Raleigh Register, TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1826.

We are authorised to add to the number of candidates for Congress, in Mr. Edwards' district, William M. Sneed, Esq. of Granville.

British Distress.—HAMILTON, the great Political Economist, whose Essay on this subject we referred to in a late Register, has again favored the public with his views of the extent of the late and still existing distress in England.

As a strong evidence of the stagnation of trade which existed, he gives an extract from Mr. Baring's Speech in the House of Commons in February last, in which he says: "If all the crises of disaster and difficulty which this Country ever had to encounter, were put together, they would no come near that complicated mass of difficulty and distressing intricacy in which the interests of the nation are now involved."

The Banks in Nashville, Tennessee, have given notice that they will commence the payment of specie for their notes on the 1st of September next.

The enclosed is a toast which was drunk after the Fourth of July, in one of the private, social circles of our city. It was furnished by a gentleman who had witnessed, with much pleasure, our late very interesting celebration of the birthday of American Independence; and was, no doubt, intended, in part, as complimentary to those clergymen of different denominations, who had cordially united in conducting the religious services and ceremonies of the day.

By giving the toast an insertion in your valuable paper, you will gratify A SUBSCRIBER.

Among the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was Thos. Nelson, of Virginia, who, afterwards, fought in its defence; and when directed by Lafayette to point the guns of one of the batteries at York, aimed them first against his own dwelling, which was the best in the place. It is said that his widow is now living in Virginia, blind, and very poor.—N. Y. Times.

The office of fifth Justice of the Supreme Court of this State with the princely salary of $200 a year—less $100 for travelling expenses, has been a begging for two years past. Three or four persons elected to the office, have declined the honour and the salary too, and twice that number have been applied to and declined being candidates. There is but one man in this county solicitous for the office, and his Excellency the Governor seems determined to keep him out as long as he can prevail on the General Assembly to elect any body else, no matter whether the person elected will take the office or not.

productive of the interruption of that confidence and good faith, without which the trade and commerce of a Nation cannot be properly conducted?

There have been several late arrivals from European ports, but they have not brought any important political news.—The elections in Great Britain were proceeding with great spirit. Mr. Huskisson and Gen. Gascoyne have been returned for Liverpool; and Mr. Brougham, for Winchester; and Mr. Brougham, for Winchester, without opposition. A dreadful riot took place in Carlisle, during the canvass of Sir Philip Musgrave, late M. P. for that city. The military were called out, the riot act was read, about forty shots fired before the mob dispersed, and four persons were killed and wounded. Liverpool prices of cotton had declined a little, and the market for other American produce was very dull.

We understand, that Mr. Herman Allen, of Randolph, has constructed a Planing Machine which will perform the labor of about twenty men with hand planes. The machine is to be put in operation by horse or water power, and the cost will be but trifling.

Slavery prohibited in Louisiana.—At the late session of the Legislature of Louisiana, an act was passed, prohibiting the further introduction of slaves into that State for sale. No person in future shall bring into Louisiana any slave, with intent to sell or hire the same, under the penalty of being punished by imprisonment not exceeding two years, and fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, and moreover shall forfeit said Slave or Slaves.

The Banks in Nashville, Tennessee, have given notice that they will commence the payment of specie for their notes on the 1st of September next.

Messrs. Editors: The enclosed is a toast which was drunk after the Fourth of July, in one of the private, social circles of our city.

Women are often accused of gossiping, but we are not aware that it has ever been the subject of legal penalties, except at St. Helena, where among the ordinances promulgated in 1709, we find the following: "Whereas, several idle, gossiping women make it their business to go from house to house, about this island, inventing and spreading false and scandalous reports of the good people thereof, and thereby sow discord and debate among neighbors, and often between men and their wives, to the great grief and trouble of all good and quiet people, and to the utter extinguishing of all friendship, amity, and good neighbourhood; for the punishment and suppression whereof, and to the intent that all strife may be ended, charity revived, and friendship continued, we do order, that if any woman from henceforth shall be convicted of tale bearing, mischief making scolding or any other notorious vices, they shall be punished by ducking or whipping, or such other punishment as their crimes or transgressions shall deserve, or the governor and council shall think fit.

Oh! would I were the fragrant flower That languishes on Ellen's breast; Though rapid fleets its transient hour, Yet in its little life how blest!

Oh! would I were the fragrant flower That languishes on Ellen's breast; Though rapid fleets its transient hour, Yet in its little life how blest!

Why am I not the bird of night Whose plaintive note she loves to hear, Till she forgets the fading light, Nor thinks, nor dreams of danger near.

Why am I not the lucid stream She seeks in the o'er-shadowing grove, Where oft she glows in fancy's dream Like the new-risen queen of Love.

Heav'n's! could I be that happy tide, My waves to liquid flame would turn, The daring thought—quick let me hide, The secret fire with which I burn.

In Cumberland county, on Wednesday evening last, Mr. Lallerstedt Mallett, of Bladen county, to Miss Jane Smith, daughter of John Smith, Esq.

In Elizabeth, Bladen county, on the 18th inst., Mr. Kenneth McLeod, Postmaster, to Mrs. Ann McInnis.

In Trenton, Jones County, on Tuesday last Mr. Christopher Bryan, to Miss Rebecca Conner.

At New Garden, Robeson county, on the 16th inst. Miss Flora Graham, step-daughter of the Rev. John McIntyre, aged 20 years and 9 months. In Fayetteville, on Saturday night last, Mr. Samuel Allen, printer, formerly of Wilmington.

Also, on the 13th inst. Miss Catharine McKinnon, a native of Kintyre, Scotland, aged 60 years. In Lloyd county, Ind. on the 9th of March last in the 102d year of her age, after an illness of 7 days, Mrs. Martha Smith, formerly of Rockingham county, in this State. She emigrated to Indiana about ten years ago, and has enjoyed her health ever since, until a few days before her decease. She was the mother of four children, all of whom are now living. She has been 22 years a widow, and retained her natural and rational faculties to her death. She was active and able to travel about the neighborhood, where she lived and enjoyed the esteem and confidence of a large circle of acquaintances.

Suddenly, at Saratoga Springs, on the evening of the 16th inst. Mr. Edward A. Rutledge, aged 22 years, son of Major H. M. Rutledge, of Nashville, Tennessee, and grandson of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

North-Carolina. Cabarrus County. TAKEN up and entered on the Stray Book, by Mary Parks one Bay Horse. He has a star in his forehead and has some white hairs on his back. No brand to be seen. Over 15 hands high. His age not known. Valued to 4 dollars. Said Mrs. Parks lives 8 miles west of Concord, on the waters of Rocky River. ALEX. SCOTT, Ranger. 783w June 21.

THE Chilhowee Springs, formerly kept by Ganaway & Saunders, are in the county of Washington, Va. 19 miles east of Abingdon; 37 west of Wythe C. H.; 120 from Salem, N. C.; 110 from Buncombe Springs. The water is highly medicinal—a few glasses proving an active cathartic and diuretic.

To those afflicted with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Rheumatism, Syphilis, Scrofula, diseases of the skin and bowels, this water has always given relief—and in numerous cases has produced speedy and effectual cures. The Boarding house is large and commodious—in addition to which there are numerous cabins for the accommodation of individuals or families.

The subscriber flatters himself the medicinal virtues of the Chilhowee Springs and their proximity to the States of Georgia, North and South-Carolina, will induce many from those States to visit them. ARCHIBALD GRAHAM. June 6, 1826. 67 law 2m

MY boy HARRY, who run away on the 8th of October last, was caught and delivered to John Kittrell on the 20th of March, where he remained only a few hours. He was quite ragged, had on an old blue coat, white hat, &c. which he no doubt has laid by before this. He is a little yellow fellow, very black eyes and hair, which is inclined to be straight, weighing from 115 to 130 lbs. low, well built, active, polite and very cunning, being raised as a house servant, still can do any kind of Plantation work, having worked in the farm most of the last two years.

He has been lurking about Raleigh most of the winter, but now I suspect he has set out as a free man, as he did about three years ago, and got as far as Wilmington, under the name of Martin Fogg. I will give the above reward to any one, that will deliver him to John Kittrell, 7 miles south of this place, provided he is taken without the limits of this state, and $20, if taken within its limits and secured so that I get him again. JO. HAWKINS. 67-1w tf. Raleigh, May 1st, 1826.

THE Subscriber has on hand a handsome supply of CARRIAGES and GIGS; some of which are completed, and others in a state of forwardness, which he will sell low for cash or negotiable paper. Orders are solicited. THOMAS CORRS. 75 1m July 7, 1826.

Valuable Land for Sale. THE subscriber will sell the place on which he at present resides, situate on the waters of Grassy Creek, in Granville county, eighteen miles north of Oxford and ten southwest of Clarksville, Va. It contains 400 acres, about 200 acres of which have been cleared; 18 or 20 acres of it in highly improved lots, and upwards of 40 of good creek low grounds, well set with Clover and Green Sward. The plantation also abounds with the same Grass, being originally the first quality of land in the county. One third which has been cleared, being in the possession of those some years previous, who could not attend to it, has grown up in natural growth, which is no disadvantage. The balance is in tolerable condition; one half of that which is to clear is good tobacco land; the other is better calculated for cotton than tobacco. The tract is very nearly divided, as to its soil, in two kinds, viz. red, or mulatto, and gray soil. There are within the plantation ten or twelve Springs, the water of which is excellent and was never known to fail. The plantation may be divided into 3 or 4 parcels as so as to have a bold branch to pass through each division. The small experiment made with the cotton crops, have sufficiently proven, that it is admirably adapted to the growth of that article; and as for tobacco, wheat, and corn, its adaptation is unquestionable. The improvements consist of a good Dwelling House, and other necessary Out-houses, good Apple and Peach Orchards of choice fruit; also fruit-trees of almost every description which this country affords. There are also elegant trees for shade around the house and yard. This place is noted for its pleasant, healthy, and eligible situation. A more agreeable, respectable neighborhood cannot be found. The society is good, and surrounded with Christian societies of different denominations. Any person wishing to enjoy health and the above advantages, would do well to see it. It has been frequently and justly observed that few places would bear a higher state of improvement. There is also a good Mill-seat on it. Being determined to sell, a bargain may be had by those disposed to purchase. Possession will be given on or before the 10th of October next. Terms of sale.—A credit of one, and two years, one half each year; the payments to be secured by a deed in trust on the land. HENRY YANCEY. 67 2m June 7. P. S. Should there not be enough in the above, there are two other tracts adjoining; one containing 250 acres, and the other 300 acres, unimproved land, for sale. H. Y. BLANKS For sale at this office.

Proclamation. BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH-CAROLINA. $300 Reward!

WHEREAS it appears, by the Verdict of a Coroner's inquest, that a certain SAMUEL J. HAMILTON, did, on the 1st of this present month, commit a "wilful murder," in the County of Davidson, and State aforesaid; and whereas it appears that the said Hamilton has fled beyond the limits of this State, and thereby placed himself out of the reach of the ordinary process of Law;—Now therefore, to the end that the said Hamilton may be brought to justice, the above reward will be given to any person or persons who will apprehend and confine him in any jail in this State; and I do hereby require, command and enjoin all officers, civil and military, within the State, to use their best endeavours to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the body of the said Hamilton, and him safely keep, so that he shall be brought to trial.

"Samuel J. Hamilton is about 37 years age, 5 feet 6 inches high, with black hair, dark eyes, dark skin and very black beard and whiskers, has a deep scar near the navel, good front teeth, but has lost many of his jaw-teeth, speaks quickly when spoken to, has had for some time, particularly in cold, damp weather, somewhat of a consumptive cough."—'Tis believed he will go either to Tennessee, Indiana or Missouri. In testimony whereof, I have caused the great seal of State to be hereunto affixed and signed the same, at Raleigh, this 26th day of July, 1826. H. G. BURTON.

By the Governor, JNO. K. CAMPBELL, P. S. The State Papers in Tennessee, Indiana, and Missouri, will each publish the above eight times and forward their accounts to the Executive of this State. WARRANTED RIFLE AND SHOT GUN MANUFACTORY, AND MILITARY STORE. No. 165, North Second Street, Philadelphia. George W. Tryon. THANKFUL for past favors, respectfully informs the public that he has considerably enlarged his establishment at home and his connections in Europe, which will enable him to complete any orders in the military or sporting line, of his own manufacture, or imported, with punctuality and neatness, and at a less price than the same quality goods can be obtained for in the United States. Orders from merchants, or volunteer companies, for rifles, or muskets, or from the trade for finished or unfinished materials, shall meet immediate attention. GUNS AND PISTOLS.
