

Saturday, March 13.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

Monday, March 15.

A number of petitions were presented. The bill to authorize a subscription for stock on the part of the United States in Louisville and Portland Canal Company, and the bill for the further regulation of vessels bound up James River, were read the third time and passed.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the resolution offered by Mr. Foot, in relation to future surveys and sales of the public lands; and, after Mr. Livingston had concluded his speech commenced on the 9th instant, the Senate adjourned.

Tuesday, March 16.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Benton, instructing the Select committee appointed on his resolution to amend the Constitution as it respects the election of President and Vice President, to enquire into the expediency of diminishing or regulating Executive Patronage, was agreed to.

After passing several private bills, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of Executive business.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Saturday, March 13.

The house resumed the consideration of the resolution offered by Mr. Anderson and of the amendment proposed by Mr. P. K. to allow a drawback on foreign cotton baling exported. Mr. Speight concluded his remarks in favor of the amendment. Mr. Campbell followed on the same side and went fully into the Tariff law, which he condemned as partial and oppressive. He had just concluded his observations, when the hour allotted for discussion of Resolutions had expired.

The house then resumed the consideration of the bill for remitting duties on goods destroyed by fire, which, after considerable debate, was rejected 139 votes to 36.

Monday, March 15.

The Committee on Internal Improvements reported a bill to authorize a subscription for completing the Railroad from Baltimore to Wilmington, which was committed.

The house resumed the consideration of Mr. Anderson's Resolutions. Mr. Campbell offered a substitute for the resolution and amendment; but they were declared out of order. Mr. Gorham then offered an amendment, which he supported until the expiration of the hour allotted for Resolutions.

The house then resumed the consideration of the bill from the Senate for the relief of purchasers of public lands, with the amendments reported to the same from the Committee on Public Lands. And, after some debate, the bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The house then took up the bill further extending the powers of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Arkansas, which was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Tuesday, March 16.

The house resumed the consideration of Mr. Anderson's Resolution in relation to the Tariff. Mr. Gorham continued his remarks, and in conclusion, moved to postpone the consideration of the whole subject until Tuesday next, and make it the special order for that day. This proposition produced some discussion, which resulted in laying the Resolution and amendments on the table, 89 votes to 70.

The house then took up Mr. Sneed's Resolution, proposing to close the present session on the 8th of May, which he proposed to modify to the 17th. After a good deal of irregular debate, the hour expired, without any decision being had.

The house went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union. A number of subjects were called for unsuccessfully. At length, the bill making appropriations to carry into effect certain Indian treaties, was acted upon, and also the bill making appropriations for holding certain Indian treaties. The committee rose and reported both bills, and the house ordered them to be engrossed.

EXCHANGE, NORFOLK, VA.

SITUATED on Main Street, the most spacious and beautiful in the whole Borough, and convenient to all the Steam Boats and Public Places, whether of pleasure or business. This extensive establishment has been enlarged and improved. The furniture is new and elegant, and the Parlours and Chambers are furnished in the first style. The House, under its present arrangement, is equal to any, and inferior to none in the United States. The Public Rooms, Chambers and Parlours for private families, are handsomely fitted up and well furnished.

A Reading Room, and a Letter Box for the Post Office, is also attached to this establishment. STABLES and CARRIAGE HOUSES with every appendage necessary for the convenience of the gentleman and traveller.

ALL THE STAGES

will start from this House, and a general office will be kept on the premises, from whence the numerous stages for north and south will start. The convenience and accommodation of this establishment, and the premises are acknowledged to be superior to any in the place. The proprietor pledges himself that no exertion on his part shall be wanting to promote the comfort of guests and visitors. Thankful for past favors, which he received while at the north, the subscriber confidently hopes, by unremitting attention to merit a continuance of public patronage.

A Caution to the Public.

SOME two or three years last past, a man by the name of AUGUSTIN or AUSTIN BLOLOCK has been living in this neighborhood (Northampton county, N. C.); his occupation was, alternately, a House Carpenter and Overseer. During his stay in this neighborhood, he married an industrious, respectable poor woman. The day after she was delivered of her first child, he absconded without any known cause whatever. The said Blooklock is fond of ardent spirits, and when under the influence of liquor, is disposed to be quarrelsome. No doubt he will attempt to marry again if he can meet with an opportunity. He may be known by the following description, viz. He is supposed to be between 45 and 50 years of age, of light complexion, yellow hair, the middle finger of his right hand is contracted so as to be drawn down on the palm of his hand; he has also lost the first joint of the thumb on his left hand by means of a whit low. The last account that was heard of him, he was in Guilford county, N. C. at, or in the neighborhood of a place called New-Garden.

GRAND MANAGERIE!

To be seen in Raleigh on Monday the 29th instant, and continue for three days.

A full grown Lion and Lioness.

The male Lion was imported from the River Senegal (Africa) to Liverpool, from whence he was brought to North-Carolina several years ago. At eighteen months old he sold for $7,000, and is now the oldest and largest in America.

A spotted Tyger, twelve years old, and weighing nearly 400 pounds.

An Arabian Camel, lately imported from the Coast of Barbary; and is perhaps as great a curiosity as any other animal whatever, combining in a great measure the qualities of the Horse, the Cow and the Sheep. It is seven feet high.

Two South-American Panthers

—male and female: both in one cage.

The Cougar, from Brazil.

Of all animals that infest the new World, the Cougar justly excites the greatest degree of dread amongst the inhabitants.

A Leopard, of large size and very handsomely spotted.

Two North-American Panthers

—both in one cage. These animals were taken in Kentucky in 1825, and are the only two of the kind ever taken in the United States.

A Missouri Bear.

Two Shelton Ponies—rode by Captain Bill and Lady Jane, they will perform many curious tricks.

The Coaimoudi, from Egypt.

The Ant-eater.

Two Baboons, one the African ribbed-nose.

A number of Monkeys, which perform a variety of highly amusing feats.

GOOD MUSIC accompanying the Exhibition. Hours of admission, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. and from 6 to 9 A. M. Admission 25 cents; Children under 10 years of age, half price. March 20.

NOTICE.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 10th of February last, a white Slave, named CULLIN, or CULLIN MEDLIN, as he calls himself. He is about 23 years old, 6 feet high, weighs about 165 lbs. his neck, hands and mouth are of a reddish look, gray eyes, light hair, and kinky thick feet; he stammers when talking, has a small scar on the first joint of the great toe on his right foot, occasioned by the cut of an axe. It is probable that he will alter his name and try to pass among the lower class of white people, as he is bright himself; his cheeks are very very white, with yellow spots; his clothing when he was last heard from consisted of a blue sattinet coat and pantaloons, and white fur hat. Likely he is in Robeson county, on Drowning Creek, as he has relations there, or in Cumberland county, on Cape-Fear.

I will give the above reward for his delivery to me in Lenoir county, free of any other expense: or to have him secured in any Jail so long that I get him again.

Money Lost.

ON Friday last, the subscriber, while traveling in the Stage from Raleigh to Fayetteville, lost a packet of money and papers, the precise sum not known, but believed to be between two and three hundred dollars, consisting of Treasury Notes, several one dollar Newbern bills, two dollar State Bank bills, several five and ten dollar State Bank bills, and five and ten dollar bills on South-Carolina Bank; 4 or 5 ten dollar bills on the United States Bank; one distinctly recollected to be signed by John Huske, and one by Jones. Also, a five dollar Cheraw bill, folded in a paper, and endorsed D. Mask, to whom it belongs. There was also a Justice's Judgment for $90, in favor of Stackburgher's Executors against Mr. Legrand of Anson, with credits thereon.

The whole was folded in a sheet of blank paper, and snugly tied up. A liberal reward will be paid to the person finding the same, and delivering it to the Editors of the Register, Raleigh, the Editor of the Observer, Fayetteville, or to the Subscriber, GEO. C. MENDENHALL, Guilford county, N.C. Jan. 13.

RALEIGH REGISTER.

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1830.

(Liberia.—We have, in a former Register, called the attention of our readers to the departure of a Vessel from Norfolk for Liberia, with emigrants, early in the ensuing month. Since which, the senior Editor, as Secretary of the Auxiliary Colonization of this State, has received a letter from the Rev. R. R. Gurley, Secretary of the Society at Washington, stating, that some more passengers than are already engaged, can be accommodated in this vessel, & that the Society would be glad to receive a number from this part of the country; adding, that the season is highly favorable, and that every thing will be done to promote the health and comfort of those who may embark.

Should any persons in this vicinity be desirous of accepting of the opportunity thus offered of joining the settlement of free persons of colour at Liberia, they will do well to give immediate information to the Editors of the Register, or to Mr. John M'Phail, the Agent of the Colonization Society at Norfolk.

Langdon Cheves.—The Lancaster papers mention with regret the intention of Mr. LANGDON CHEVES, to leave that county and take up a new his residence in S. Carolina. A dinner was lately given in Charleston to Mr. Cheves, at which that gentleman thus addressed the company:

"GENTLEMEN: I thank you for this very kind welcome. You do me no more than justice in believing that absence has not estranged my affection from my early friends; and I may add, my first and best friends—for, however great the favors I have received from the general community of South-Carolina, and I gratefully acknowledge them, I am still more particularly obliged to you. I grew up under your cherishing hands—to you I am indebted for the most liberal patronage in the pursuits of private life, and to you I am alike obliged for the earliest & highest public honors I have enjoyed. Being among you again, excites the most interesting remembrances—those of the years of youth, of manhood, and of my most vigorous action & I blend with them the anticipated pleasure of taking the downward journey of life under their cheering influence, among you. Absence has made my relations to you doubly endearing. I have been taught by it how much I enjoyed while with you, and how much I lost in separating from you. I am indeed delighted to be among you again—to call myself gain your fellow citizen, and Carolina again my home."

Incendiaries.—Several unsuccessful attempts have lately been made to set fire to the borough of Norfolk, and several robberies have been committed. Three men have been apprehended, and a Trunk of Goods stolen recovered, which, it is hoped, will be the means of convicting some of these daring villains.

Bank of Virginia.—The Stockholders of this Institution appear to be dissatisfied with the act lately passed by the Legislature for the renewal of its charter, and have called a meeting on the 21st of May next, to determine whether they will accept of the renewed charter in the terms offered.

Superior Court.—The Superior Court of Law for this county, commenced its Spring term in this place on Monday last, Judge Martin presiding. On Wednesday, James Bilbry was arraigned at the bar, charged with the murder of Britton Harper in December last—the Jury, after an absence of about one hour, returned a verdict of acquittal.—Tarboro Free Press.

We find the following account of a late terrible steam boat disaster in the New Orleans Courier of the 2d instant,—

Memphis Feb. 26. Horrible Disaster.—It has never before fallen to our lot to witness an event of such a heart-rending nature as that which occurred at our landing on Wednesday morning. The steam boat, Helen M. Gregor, with about 410 passengers on board, having stopped at this place for a short time, was in the act of pushing off, when one of her boilers having burst with a tremendous explosion, was thrown from its bed over the forecastle into the river; the chimneys thrown down; every boiler dislodged, and the boiler deck, engineer's room, and adjacent offices made a complete wreck in an instant. To give an accurate description of the scene which followed, would exceed the powers of those far more gifted than ourselves. A large number of the deck passengers, as is usual when starting out of port, had crowded to the forward part of the boat, and were on this occasion the principal sufferers. Amid the smoke and dust were to be seen, at the same moment, the death struggle and spouting blood of those who had received their mortal wounds; while the shrieks of the wounded and the dying were mingled with the general confusion. Our citizens rushed spontaneously to the scene of danger, and, by their activity and exertions, rescued many a poor fellow from a watery grave. Houses were thrown open, oils, lints, bandages and blankets freely furnished for the use of the wounded, and some were even seen contending for and claiming the responsibility of such as they had been instrumental in saving. We take particular pleasure in noticing the activity of our physicians on this occasion, all of whom immediately repaired to the spot, nor ceased their labors until the wounded had received every attention and comfort which their situation required.

For the satisfaction of those abroad, who may have had friends and relatives on board of the boat, we have taken some pains to collect a list of the killed and wounded, which we annex hereunto. Doubtless many were blown overboard, who have sunk, amidst the whirls and sands of this impetuous river, never to rise again. As yet, however, we have only heard the names of two who perished in this manner, whom we have included in the list of killed.

Killed.—Richard Hancock, from Louisville; A. San Meter, Hardin county, Ten.—Tolbot, Long Beach, Ohio; James Bledson, Ken.—Carroll, Cincinnati, O. Edw. P. Beadles, Clark county, Indiana; J. Dunn, East Ten.; G. B. Giles, Cincinnati; E. Gobbie, Brookville, Ind.; Wm. Stockwood, Salem, Ind.; Delaney, a free black; one white man, name unknown; Wm. Ewing, Clark county, Ind.; J. Reeves, Harrison county, Ind.; Lewis Young, a black freeman; a black boy, 12 or 13 years old.

Bodily Wounded.—George Fry, from Tipton county, Ten.; John Cameron, Clark county, Indiana; J. Richardson, Indiana; John Valentine, Massachusetts;—De Haven, Philadelphia; J. Leland, one of the pilots; J. Suggs, Union county, Kentucky;—Flichen, unknown; Z. Baily [or Bell] Hardin county, Ten.; H. Helderth, Madison county, Ind.; J. Addison, one of the crew; Thos. Drenard, Wilson county, Ten.; J. Swan, Lawrence county, Ind.; J. Tenyck, Shippingport; Wm. Case, N. York; a black man, name unknown.

Slightly Wounded.—Mr. Tyson, captain of the boat;—Turner, engineer, do;—Gray, 2d mate do; T. O'Daniel, from Ind.; P. L. Knowland, Ohio; J. Manasco, Tipton county, Ten.; John Koos Clark county, Ind.; Wm. Pottorf, do;—Doherty, Overton county, Ten.; Thos. Banks, Lawrence county, Ind. Green Williams, a black freeman.

FOR THE RALEIGH REGISTER.

Gentlemen: I understand from a good source, that a "Charitable Association" in our City, are about to undertake the rearing and cultivation (if the last expression is allowable) of "Silk Worms."

Premising in the first place, that I most heartily wish them success, and in the next, that they will deserve infinite credit for the very laudable and praiseworthy example which they will thus place before the eyes of an enlightened community, I beg leave to make "a few remarks" on the more extensive and progressive cultivation of this very valuable insect, than has as yet ever taken place amongst us. I will be quite short.

When we perceive from the perusal of admired and accredited authors, that Silk has been reared to great advantage in Poland, in Prussia, and the north of Germany—climates in comparison of which, ours is as the paradisaical land of Italy—how can we withhold our endeavors. Climate, nay economy, religion, charity, and finally necessity itself, calls upon us in a voice to which it seems we will not hearken, "put thy hand to the rearing of Silk Worms."

March 13.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Liverpool papers have been received at New-York to the 11th February.

The British Parliament met on the 4th February, when the King's speech was delivered by Commissioners. The principal passages of the speech were as follows:

"His Majesty having recently concerted with his Allies measures for the pacification and final settlement of Greece, trusts that he shall be enabled, at an early period, to communicate to you the particulars of this arrangement, with such information as may explain the course which His Majesty has pursued throughout the progress of these important transactions.

His Majesty laments that he is unable to announce to you the prospect of a reconciliation between the Princes of the House of Braganza.

His Majesty has not yet deemed it expedient to re-establish upon their ancient footing his Majesty's Diplomatic Relations with the Kingdom of Portugal; but the numerous embarrassments arising from the continued interruptions of these relations, increase his Majesty's desire to effect the termination of so serious a evil."

The address in answer to the speech (which was, as usual, a mere echo) was passed in the House of Lords, by a vote of 71, to 9, and in the House of Commons, of 158 to 105. The reason of the small majority in the House was, that many objected to that part of the speech which alluded to the distress of the country, which was summed up by Mr. Brougham to mean "that there may be distress, but it is partial." Lord Stanhope moved an amendment in the following words:—"That this House (Lords) sees with the deepest sorrow and anxiety, the severe distress which prevails in the country, and will immediately proceed to examine its causes with a view to a remedy."

Lost as above. In the House, Sir E. Knatchbull moved the following amendment to the proposed address. "That the distress was general throughout the country, that it is extended in some parts to a frightful extent, and that the House should adopt immediately measures to alleviate it." This was also lost as above.

In the House of Commons, February 9. Mr. Robinson inquired "whether any negotiation is pending between this country and the United States with a view to the renewal of a direct intercourse between the United States and our possessions in Canada?"

Mr. Secretary Peel—My answer to the Hon. Gentleman's question is this—that a communication has been received from the Minister of the United States, on that important subject; and that this communication is still under the consideration of His Majesty's government.

In reply to an observation of Mr. Huskisson, Mr. Peel said that the honorable member had avowed his satisfaction of the speech of the American President. His (Mr. P.'s) was equally great, for the President's expression of amity and friendship towards this country were such as it gave him extreme pleasure to re-echo with respect to America, and he hoped that all the future competition between the two countries would be that of industry, peace, and civilization!
