TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1826.

The Legislature of this State, will convene on Monday next.The Supreme Court of the State, will commence its winter Session, on the same day.It will be seen, by reference to the Obituary Department of this paper, that Judge Paxton is no more. He died at Warrenton, on Wednesday night last. His death will create a vacancy on the Bench to be filled by the Legislature at its approaching session. An election will also be held to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Nash, the Council having appointed Judge Mangum temporarily to execute the duties of that office.Congress.—The Senate were engaged on Monday, almost entirely, in balloting for Committees according to the new rule established at the last session, and amended at this. The Chairman of each Committee was separately balloted for and then the other members of each Committee, collectively.In the House of Representatives, a great many petitions were presented and amongst them one from the sons of the late Benjamin West, President of the Royal Academy of London, requesting Congress to "purchase that portion of their father's works which has devolved to them," hoping "that the offer will not be rejected, and devoutly wishing that the name of their father may thus honorably be transmitted to the posterity of the country wherein he was born; and that the portion of his works which they now offer may form the foundation of a School for the growth of the Fine Arts" in the United States. The communication was laid on the table.Mr. Cambreleng laid the following resolution on the table:Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to furnish this House with a statement exhibiting annually, from the 30th Sept.
1813, to the 30th Sept. 1826, the amount and description of merchandise exported from the U.
States to the British Colonies, embraced in the recent Order in Council; the amount and description of merchandise imported from the same during the said term, a statement of the tonnage annually employed in that trade, distinguishing between British and American vessels; and of the revenue annually accruing upon the merchandise imported from said Colonies.The following resolution, submitted by Mr. Little on the 7th inst. was taken up, read, and agreed to by the House:Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law, at the present session, for the apportionment of representation among the several States, under the fifth enumeration of the inhabitants of the U.
States.In the Senate, on Tuesday, the bill abolishing Imprisonment for Debt, was twice read by general consent, and referred to a select committee, consisting of Messrs.
Johnston of Kentucky, Macon, Berrien, Harrison and Chambers. The remainder of the sitting was spent in the consideration of Executive business.In the House, the following resolution presented by Mr. Sawyer, was agreed to:Resolved, That the Secretary of War be directed to inform this House what progress has been made, under the act of last session, of appropriating one thousand dollars for the survey of Roanoke Inlet and Sound, with the view of ascertaining the practicability of making a permanent ship channel between Albemarle Sound and the Atlantic Ocean, passed 20th May last.Mr. Carson submitted the following which was agreed to:Resolved, That the Committee of Indian Affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of making an appropriation for the purpose of holding a treaty with the Cherokee Indians, to extinguish their title to lands within the limits of the State of North Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Bryan it was,

Resolved, That the committee on Roads and Canals be instructed to inquire into the expediency of causing a survey to be made of the route of a canal to connect the waters of Roanoke, Tar, and Neuse Rivers, so as to continue the line of interior navigation from Norfolk to the harbor of Beaufort, in North Carolina, with an estimate of the cost of effecting the same.In the Senate on Wednesday the most material transactions were receiving and reading the Annual Treasury Report; referring to the appropriate Committees thedifferent subjects of the President's Message; giving the committee of the Bankrupt Bill leave to sit during the sittings of the Senate; and appointing a committee on Roads and Canals, which consists of Messrs. Hendricks, Thomas, Chase, Marks, and King.In the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, a number of petitions were presented, and resolutions submitted and adopted. Of the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Documents accompanying it, six thousand copies were ordered to be printed.The Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads, was instructed to inquire on the motion of Mr. Saunders, into the expediency of establishing a Route from Rockingham Court House, in North Carolina, by Troublesome Iron Works, Martinville, Greensborough, New Salem, Ashborough to Lawrenceville, in Montgomery county.Pennsylvania.—The Legislature of this State assembled at Harrisburg on the 5th instant. ALEXANDER MAHON was unanimously re-elected Speaker of the Senate, and JOSEPH BITNER in like manner chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives.
The National Intelligencer received just as our paper was going to press, gives the result of the election which took place in joint meeting of both branches of that body, for a Senator of the United States, to serve for six years from the fourth day of March next. Two ballotings took place, which resulted as follows:

	1st.	2d.
I. D. Barnard,	55	108
Sam'l. D. Latham,	33	11
Joseph Hemphill,	11	5
James Buchanan,	10	3
William Findlay,	10
Scattering,	8

So that I. D. BARNARD is the Senator elect. We thought the interest of Gen-Jackson so strong in Pennsylvania, that we counted with almost absolute certainty on the election of Mr. Ingham. The result shows "we reckoned without our host."We learn from Georgia, that the bills to repeal the acts of the last Session, for establishing a Board of Public Works and directing them to survey the route for a Central Canal or Railway, has passed the Senate, by a vote of 42 to 13, and it is believed their passage through the House is certain. We trust that if these bills pass, it will not happen from any reaction which has taken place in public sentiment, in that State, on the subject of Internal Improvement, but because they consider the services of the Board as unnecessary, now that they have in their employ, so efficient an Engineer, as Mr. Fulton. It is strange that any State should abandon a system of Internal Improvements, because disheartening difficulties impede their course, when they have such glorious examples set them by other States. Especially in New-York, whose gigantic undertakings have secured for her, not only the admiration and respect of other states but even of other nations. The system of Internal Improvements in that State has been scarcely less useful in developing her moral than her physical resources, and talent, ingenuity, and skill, have been elicited, which before had been wholly unknown to the public.
They had great difficulties to contend with, but they persevered to the end, and their success should have a salutary influence on other States, in inspiring confidence and activity in undertaking what ever is laudable, great and glorious.There is a singular provision in the Constitution of Virginia, which requires that two members of the Executive Council of that State, shall be removed by joint ballot of both Houses of Assembly, at the end of every three years, and be ineligible for the three next years. The operation of this provision has just taken place, in the Legislature of that State, and Messrs. Scott and Roane were scratched from the Council. We can conceive of but few situations more delicate than this, in which Legislators could be placed, and we are confident, from the dissatisfaction expressed, that this feature of the Constitution will be no longer tolerated than an opportunity is offered for revising it. We have but little doubt, that a Convention will be called in that State, and at no distant period, for amending the Constitution. Indeed a resolution has just passed the House of Delegates, authorizing the introduction of a bill to take the sense of the freeholders of the State, on this subject; and the bill will pass, as it was mutually agreed, that the resolution should be considered asa test of the principle involved, and was so treated. The vote was 103 for the resolution, and 98 against it.Strange Report.—The last New-York papers give currency to a report, that a Courier lately passed through that City, on his way to Washington, with despatches from the British Cabinet, announcing to our government that the present condition of Spain was such as to render it necessary for England to garrison the island of Cuba. And on this rumor (most probably, only rumor) the New-York Editors are quite feverish. The National Advocate remarks with regard to it as follows:"If this be true, it gives a new explanation to the late conduct of England with regard to the Colonial trade. A short time will decide its correctness. But taken in connection with the polity of this country, it assumes a very portentous aspect. The island of Cuba would be to the English as to them in Europe. That the English feel anxious to possess the city of Havana, there can be no doubt. It would give them a control over the trade of all the western states of their great rival on this continent. Their late Order in Council, and their refusal to negotiate with Mr. Gallatin, indicate that the English Cabinet had some deep plan in agitation. If that plan was the possession of the Havana, it is not a matter of surprise that her ministry should leave the colonial trade as it ever was. Their object plainly is to force this country to their own terms —but we hope and trust there is yet the same spirit in the United States which animated our country during the last war—the war of our commercial independence. We look with anxiety upon the future."Baron KRUDENER has been appointed, by the Emperor of RUSSIA, to be Minister from that Government to the United States, in the place of Baron THUYLL, deceased.
Baron MALTITZ, it will be recollected, is now Charge des Affaires from that Government.Recent news from Lagaira represents the Republic of COLOMBIA to be in a very unsettled state. Porto Cabello had revolted from General Paez, who was marching with all his disposable force, for the subjugation of that place, Venezuela had declared itself independent, and Cumana was invested closely by land and sea by General Bermudez. A letter from the Liberator is published, which confirms the report of a disposition wholly to change the established form of Government of the Republic.The Raleigh Register lately stated that a gentleman of Chatham County, [quere, the Postmaster at Pittsborough?] had been a subscriber to that paper for about twenty-seven years, and had never been indebted for a longer term of subscription than six months. On this the New-York Advocate remarks—"If all the Subscribers to Newspapers were Chatham County Gentlemen, what a merry life Editors would lead! They would be more witty, more gay, full of wisdom and good nature, and never at a loss to make their papers entertaining. Empty pockets are your mortal destroyers of wit.
Did even a poor man's jest create a general laugh?
Certainly not. A man with pockets to let always furnishes prima facie evidence of his empty head. The punctuality of subscribers is the living fountain of an editor's wit and good sense."[The above is from the Fayetteville Observer. The Editor is quite a Yankee at guessing.]—REGISTER.COMMUNICATED.
DIED,On Wednesday morning, the 13th instant, at the house of Judge Hall, in Warrenton, John Paxton, Esquire, one of the Judges of the Superior Courts of this State.Judge Paxton was a native of Rockbridge County, Virginia, but in early life entered intermediate pursuits, and migrated to Morganton in Burke County. It required a very slight acquaintance with him to perceive, that he had little right to expect success in this vocation. His mind scorned the petty tricks of trade. Too inert a salesman and too indulgent a creditor, as might have been anticipated, he found it necessary, at thirty years of age, to turn his attention to a pursuit more congenial to his disposition, and better adapted to his genius.At the present day, the Bar would seem to hold out few inducements to the most gifted individual, at such an age, unaided by wealth and influential connections, and laboring under the accumulated disadvantages of embarrassed circumstances, and a defective education. And that a man of Judge Paxton's great and unaffected modesty should have entered the lists, in a profession which, of all others, requires and commands the exercise of the purest and noblest qualities of the head and heart, and in which the chances of success are about equal to those in a lottery, cannot but be matter of surprise to his most intimate friends. Fortunately, however, for his own reputation, and the interest of the State, he possessed a mind alike superior to timidity and vanity. For some years he was comparatively unknown, but there was no step in his ascent and unobtrusive course, that was not so much gained in the respect and esteem of his professional brethren and the public. Gradual advances ultimately obtained for him a high rank in his profession, and he was one of those fortunate men, whose noblest triumphs of intellect, never outstripped those of his heart. He was universally esteemed, and rarely envied.In 1819, without his solicitation, or even his knowledge, the Legislature, by a vote almost unanimous, placed him on the Superior Court Bench. Since that period, his history is well known. That he was a man of splendid intel-lect is not pretended, and it is impossible in the nature of things, that his literary attainments could have been very extensive. But that he possessed a sound logical mind, well stored with correct knowledge of the common law, it is presumed all will be disposed to admit. In addition to this, if untiring patience in the search after truth, and unbending firmness in sustaining the innocent and punishing the guilty, are cardinal virtues, in the character of a Judge, and are the more valuable, because the more rare, then Judge Paxton was entitled to no ordinary reputation—for no man ever possessed these qualities in a more eminent degree.THE Subscriber intending to remove to his Plantation in the course of the winter, offers for sale the HOUSE in which he resides, with the Land attached to it, between 60 and 70 acres, well watered, and capable of high improvement.
The House is completely finished, for the accommodation of a large family.Raleigh, Nov. 27, 1826.

Hillsborough Academy.

THE undersigned, Trustees of the Hillsboro' Academy, having engaged William J. Bingham as principal of this institution, take great pleasure in recommending the school to the patronage of the public. This they do with the more confidence, as Mr. Bingham is personally known to each of them. He is already a teacher of some experience and notes, and unites to sound learning and the most exemplary character, a happy talent for preserving strict and wholesome discipline.The Trustees pledge themselves to the public, to be the active and regular guardians of the institution: they will see that a becoming conduct and deportment shall be observed on the part of the students at all times and places. And no boarding house, where proper authority is not maintained over the boys, will be tolerated.Should any further recommendation of Mr.
Bingham, as an instructor of youth be required, application may be made to the Rev. Dr. Caldwell, and to Professors Andrews, Hooper and Mitchell, at the University.Wm Norwood, Stammering Cured.

Mrs. Leigh's & Dr. Yates' Virginia Institution for correcting Impediments of Speech.THE Rev. THOMAS P. HUNT informs the public that he is qualified to act as Agent for Mrs. Leigh and Dr. Yates, "of the New-York Institution for correcting Impediments of Speech," for the State of Virginia.He may be found at the Brunswick Mineral Springs, Va. 45 miles south of Petersburg. The stage passes by the Springs twice a day; and excellent accommodations on liberal terms may be obtained there.Mrs. Leigh's system is founded on rational principles. There is no trick nor quackery in it. No stammerer need fear not being cured; it is a return of his disease. Numerous certificates from the most respectable gentlemen, to whom the system has been explained, and from those who have been cured by it, attest the certainty & permanency of Mrs. Leigh's discovery.
These certificates may be seen by any who will apply. But the reputation of the system does not depend on certificates. If any doubt, we can convince them—if any stammerer, we can cure them. Letters (post paid) directed to Persival's, Brunswick, Va. will receive immediate attention.

PETERSBURG, Va. Sept. 28 1826.
I CERTIFY with much pleasure, that under the tuition of the Rev. THOMAS P. HUNT, of Brunswick County, who is Mrs. Leigh's Agent in this state, for curing impediments of Speech, I have been in three days entirely released from a very distressing habit of Stammering contracted upwards of thirty years ago.If I ever Stammer again, it must unquestion-ably be my own fault, as I sincerely believe that all persons laboring under that affliction may be permanently relieved by Mrs. Leigh's System. I have yet remaining a slight hesitancy at the pronunciation of some very hard words, but I feel confident of being relieved even from that, in a very few days more.

WE, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do certify that we have been instructed by the Rev'd. Thomas P. Hunt, of Brunswick County, Va. in Mrs. Leigh's system of correcting impediments of speech, and that we are satisfied of the certainty and efficacy of her rule in affording permanent relief to all stammerers if they will apply her remedy, & it is our own fault if we are not entirely cured by it.JON. FRENCH, Norfolk, Va.
