Raleigh Register.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1826.

The Circuit Court of the United States for the District of North-Carolina, commenced its Fall Term in this city, yesterday.

Raleigh Academy.—The examination of the Students of this Institution, closed on Thursday last, and on Friday evening, the Report of the Trustees was read in the Senate Chamber of the Capitol, by Mr. S. Birdsall.

- Miss Maria L. Goodwin, of Raleigh; Rebecca Jane Haywood, do. Tabitha P. Savage, do. Jane S. Hunter, do. Ann E. Dunn, do. Mary E. Foreman, of Pitt County.

The Valedictory Address of the Graduates was read by Mr. Wetmore, and closed the exercises of the evening.

Mr. Hantz, the newly elected Professor of Modern Languages in our University, passed through this city on Saturday last, on his way to Chapel Hill.

Right at last.—We have received the official returns of the number of votes taken in this District, at the recent election of a Representative to Congress, and find that General Barringer obtained a majority of twenty-one votes, over his opponent James Mebane, Esqr.

A comparison has lately been instituted as to the number of newspapers published in the United States and Great Britain. It is ascertained from official returns, that the scale preponderates in our favor, not only in this respect, but it is equally certain that a much larger portion of the American people are taught to read and write than of the British.

So cheap they come, at five for eighteen pence. That every man should buy, with cash and sense.

Liberty.—A gentleman of Philadelphia, at present in this town, (who does not wish his name mentioned,) has given one thousand dollars to the Synod of North-Carolina, for the use of the Theological Seminary of Virginia and North-Carolina, located in Prince Edward County, Virginia.

We understand the gentleman alluded to is Solomon Allen, Esquire, the great Broker and Lottery Vendor.—Register.

DOMESTIC SUMMARY.

We have the assurance of the Norfolk Herald, founded, says the editor, upon the best evidences of the fact, that Norfolk is now free from the lately prevailing epidemic.

Asher Robbins has been unanimously re-elected a Senator in Congress from the State of Rhode Island, for six years from the 3d of March next, when his present term of service will expire.

North-Carolina Notes are at 1 1/2 to 2 per cent. discount in Petersburg; 3 per cent. in Philadelphia; 4 per cent. in New-York; and 2 to 3 in Charleston, by the latest quotations.

Part of the real and personal property of Mr. Jefferson, consisting of the Poplar Forest estate, 200 negroes, and all his valuable and curious household furniture, paintings, busts, &c. is advertised for sale at auction on the 1st and 15th of January next, by Thomas J. Randolph, Executor.

The Grand Jurors of the County of Williamson, in Tennessee, have made a presentment, in which they state that there is nothing in the recent duel between Gen. Houston and Gen. White, to impair the public confidence in the former, and they therefore recommend him as a fit person to be the next Governor of that State.

The New-York papers are yet teeming with documents in relation to the two ships built in that port for the Greeks. It is impossible to keep pace with the publications on both sides; or even to give a summary of the different statements as they appear in the Daily Journals.

The printer of the N. Y. Daily Advertiser states that the printing of that establishment, together with extra work for other offices on account of the late indictment trials, during one week, amounted to 121,008 impressions, or 60,504 sheets, which work was performed by the Napier Press in about 83 hours, the press remaining idle for the rest of the time.

Diabolical.—Five horses, the property of Mr. Wm. C. Hull, of Lancaster city, have been poisoned by mixing arsenic with their feed! Three of them died immediately. It is hoped that the perpetrator of so wicked an act will not escape with impunity.

An English blacksmith in Philadelphia, who had been found inebriated in the streets, and wheeled in that condition to the watch house, admitted on his trial at the police office that he had been drunk, except now and then a spell, ever since his arrival amongst us. He found it easier, he said, to get drunk here on ten pence worth of gin or whiskey, than on five shillings worth of porter in England, let the strike of it be ever so good.

James B. Gardiner, who was expelled from the House of Representatives of the State of Ohio, during the last session of Legislature, for pledging himself, while a candidate for a seat in the Legislature, if elected, to give one-half of his to pay the county, has been elected, at the last election, a State Senator, by a large majority.

A coloured man in New Jersey, went to bed intoxicated, on the 24th inst. and left his candle burning by his bed side. The flames communicated to the bed clothes and awoke him, when he sprang up and ran out of the house with his own clothes on fire, which the wind blew into a blaze; they were entirely consumed and he burnt so badly that he died in 24 hours.

A common farmer's wagon, with five horses, recently carried from the neighborhood of Gettysburg, Pa. a distance of fifty miles, 10 barrels of whiskey and 15 barrels of flour, besides a few kegs of butter. The weight of the whole exceeded three tons and a half.

Thirty-four pumpkins, which weighed 605 lbs. were raised from one seed on the farm of Mr. Roswell Dewey, in Great Barrington. The vine was 620 feet in length.

Who shall decide when doctors disagree? Of the six members of congress elected in New Jersey this month, five belong to the medical profession. This is not to throw physic to the dogs.

An Ox, which had jumped out of a market-boat in Long Island Sound, was picked up, after being in the water 12 hours. He did not appear fatigued when taken up. There was a slight fall of snow in New-York and Philadelphia, last week.

A bill has been introduced into the Vermont Legislature, the object of which is to abolish imprisonment for debt. In the same body, a bill is under discussion for establishing a Bank at Vergennes. The bill was opposed on the ground that, in the present stagnation of business, there was no need of additional banks—not more than a third of the present bank capital of the State, 750,000, being wanted or used. It was advocated on the ground that the Legislature had sanctioned the principle of banking, and introduced the system by several incorporations; and that a due regard to the people's rights and their interests, required that there should be a Bank in each county. The bill was ordered to a third reading, 136 to 35.

The difficulties existing between the Delaware nation of Indians, the Shawnees, Kickapoo and others residing in the state and territory of Arkansas, have been amicably adjusted through the interposition of General Clark, superintendent of Indian affairs, at St. Louis, Missouri.—Many of the tribes who had met on the occasion, expressed a desire to exchange their lands within the State for lands farther west, where they might assemble the remnants of their scattered nations, and devote themselves to the culture of the ground and raising stock.

The Steam Boat Emerald belonging to the Union Line between New-York and Philadelphia, was burnt at New Brunswick on Sunday week. She was discovered to be on fire, at half past 1 o'clock, on Sunday morning, by one of the persons who was asleep in the cabin, and who was aroused by the suffocating smoke. He gave the alarm, and her commander, Captain Vanderbelt, whose residence was within a few yards, repaired immediately to the scene of conflagration; but the boat was in few minutes in a sheet of flame. Every exertion in the power of inhabitants of New Brunswick was rendered, but it being necessary to part the fasts to prevent other vessels from taking fire, the engines could render but very little service. Besides the loss of the boat, which was valued from sixty to seventy thousand dollars, Captain Vanderbelt lost many valuable papers, & himself & crew all their clothing. The boat was owned by Mr. Gibbon.

FOREIGN.

Since the restoration of the Liberty of the Press, in Portugal, eight new Journals have been started.

It is a striking illustration of the decay of the commercial marine of Spain that since 1819, not a single Spanish ship has passed the Sound. The number of British that passed last year was 5,136.

Ten guineas were offered, not long since at Margate, England, for a leaf on which the Duke of Wellington had written his name. The proprietor, keeper of the bathing rooms, declared he would not take 500 guineas for it. A precious pair of fools.

A serious accident befel A. Bourret, Esq. Advocate, at Montreal, a short time since. A bull, belonging to him, having broken into an orchard, his property, and damaged an apple tree, Mr. Bourret endeavored to drive him out, whereupon the animal became enraged, rushed on him, with one horn broke one of his ribs, with his forehead contused his shoulder and breast, and thrust the other horn into his mouth, pierced through the upper gum, and displaced the cartilage of the nose.

The Hamilton papers.—It will probably be recollected by our readers, that a Chancery suit was instituted some eighteen months ago, by Mrs. Hamilton, to recover certain papers deposited for safe keeping with Mr. Rufus King, by the acting Executor of Gen. Hamilton. Various allusions made in the newspapers to the supposed character and contents of those papers, induced us to publish at the time, so much of the bill in Chancery as specified these particulars. By this extract, it appeared that these papers consisted chiefly of letters between Generals Washington and Hamilton, relative to the composition of Washington's Farewell address. The question of authorship, in this case, having been put to rest by the conclusive letter of John Jay, recently published, (though written and transmitted many years ago) the motive for withholding the documents committed to Mr. King; the chief of which was, that their contents might remain undivulged, and that no indiscreet use might be made of them, no longer existed. Mr. K. accordingly directed his counsel to notify the family of Gen. Hamilton, that in consequence of the publication of Mr. Jay's letter, he no longer felt himself bound by the trust delegated to him, to withhold the papers claimed, and that they were therefore subject to the order of any person duly authorized to receive them. They were thereupon delivered to Mr. J. A. Hamilton, and the suit was discontinued. N. Y. Amer.

Sugar Cane.—A specimen of sugar cane, raised in the upper part of this county was brought to this office last week, which far exceeded any thing we had ever supposed, of the perfection to which it could arrive in this part of the State. It contained 24 joints, fully ripe, which together measured 7 feet. It was raised by Mr. Jas. Holmes, who informed us that he had three fourths of an acre, and that he supposed the whole would average from 20 to 24 joints that had ripened. This cane was not the common kind, but was what is called 'riband cane.' It was raised on upland, of but little better than an ordinary quality. We believe this cane considerably exceeds in the number of its ripened joints that usually raised in the low country, but if the facts be doubted, they can be established by many individuals. From the success of this experiment, it is evident that the Sugar cane may be cultivated with success in this vicinity. Macon Mess.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the packet ship Lewis, Capt. Macy, from Havre, several files of Paris papers to the 28th of September, and Havre to the 29th inclusive were received. A London paper of the 25th, two days later than before received, came by this vessel.

Col. Fabvier has at length driven the Turks from before Athens, and opened a communication with Argos and Napoli. A National Assembly was to be held in the Morea on the 12th of September, at which it was hoped Lord Cochrane would be present. Colocotroni was collecting troops to attack Ibrahim at Tripolizza and Cautina, who is said to have got a reinforcement, but it will be easy to crush him. A letter from the French Agent to the Greek Committee at Paris, dated at Napoli de Romani, July 21st, states that twelve vessels from England and France, laden with munitions, &c. had arrived in safety. A great fire broke out at Constantinople, on the 31st of August, which continued on the 3d of September when the last accounts were received. Flakes of fire were then falling upon the Seraglio, the gates of which were opened to all the fugitives who had favored the reformation. Several thousand houses, it was believed, had fallen a prey to the flames. It is added that the People opposed the measures taken to extinguish the fire, observing that it was a punishment sent from heaven for the late destruction of the Janissaries. The fire had penetrated from the garden gate to the mosques of the sultans Armarat and Bajazet, thence along the walls of the Seraglio to the Sea of Marmora, taking in its routes many palaces of the great, containing immense riches.

On the authority of the French papers, it is stated that Com. Hamilton has communicated to the Greek authorities, that the British Ambassador at Constantinople, is authorized by the European powers to treat with Turkey for a settlement of the differences with Greece, but that the negotiations have been delayed in consequence of the recent difficulties in Constantinople.

New-York, November 8.

The ship Orozimbo, Captain Thompson, which arrived yesterday morning, sailed from Liverpool, Sept. 23, but brought no papers and the Captain reports no news.—The packet ships Panthea and Columbia, had arrived from this port, we are favored with the following extract of a letter, which gives a favorable account of the market:

Liverpool, Sept. 28.

We have again had a very good demand for Cotton to day; the sales are supposed to be at least 5,000 bags, partly to the trade and partly speculators—the advance in the present week is not less than 4d per pound, but it is chiefly on the middling and fair qualities of Uplands and Mobile. We now quote 6 1/2 to 7 1/2. The accounts from Manchester are very favorable; a great deal of business having been done, & some advance in prices obtained.

He was a most worthy young man, and though he died as it were, a stranger in a strange land, he had lived there long enough to secure the respect and esteem of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

New Goods.

JUST received and for sale, a general assortment of Fall and Winter Goods all of which will be sold low for CASH. CHARLES STUART. Raleigh, Nov. 6th, 1826. 10—

Twenty-Five Dollars Reward

WILL be given for securing in any Jail in this State, so that I can get him, my runaway slave Robin, who left me some time about the first of March last. Robin is about twenty-eight years old; though a negro, is of a tolerably big complexion; about five feet ten inches high; rather spare made, he is a fellow of good sense, and speaks quick when spoken to, and has a good countenance; he will try, it is thought, to pass himself as a free man; as he has already called himself, and passed by the name of Robert Whitefield. He is left-handed, and has a defective finger on one hand, which is not recollected. He will say he is a carpenter, and he can do, and has done, something at that trade. He has a very long prominent chin, and large mouth and excellent teeth, which shows plain when he is talking, he can read very well for a negro. Robin will likely try to get to Slo-p Point, near Wilmington, to the Plantation of Lewis Whitefield, where he has a wife. I will give the above reward for his confinement so that I get him, & if delivered to me in Smithfield, Johnston C'ty, N. C. will pay all reasonable expenses. BYTHON BRYAN. Nov. 9th, 1826. 12 lawdy

*The Wilmington Herald will insert the above 4 times and forward the account to Smithfield.

CLASSICAL SCHOOL.

The Trustees of the Smithfield Academy respectfully announce to the Public, that they have engaged the services of the Rev. Abner W. Gay, a gentleman well founded in classical attainments, a graduate of Hampden Sydney College, Virginia, and is every way eminently qualified for the office of an instructor. The School will be opened on the first day of January next. The Trustees therefore feel assured, that from the cheapness of board, (from 4 to $5 per month, by agreement of the citizens,) its remoteness from scenes of dissipation, so ruinous to seminaries of learning, it will unite advantages which will render it not inferior to any Academy in the State, and will secure to it a share of public patronage.

CERTIFICATE.

With respect to Mr. Gay's knowledge of these studies, it will be sufficient to state, that in the assignment of class honors, which is made out at the end of each session, he has invariably received the first grade.

W. W. BLOUVELT, Clerk to the Faculty, Hampden Sydney College, Va.

From my acquaintance with Mr. Gay, for several months past, during which time I have been associated with him in the instruction of this Academy, I consider him well qualified to take charge of a similar institution, and very cheerfully recommend him to the public.
