseph Moreland, children and heirs of Joseph Moreland; children of John Moreland; children and heirs of Thomas Holliman and Nancy his wife; children and heirs of George Sweat and Betsy his wife; children and heirs of Jacob Douthel, and Joanna and children and heirs of Francis Moreland, and Giles Hedspeth.

Appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that John Moreland and his heirs at law, James Moreland and his children and heirs at law, Thomas Holliman and his children and heirs at law, George Sweat and Betsy and his children and heirs at law, are inhabitants of another State; it is ordered by the Court, that publication be made for six weeks in the Raleigh Register, that they or their Guardians appear at our next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the County of Surry at the Courthouse in Rockford, on the second Monday in August next, then and there to object to the reproof of said Wm. Moreland's will, otherwise the petition will be taken pro confesso against them.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the night of the 8th inst. a bright mulatto man named SAM, between 30 and 40 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and middle heavy made; black and straight hair, with large whiskers extending round under his chin; bold spoken and not a very pleasant countenance; he has, perhaps some scars on his head. I expect he will try to pass for a white man, or at least a freeman, and may have some kind of a false certificate or free pass with him, as the like has been found in his possession, in which he called himself Samuel Knox. It was signed by several names, but all in the same hand writing. If he procures another, he may give himself some other name, and have it more ingeniously executed.

He also took with him his wife, named GRACE, about 25 years of age, a stout, hearty woman, perhaps taller than himself, large boned, straight, and trim made; pleasant countenance, and not a very black negro. She has a scar on the calf of the right leg, occasioned by a burn. She is in the habit of wearing her hair middling long, and combed up to the top of her head and tied. They were both raised near Hill's Iron Works in York, S. C. If they leave that, I expect they will make either to the north or west.

Any person taking up said negroes, and delivering them to me, living in Mecklenburg county, N. C. near Charlotte, shall receive the above reward, or $15 if confined in any jail expenses paid, or $15 if confined in any jail and a letter sent to me by mail to Charlotte.
