TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1827.

Legislative.—On Friday last, Col. William Robards of Granville, was elected Public Treasurer, for the ensuing year, on the eighth balloting. The result of the last balloting, was, Robards 107—J. L. Henderson 80.

On Saturday last, Cadwallader Jones, James M. Kay and Andrew Joiner, were elected Members of the Board for Internal Improvements for the ensuing year.

On the same day, the following gentlemen were elected Councillors of State, viz: Gideon Alston, William Blackledge, Geo.
W. Jeffreys, Meshack Franklin, William B. Lockhart and Isaac T. Avery. One remains yet to be elected.

The Legislative proceedings of Saturday are crowded out, but we annex the most important matters transacted on that day:

In the Senate, on motion of Mr. Dobson, the Judiciary Committee were instructed to enquire into the expediency of passing a law, making all debts due by bond or note, recoverable, when the persons owing the same, are about to move beyond the limits of the State, or that the persons so intending to leave the State shall be required to give new security.

On motion of Mr. Shober, the Committee on Internal Improvement were instructed to enquire into the expediency of repairing and improving the road leading from Fayetteville to Wilkesborough, thro' the counties of Moore, Randolph, Guilford, and Stokes, agreeably to a survey heretofore made by the Civil Engineer.

On motion of Mr. Montgomery, the Committee on Internal Improvement were directed to enquire whether any money has been drawn from the fund set apart for Internal Improvement, during the three last years, not authorized by law; and if any, how much, by whom, and for what purpose.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Fisher presented a bill to limit the appointment of Solicitor General and Solicitors to four years.

Mr. Eccles, a bill to incorporate the Cotton Plant Steamboat Company; and Mr. Hill, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported a bill concerning the entry of lands, covered by the lakes of Pungo, Phelps and Mattamuskeet.
[Prohibits their entry as vacant land.]
These bills were read the first time.

A meeting of the friends of the Administration was held in this City, on Saturday last, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to attend the Convention on the 20th inst. The meeting was organized by the appointment of Col. William Hinton, as Chairman, and Benjamin S. King, as Secretary.

The objects of the meeting having been explained by an address from W. R. Giles, on motion, a committee was appointed to draft a Preamble and Resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. This committee, consisting of Thomas P. Devereux, Parker Rand, John Ligon, Dr. Henry W. Montague and W. R. Giles, returned a short time and submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

W. R. Giles of Wake county, opposed to the election of Gen. Andrew Jackson to the Chief Magistracy of this Union have assembled to make a public expression of our sentiments, upon this vitally important subject; and we confidently believe that a fair development of public sentiment in this State will evince that the Administration is entitled to a popularity greatly exceeding the estimate formed of its claims.

The present Presidential contest seems to have engendered more than an ordinary degree of bitter feelings. It is seldom that an interest so intense is manifested at the approach of the time, when we are called on to exercise the elective franchise, for the purpose of designating that person who is to fill the first office in the gift of freemen. Above all others, this is a subject, which should be examined in a candid manner, without bias; a subject, which as citizens, we more interested in the permanent glory of our country, than in advancing the views of ambitious men, we should weigh dispassionately, bearing in mind, that measures and not men, principles and not individual preferences, should influence freemen in their choice of a Chief Magistrate.

Of General Jackson's important military services, we entertain a just and grateful sense. His own glory, is the glory of his country, and each is equally sacred. But candour compels us to declare, that we know of nothing in his life or public actions, which authorizes the belief, that he is possessed of sufficient capacity and wisdom to hold the helm of State. He is comparatively an unpractised statesman & desirous of that varied knowledge and well poised temper which ought to endow the Chief Magistrate of a great nation; and we have seen that he is no respecter of law, save only such as emanates from his own uncontrollable will. We have no disposition, nor is it necessary, to go into a detail of those acts of violence and recklessness of law which mark his life, because they are known throughout our country; but strip him of the fame acquired by his military achievements, and we ask, what merit has he to entitle him to distinction from his country, or what claim can he lay to the remembrance of posterity?

Of the eminent talents and long public services at home and abroad, of John Quincy Adams, it is needless to speak.
They are identified with the history of our country, for the last thirty years. From his earliest manhood, to the present period of his life, his time and talents have been devoted to pursuits wholly civil and immediately connected with the policy of our governments. As a "statesman he has few rivals—as a patriot no superior—a man who loves his country and glories in its free institutions; and who devotes his attention, to promoting and securing its best, its dearest and its greatest interests." We most cordially believe, that he is from long tried experience and a faithful discharge of the public duties which have been assigned him, eminently qualified for the important responsible trust to which he has been called. We furthermore, feel it our duty to declare to the world, that after the most deliberate attention to the charge of corruption, in the last election of President, and to the assertions which have been made in support of it, we are thoroughly satisfied, that there is not the slightest foundation for it. The charge has so totally failed of proof, by witnesses too, from whom his conviction was most confidently anticipated, that we can view it in no other light, than a baseless calumny.

But if the candidates stood on equal ground, with respect to their qualifications, we should conceive it an act of injustice and of doubtful policy to displace Mr.
Adams, whilst the general measures of his administration have been found to promote the true interests of the nation. More especially, is a change to be deprecated, since it would be construed into an approbation, by the people, of the views and conduct of an Opposition, unprecedented for violence, and which manifests a determination to prostrate the Administration, even though the best interests of the nation should be sacrificed in the attempt.
This opposition was organized before Mr.
Adams took his seat and it has opposed every measure originating with, or countenanced by him, and in some instances with such violence, as to reflect disgrace on our National Councils.

1. Resolved, therefore, That we will support the re-election of John Quincy Adams, by all honorable means.
2. Resolved, That we should deem the election of General Jackson to the Presidency, a departure from those principles which have hitherto influenced the people of the United States, in the re-election of a Chief Magistrate.
3. Resolved, That we concur with our fellow-citizens of other counties in this State, in the propriety of appointing Delegates to the Convention to meet in this City on the 20th inst.
4. Resolved, That B. S. King, Parker Rand, Dempsey Powell, John Hinton, S. Birdsall, Lemuel Cook, and John W. Harris be appointed a Committee of Vigilance and Correspondence, to correspond with other Counties in this State, and to take such steps as they may think expedient and proper, to advance the object of this meeting.
5. Resolved, That four persons be chosen to represent this meeting in the said Convention, to be selected by the Committee of Correspondence.

WILLIAM HINTON, Ch'n.
B. S. KING, Sec'y.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the Committee of Vigilance and Correspondence, to represent this (Wake) county, as Delegates in the Adams Convention, on the 20th inst. viz. Dempsey Powell, William Whitfield, Thomas P.
Devereux and Dr. John Beckwith.

In addition to the Administration meetings already announced, we have heard from several others, who have appointed Delegates to the Convention, but the proceedings of which we are compelled to defer.
Several of the Delegates have already arrived in this City, and we anticipate quite a full Convention, considering that it has been the work of a few days.

A numerous Jackson meeting was held in Fayetteville, on Thursday evening last.
Louis D. Henry took the Chair and explained the object of the meeting. A committee was appointed to report a Preamble and Resolutions, which were of course adopted. A Corresponding Committee of 55 persons was named, to co-operate and communicate with other committees.

Whatever is honourable to our State, we cannot forget, and thus in running over the items of appropriation in the Comptroller's Report we felt renewed pleasure in seeing the sum of $600 for the education of Miss Udney M. Blakeley. This munificent Act was passed in the session of 1815, and is certainly one of the most affecting tributes of national gratitude, within our recollection. This noble remuneration to the child, for the services of her lost parent ennobled our state in public opinion. It will be recollected, that Captain Johnston Blakeley's fate was never fully ascertained. He was and is not, is all the trackless deep could tell! The life and fate of Blakeley, was brought still stronger to our recollection, by the resignation of the late Solicitor General of the State, for to his philanthropic benevolence was Blakeley indebted, after the death of his father, for a continuation of his studies, at our University. To the efforts of this gentleman, he was also indebted for a midshipman's warrant in 1800. His naval heroism is marked in indelible characters in his country's annals. His early orphanage, his interesting boyhood, his gallant manhood and his unknown fate, have cast a halo round his name, which gives interest to his character, whenever it is incidentally brought to view.

We know this is a "thrice told tale," but to sons of North-Carolina, it will bear repetition, for it speaks of one of the bravest of her adopted sons, and it proves that gratitude is a Republican virtue. We have dwelt too long, to indulge in a lengthened paragraph, or we would recount, (for can such acts be too often brought before the rising generation,) the same generous part of our Legislature, towards our native soldier's son—the brave Forsyth.

Congress.—In to-day's paper, will be found a list of the Standing Committees of the House of Representatives, appointed by the new Speaker. It appears that a thorough change has been made, and in some of the most important Committees, a majority are opposed to the views of the President. Be it so; as friends to the Administration, we do not regret it, though we have no doubt, it will ultimately be a source of regret to those who have contributed to this unprecedented state of things.

On Tuesday, the different subjects embraced in the President's Message, were referred. Mr. Carson submitted a Resolution instructing the committee on Indian Affairs to enquire into the expediency of refunding to this State, $19,960 paid to the Cherokee Indians for reservations, by the treaty of 1819. Mr. Williams moved an enquiry, which was negatived, as to the expediency of repealing the duty on imported salt.

On Wednesday, Mr. Bryan presented the memorial of the citizens of Newbern, asking for an appropriation, for the improvement of the navigation of Ocranoke Inlet, and of the swash. Mr. Little obtained leave to introduce a bill fixing the ratio of representation, under the fifth census, and after the 3d of March, 1833, at one Representative for every 60,000 inhabitants. The bill was read twice and committed.

The claim of Mrs. Susan Decatur was presented by Mr. Hamilton, of South-Carolina.

On Thursday Mr. P. P. Barbour, of Virginia, submitted a resolution for the sale of the seven millions of the Stock of the Bank of the United States, owned by the Government. The high respectability of the quarter from which this proposal came, might have given it an alarming consequence to the commercial community, had it not been met by the decided opposition of Messrs. M'Duffie & Gorham. The principal recommendation of the measure proposed by Mr. B. appeared to be, the gain which would accrue to the Treasury, by the advance of twenty three per cent. at which the Stock is now selling; and which, on Seven Millions of Dollars, would certainly amount to a very handsome sum.
The fallacy, however, of supposing that Seven Millions of Bank Stock, (one fifth of the whole amount of the capital of the Bank of the United States,) could be thrown into market, without seriously affecting the price, was satisfactorily pointed out by the gentlemen who spoke against the proposition of Mr. Barbour.

We commence the publication in to-day's Register, of the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, to Congress. It is an elaborate and luminous State Paper, which we doubt not will be read with great interest, as it not only contains a clear and satisfactory view of the Finances of the Government; but shows also, that all the predictions heretofore made, of the failure of the receipts at the Treasury, from duties on Foreign Imports, from the effects of the Tariff act of 1824, are completely contradicted by the fact, that the amount of duties received in the three years since that period have been greater than the three previous to it. The Secretary is also of opinion, that nothing will promote so much the prosperity of this Country, as the laying of additional duties on Foreign Manufactures of Wool, Iron and Hemp, and also on the finer fabrics of Cotton. He has no doubt that if this course is pursued, this country will in a few years, not only be able to supply most of the wants of our own people for all the most necessary articles, formed from these raw materials, but we shall also be able to export of our own Manufactures to a large amount. The reasoning of the Secretary is so forcible on this subject, that we will not attempt to describe it, but refer to the Report itself, which we think cannot fail to produce conviction on every ingenious mind.

General Jackson has denied, in a letter to Felix Grundy, the truth of the statement, that he threatened to chastise a Senator of the United States for the part he took in the discussion of the Seminole question.

The Petersburg Intelligencer says, that the appearance of the notice of the President of the Cape Fear Bank as might be expected has had a very serious effect upon the credit of the Cape Fear Bank paper in circulation in that town.
