NO. 1,366.

LEGISLATURE.—There has been no choice, as yet, of a Senator in Congress, to supply the vacancy created by Mr. BRANCH'S resignation, though three ballottings have taken place; one on Friday and two on Saturday. The balloting will be resumed this morning. Unless some addition is made to the number of persons for nomination or some withdrawal takes place, we see no prospect of a very speedy decision on the subject. We annex the result of the three ballottings:—

Table with 3 columns: Name, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Includes names like R. Donnell, Wm. B. Meates, Montfort Stokes, Samuel P. Carson, and John D. Murphy.

On Saturday, WILLIAM J. ALEXANDER, present Speaker of the House of Commons, was elected, after eight ballottings, Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit, vice JOSEPH WILSON, deceased. The State of the vote was as follows:—

THOMAS G. POLK of Rowan, is elected Major General of the 4th Division of Militia, by a majority of twenty-seven votes over JOHN N. PHIFER of Cabarrus, vice MICHAEL McLEARY of Mecklenburg, resigned.

The following Preamble & Resolutions were submitted on Saturday, by Mr. Borden and adopted:

WHEREAS, it is an object of great importance to the commerce of this State, that the waters of Neuse River should be connected with those of R. auri Harbor, by a Ship Canal:

Resolved, That a joint select committee be appointed to take into consideration the most effectual means for making such canal and to enquire into the propriety of requiring the aid of the General Government, thereto.

Mr. Mebane submitted the following resolutions, which were laid on the table:

Resolved, That this State has a right to demand of the General Government, at least, an equal proportion of the surplus funds of said Government, to be applied by the Legislature of this State, to the internal improvement of the same.

Resolved further, That it is the opinion of this Legislature, that such appropriations should be applied to those improvements in this State, which are of most importance to the State, while at the same time, they contribute most to the general good.—And that the General Government have no right to make any appropriation for the internal improvement in this State, without the consent of the State.

The bill submitted by Mr. McFarland, for the education of the poor children of the State, provides, that so soon as the Literary Fund shall amount to $150,000, and annually thereafter, the Public Treasurer shall hand over to the County Trustees of each county, the portion of public money which may be coming to each of their respective Counties from said fund; and that each County shall draw an amount, proportionate to its population and taxation. It is made the duty of the County Court, to appoint annually, School Commissioners in each Captain's district, whose duty will be to ascertain the number of destitute children in their respective districts, between the ages of 5 and 16, and cause said children, where the parents are willing, to be sent to any school within five miles distance, and pay for their tuition out of the money allotted from the fund, for this purpose. No child to remain at school longer, than is necessary to acquire a knowledge of Reading, Writing, Grammar and Arithmetic.

The provisions of Mr. Martin's Bank Bill, are in substance, as follows: All the property and stock belonging to the State, of every description, is to constitute a part of the Capital of said Bank, and is to be vested in a President and five Directors, and the faith of the State is pledged for the support of said Bank.—The principal Officers and Directors to be elected by the Legislature, annually.—All the Officers of the Bank to give bond with security, conditioned for their good behaviour. The Bank is to be called the Bank of the State of North-Carolina, and its charter is to extend to the year 1855. Authorises the Treasurer of the State, to execute bonds in behalf of the State, payable at periods of 5, 10 and 15 years to the President and Directors of said Bank, for such sums as shall be deemed most advantageous, the whole amount however, not to exceed $300,000; which bonds, the President and Directors are authorised to negotiate at a rate of interest not to exceed six per cent. The Bank to discount notes with sufficient security—to make loans not exceeding $2000, in the nature of discount, on real property secured by deed in trust, with power to sell in default of payment—loan to be made for six months, with privilege of renewing on payment of interest.

The bill introduced by Mr. Wyche, to mitigate the severity of executions and for the further relief of insolvent debtors, provides, that for all debts contracted after the 1st day of May next, no execution shall be levied on any crop whilst growing, except executions issuing on attachments. It further provides, that when any execution shall be levied on land, to satisfy any debt contracted after the period above named, the crop growing, shall be deemed the property of the Defendant, who shall retain the right to secure it, but shall not commit waste or retain possession of any house. The bill provides also, that for debts hereafter contracted, 10 bushels of Corn or Wheat and 100 lbs. of Beef, Pork or Bacon, for the debtor and the same for his wife and each child, shall be exempt from seizure and excepted in the oath to be taken, or the schedule to be rendered by any insolvent debtor.

The anniversary Discourse of the North-Carolina Bible Society was yesterday delivered at the Methodist Church in this city agreeably to appointment, by the Rev. George W. Nolley, from Psalm cxix, v. 130. "The entrance of thy words giveth light." The congregation was large and respectable, and the claims of this benevolent Society to support was advocated with zeal and ability. A handsome collection was the result.

The annual meeting of the Society will be held in the Senate Chamber this evening at 7 o'clock.

We learn, that the Consecration of the new Episcopal Church in this city, will take place on the 5th Sunday in December, being the Sunday immediately preceding Christmas. It is expected that several Clergymen will be present, besides the Bishop.

Internal Improvement.—The Board for Internal Improvement met in this City, on Saturday last. All the members were present. After acting on the business before the Board, they made their annual Report to the Legislature, and adjourned on Saturday.

Jas. Mebane, Esq. not having yet made his Report of the Work done on the Cape Fear River between Fayetteville and Haywood, the President of the Board will hereafter Report to the General Assembly on the subject.

Virginia Convention.—The Right of Suffrage is pretty well settled. The persons admitted to vote are, 1. The freeholders as defined under the old Constitution. 2. Lessees for five years, having one year to run, and whose annual rent is —. 3. Housekeepers and heads of families who have been resident for six months, or have paid revenue to the Commonwealth for the preceding year. 4. All freeholders, whose freeholds shall be of the assessed value of —, if such assessment be required by law.

The basis of Representation in the Senate, was next discussed. Nothing definitive was done, but indications of agreement became more favorable. The decision on the question is, for the present postponed. The entire Report of the Legislative Committee may be considered as having received an expression of the sense of the Committee of the whole in its favor. The most serious difficulty is to fix the basis of representation for the two Houses, but the prospect of adjustment is more flattering than it has heretofore been.

ITEMS.—A splendid dinner was given to James Barbour, Esq. in Richmond, on Saturday last. It was attended by many citizens. Members of the Convention and distinguished strangers. No appearance of party spirit disturbed the harmony of the festive board. A sentiment, purely personal, having been given to Mr. Barbour, that gentleman returned his acknowledgements to the company in a short speech, for which, however, we have not room to day. Speaking of the existing relation between the U. States and Great Britain, Mr. Barbour, in the course of his remarks observed,—"I feel persuaded you will hear with satisfaction, that from all I saw and all I heard from the government and the people, there is the strongest desire there to maintain with us the most friendly relations—to cherish and increase which I used my best exertions—and I believe not altogether in vain."

A dinner was given on Thursday last, at the Mansion House, Philadelphia, to Mr. B. own late minister to France.—Hon. Joseph Hopkinson presided on the occasion. The company consisted of about one hundred and twenty gentlemen, among whom were the most respectable citizens, and a number of distinguished invited guests.

The Charleston (Jefferson County) Free Press observes:—"Immediately upon hearing of Gen. Taylor's truly republican course in the Convention, we suggested him as an appropriate person for regenerated Virginia's first Chief Magistrate under the new Constitution.—The nomination is received with acclamation, and a voice from the Western Valley simultaneously proclaims him as the man worthy of the people's choice.—Thousands of voices will soon echo and re-echo the sound; and History will record, in parallel columns, the noble bearing of one of Virginia's favourite sons, and the prompt emanation of Virginia's gratitude. Gen. T. had already acquired renown, but his last act will give his fame an imperishable character."

FOR THE REGISTER.

Great improvement in working the Gold Mines. On the authority of a very respectable gentleman of this City, who is interested in, and has lately visited the Gold Mines in this State, the following statement in relation to them may be depended upon, and may not prove uninteresting to the public; as it shews, that there is an improvement in the manner of working those valuable deposits of the precious metal.

At the Mines belonging to Messrs. — & —, ardent spirits were thought to be absolutely necessary, both to obtain labourers and to secure their health from the damps of the pit. But it was soon discovered, that so far from being of any service to the interests of the labourers and employers, ardent spirits were a great injury to both. It was determined to employ no one who used them. The wages were increased one dollar more per month. A sufficient number of labourers, without any difficulty, was secured, and the result, in the more faithful and cheerful performance of their duty, has fully justified this advance in the price of the wages, inasmuch as more order pervades, without which, it is almost hopeless to attempt gold mining. This case is not a peculiar one. Fourteen or fifteen other Companies pursue the same course, attended with the same success. No man seen intoxicated, is ever after permitted to work in the Mines, until, by an entire abstinence, he give full proof that he has reformed. Several of the miners, do not permit ardent spirits to be brought near the Mines.

It is not strange, that with so many experiments as have been made on this subject, any man should still continue to give to his labourers this "liquid poison?"

The Bank of Lisbon, it is apprehended, is about to fail. A run is made upon it, and its paper is at 50 per cent. discount. Cotton is said to be in demand at a small advance, in the Liverpool market.

Virginia Convention.—Nothing is yet finally settled in this body, though it appears as if all parties were becoming more moderate, so as to induce us to believe that a compromise amongst them will shortly take place.
