Maleigs Blegister. RALEIGHE REGISTER TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1829.

We learn that two of our citizens who took the Stage for the North on Thursday last, had their Trunks cut off from the Stage, about half a mile beyond Louisburg, on the Halifax road. The depredation being soon discovered, the gentlemen left the Stage & returned to Louisburg, where they engaged a party to go out with them in search of the Trunks and the Thief. and they were so fortunate as to regain both their trunks and to apprehend the thief, a colored free man, who is lodged in the Jail of Franklin. One of the trunks had been opened, and some articles taken out and found in possession of the offender, which were identified by the owner. -070

Daniel Turner, Esq- the late Representative in Congress, from the Warren District, having declined a re-election, Charles A. Hill, Esq. has offered his ser vices. Robert Potter, Esq. declared himself a Candidate some time ago.

The Salisbury papers announce John Giles, Esq. as a Candidate for Congress in that district. Mr. Long, the late Representative, in his Circular, left his Constituents in some doubt, whether he would again offer his services to them. It will be proper that he should now make up his mind on the subject.

Virginia .- We have a few more returns of the voting for members of Congress in Virginia. The re-election of the following members is placed beyond doubt, viz. William S. Archer, Philip P. Barbour, Burwell Bassett, Andrew Stevenson, Jas. Trezvant.

> Trade of Rotterdam .- The proper authorities of this City have given notice, that they have had a Canal cut from Helvoetsluys to Rotterdam, 21 feet deep and sufficiently capacious for Vessels of War, so that, in future, vessels from Sea can pass up this Canal to the City, without breaking bulk, or being under the necessity, as heretofore, of employing lighters. The Canal will be finished by August next.

The Hon. Ezra C. Gross, a member o to meet engagements, &c. Mr. Van Baren, we believe, recommended this plan. How it will succeed time must shew. It. will have the effect, we think, of reducing the number of Banks, for we observe that eight Banks in the City have already signified their determination not to take a renewal of their charters under the conditions of the new law.

Banks, of whose solvency no one ever entertained a doubt, will naturally, we should suppose, feel an unwillingness to guarantee Banks of less public credit.

Silliman's Journal -The April No. of this valuable Journal contains an unusual variety of interesting articles. Too first is a communication from Professor Mitchell of this State, on the Geology of the Gold Region of this State. The tenth is the murder of George, also a slave, there was no a very interesting document, increasing a series of observations on the variation of ton, Falmouth and Penobscot, during a period of 128 years, from 1672 to 1800.----The fourteenth acticle is a description by came very angry, and very abusive language | Mr. Finch on the effects of physical genography on the boundaries of Empires .----The miscellaneous intelligence occupies nearly half of the book, and is of great interest.

cheval obtained a majority of three or four hundred votes over Robert Allen, the late member; but the residue of the district will give Mr. Allen a sufficient majority to elect him.

From Loudon county, we learn, generally, that Mr. Mercer's majority is such as to leave no doubt of his re-election from that district.

In the Wheeling district, Mr. Leffler (the late Representative) having declined serving, it appears to be likely that Philip Doddridge will be chosen his successor. In Ohio county, the vote for him was 437 votes, and that for Joseph Johnson 145.

In the district lately represented by Mr. Randolph, there are three candidates. In the only county heard from, J. T. Bouldin had a considerable majority over the other two candidates:

In the Norfolk District, there will have been a closer contest than usual, though it is believed that Mr. Newton will be again chosen.

From the remaining districts no news.

Connecticut .- The General Election of State officers and Representatives to Con-Gideon Tomlinson is re-elected Governor without opposition: It is impossible, from the number of candidates, and the scattering returns, to say who will have been thing like sure, is Mr. Ingersoll, late a member.

Methodism .- It was in the year 1729, by two or three of his fellow students at the University of Oxford, commenced the work of reforming the morals of the great body of the people of England, and especially those of the lowest and most neglected classes. At that time, the Religious Teachers of the Country were chiefly those of the Established Church, and but little pains were taken to induce disorderly persons, who kept at a distance from Church, and any thing like Religion, to change their course ; and the number of these was far from being inconsiderable. Wesley, and his associates at College, moved by this state of things, began by visiting places in the neighbour hood, and holding meetings wherever they could find opportunity. But this great Reformer of Morals, at length commenced his plan of establishing Itinerary Preaching throughout the Kingdoin, which, at first met with much opposition. Another Revolutionary hero gone !- Died sud denly, on the 25th ultimo, at his residence in Marion Dist ict, S. Carolina, Mr. William Blue, aged 73. He was a native of Kint re, in scotl .nd, and emigraied to this country at the age of 12 or 13 years. He enlisted with the Americans about the commencement of the Kevolutionary war, in which service he continued during the struggle. He then turned his attention to agriculture. From his moral deportment and energy in promoting the Christian Religion, he was nominated and appointed a Ruling Elder in the Presbyteriaa Church at Ashpole, which office he filled and held with assiduity and credit to himself and Church for the last 50 years. From his brilliancy of intellect and natural vivacity, he commanded the respect and enteem of all who knew him. His death has left a chasm in the Church and in society that will not casily be filled. Mrs. Hamner's residence in Fayetteville was not of long duration ; but short as it was, she had endeared herself to many, by her amiable and agreeable manners, and her exemplary christian deportment. Her last illness, which was unusually protracted, subjected her to much nainful suffering ; but, 1.0m what is known of the uniform tenor of her life, and of the perceful and triumphant character of its termination, there is comfortable ground to believe, that her sufferings are exchanged for unalloyed felicity ; and that her disembodied spirit has taken its flight to that happy mansion, where believers in Jesus are made perfectly blest in the full enjoyment of God, to all eternity .- Observer.
