Cumberland County.—Alexander Elliott, A. Archibald McDearmid and Joseph Hodges, C. State of the Poll.—A. McDearmid 859, J. Hodges 500, Neill McNeill 244, A. H. McTear 257...

Executive Council.—When our paper was put to press on Thursday evening last, a quorum of the members composing this body had not arrived; but on Friday Geo. W. Jeffreys, Meshack Franklin and Wm. Blackledge, Esquires, appearing, the Council proceeded to the business for which they were convened...

In consequence of this appointment, a vacancy has been created in our Congressional Representation in the District composed of Orange, Wake and Person counties, which must be supplied by an election prior to the 1st Monday in December next...

Military School.—We understand, that the gentleman who proposes the establishment of a Scientific and Military Academy in this State, has purchased a house and lot in Williamsborough, where it is to be located...

Twin-Lever Cotton Press.—The Proprietor of this Press, Mr. Charles Williams, is at present in this city, for the purpose of disposing of patent-rights of his invention, the model of which we have seen, and believe it possesses advantages over every other mode of packing Cotton...

Bad Crops.—A few citizens of this county, and of an adjoining one, alarmed at the appearance of our crops, from the long continued drought, a few weeks ago sent a petition to the Governor, praying him to call the Council of State together, and advise with them on the propriety of laying an EMBARGO, in order to prevent provisions of every kind from being exported from the State during the present and ensuing season.

The framer of this petition had no doubt taken up the idea that the Governor and Council possessed this power, under the 19th section of the Constitution of this State; but he ought to have recollected, that by the Constitution of the U. States, the power of regulating commerce with foreign nations and among the several States (which includes the power of laying embargoes) is placed exclusively in the hands of Congress.

That gentleman who proposes the establishment of a Scientific and Military Academy in this State, has purchased a house and lot in Williamsborough, where it is to be located—the former large and commodious, situated on an eminence, the latter admirably adapted for a parade ground, being finely shaded with trees of native growth.

Mr. Brougham, a staunch whig, has lost his election for the British Parliament. It will be a favorable opportunity for him to pay his long promised visit to this country.

The fiftieth Anniversary of American Independence was celebrated at Paris, by a numerous company of Americans. Gen. Lafayette, his son and Mr. Le Vasseur were among the invited guests. The company sat down to a sumptuous dinner, at which Mr. Barnes, the American Consul, assisted by Mr. Peabody of Salem, presided.

Our illustrious Benefactor Gen. LAFAYETTE. We can but add our voice to the echo of our Country's. Gen. LAFAYETTE rose, and presented his affectionate thanks. Two years ago, said he, I rose from this convivial American table, to embark for the happy and beloved land where the reception I have met, the wonders of creation and improvement I have witnessed, the sight of public prosperity and personal felicity, it has been my delight to enjoy, have far exceeded even what a grateful sense of past obligations, and affords confidence in the immense powers of Republican freedom, had warranted me to anticipate.

“The Budget of American Freedom—Let other nations reflect on what it cost, and what it fetches”

Emigrants.—A party of Swiss emigrants lately arrived at Albany, on their way to Ohio, via the Erie Canal. The costume and singular appearance of these children of the country of William Tell, excited universal attention. Thus it is, that in the broadest meaning of the term, our country is an asylum to every sufferer from tyranny on the face of the earth.

FROM THE UNITED STATES GAZETTE.

THOMAS JEFFERSON. It has been proposed that the Jefferson Fund should in consequence of the death of the patriot, be appropriated to other than the original design.

Touch not that gift! it is hallow'd to feeling, To the virtues of him that in glory hath fled; An offering, a nation's emotion revealing, 'Tis sacred to fame, it belongs to the dead.

Lay it, ye worthy! with hearts proudly beat; On altars lit brightly with gratitude's fires, Bless to his memory the home of kind greeting, Preserve to his offspring the hall of his sires.

He hath fled in his griefs! even now to the spirit, Haply it lingers around us in love— Give reverence ye, who this moment inherit, Blessings bequeathed by the sainted above.

Ye unrevealed ages! eternize the glory, That already a star on your vestibule glows; Men! letter the rock with the deeds of his story, Honor the spot where his ashes repose.

His pageant is dimm'd with the tears of a nation, Blot are the scars that such relics bedew; Yet richer and purer the grateful oblation,

That sooth'd 'em when time was receding from view. TAPPAN.

Alluding to the remittance of about 7500 dollars from New-York, which satisfied some craving creditors, and enabled the benefactor of his country to die in peace.

Married,

In Northampton county on the 14th inst. Col. Joseph Hawkins, Comptroller of the State of N. Carolina, to Mrs. Harrison. In New Hanover county, Mr. Jas. Chambers to Miss Caroline Fillyaw, daughter of Col. Owen Fillyaw.

DIED,

In Fayetteville, on Sunday last, Mr. James H. Houston, Postmaster at Mount Mourne, in Iredell county, Mr. H. was taken sick before he left home on the 31st inst. but his anxiety to attend to some business here induced him to attempt the journey; during which his illness increased; and after his arrival there, the best medical aid, and the most assiduous individual attentions, proved unavailing.

PROCLAMATION, BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

$200 REWARD.

WHEREAS, it satisfactorily appears, that a Negro Man, named NAT, the property of Thomas G. Chambers, has broken the Jail of Richmond County, (in which he had been confined on a charge of Murder and Arson,) and by escaping beyond the limits of the State, has thereby placed himself out of the reach of the ordinary process of law: Now therefore, to the end that the said slave Nat may be brought to justice, the above reward will be given to any person or persons who shall apprehend and confine him in some jail in this State.

H. G. BURTON. By the Governor, JOHN K. CAMPBELL, P. Sec. 88 10t

To Cotton Planters.

THE subscriber having invented a “Twin Lever Press” for packing Cotton in square bales, has built one at Col. Bell's Machine in this City for public examination, where it may be seen in operation. There have been several put up in Virginia, which have given complete satisfaction. As it requires but little room, it can be built in the house and the cotton swept into the press from the row room, it can therefore be used in wet weather, which is very important—only two men are required to pack 6 or 8 aces per day, weighing 400 lb. The press is durable, not liable to get out of order; and no danger in working it.

The irons are all wrought and can be made by any good smith, the whole cost of the press will not exceed $75, when the timber is found. There are various kinds of presses used in Petersburg which have been examined by the gentlemen who gave this recommendation, viz: We have used one of Mr. Williams' Cotton Presses at the Blandford Mills for several months, in which we have packed bales weighing upwards of 400 lbs. each, into less than 5 yards of bagging. We are of opinion, that when well built, these presses are more convenient, compact, powerful and durable, than any other we know of—and as such recommend them to the public. R. F. HANNON, B. H. TALLIAFERRO. Petersburg, May 17, 1826. We concur in the above recommendation. WILLIAM GILMOUR, T. R. RYAN, CUTHBERT & SMITH, J. C. HOBSON, W. COUSINS, WM. PANNILL, J. B. KENDALL.

The subscriber will be at Warrenton next week with a model of the press. CHARLES WILLIAMS. Raleigh, August 21, 1826.
