

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY'S REPORT.

The existing condition of this document presents...

It has been seen how largely the exportation of our own manufactures...

of the rival fabric at home, other fabrics will find their way to us...

In giving these opinions in favor of domestic manufactures, it is known that other opinions exist...

adds, "that hopeless indeed would be their situation were France to adopt the system which recommends the purchase of manufactures from foreign countries..."

as stated in this report, is an encouraging omen of their ability and aptitude to enter this new and great field of competition...

In expressing the convictions embraced in the foregoing remarks, it is not intended to close them by recommending any general revision of the tariff...

Concurrently with this recommendation for an augmentation of duties on all cotton manufactures of fine quality, it is deemed advisable to submit also the expediency of lowering, to a small extent, the duties at present existing upon teas, upon coffee, and upon cocoa.
