FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1829.

NO. 1,566.

traced growth of the country, and loss of capital, by the continued emigration to the west.—
He took a slight view of the different kinds of improvement of which the country is susceptible;
recommended the employment of a civil engineer, of known talents and acquaintance with his profession,
and whose character would give assurance of a faithful performance of duty;
that he examine the face of the country,
and determine what kind of improvement, whether turnpike,
or canal, or railroad, or the opening of our rivers,
is best adapted to our situation and means of accomplishment;
and that he make a full report at the next session of the Legislature.

The Hon. Duncan Cameron next addressed the meeting.
He perfectly coincided with what had been said by the gentleman who preceded him.
He approved of primary meetings of the people;
all great works emanate from them;
and referred to the movements which brought about our revolution,
as an instance.
He recommended frequent meetings, at which the subject of internal improvement should be earnestly discussed.
The expression of public opinion would be heard by the Legislature.
He recommended unanimity in our actions;
and congratulated himself and his fellow countrymen that the first impulse to this great measure originated in Orange.
He also recommended that our support should not be given to any candidate who was not openly in favor of internal improvement;
he should not be even lukewarm, he should be zealous in the cause.
Mr. Cameron concluded by moving that this meeting be adjourned, to meet again on the Monday of the next county court;
and that a committee be appointed to prepare an Address to be submitted to the people of Orange county.

The motion was agreed to, and the Rev. Dr. Joseph Caldwell, the Hon. Duncan Cameron, and Col. Cadwallader Jones, were appointed the committee for that purpose.

On motion it was ordered, that notice of the adjourned meeting be given in the Hillsborough Recorder.
The meeting then adjourned, to meet again on the Monday of next county court.

Amos Kendall.—In a very moving letter written by Kendall and published in the Kentucky Argus, he takes the following sublime view of the course of himself and his coadjutors in the late political conflict:—
"I had faith, that just men struggling with adversity and oppression, presented a spectacle to which neither earth nor heaven was indifferent.
I marched on regardless of proscription and threats.
What has heaven done?
So disposed of events as to make Barry Postmaster General, Bibb a Senator, Moore a Foreign Minister, and myself a more humble Auditor."

Nashville Postmaster.—The Nashville Whig of April 3d, thus announces the removal and appointment of Postmaster in that place, made by Genl. Jackson:—
"We understand that Colonel Robert Armstrong has been appointed Postmaster in this town, in place of John P. Erwin, removed.
It is but justice to add, that entire satisfaction has been expressed, so far as we can learn, with the ability and fidelity with which the duties of the office have been performed by Mr. Erwin."

We are sorry to learn, from the Baltimore papers, that the eleven removals from office in the Custom House Department of that City, which have recently been made by the Treasury Department, were not reductions of supernumerary officers, as we had hoped might be the case, but removals to make places for hungry expectants.
Of the persons removed, several are old, and have families dependant upon them, and had no other means of living than what these late public employments afforded them.
Some of them were appointed in the days, and with the approbation of General WASHINGTON, and were excellent officers.

We see by the newspapers, that Mr. OWEN, of Lanark, arrived at Cincinnati on Friday the 10th of April, in compliance with an engagement to meet the Rev. A. CAMPBELL, in a public controversy.
A large town meeting was held, on the evening previous to his arrival, at which the Mayor of the City presided, and the challenge of Mr. OWEN and the reply of Mr. CAMPBELL having been read, a committee of ten citizens was appointed "to procure a suitable place for the meeting, and also to make what arrangements may be necessary thereto.
Upon our word, we think that the good people of Cincinnati might be much more profitably employed than in encouraging this bootless wrangling."
On the subject of the "Reform" which is going on, the Massachusetts Journal of April 15 says, that Mr. Henshaw visited the Custom House on the 13th, and dismissed the Deputy Collector, Mr. JOHN WHEELWRIGHT, an amiable man and an excellent officer.

Election in Maine.—An election was held on Monday, the 6th inst. for a Representative in place of Mr. Sprague, who is chosen to the Senate.
The votes were, for Mr. Ruel Williams, of Augusta, 1853; Geo. Evans, of Gardiner, 1429; Jesse Robinson, of Hallowell, 495; Timothy Boutelle, of Waterville, 157; and 383 scattering.
It is evident therefore, that there is no choice.—ibid.

State Colonization Society in New-York.
A large and respectable meeting of Citizens, delegates from different parts of the State of New-York, took place at Albany on the 9th inst. for the purpose of forming a State Society, auxiliary to the American Colonization Society.
After organizing the Convention, and appointing a Committee to draw up and report a Constitution &c. adjourned on the 11th; at which time the Convention re-assembled in the Senate Chamber, in the State Capitol.

On motion of Dr. Nott, President of Union College, seconded by Gerret Smith, Esquire, it was Resolved, That the objects of the American Colonization Society merit the aid of all the friends of our country, of Africa, and of the human race; that its past success in the great experiments which it has been making, warrants the expectation that those important objects will, at no very distant period, be accomplished;

and that, therefore, this meeting proceed to organize a State Society, which will promote the views and aid the efforts of this excellent Institution.

After hearing various Addresses in relation to the history, prospects, objects, and importance, of the Colonization Society, and adopting a Constitution, reported by the Committee, the following Officers were elected for the year:—

President—John Savage, Chief Justice of the State.
Vice Presidents—James Milnor, 1st Senate District; Nathaniel P. Tallmadge, 2d ditto; Eliphalet Nott, 3d ditto; Luther Braddish, 4th ditto; Gerrit Smith, 5th ditto; Samuel Nelson, 6th ditto; Nathaniel W. Howell, 7th ditto; David E. Evans, 8th ditto.

Managers—Benjamin F. Butler, Harmanus Bleecker, Charles R. Webster, Jabez D. Hammond, and John Willard.
Treasurer—Richard Yates.
Recording Secretary—Richard N. De Witt.

On motion of S. M. Hopkins, it was Resolved, That the Colonization Society should be kept separate from all local and party considerations; that it should endeavor, by every proper method, and especially by circulating suitable publications, to unite in its favor all classes of people throughout our country;

and that for the attainment of objects so important, it should be ready to give up every thing, but the principles and objects of its existence, and the lawful and honorable means of its prosperity.

On motion of Jabez D. Hammond, Esq. it was Resolved, That the distracted and miserable state of Africa calls loudly for our commiseration and charitable efforts; and that the Colonization Society is pursuing by far the most probable, if not indeed, the only means, of enlightening the benighted and savage tribes of that continent, and of raising them to the rank and the blessings of Christian Nations.

Money lost at Gambling Tables.—An important decision was lately made at Charleston, which we suppose to be new in this country, though not in England.—
It goes to establish, that S. & M. Allen may recover at law $2500, lost at a Faro Table, by Alex'r Main, and belonging to them, won from the said Main by Henry L. Watson, Jos. Watson, and Nicholas Spalding, Gamblers, and actually passed into their possession by Main.
The action was brought on the affidavit of Main himself.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.
The packet ship William Thompson, Capt Maxwell, arrived at New-York from Liverpool, on the 20th inst. bringing London papers to the 16th March.
Mr. Peel brought forward the "Catholic Relief Bill and the Irish Elective Franchise Bill" on Tuesday, the 10th of March.
Some conversation arose between the Minister and several members, relative to the propriety of allowing reasonable time to prepare for the final discussion of these bills.
The result was, that the bills received their first reading, without debate, and were to be called up for the second, on Tuesday, the 17th of March.
Mr. Peel said, that, if there should not be time or opportunity for going on with it then it might be deferred to any future day the House might see convenient.

The papers of the whole week, from the 9th to the 14th, both inclusive, are almost entirely filled with incidental debates in both Houses of Parliament, arising on the presentation of petitions for and against the Catholic bills.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 20th inst. my Negro Boy CHARLES, a bright mulatto, nearly two-thirds white, 16 or 17 years old, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, and weighs about 120 or 130 lbs. He has a scar over one of his eyes, extending one and a half or two inches obliquely upward and forward, appearing somewhat as if cut by a sharp instrument, he may however attempt to alter its appearance.—
He has also a scar three or four inches long on one of his legs, extending in the direction of the shin bone; he has very little if any beard; his hair is dark, and was long and bushy, but it is likely he may cut it. He wore off a fur or hair cap, a neat frock coat, originally olive but had faded, and been patched under the right arm; his pantaloons were fine black cassimeres, but considerably worn. His hands and fingers are short and clumsy, and his little fingers disproportionately short and curved or bent inwardly by nature from the first joint. His nose, upon examination, will be seen a little bent to one side. He has travelled considerably, is very smart, of genteel appearance, and can read a little. He has lived with me several years in the shop, and may therefore pretend to some knowledge of medicine. I understand he means to get a free pass, and try to take water for some free State. He is profane at times, impudent, fond of liquor and chewing tobacco.
I will give the above reward of $20 for his being secured in any Jail in the United States, or so confined that I get him again.
