TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1826.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Tyrrill.—John U. Beasley, S. Daniel N. Davenport, Frederick Davenport, C. Washington.—Samuel Davenport, S. William Doezman, William Armstrong, C.

We have recently heard Judge MANGUM censured in an illiberal manner, for withholding the resignation of his seat in Congress, from the Executive, and attempts have been made to produce an impression upon the public mind, unfavorable to him on this account.

There is a current report in this city, that that dreadful scourge the Yellow Fever is at Norfolk. The papers received from that place yesterday, make no mention of it.

At the Superior Court of Surry County, held last week, Judge Ruffin presiding, Daniel Rash, a young man, aged 27, was sentenced to be hung on the 29th instant, for the murder of his own uncle.

The Annual Races over the Warrenton Course took place last week. On the first day, no entries having been made for the Post-stake or Cup, all who attended, were disappointed.

Second day.—The Jockey Club, Purse for 3 mile heats, was won by Wm. Wynn's bay mare Isabella, beating J. J. Harrison's horse Arab & Wm. M. West's filly, Lady Greenville.

Third day.—The Proprietor's Purse for two mile heats was won by Wm. M. West's filly, Malatto Mary, with great ease, beating J. J. Harrison's horse Francis.

Fourth day.—The Handy Cap, mile heats, best three in five, was won by J. J. Harrison's filly, Sally Walker, without exertion, beating Wm. M. West's horse Chimborazo.

It is now certain, that Ninian Edwards is elected Governor of the State of Illinois. This cannot fail to be a source of regret to honest men of all parties.

Mr. Joseph Henphill, a representative from Pennsylvania, has resigned his seat in Congress. Mr. H. was chairman of the Committee on Roads and Canals.

The National Intelligencer received as our paper was going to Press, announces the death of another Member of Congress, from Kentucky, the Hon. Robert P. Henry, of the House of Representatives.

The New-York papers mention the death of the Hon. William P. Van Ness, Judge of the U. S. District Court, for the Southern District of New-York. He died with-out a moment's sickness, or apparent pain.

Georgia and Alabama.—We learn of a gentleman direct from Georgia, that an accommodation of the contested question relative to the boundary line between these two States has been effected. As we stated in our last, the Georgia Commissioners commenced running the line according to their construction of the compact of 1802, when they were recalled by the Alabama Commissioners, and the difference which prevailed was settled by the latter party assenting to the proposition of the former.

The National Gazette contains a translation of the Speech of M. Vidaurre, the Representative from Peru to the Panama Congress, at the opening of that body. We shall give some extracts from it hereafter as it is an exposition of the faculties, objects and duties of the Congress, as understood by himself, a lawyer of eminence.

A friend who has travelled through several of the lower counties of the State, informs us that the Crops are most abundant. We believe that the public alarm on account of the apprehended scarcity, has almost if not entirely subsided. Corn may be purchased in Fayetteville now at $3 75 cents per bbl.

Cotton.—The unfavorable accounts from England, brought by the recent arrivals, do not appear to have affected in the least, the American Markets. It is quoted in the Fayetteville price current at from 8 to 8 1/2 and at Petersburg from 9 1/2 to 10 cents per lb. and in the Northern Papers, the former quotations are fully sustained.

Political Economy.—An anonymous writer has called upon HAMILTON, the distinguished advocate of the domestic industry of our country, for a definition of what he calls "a sound system of policy for this country;" which he gives in the following short sentence:

"Protect the great staples of our country—Wheat, Cotton, Iron, Tobacco, Wool, Lead, &c. and the articles fabricated from them."

Under such a system, adds this sagacious writer, this country could not fail to rise, gradually, to a degree of prosperity of which the world has had few examples. We should then be, as we ought to be, masters of our own destinies—and not subject to suffer in the prices of our great staples, as we have heretofore done, by the fluctuation of foreign markets!

Ignorance.—A man in Kentucky, on being informed that Jefferson was dead, said he had never heard of such a person—and a man in New-Hampshire enquired of his neighbor, whether Buonaparte was the name of a man or of a city.—This brings to mind an interrogatory put to us last year, when General Lafayette visited us; by a man, who on seeing the parade which was made, asked "if Lafayette was not a Northern man!"

Tennessee.—The constitutional sessions of the Legislature are biennial. It is not surprising, therefore, that extra sessions are occasionally necessary.—The Governor of the State has just issued his proclamation, convening the General Assembly of Tennessee to meet in Nashville, on Monday, the 16th day of October next, to appoint anew the representation of the respective counties, and to act upon such other matters and things as shall be submitted to them, or may pertain to the advancement of the public good.—Nat. Int.

Treaty with Mexico.—The New-York Times says—"A friend has obligingly handed us an extract of a letter dated Mexico, 11th of July, from our Minister Mr. Polkett, in which he states that he had just concluded and signed a treaty of amity and commerce with that country, and that he did not apprehend any difficulty in the Congress there, although the treaty must be approved by both houses."

A Treaty, concluded between the Governments of France and Brazil, has been recently published in this country. It is said to be a literal transcript of that which was concluded a few months previously, at Rio de Janeiro, between the Governments of Brazil and Great Britain, which, though signed by its authorized Plenipotentiary, the British Government refused to ratify. This refusal was undoubtedly, a right of the British Government, but we were ignorant of the reasons for a thing so unusual. If late reports from Rio Janeiro are to be relied upon, the mystery is cleared away at once; for, it is said the British Government has engaged to protect the Republic of Buenos Ayres, and to do it the more efficiently, is to take the Banda Oriental into its keeping. The treaty concluded by the British Envoy virtually recognized the same Banda Oriental as part of the Kingdom of Brazil, he being ignorant of the arrangement with Buenos Ayres, and we thus very clearly see why the British Government could not ratify the treaty which its Minister had formed.

There is something very curious in this piece of diplomacy, supposing it to be true. It is singular enough that Great Britain should choose to encumber herself with the protection of another State, and still more that a South American Republic should engage in a war for a Territory which, before the war is well begun, she places under the protection of an European Monarch. We do not see, if this be so, that the Montevidians have gained much in changing their condition of Spanish Colonies for that of British Protegés.

It is hardly worth while, however to speculate on the subject, whilst the facts are yet uncertain. When the curtain rises we shall see the play, and shall not fail to exercise the immemorial privilege of spectators.—Nat. Int.

Capt. R. Crocker, of the ship Pacific, whose arrival from Liverpool at N. York we announced to day, has now completed one hundred and thirty-four passages across the Atlantic—and has never met with any serious disaster or accident at sea.

When the intelligence of the demise of Adams and Jefferson was announced at Liverpool, the colours of the shipping in that port were immediately displayed at half mast.—Balt. Pat.

Richard Stuart and Maria Stuart, his sister, have been executed in New-Brunswick for the murder of a child, considered the fruit of an incestuous intercourse. The principal witness against them was another child of Maria Stuart.

Melancholy Occurrence.—The Editor of the New-Hampshire (Concord) Patriot, in a Postscript to his paper of Monday, says—"We have been verbally informed by a gentleman direct from the White Hill, that the family of Capt. Samuel Willey, who resided at what was called the "Notch House" in Bartlett, consisting of 11 persons, were lost during the shower of rain on Monday night last. The house was found much injured by a "slide" from the mountain, and it is supposed the family were alarmed, and fled for safety, and were either buried in the earth by some "slide," or carried away by the waters, as not one of them have been heard of since. The clothes of the family were found in the house by their bed sides, & had they remained there they would have been preserved."

[We have conversed with a gentleman recently from the vicinity of the White Hills, who mentions, that Mr. Willey's family consisted of nine persons;—that they resided between the Crawfords;—that they were alarmed by the noise of an avalanche which destroyed the barn, fled from the house, & were overwhelmed by another avalanche.—The house was not destroyed. It was calculated that the rise of the river in Conway, &c. in consequence of the rain, was nearly as great as in 1820, when it rose 20 feet, and destroyed the bridges, &c. The produce of the interval in Fryburg suffered considerable loss.]—Bost. Cent.

[The bodies of Mr. Willey, his wife and one of the hired men, have been found sixty rods distant from the house dreadfully mangled.]

The Philadelphia United States Gazette concludes an article on the internal improvement of that State, with the following sensible remarks. We have ever been of the opinion that the gold mines of this State were no real advantage, except as they might serve to awaken a spirit of inquiry after the real riches of the country, with which no part of the Union, we suppose, more abounds than North-Carolina, and there is no part of the Union, in which it has been, until lately, so little known.—ib.

Fortunately Pennsylvania produces little of the precious metals; her metallic products are like her citizens, rather remarkable for use than show—calculated for general and extensive, rather than for particular benefits. They invite & reward patient industry rather than rash cupidity, and add to the moral wealth of the State, as well as its permanent pecuniary interests. Those, therefore who are not enticed by the chances of gathering up wealth from the gold mines of our neighbors, may settle upon the productive hills of our interior, and acquire a competence by easy and certain gradations; and those who have been seduced by the golden show may come and dig iron for others, instead of picking up gold for themselves."

Clarendon Bridge.—We understand that a report has been circulated in some of the northern counties, that this Bridge had fallen down, and that it would consequently be difficult to pass the Cape Fear river; and that the report has induced persons who would have come to the Fayetteville market, to go to Petersburg. We are happy to state that the Bridge has a better foundation than the report; that it still stands an ornament and advantage to the town.—Fayette. Observer.

Mr. Caleb Abbott's store, in Chelmsford, Mass. (middle of the town,) was broken open last Friday night, and robbed of goods to the amount of five or six hundred dollars. There were 500 dollars in money in the store which were not touched. The bolt of the lock, although unusually large, was broken directly in two—forced off with a crow-bar.

With our Register of to-day, we publish, by order of the Government, a whole sheet Supplement, containing the late Law and Ordinances of the French Government in favor of the ancient Colonists of St. Domingo, or their legal Representatives, for the information of all who may be interested. These important Documents appear both in French and English, and the publication will be several times repeated, that no one, entitled to the proposed liberality of the French Government may be ignorant of the provision thus made for the relief of these old sufferers, or their descendants.

ALLEN. Raleigh, Aug. 30, 1826. 91

Let the Public take notice, THAT John Murphy, an illegitimate Child, left my house and protection on the 11th August, without any cause, and will not obey or submit to me as a good child ought. This is therefore to caution all persons from countenancing or crediting him for board, or any thing else, on my account, as I will not pay. JOHN SUGG. Sept. 1, 1826.

PROCLAMATION.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH-CAROLINA. $200 REWARD.

WHEREAS, it satisfactorily appears, that a Negro Man, named NAT, the property of Thomas G. Chambers, has broken the Jail of Richmond County, (in which he had been confined on a charge of Murder and Arson,) and by escaping beyond the limits of the State, has thereby placed himself out of the reach of the ordinary process of law: Now therefore, to the end that the said slave Nat may be brought to justice, the above reward will be given to any person or persons who shall apprehend and confine him in some jail in this State. And I do hereby require, command and enjoin all officers civil and military within this State, to use their best endeavors to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the body of said Nat; and him safely keep, so that he may be brought to trial.

Nat is about 22 years of age, a bright mulatto, 5 feet high, rather spare built, reads and writes tolerably well.

IN testimony whereof, I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, & signed the same at the City of Raleigh, this 21st day of August, 1826. H. G. BURTON.

By the Governor, JOHN K. CAMPBELL, P. Sec. Aug. 21. 88 104

$100 REWARD.

MY boy HARRY, who run away on the 8th of October last, was caught and delivered to John Kittrall on the 20th of March, where he remained only a few hours. He was quite ragged, had on an old blue coat, white hat, &c. which he no doubt has lost by this time. He is a little yellow fellow, very black eyes and hair, which is inclined to be straight, weighing from 115 to 130 lbs. low, well built, active, polite and very cunning, being raised as a house servant, still can do any kind of Plintation work, having worked in the farm most of the last two years.

He has been lurking about Raleigh most of the winter, but now I suspect he has set out as a free man, as he did about three years ago, and got as far as Wilmington, under the name of Martin Fogg.

I will give the above reward to any one, that will deliver him to John Kittrall, 7 miles south of this place, provided he is taken without the limits of this state, and $20, if taken within its limits and secured so that I get him again. JO. HAWKINS. 67-1 w. H.

Carriage and Gig Making.

THE subscriber takes this method of returning thanks to his friends and the public, for the encouragement he has received in his line of business, and hopes by his unremitting endeavors, to give satisfaction, to merit a continuance of their patronage. He has now on hand some elegant Gigs, just finished, and a number of others in a state of forwardness which he would be glad to finish to order. Considering the pressure of the times, he is determined, to sell from fifteen to twenty per cent. lower than his usual prices; and in all instances, both new work and repairs will be warranted, if required.—He solicits a call from those wanting work, as they will be promptly attended to. And to punctual men a liberal credit will be given, or country produce taken in payment. WESLEY WHITAKER. Raleigh, August 21. 88 4t
