The Board for Internal Improvements met at Fayetteville, on Friday last, & the Cape-Fear Navigation Company held a their business, on Saturday, the Members of the former Board proceeded in the Steam Boat Henrietta, down the River, in order to take a view of the River and of the work carrying on below Wilmington. Measures, we believe, were taken at this meeting for resuming the exertions of the Cape-Fear Company to remove any obstructions which may yet remain to a free navigation bebeing effected, the attention of the Comthe River above Fayetteville.

The candid acknowledgement of the Editors of the Star, that they committed an unintentional error in announcing the election of Duff Green as Printer to the Senate of the United States, is quite sufficient .-We have always known, that belief is very much at the service of inclination, even in much more important concerns than the politics of the hour. The Star in say ing that the Editors of the Register " may take an interest which we do not feel," say truly, and they must acknowledge, it would be strange if we did not. Time is beauty as the brevity of its composition. a great developer of hidden things, and the next session of Congress may probably unravel the mysteries of the last. In the mean time, so far as respects Duff Green, the it ;-if under obligations to others, honestly to Register and the Star are at peace.

The Rev. Barbarous tings of the Vines are sold at thirty dollars days! how happy are wives who live in per thousand, and the cost of setting out this age of civilization? an acre, including cuttings, is about $70. We hope this species of cultivation will be extensively tried throughout the whole country, as nothing will tend so much to remove the curse of drunkenness with which as a nation, we are scourged, as the predominance of the use of wine over ardent late session of our Legislature, a tract of 500 acres of land in Wilkes county, was given to a native of France, who has located himself there, by way of testing the suitableness of our climate for the growth of the vine. We wish him all the success which his enterprize deserves.

SUCCESSES OF THE GREEKS. Letters from Trieste of the 14th January announce, that Miaulis had attacked the Turkish fleet near Zea, taken two corvettes and 3 brigs, and sunk or dispersed the remainder. Letters from Zante of the 9th of January say, that Ibrahim being entrenched between Modon and Navarino, was attacked by the combined forces of Colocotroni, Kititas, Geneus; and Botzaris, 3,000 strong. The battle was bloody, and noise of the cannon was heard for five leagues. Ibrahim, at the head of 8,000 men, endeavoured to break through the troops of Geneus, but was repulsed with loss, and, after an action of five hours, his troops were driven into Modon, leaving 1,200 killed on the field, a great number of wounded and prisoners, 14 pair of co. lors, eight cannon, and 100 horses.

Another letter from Zante, of the same date, says it was reported that Kedschil i Pacha, after having been beaten in Eubæa, had perished in a bloody battle; that the town of Caristo had fallen into the hand- of the Greeks, and that Miaulis had again beaten the Egyptian fleet between Candia and Cerigo.
