Rufus King .- The latest New-York papers announce the death of this distinguished citizen, which occurred in that city, on the 29th ult. From an early period of his life, Mr. King has occupied public stations of the highest honor and importance, and has uniformly discharged the trusts confided to him with ability and integrity. We shall publish in our next paper an obituary notice of him.

Chantry's Statue of WASHINGTON has been received at Boston, for which place from London.

Execution .- Joseph Sollis, who was con-Abraham Kornegay, underwent the sen tence of the law on Friday, the 27th ult. The subjoined account has peen communicated to us, with a request that it may be published:

An immense crowd of people assembled to witness a fellow creature launched into eternity. This is a sight the very contemplation of which filling up uncommonly well done, though cial Advertiser notices, in a postscript, the requir's more than masculine fortitude ; I was the ink perhaps is not so dark as that used therefore surprised to see a large portion of the in the genuine Notes. As these Bills conspectators females. I have been heretofore in favor of public executions; I thought they did much good, by exhibiting to public view the faal consequences of guilt. But from what I have cen here, at the execution, and the subsequent onduct of the crowd in the evening, I am satisfid they have a contrary effect. No doubt exists on my mind, that the end intended by a public, would be better answered by a private execution After the ciencal gentlemen had done what they conceived to be their duty, the Sheriff told the criminal that he had but a few moments to live, and that if he had any thing to say to his friends or the public, now was the time. He observed, in a strong tone of voice, that " he had ry, (received by the Athenian) contains an nothing to say more, than he would not be in this fix but for Kornegay," He was admonished by a humane gentleman present, not to die with malice in his breast; to which he replied, " Kornegay was in fault, he began the affray, he was to blame for all." He then with a firm step mounted the scaffold; the sheriff tied the rope, pulled the cap over his eyes, and cut away the scaffold From the want of proper caution in tying the rope the feet of the criminal came to the ground & broke the fall. He remained in this position (partly hanging, and partly standing) grosning in the greatest apparent agony, for about seven minutes. All was now in confusion the crowd murmuring, and nothing doing .-The sherif bimself appeared completely unmanned, and incapable of making any exertion to but the unfortunate man out of pain. At lengt! a gentleman present, took up a piece of plank, pushed back the rope and suspended him in this position about fifteen minutes. A medical gentleman present observed "he was coming to life." On hearing this, the sheriff had him taken up and pitched off the scaffold again, and ended his sufferings.

Upon the examination of a lad at Baltimore, a few days since, upon a charge of setting fire to a lumber yard, it appeared that he was induced to perpetrate the act for the purpose of getting liquor which asually accompanies the engines when called into service.

" The West against the World .- The Steam boat Tecumseh has just arrived at Louisville from Orleans, in nine days, four hours, having lost one whole night, and part of another, by fog-distance 1500 miles. The Tecumseh passed thirteen boats on the way. It will be recollected, that within a very few years, the citizens of Louisville gave that enterprizing officer, Capt. SHREEVE, a public dinner, for performing the trip in twenty-five days !

The cases of Orrell and Jim, indicted for felonies, were removed; the former, to the Superior Court of Sampson, which is now in session; the latter, to that of Brunswick.
