THE SUBSCRIBER
 informs the Citizens of Raleigh, that she is fitting up an Establishment, where can be had Warm, Tepid and Cold BATHS; and that she will on Monday next, the 21st instant, and every following day, during the present season, be ready for the reception of customers. As such an establishment must be very desirable, and as Bathing is considered very healthy in so warm a climate as this, the subscriber hopes to meet with some encouragement. A single warm bath will be furnished for forty, and a cold one for twenty-five cents—or tickets can be had, three for one, and twenty for five dollars—each ticket demanding a bath.
 No admittance can be had, without a ticket, or the money paid first.

First Rate
WHEAT AND TOBACCO LAND FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, three Plantations, (situated in Granville County, N. C.) The first is on the waters of Nutbush, adjoining the town of Williamsborough, containing 682 acres, and within one-fourth of a mile of a male and female School, both of which are in as high repute as any within the State.
 Also two other tracts, containing about 1400 acres each, on Island creek, one of which is well improved. These lands are not inferior, in point of fertility, to any within the County. Any person wishing to buy is requested to view the premises.
 Persons who may have lands in the western district of Tennessee for sale, are hereby requested to forward to me, a memorandum describing the quality, quantity, and price, together with a letter of introduction to some gentleman who will show me the land. I intend to set off for that country by the first of November next.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.
 A Proclamation.
200 DOLLARS REWARD.

WHEREAS it has been made appear to me, that a certain THOMAS CURTIS, of Anson county, stands charged by a bill of indictment of the Grand Jury, with the Murder of one Thomas Cash, of said county; and that, he said Thomas Curtis, did on the night of the 7th of February last, make his escape from the Jail of the aforesaid county of Anson:

Now therefore, to the end that he said CURTIS, may be brought to justice, the above Reward will be given to any person or persons, who will apprehend and confine the said fugitive in any jail in this State, so that he may be brought to justice. And I do moreover hereby enjoin and command all officers, civil and military; within this State, to use their best endeavors to apprehend the said Thomas Curtis and bring him to justice.

CURTIS is between twenty-five and thirty years of age, about five feet nine or ten inches high, spare made, dark hair, blue eyes, long sharp nose, rather dark skin, thin visage, slow speech and down look, has a knot on one of his fingers, which causes it to be a little crooked and stiff, supposed to be on the left hand.

In testimony whereof I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same at the City of Raleigh, on the 29th day of April, 1823.

NOTES.
 1. The Postmaster General may expedite the mails and alter the times for arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contract, he paying an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby.
 2. Ten minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail, at all offices where no particular time is specified.
 3. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the times prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit five dollars; and if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mail destined for such depending mails lose a trip, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the amount of pay for a trip, will in all cases be forfeited.
 4. Persons making proposals are desired to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly, in the months of February, May, August and November, one month after the expiration of each quarter.
 5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail.
 6. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals; and the stage must be of sufficient size to conveniently convey seven passengers.
 7. The proposer should in all cases mention the number of the post-route or post-roads that he wishes to undertake.
 8. The Post-master General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever one failure happens, which amounts to the loss of a trip.
 9. The distances stated are such as have been communicated to this office, and some of them are doubtless incorrect; on this subject the contractor must inform himself.
 10. The contracts are to be in operation on the first day of January next; and are to continue three years.

 Raleigh, 14th Aug. 1823. 47-1f

Raleigh Register.
 FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1823.

Our State and Congressional Elections, with a few exceptions, was held yesterday throughout the State; and in a few days more we shall ascertain the result. That the majority of members in both will be REPUBLICAN, we feel assured; it would be political heresy to doubt it. It was a wise law of the Legislature of this State, to limit the period of election to one day—for an extension of time had two bad effects: it gave opportunity for intriguing men to exercise their talent to bring in a favorite candidate, and it was an incitement to dissipation and intemperance—the candidates being willing to treat, and the voters willing to partake; and thus time and health were both squandered.
 The Septennial elections in England, are carried on with every degree of corrupting influence. In those states of corruption, the Borough Towns, the "swinish multitude" are bought—for every man, says Sir Robert Walpole, has his price. It is there, a pestilential influenza, laying waste the charities of life and destroying good faith and good neighborhood, wherever the infection spreads.
 Here, every freeman has a vote and he gives it without fear of being turned out of the little tenement he inhabits, or dread of being distrained on for rent, if he dares to vote otherwise than directed. Yet, even here, the best men are not always the favorite men—sometimes, like Aristides, they lose their election, because people are tired of hearing them called the just. Sometimes they are not sufficiently aware of the civilities due from one free citizen to another, whatever his rank. One of the Scipio's lost his canvass at a popular election in Rome, by asking a Roman Citizen, "if he walked on his hands," when the industrious labourer offered a paw like a hoof to the proud Patrician to shake!
 Annual and biennial elections and rotation in office, are the pivots on which turn our national prosperity; for if those whom we chuse to preside in our councils, disappoint our expectations, we can correct the evil at the succeeding election. Happy Americans! truly may we say to you, in the language of the Mantuan Bard,
 O fortunati, nimium sua si bona norint.

ELECTION RETURNS.
 Currituck.—Thomas C. Ferebee, S; John Forbes, Willoughby D. Barnard, C.—State of the poll—Ferebee 247, Dr. Lindsey 235.—Forbes 523, W. D. Barnard 441, C. Bell 417, J. Barnard 378. There were 827 votes given in for Congress—A. M. Gatlin had 495. L. Sawyer 332; majority for Gatlin 163.
 Craven.—John H. Bryan, S; John M. Bryan, Whitehurst, C.
 Town of Newbern.—John Stanly.
 Guilford.—Jonathan Parker, S; Samuel Hunter, and David Worth, C.

The writer over the signature of Burke in the Milton Paper, appears to be still under the influence of acrimonious feelings, towards the Editors of the Register. As they feel unconscious of having, in word or action, given him cause for these ebullitions, they beg leave to decline a controversy with him. If our anonymous assailant has set up a "man of straw" for the mere pleasure of knocking him down, the Editors can have no possible objection to his doing so. For themselves, they will pursue the even tenor of their way, unmoved by an attack as unmerited as it is illiberal.

Hail Storm. We understand, that on Saturday last, the Eastern part of this county was visited with a violent storm of Hail and Rain. Our informant states, that the ground was entirely covered with hail stones, some of them very large. During the Storm several houses were struck by lightning, and in one instance, the electric fluid passing down the chimney, stunned several persons who were in the room, but fortunately did no farther injury.

Roanoke Canal.—We are glad to learn from the Superintendants of that Work, that this Canal is completed, and trust the public will soon experience all the advantages from it, which it is calculated to afford.

At the annual commencement of Columbia College, New-York, lately held, the degree of D. D. was conferred on the Right Rev. John S. Ravenscroft, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of this State.

A Nest of Counterfeiters broken up.
 It is stated in the Western Carolinian of the 5th inst. that certain persons by the names of David Gillam, John Powers, Christian Rhodes, Michael Rhyne and others, were arrested, and brought to examination on the charge of counterfeiting. Rhyne was discharged, Rhodes admitted to bail, and the others committed to jail. In the course of the examination, information leaked out as to the place where their apparatus for coining was concealed: a party set out in search of the same. On reaching the house of Gillam Powers, they there, by a curious accident, found twenty dollars, manufactured principally out of pewter, but very badly executed: they also found 15 more concealed in a piece of woods not far from the house,—these last were in a very imperfect state, not as yet having received the impression of the stamps.—It remained yet to find out the moulds, and these were also discovered in a short time, buried in a sugar dish in the earth; also, pewter, and many other ingredients necessary to carry on the trade of coining dollars. In the course of the different searches, about 60 dollars were found with the party. Our readers, we have no doubt, would be surprised to hear that all this has been going on in the neighborhood of their old acquaintance, Abraham Collins, and he had no hand in it;—but let them check their surprize,—for old Abraham, and young Abraham too, were there:—they were implicated, committed, and committed to jail—young Abraham is a grand-son of the old one, and, from all accounts, bids fair to be worthy of the stock from whence he sprang. The old man says he is 70 years,—the young one is about 18 years of age.
 These are the persons who some time since discovered the Silver mine in Lincoln:—it is now ascertained to have been a trick of theirs, to cover their counterfeiting operations.

"The Spider's most attenuated thread, Is cord, is cable—to man's brittle tie On human bliss."

Distressing Occurrence.—On the 10th inst. a sail boat was upset about one mile from Wilmington, near the middle of the River, and melancholy to state, the following persons were drowned, before assistance could reach them. H. Roby, jr. merchant, of (Wicasset, (Me.); Mason Cogswell, of St. Johns, (New-Brunswick) of the firm of Cogswell and Dickinson; Mr. Job Carpenter, of Providence, (Rhode Island); and a yellow man named Fred. Ward, were drowned. Mr. John Taylor, merchant, and Mr. John M. Kay, of the custom house, were also in the boat—the former gentleman had nearly reached the shore, when two negro slaves, in a small boat, coming voluntarily to the rescue of the sufferers, were desired by him to pass to the assistance of Mr. McKay, who was still struggling but a short distance from where the boat upset. Mr. Taylor observing that the negroes would not pass him, swam toward the boat, and getting on board, gave every signal of encouragement to Mr. McKay, who was taken up at the instant he was about sinking, no doubt, forever. The last that was seen of the deceased, they were clinging to the mast of the boat, then rapidly sinking.

Mexico.—Late Vera Cruz papers state that the Commissioners from Spain, and those acting on the part of the Government of Mexico, have held their first formal meeting; at which the Spanish Commissioners declared they were ready to acknowledge the independence of Mexico, and to enter into a provisional Treaty of Commerce; but nothing had yet been done.
 A private letter states, that St. Anna's troops had declared him Second Emperor under the title of Antonio the First.

The Presidential Election.—The old steady organs of the Republican party seem for the most part to favor the idea of selecting, from the several distinguished candidates for the Presidency, some one for whom their suffrages shall be united at the ensuing election.
 The following is from an article in the New Hampshire Patriot, last received, denouncing the attempts which are making to produce dissensions in the Republican party on this question.
 "The old Republicans of New England will in the next election for the Presidency, tread in the old path, and in that alone. After a candidate shall be nominated in the good old way by a Major part of the Republican members of Congress, coming from every section of the Union and expressing the voice of every State—they will abide by, and support that nomination. They will listen to no abuse to one conspicuous Republican citizen in Georgia or Carolina, Tennessee or Kentucky, or promote the election of any conspicuous Republican citizen of Massachusetts—they do not consider that the merits of one man depend on the demerits of others, and they are determined, whoever may be elected, that the result shall not break in or destroy that harmony which is the strength and support of the great Republican cause throughout the Union."

Believing that a Congressional caucus is absolutely necessary to keep the Republican party together, we do most earnestly hope, that such a recommendation will be made, as will meet the just expectations of the people—that none but a Republican, in deed, as well as in words, will be nominated as a candidate of the Republican party—emphatically, the candidate of the republican party;—and let whoever may be nominated, let us more earnestly hope that he will receive the undivided support of the great family of the Republicans throughout the United States.—Pet. Rep.

A large number of the citizens of Boston, in order to express their high regard for the professional and private life of ISAAC HULL, gave him, on the 30th ult. a farewell dinner on his departure for the Pacific to relieve Capt. Stewart. About 140 gentlemen with their guests, among them the governor of the commonwealth, &c. attended.

The steam-boat Connecticut, Capt. Bunker, left New-York on Wednesday afternoon last, with one hundred passengers, and arrived at Providence on Thursday, at a little past three;—many of the passengers took stages and arrived at Boston early the same evening; thus travelling at a distance of two hundred and twenty miles in the remarkably short period of twenty-four hours.

William Temple Franklin, grandson of Dr. Franklin, and Editor of his works, died on the 25th of May last, at Paris. The Constitutionnel of the 8th June, contains a very kind obituary notice of the deceased.

A gentleman upon whose authority we can rely, (says the Baltimore Federal Republican) has just called to inform us that an old man a German, called Nicholas Appold, has been confined in Baltimore jail since the second of June last, for a debt of $2 30 cents! This old man is about 60 years of age, and his generous creditor has, at the rate of twelve and a half cents a day, incurred an expense of nearly triple the amount of the debt for his debtor's keeping.

We have also at the same time heard of another person who, it is said, has been confined there since January last, for the sum of about $2, and that at least seven times the amount of his debt, has since been paid for his board by his creditor!

Barbarity of this kind might be palliated if committed by the Turks, who laid waste the island of Scio, and enriched its soil with the blood and bones of unoffending Greek women and children—but on the soil which contains the ashes of the immortal Washington, such barbarity is worthy of execration!

The Rev. William Leigh will preach this evening, (Friday) at the Methodist Church, at candle light.
