Raleigh Register.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1827.

The Legislature of this State convened yesterday, but had not been organized when our paper was put to press.

The death of the venerable Treasurer of State, which occurred on Sunday, will render it necessary for the Legislature to choose some one to succeed him.

A Duel.—A meeting took place on the 5th inst. on the Saluda Mountain, near the dividing line of North and South Carolina, between Samuel P. Carson Esq. a Member of Congress, from this State, and Dr. Robert B. Vance his opponent at the late election...

How long will the citizens of this free and Christian country countenance this barbarous practice of settling disputes, for the most part of a trifling nature.

We have commenced in to-day's paper, the republication of a series of Essays, from the Richmond Whig, under the signature of "A Farmer."

"I wish you to print for the friends of the Administration, in pamphlet form one thousand copies of the letters of 'A Farmer' which appeared in the Richmond Whig."

Adams Convention.—It will be seen by a notice in the Advertising Department, that the friends of the Administration in Franklin County, have called a public meeting to appoint Delegates to the proposed Convention in this City.

Mr. James P. Leak has been appointed Clerk of the Superior Court of Richmond County, vice Gen. Benjamin H. Covington, deceased.

Fayetteville Market.—Apple Brandy 52 to 55 cents per gal. Bacon 8 to 10 cents. Bagging 20 to 24 cents per yard.

The Fall Superior Court for this County was opened on Monday last—Judge Ruffin presiding. There are no criminal cases on the docket, and so small a number of others, that it is supposed the Court will adjourn on Saturday.

At Sampson Superior Court, last week, Curtis Orrell, whose trial had been re-ju- dged to that county from New-Hanover, was convicted of the murder of his cousin, Penelope Orrell, and sentenced by Judge Ruffin to be hung on Friday the 7th of next month.

ed to that county from New-Hanover, was convicted of the murder of his cousin, Penelope Orrell, and sentenced by Judge Ruffin to be hung on Friday the 7th of next month.

At the Superior Court held for Cabarrus county last week, Judge Norwood presiding, Joseph Wear (who has, for a year or two past, rendered himself somewhat notorious, by his lawless depredations on the property, &c. of the citizens of Lincoln county) was tried on an indictment for kidnaping (in stealing sundry negroes in Lincoln county, and running them off to South-Carolina for sale.)

The trial of Robert Spier, charged with the murder of John Williams, came on at the last Superior Court of Craven county. At seven o'clock on Saturday evening the solicitor closed the evidence in behalf of the State; after which the witnesses on the part of the prisoner were examined, and the argument of his counsel was concluded at twelve o'clock at night.

Execution of a whole Family.—On Saturday last, at 12 o'clock, Heyworth and his two sons, who were convicted at the last assizes for this county of a number of most atrocious burglaries, were executed, pursuant to their sentence, in front of the Castle of Lancaster.

Public Sentiment of the People of Virginia.—We have received from friends in different parts of Virginia, as well as through the newspapers of the State, numerous accounts of public county meetings, in addition to those heretofore noticed.

Good Example to Electors.—The following Resolution was unanimously adopted at a meeting of the friends of General Jackson, held in Northumberland county, Kentucky:

"Resolved, that we will through the contest for the Presidential Chair, disapprove of any vulgar, harsh, and unbecoming epithets, or language used, either in relation to our own candidate or the Administration party—believing that such things tend to inflame the public mind unnecessarily, and have injurious effects upon the morals of our country."

Impeachment of the President.—The wise and moderate have for months turned their eyes towards the approaching session of Congress with apprehension. There was but too much reason to fear, that the Representatives of the people catching that excitement which unfortunately, blazes so fiercely throughout the country, would fan rather than reduce the flame of civil discord.

of course) requesting the Representatives of that state in Congress, to Impeach the President of the U. States! Here follows the Resolution.

Resolved, That the Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the State of Tennessee be, and they hereby, are requested to prefer charges against John Quincy Adams, now President of the United States, setting forth charges & arguments contained in the foregoing preamble, and use their endeavors to have the said John Quincy Adams, President as aforesaid, impeached and dismissed from the Presidency of the United States.

After this it were in vain to expect healing and moderate councils from the approaching session of Congress. The Legislature of Tennessee have thrown a burning brand into the midst of the magazine.—They have rung the tocsin, and the dissections of the country instead of being mitigated by Congress, are destined to be increased by this last fanatical act of party spirit.—Richmond Whig.

Arkansas.—The General Assembly of the Territory of Arkansas met at Little Rock, on the 1st ult. Daniel T. Witter was elected President of the Legislative Council, and Ambrose H. Sevier Speaker of the House of Representatives. On the 2d. Governor Izard sent his Message.—The Message commences with an expression of the belief of the Governor, that the population of the Territory "had reached that point which, by the laws of the United States, Territories are entitled to be admitted into the Union."

"That we have reached that point I entertain no doubt; but notwithstanding the zeal of the officers whose duty it is to take the census, the statements are so sparse, and the means of access of the country so extended, that it is scarcely possible to note with precision the increase of our inhabitants. In 1830, however, I anticipate with security that the Star of Arkansas will assume its rank in the constellation which adorns the banner of our country."

A brief reference is made to the alarm recently excited in the Territory by a report that a party of American citizens, under the direction of the Mexican authorities, had crossed the Red river to wage war against the Comanche Indians, & the Legislature is congratulated on the disappearance of this danger, by the dispersion of that body in the Taxes, of its own accord.

WARRENTON, N. C. Nov. 8.—Liberwort.—We have been informed that a gentleman in this neighborhood, who is laboring under a pulmonary attack, has been using the Liberwort for some short time, and that it has been attended with considerable good effect.

Marriage Question.—The Presbytery of New York has unanimously decided to erase the section of the confession of faith forbidding a man to marry his deceased wife's sister. The Presbytery of New Brunswick has come to the same decision, 12 to 5.

New York City Election.—We think the friends of good order and civil government have not so much to apprehend relative to the N. York City Election as some seem to think. Let it be borne in mind, that the Jackson party have only got that which has always been conceded to them.

made up of foreigners who are not entitled to vote. We may safely estimate (the population at 20,000, which deducted from the gross amount would leave 160,000, from which the votes were to be taken.—The proportion of voters to this population would then be as one to eight—a proportion altogether unprecedented.

the present short opportunity pass without a brief, but imperfect tribute to his worth, as we have known and felt its influence. "Our good old Treasurer," (a term for a few years most affectionately applied to him by those who knew him and as a consequence loved him) was distinguished alike by his active and passive virtues.

It will be well also to bear in mind, that the city of New-York and a few of the river cities and counties are all that the E. hony party ever counted upon. The great body of the people, the yeomanry of the interior, and the bone, muscle and sinew of the State, are at least ten to one for the Administration, and when the contest shall lie, as it will next fall, between Adams and Jackson, uninfluenced by the local feelings and preferences of legislative & charter interests, New-York will be found nobly rallying in the ranks of Light and Liberty.

In a late trial in England, in which Mr. Brougham was for the plaintiff, and Sergeant Cross for the defendant, damages were claimed for the negligent manner in which the defendant, a Doctor, had treated a broken leg of the plaintiff's.

We take this opportunity to remark, that this is the law of our country; and, considering the havoc made among the poor and ignorant, by the desperate quacks which infest the interior of our State, it is a matter of surprise they have not been arrested in their progress by the application of this law.—Penn. Gaz.

The following, says the Newburyport Herald, is the last production of the Bostonian: THE DYING CHRISTIAN.

How peaceful is the closing scene, When virtue yields its breath— How sweetly beams the smile serene, Upon the cheek of death.
