RALEIGH REGISTER.

MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1830.

The several Circuits of the Spring Term of our Superior Courts commence this day, and will continue for ten weeks in a part of the Circuits, and for eleven in others.

Roanoke Inlet.—A convention of Delegates from the Counties of Camden, Pasquotank, Gates, Hertford, Bertie, Martin, Washington, Tyrrell and Chowan, was held at Edenton on the 15th ult. for the purpose of considering the propriety of memorializing Congress in favor of opening this Inlet. Dr. Jas. Norcom was called to the Chair, and Thomas Cox was appointed Secretary.

A Memorial having been determined upon, a committee was appointed to draft it; which was on the following day reported, and unanimously adopted. It states, that our seaboard is dangerous and destructive to the commerce of the United States, as well as our own; that the attention of Congress has been heretofore drawn to the importance of this subject in a national point of view; Surveys, and Reports upon those Surveys, have been made, which concur in the practicability of reopening this important Inlet. The memorialists therefore solicit the interposition of the General Government to carry into effect this grand National Work; and hope, that while most of the States have had liberal appropriations for the improvement of their navigation and commerce, this application of North-Carolina will not be unattended to.

The Memorial states the amount of the annual exports from this district of the State to be $2,025,586, and the annual loss sustained on this amount by the obstructions to their present navigation, at $151,470, with an additional loss of $6000 upon the importation of SALT only.

The Steamboat Petersburg, it will be seen, by an advertisement in this day's Register, will commence running on the 16th inst. between Newbern and Elizabeth City. We hope the Transportation Company who have undertaken this enterprise, will meet with a liberal support.

Fire.—An alarming fire broke out in Charleston, on the 21st ult. in the middle of the day, in the splendid mansion of Mrs. Izard, at the corner of South Bay and Meeting streets, which was burnt to ashes. Mr. Middleton's elegant house on the east side of the street was on fire, but, by great exertions, was saved.

The packet ship Pacific, Capt. Crocker, from Liverpool, brings eight days later accounts, which confirm the increased demand for Cotton at an advance of a half-penny on the lower qualities, and something less on the better sorts.

U. States Bank Stock fell in price, on the receipt of the President's message, 27 1/2 7s. 6d. to 25 1/2 15s.

It is said, that Mr. Vesey Fitzgerald will retire from office, and that it is probable Mr. Herries will succeed him. It is expected Mr. Huskisson will again come into the ministry. Mr. Peel and Mr. Goulburn are also to retire.

The health of the King is said to be precarious.

The Mayor of Boston has addressed a letter to the Governor of Virginia respecting the seditious pamphlet, which has created so much excitement, lately, in that and some of the other Southern States.—The author is a free man of color, a shopkeeper, and a dealer in old clothes.

We have received the first number of a new paper published at Rutherfordton, in our State, called the North Carolina Spectator and Western Advertiser, which is handsomely printed, and promises to be ably conducted, and cannot therefore fail to be useful to the community.

Melancholy Shipwreck.—We are informed by Capt. Pedrick, of the Steamboat North-Carolina, that a sloop about 80 tons, called the Brothers, of Athens, N. Y. on her passage from New York to Norfolk, laden with hay, came ashore on Body's Island, about 6 miles north of New Inlet, on Tuesday night the 9th inst. The wind was blowing heavy, and as soon as the Captain discovered his vessel among the breakers, not being acquainted with the coast, he became alarmed and with the crew very imprudently took to the boat to reach the shore, where she was capsized and all perished except the mate. He with the assistance of an oar reached the shore, but so much exhausted that he was barely able to crawl out of the water on the beach, where he lay for several hours before he was discovered.—The sloop drifted entirely ashore before she went to pieces, and had the crew stuck to the wreck, they might have reached the beach in safety. We have not been able to learn the names of any of the persons.—Eliz. City Star.

Arrival of Mr. Poinsett.—We learn from the New-Orleans Courier, that the Hon. Joel R. Poinsett, Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Mexico, arrived at New Orleans on the 2d inst.

A Boston paper mentions a feature of our laws which, we were not aware existed. It is this. Persons can be confined by a mandate of the United States Courts in the public prisons in order that they may be used as witnesses. It is asserted that there are now three men confined in Boston jail; where they have been four months, and must remain for three months to come. What may have been the circumstances which gave rise to such an astonishing infringement of personal rights and liberties we do not profess to know, but the subject deserves at least investigation.

Endorsed Notes.—One hundred and sixty-five firms, comprising the most respectable and the most extensive dealers in the city of New-York, have entered into a written agreement, that they will not for one year from the 1st of February, purchase at any sale by auction where endorsed notes are required, as they cannot see any just cause why sales by auction should not be placed on an equality with those made by private contract.

There seems to be but little doubt that sugar will soon be made to considerable extent in Alabama. Several gentlemen have already succeeded in making small quantities of equal quality with the best New Orleans sugar.

Mr. Jefferson, in a letter to John Page, dated at Washington, July 17, 1807, and contained in his works recently published by his grandson, says—"I never removed a man merely because he was a Federalist; and I never wished them to give a vote at an election, but according to their own wishes." How many hundreds has President Jackson removed, for no other reason than this, that they were not Jackson men, and had "voted at an election according to their own wishes."

A fact worth circulating.—At the close of one of his powerful discourses before the African Churches in this city, says a Baltimore paper, the Rev. Mr. Hewit was informed by a coloured man present, that he had abstained from the use of ardent spirits for more than twenty-five years, and had saved enough of "grog-money" to purchase a library of books worth $400. Here is an example worthy to be imitated by every black and white man in the land. "I will proclaim it," said Mr. H. "wherever I go."

Temperance in the Army.—Mr. Hewit has visited Fort M'Henry, near Baltimore, where one hundred men are stationed, & addressed them on intemperance. All but three of these had petitioned the commandant, about two months before, to commute their rations of whiskey for other articles. Mr. H. proposed a society with a pledge of entire abstinence; and thirty-four of the men subscribed. The effects were very salutary.

The Navy not behind.—The Secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society says, "I am informed from a source entitled to implicit confidence, that sixty men on board one of our sloops of war are engaged not to use liquor; also that forty or fifty on board the receiving ship United States, at our Navy Yard, have ceased drawing their rations of 'grog,' and intend to devote the avails of it to the purchase of a useful library for the ship."

Deaf and Dumb.—The schools for educating this unfortunate class of human beings, now in operation, amount to nearly a hundred. There are in Spain, one; in Italy, five; Portugal, one; Switzerland, four; Wurtemberg, three; Bavaria, one; Prussia, eight; rest of Germany, nine; Denmark, two; Sweden, one; Russia, one; Great Britain, sixteen; Holland, four. The king of Denmark has decreed, that "every deaf and dumb infant born in his kingdom shall receive the education necessary to render him a useful member of society."—Christian Mir.

Fashionable Tour.—Messrs. G. & C. & H. Carvill of New-York, and G. M. Davison of Saratoga Springs, have in press and will publish in a few weeks, the Fashionable Tour, or Traveller's Guide.—The present edition is to be greatly enlarged and improved, and is designed as a complete manual for travellers visiting the middle and northern States, furnishing not only much interesting geographical and historical matter, tables of distances, general directions, and sketches of natural and artificial objects, but also a description of the various public improvements that have been completed or are in progress. The whole is to be embellished with engravings, and accompanied with a map of the various routes, upon an improved plan. Booksellers will be supplied on liberal terms.

Kentucky.—The Legislature of this State have adopted, by a large majority, a report of considerable length and great ability, in favor of the American System, and in reply to certain resolutions of the Legislature of South-Carolina, condemning the system. In the body of the report, the Legislature record the following tribute to the ardent patriotism and unbending integrity of their illustrious fellow-citizen Henry Clay.

And the General Assembly of Kentucky cannot omit to avail itself of an occasion so appropriate to call to its aid the oft-repeated sentiments of their most distinguished fellow citizen Henry Clay, whose zealous and able exertions, and whose eminent services in support of both of these measures, have been equalled only by his ardent patriotism, & his unbending integrity.

So perish the slanders which have been heaped upon the fame and honor of Henry Clay. He has been twice acquitted of the charge of corruption, by the only tribunals in the country competent to try him.—First by the people of his Congressional district, at two different elections; and now by the representatives of all the people of Kentucky;—he was charged with violating their confidence, & disobeying their will—they have heard the accusation, & the testimony & the proofs of his innocence;—they have proclaimed, that their confidence in his integrity and patriotism remains unshaken. Several of the friends of General Jackson, in the Legislature, recorded their votes in favor of this tribute to Mr. Clay.

FROM THE THEOLOGICAL REPERTORY. "Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray."—James v. xiii.

Aye—kneel in prayer— Let early morn, and stilly night, The glorious sun, and starry light, Still find us there.

Our God is love— Our frail, weak, erring race to save His prophet blazon'd Son he gave, And Holy Dove.

He bids us pray, When our weak heart, by sin oppress'd Is torn by woes, by cares depress'd, And how a decay—

Then kneel in prayer— No sigh that heaves the broken heart— No word that would its praise impart— Is lost in air.

Come, Holy Dove! Bid our wild human passions cease, Shed o'er our heart a holy peace, Like that above.

Kneel, kneel in prayer— O Thou! forever throned on high, Yet listening to our ravens cry, Come, set us here.

And let us feel A grateful sense of sins forgiven, Sweet foretaste of the joys of Heaven, While thus we kneel. I. D. T.

Mr. White from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill to provide for an exchange of lands, with the Indians residing in any of the States or Territories, and for their removal west of the Mississippi.

Mr. Livingston, from a select committee appointed on the subject of maritime spoliations, reported a bill to provide for the indemnification of claims due to certain citizens for spoliations committed on their commerce, prior to the year 1800. The bill appropriates five millions of dollars to satisfy these claims.

The Senate resumed the consideration of Mrs. Foot's Resolution. After some remarks, of Mr. Noble, on motion of Mr. Bell, the Senate adjourned.

The Resolution for discontinuing the appropriation for a Draughtsman for the committees of the house, was further discussed.

The bill to compensate Mrs. Decatur, widow of Capt. Stephen Decatur, underwent some discussion; but no vote was taken upon it.

Monday, Feb. 21.

Mr. Mitchell proposed that the Resolutions of Congress adopted in Dec. 1799, and the message of President Adams to that body, respecting the entombment of the remains of Gen. George Washington in the Capitol, be referred to a select committee.

Mr. Hayne said he was authorized to mention that no objection to the removal of the remains of the General, would be made by the family.

It was agreed to, and that the committee consist of a member from each State.

Mr. M'Duffie, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill to carry into effect certain Indian treaties, and a bill making appropriations for certain internal improvements.

The Resolution respecting a Draughtsman was further discussed.

The house was about to take up some public bills, but finding there was not a quorum present, an adjournment took place.

Richard Smith vs. William Nichols. Original attachment levied on a negro woman by the name of Polly and other property.

It having been made appear to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant has removed himself beyond the limits of this State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him.
