Raleigh Register.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1827.

The Militia of Wake County, was reviewed in this city, on Friday last, by Brigadier-General Henry Blount, of Nash.

Synod of North Carolina.—The Presbyterian Synod convened in Salisbury on the 5d and adjourned on the 6th inst. Thirty seven Ministers & thirteen ruling Elders attended.

The President of the United States, on his recent visit to Baltimore, was treated with the attention due to his distinguished station. He was invited to a public dinner, and thousands exchanged salutations with him at his lodgings.

Another individual said, Mr. President, though I differ with you in opinion, I am glad to find you in good health. The President gave him a hearty shake of the hand and replied, "Sir, in our happy and free country we can differ in opinion without being enemies."

Meetings for forming the Anti-Jackson Convention at Richmond, continue to be held in different parts of Virginia. That of the citizens of Lynchburg which took place on the 9th inst. was the most numerous ever held in that town.

We certainly are not blind admirers of the Administration, but we have such confidence in the integrity of the Executive & in the disinterestedness of his conduct & motives, that we cannot but regret that the opposition to his course is so unreasonable, and intolerant in its character.

The nineteenth of October was celebrated in Norfolk, by a splendid Military display, in which they were joined by several companies from Washington City, who were invited to co-operate in the observance of this day so memorable in the history of our Revolutionary struggle.

The celebrated horses Eclipse and Henry were sold on the second day of the New York Races and purchased by Mr. W. B. Ludlow of that State—Eclipse for $8050 and Henry for $4100.

being elected. Yes, it is asserted, that Mr. Webster who had been in favor of Crawford and when there was no prospect of his election was undecided between Jackson and Adams, was waited on by Mr. Bailey, a member of Congress from Massachusetts, who sounding him on the subject of the election, found him opposed to Adams, because he thought that in case of his election, Federalists would be excluded from office.

This is the calumny to which birth was scarcely given, before the following conclusive refutation of it, appeared in the New-York American: "We are now enabled to state, upon the highest authority, that this story, by whomsoever told, or by whomsoever vouched for, is utterly untrue, and without the shadow of foundation."

Since the foregoing was in type, we have seen Mr. Bailey's letter to the Editor of the Boston Advertiser, in which he pronounces the whole story to be a base fabrication. He supposes it was coined in Philadelphia, to have its effect on the election there.

A correspondent of the National Journal, under the signature of ATTICUS, states that during the month of January, 1825—the very time when, according to Major Eaton and other friends of General Jackson, Mr. Markley was intriguing to secure the Secretaryship for Mr. Clay—Mr. M. was absent from the city of Washington, attending to his law cases in the Pennsylvania Courts.

The returns from the Pennsylvania Elections, so far as received, show a great accession of strength to the Administration. In the counties already heard from, where Mr. Adams's votes in 1824, amounted only to 2594, they are now 13,260.

New Jersey Elections.—The elections in this state have just taken place, and the Trenton True American gives a list of the returns as far as received, of the members elected to the state Legislature. It is ascertained that the Administration has a majority in both Houses.

The Tennessee Legislature have elected the Hon. H. L. White a Senator of the United States from that State, for six years to commence from the 4th of March, 1829. This is taking time by the forelock.

The Legislature of New-York having, at its present session, repealed the law "imposing a penalty for travelling on the Sabbath, except in cases of necessity," the clergymen of Albany have discontinued their attendance to open the daily sessions, in the usual form of worship.

The nineteenth of October was celebrated in Norfolk, by a splendid Military display, in which they were joined by several companies from Washington City, who were invited to co-operate in the observance of this day so memorable in the history of our Revolutionary struggle.

The celebrated horses Eclipse and Henry were sold on the second day of the New York Races and purchased by Mr. W. B. Ludlow of that State—Eclipse for $8050 and Henry for $4100.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank of the United States, on the 12th inst. the following gentlemen, were duly elected Directors of the Office of Discount and Deposit at Fayetteville for the ensuing year.

- John Huske. Peter Browne, of Raleigh. Charles P. Mallett. Henry A. Donaldson. Richard F. Yarborough. Hugh McLaurin. Elisha Stehman. David B. Crane. Thomas C. Hooper. William Anderson, of Wilmington.

And at a meeting of the Directors since, John Huske, Esquire, was unanimously elected President of the Office for the ensuing year.

It is with pleasure we remark the increasing interest manifested by the public in those two great subjects, Education and Internal Improvement. The letters of "Carlton" have had a tendency, more than any thing we recollect within several years past, to excite the public attention and to promote inquiry.

Considerable quantities of Goods have been received in town since our last, by boats & waggons from Wilmington. There is an evident improvement, also, in the produce market; so that, on the whole, business has assumed a more animated appearance.—Ib.

The Virginia University was not as fully attended this session as was anticipated. One hundred and eighteen students only have as yet matriculated, though more are expected. The "hard times" have doubtless prevented many from attending.

Had Thomas Jefferson in 1812, been called upon to lead our armies to the Canada line, the world would have thought it a very absurd and preposterous appointment. Would it have been more so in fact, than now to call Gen. Jackson to the Presidency of the U. S.?

Heaven has wrought a miracle in his favor, and communicated by intuition, that which less favoured mortals obtain by dint of labor and long experience. Gen. J. must be still more ignorant of the science of government, than Mr. Jefferson was of that of war, and he must in truth be still less prepared to fulfil the difficult and complicated duties of the Presidency, than Mr. Jefferson was to lead an army.

A capacious Pair of Breeches.—Mr. Noah of the New-York Enquirer says he can put the whole state of Delaware into his breeches pocket. One of Mr. Noah's predecessors in office, as we read in the book of Judges, committed a variety of deprecations on his adversaries the Philistines, burning their corn, and slaughtering their men with the j-w-bone of an ass; but all this, is nothing to what the Adams Philistines have to expect.

It is but a few days since Mr. Noah declared that Little Delaware had a heart big enough for the whole union. This will help the imagination in guessing the capacity of the Judge's breeches pocket.

Effects of War.—It is remarked in a statistical article in a French Journal, that the effect of the wars of the revolution has been to diminish the stature of the human species in that country. This is explained in the following manner: Soldiers are formed only of men who, for their physical formation, are the elite of the youth of the country.

Two or three additional Journeymen wanted. Apply to F. C. E. & Co.

of the revision 280,213 were rejected because they were not four feet six inches in height. The French foot is about three quarters of an inch longer than ours, and consequently four feet six inches French, are equal to about four feet nine and a half inches of our measure.

The Spanish brig Anigos, which ran a foul of the brig Guatemala Packet, on Tuesday night last off Smith's Island, and for whose safety the most serious apprehensions were felt by the Captain of the latter, has gone up the bay with loss of jib boom, fore topmast, maintop-gallantmast and bows stove in.—Norfolk Beacon.
