TO THE AFFLICTED.
HADLOCK'S
Vegetable Sirup and Powder, FOR DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

THE Proprietor of this Medicine, after repeated trials of its virtues, which have been attended with the most signal success, now offers it to those who are afflicted with the wasting disease which it is designed to relieve, in full confidence that it will be found efficacious, particularly if taken in the incipient stages of these diseases.

For two years past, this Medicine has been prepared in the form of a Powder, & taken as an infusion, with the most happy success. It is now offered to the afflicted in the form of a Sirup or in Powder, as the Patient may prefer, under the conviction, that either form will produce the same happy result. Among its most prominent qualities the following may be mentioned, as entitled to particular consideration. It promotes that gentle perspiration which is deemed healthy, and checks those sweats which are morbid and pernicious. It relieves chronic affections and congestions of the lungs by giving force to the languid circulation. It assuages coughs. It promotes free and bland expectoration. It removes pain from the chest. It relieves asthmatic and difficult respiration. It corrects obstinate costiveness, and thus leaves the bowels in a regular and healthy state. Thus, it is found, that these painful symptoms which indicate diseased lungs, readily yield to this powerful remedy, when seasonably resorted to, and that it restores the patient to that bodily vigour, which that cruel disorder the consumption, if left to its natural operation, would very speedily destroy.

Certificates respecting the virtue of this Medicine will accompany each bottle. Price $2 50 a bottle, or $24 a dozen.

Improved Intercourse.—We are pleased to learn, that the intercourse between the Roanoke River and Norfolk, has of late been greatly improved. The Norfolk Company have provided eight excellent vessels for the transportation of produce between Weldon and Norfolk. They are upwards of 60 tons burthen, and carry from 50 to 60 hogsheads Tobacco, and a considerable quantity of Flour and Cotton. They draw when laden, about three and a half feet of water—have excellent masts and sails, and, when the Steam Vessel is finished, are intended to be used as tow-boats. In the meantime, they will carry away from Weldon all the produce which may arrive there this Spring, and will be brought up the River to that place by poles. The citizens of Weldon were much gratified last week by the arrival of one of them, which was nearly laden, and would sail on the 10th instant. The freight between Weldon and Norfolk and the expenses at the former place, have been considerably reduced. Freight of Tobacco is but $4 per hogshead. Storage and commission at Weldon $1 25. Freight of a bale of Cotton $1. Storage and Commission at Weldon 50 cents. Toll through the Dismal Swamp Canal 12 1/2 cents, making the aggregate expence $1-62 1/2.

THE INAUGURATION.—In addition to the notice we have already given of the ceremonies on this occasion, we have to state that a number of the Officers and Soldiers of the Revolutionary Army who were present met in the Room of the Vice-President at the Capitol on the 3d inst. for the purpose of entering into Arrangements for joining in the services of the day, when Col. Wm. Polk, of this city, was called to the Chair, and Col. Ogden appointed Secretary. Some Resolutions were adopted, and the following Address was prepared and presented to the President elect, a little before the forming of the Procession to the Capitol.

Washington, 4th March, 1829.

GENERAL ANDREW JACKSON—SIR: We, a few of the surviving officers and soldiers of the Army of the Revolution, now convened at this place, most respectfully solicit the honor of forming your escort to the Capitol, where you are about to be inaugurated as President of the United States.

Former events, and our advanced ages preclude the idea that is designed to be a military pageant; no, Sir, it is far otherwise; having fought in the defence of the sacred rights of man, and for the liberty and sovereignty, and independence of these United States, now happily bound together, as we fondly hope, by an indissoluble chain, we feel desirous to avail ourselves of the opportunity of being present when the guardianship of these invaluable benefits shall be deposited in your hands.

The valor, the judgment, the independence of mind, the prudence, the firmness and the true patriotism of our great commander, Washington, led us triumphantly through the Revolutionary war, and the nation through the first periods of the Federal Constitution; and we have entire confidence that the exercise of the same transcendent virtues, will, under God, preserve inviolate our liberties, independence and union, during your administration;—and it is our most ardent prayer that they may be perpetual. May your days be long and happy—may increasing honors multiply on your head—and, like your first predecessor, may you add a civic monument to your martial glory; and like his, may they be imperishable!

(Signed) WILLIAM POLK, Chairman,
And by fourteen other Officers & Soldiers.

To this Address, the President made the following reply:

RESPECTED FRIENDS: Your affectionate address awakens sentiments and recollections which I feel with sincerity, and cherish with pride. To have around my person, at the moment of undertaking the most solemn of all duties to my country, the companions of all duties to my country, the companions of the immortal Washington, will afford me satisfaction and grateful encouragement. That by my best exertions, I shall be able to exhibit more than an imitation of his patriotic labors, a sense of my own imperfections, and the reverence I entertain for his virtues, forbid me to hope.

To you, respected friends, the survivors of that heroic band, who, followed him so long and so valiantly in the path of glory, I offer my sincere thanks, and to heaven my prayers that your remaining years may be as happy as your toils and lives have been illustrious.

ANDREW JACKSON.

Mr. Clay.—A Public Dinner was given to this gentleman in Washington, on Saturday last, at the Mansion House Hotel, at which upwards of 100 gentlemen were present. Genl. Walter Jones presided, assisted by George Calvert, Esq. Col. R.
C. Weightman, and Col. J. J. Stull, as Vice Presidents. We observe that similar respect is proposed to be paid to Mr.
Clay at Hagerstown and Fredericktown, on his journey to Kentucky. Mr. Clay's response to the toast complimentary to him, is characterized by his usual felicity and independent expression of sentiment.

Pennsylvania.—The up-shot of the Convention at Harrisburg is, that Geo. Wolf, of Northampton County has been nominated as the Democratic Jackson Candidate for the office of Governor of the State.
Mr. Wolf has been for two or three years a member of the House of Representatives of the United States.

We are authorized to state, (says the Richmond Enquirer,) that in consequence of ill-health, Mr. RANDOLPH declines being a candidate at the ensuing Congressional Election.

All the state (says the Richmond Whig) has to regret Mr. Madison's declining to serve in the Convention. In the 79th year of his age, he conceives himself unequal to the discharge of duties so arduous, and (we may add) to encounter the kindness and attention, which his presence in Richmond would attract.

Washington, March 10.

The following nominations were made to the Senate on the 9th inst. by the PRES-IDENT of the United States:

John H. Eaton, of Tennessee, to be Secretary for the Department of War.
John Branch, of North-Carolina to be Secretary for the Department of the Navy.
John McPherson Berrien, of Georgia, to be Attorney General, of the United States.
William T. Barry, of Kentucky, to be Postmaster General.

Nat. Int.

Some other nominations were also made, but they were of lesser magnitude, and we are not able to state them, except that of John Pope, of Kentucky, to be Governor of the Territory of Arkansas, which was confirmed.—ib.

In addition to the appointments heretofore announced, it ought to be stated that John W. Campbell has been appointed District Judge of the United States for the District of Ohio; and that Mr. Harper has been appointed District Judge, and Mr.
Slidell Attorney of the United States, for the District of Louisiana.—ib.

March 11.
The Senate was in session for several hours yesterday; but we have not learnt what business, if any, was transacted, or referred to it. We rather think, however, from what we can gather from common report, that no important nominations to office were confirmed, and that few additional ones, if any, have been made.

Nat. Int.

We omitted, inadvertently, to state, in our last, that the nominations of Cabinet Ministers, by the President of the United States, were all promptly confirmed, without opposition, by the Senate. This shews, conclusively, we think, that there is to be no opposition to the present Administration for opposition's sake.—ib.

The Postmaster General, Mr. M'LEAN, retired from the duties of his office, we learn, on Monday last. Until the arrival of the Postmaster General, these duties are discharged, of course, by the Assistant Postmasters-General, Messrs. A. BRADLEY and P. BRADLEY, so long and advantageously known as faithful public servants in that Department.—ib.

March 12.
The SENATE of the United States still remains in session, passing upon such appointments as are laid before it.

In addition to those already stated, we learn that the following nominations by the President of the United States, have been confirmed by the Senate:—

James N. Barker to be Collector of the Customs for the Port of Philadelphia.

Francis Boylles (late Representative in Congress) to be Collector of the Customs for the port of New-Bedford.

John Chandler (late Senator) to be Collector of the Customs for the port of Portland.

Walter R. Danforth to be Collector of the Customs for the port of Providence.

Noah A. Phelps to be Collector of the Customs for the port of Middletown.

Schuyler Sampson to be Collector of the Customs for the Port of Plymouth.

Ellis to be Collector of the Customs for the port of New-Haven.

Joshua Prentiss to be Surveyor of the Revenue for the port of Marblehead.

Nat. Int.

Thomas P. Moore, of Kentucky, is nominated to the Senate, as Minister to Colombia, to supersede Wm. H. Harrison.

We are sorry to say that information has reached this city, within a day or two, that JAMES MONROE, Ex-President of the United States, lies dangerously ill, at his residence in Loudon County, Virginia.

It appears that Stephenson, the Banker, who escaped from England, with so much money, got on board a vessel for Savannah, where it is said, he is arrived and dines every day at a public table.

LATE FROM EUROPE.
New-York, March 9.

The packet ship Silas Richards, from Liverpool brings papers to the 24th of January.

Great activity is observed in the English fleet in the Mediterranean, and every thing indicates that important events are at hand.

The great topics engrossing the public attention in Great Britain are the questions of Catholic emancipation and Mr.
Peel's currency bill, both of which will be brought forward at the next session of Parliament.

The commercial letters received from St. Petersburg has no hope whatever that the war will be terminated during the winter by diplomatic negotiations, but speak only of the incredible activity which is employed to open the campaign with an army twice as numerous as before. Recruits are pouring in from all parts of the immense empire; 900 cannon have been sent from the arsenal at Moscow to the Danube; and the cavalry depots are all emptied to supply without delay the loss of horses. One hundred and fifty thousand irregular Cossacks and other troops are on their march to the Danube. The Emperor, it is said, will command the army in person, and go to join it in the month of March.

East India Monopoly.—The Liverpool Mercury of the 23d of January, says, "The East India Company, jealous of the increasing trade carried on by American merchants at Canton, have obtained an order from the Chinese Government forbidding the Americans to carry on any trade at Canton, but through a Chinese company there, called the Hong, through which the Company transact their own business."

LISBON JAN. 3.
The Island of Terceira has been so strongly fortified and well supplied with reinforcements of Constitutional troops as to bid complete defiance to any expedition the Miguel faction may send against it. The failure of the late expedition, and the return of the Don Juan VI. to Lisbon has caused the officers and crews of ships to be openly insulted in the streets by the populace.

GREECE.
Ypsilanti had occupied the chief town of Livadia, the garrison, 1000 strong, had bound themselves not to appear in arms against Greece during the present contest, and had retreated towards Negropont and Zeitouni.

Ypsilanti was marching towards Bocutia. Grivas occupied the Gulf of Previsa, having taken possession of 43 Turkish vessels.

FROM MEXICO.—By the Schooner General Waren, which arrived at New-York from Tampico, papers of the city of Mexico to December 27th inclusive, have been received.

A proclamation of General Parrez dated a Guadalajara, December 17, notices a rumor of PEDRAZA's being about to approach that city, or being already in it incognito, and pledges himself and his army to support the public peace, and the authority of the Federal Government, against him and all others.

One of the papers thus speaks of the result of the late Presidential contest in the United States:

"The warrior (el guerrero) General Jackson has been elected President of the United States He is the chief of the popular party in those States. We rejoice at his election, because he will be very conducive to friendly relations between our Government and that of General Jackson. Similarity of opinions is a way very effective to free intercourse between two neighboring States."

Grape Vines.
THE Secretary of the Board of Agriculture of this State, informs the several Agricultural Societies connected with the Board, that, agreeably to the instructions given him at their meeting during the late Session of the General Assembly, he has ordered a supply of Grape Vines from the Vineyard of Mr. LOUBAT, on Long Island, and has received advice of their being shipped for Wilmington, in 20 Boxes, each containing 50 Roots of 25 different kinds, addressed to the several Societies. From Wilmington, they will be sent on to Fayetteville, to the care of Messrs. Horton & Hutton, to whom application will be made by the several Societies.— From a belief that it would be more convenient for some of the Societies to send to Raleigh than to Fayetteville, a few of the Boxes will come on to this place. J. GALES, Sec'y.
