TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1827.

The year 1826 has just closed upon the hopes and fears, the joys and the sorrows hat " flesh is heir to"-upon the visions of the ambitious, the calculation of the selfish and all the schemes and projects of busy minded man. The year 1827 is just commencing, but as to the events which its progress will unfold, who can read them ? In the language of an eminent writer, life and death, prosperity and adversity, health and sickness, joy and trouble, lie in The undistinguishable mass, where our eye can descry nothing, through the obscurity in which they are enveloped. But we took

Year, his Excellency Governor BURTON, invited the Members of both Houses of the members of the Bench and Bar (the Supreme Court being in session S rangers. and our Citizens generally, to a cold col lation at the G vernment House. The invitation was duly honored, and a profusion of substantial and (asteful viands and excellent liquors, were partaken of wit that harmony and good feeling, which gives the highest zest to social intercourse.

The proceedings of the Legislature or vesterday, are crowded out of our columns to day. In the Senate, a proposition was made to the other House, to bailet to-morrow for a Judge of the Superior Court, vice Judge Nush, resigned; but the House of Commons had adjourned before the message reached them. An attempt was made to postpone the consideration of the bill to alter the meeting of the Legislature, to the 1st of June next (tantamount to a rejection) but it was made the order of the day for Thursday week.

On Friday last, the oaths of office were administered to Governor Burton, in preby Chief-Justice TAYLOR. The hour of twelve having arrived, the Senate preceded order to the Commons' Hall, where seats joint committee appointed to wait on bim, and the Judges of the Supreme Court .-After the ceremony of qualifying was over, the Governor addressed the two llouses s follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Common

Mr. Livingston & the Emperor of Russia.—On the completion of the new Code of Law, which, it is well known. Mr. Li vingston lately formed for the State of Louisiana, (the meeits of which are highly spoken of) he transmitted a copy of his work to the late Emperor of Russia, who, ne understood, was about to introduce an mproved system of law in his dominions, accompanied by a handsotne complimentay letter, hoping that the results of his la bours might be useful to him in forming his contemplated system. This communiration did not reach Russia before the late Emperor's death; but was duly received by his brother and successor, the Emperor Nicholas, who has answered Mr. L. in the following very flattering manner:

Nashville Male Academy.

THE Trustees of the Nashville Male Academy, I take pleasure in informing the public, that they have at length succeeded in employing the Rev. John Annstrong, as Principal in this Instifution. This Gentleman produces the most satisfactory testimonials of his pre-eminent qualifications as a Gentleman, a Divine, and a Teacher. He is a graduate of distinction in the Columbian College, D. C. from which, besides his Diploma. he brings the most flattering testimonials of character and acquirements, from the Revd. Doctor Staughton, President of the College, the Revd. O. B. Brown, President of the Board of Trustees. besides the highest recommendations from the Rev E. Baptist of Virginia, and very many other distinguished names equally satisfactory.

Mr. Armstrong has taught the present year in the Carterville Academy, Va. Dr. Wharton and Dr. lames, of Va. and others afford the most am ple testimonials of his success in Teaching. To all of which the Trustees would superadd, the in an interview with Mr. Armstrong, and an ea amination of his credentals, and method Teaching, they are abundantly satisfied and ca with ple ture and confidence, recommend his to the public.

The School will go into operation on the 6th day of January next. The price of Tuition will be $8 persession for Reading Writing and Arith metic—$10 for English Grammar, Geography History, &c .- $12 for Latin, Greek, Fre tronomy, Natural and Moral Philomphy, Mathe matics, and all the higher branches of Arts and Sciences, to be paid in advance. The Trustees have obtained from Chapel Hill, the System of Studies taught there, and the course of Studies it, this Academy will be precisely such as to prepare Students from this School to enter with case the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or even Se Class of our University.

The Trustees are well aware of the inconven he Taxes for the year 1825, with costs, to wit: ences that a young man labors under, who enter 1964 acres, given in by the heirs of George College, having pursued a course of studies did ferent from that taught in the University, and they are determined to have an eye to it. Board can be had in respectable houses in the Village at $37 50, per session.

The character of Nashville is so well establish ed for health, that it is deemed unnecessary say any thing here. There are several nevering Springs of excellent water near the Acade

The Trustees are convinced that so Academic over commenced under more favorable anspices. Indeed, if a distinguished Teacher, healthiness of situation, cheapness of terms, and vigdance in the guardians of the school, can recommend it to a generous public, we are assured that this lostitution will be very liberally encouraged.

By order of the Board.
