By Joseph Gales & Son, Raleigh, North-Carolina.

TERMS.

THREE DOLLARS per annum; one half in advance. Those who do not, either at the time of sub scribing, or subsequently, give notice of their wish to have the Paper discontinued at the expiration of their year, will be presumed as desiring its continuance until countermanded.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Not exceeding sexteen lines, will be inserted three times for a Dollar; and twenty-five cents for each subsequent publication; those of greater length, in the same proportion. the number of insertions he not marked on them, they will be continued until ordered out, and charged according y

Congressional Mebate.

ON THE MINISTER TO RUSSIA.

House of Representatives, February 3, 1831. The motion to strike out the appropriation for the salary of a Minister to Russia follows:

support of the motion made by the gentleman famy of the deed. from Ohio. With the indulgence of the House, The gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Barbour] po sible, " and hope to be forgiven!"

require refreshment by relaxation and relief from milder sky, and by removing to a more genial

We object to this salary on account of the il-Court of his Imperial Majesty the Emperon of the nation.

could find nothing to say more appropriate to words.

saries. Place not entered this warfare without who takes the sword shall perish by the sword" el of objecting to this appropriation, because its forthe use of a Vigintine. In this there, is that follow, he could not hury under its forthe use of a Vigintine. In this the gentlemen alone selected for a characteristic of the resolution, the gentlemen alone selected for a characteristic of the gentlemen alone selected for a put this error in vice moments alice he led to see that the positional creed of every hour of my place, alone moments alice he led to see that the positional creed of every hour of my place, and hence this forth, and hence this procedure. The gentlemen has been in the procedure that the pointed bound which neuroshed my infancy, the first dawned the first many balls what could be sufficiently and who do me the honor to hear the most of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure. The gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure. The gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure. The gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure. The gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the procedure of the procedure of the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed among the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentlemen had not placed to the procedure of the gentl ed of objecting to this appropriation, because r quite so malevolent,

a dishonored by this attempt of the wiley Secetary? I did not, and no man will intimate that Virginia had even looked with a favorable of Legation, had not the gentleman transmuted eve on this bribe, this splendid bestowment .- his confirmation by the Senate into the Roman song of the syren, and are allured by the en- toga, this gown, was, in the open forum, given chantment, become debased by the temptation. annually by all the Romans to all their boys, who Sir, from the cradle to the grave, the entire- had, during the year, arrived to the age of sevambition are spread for our vigorous manhood; some the gentleman intends to assure us, that and in old age, the honest amor habends, when Mr. Randolph's Secretary of Legation has fully If all other loves are frozen in the heart, allures arrived at that interesting period of his life. the dim eye to gaze at, and the surd ear to lis. had asserted he was twenty-one, but I willingly en to, the glittering beauties and golden melo- admit the gentleman's correction. dies of avarice. Are we dishonored, because in The other gentleman from Virginia, (Mr the language of Sir Wm. Jones, "vice is per- Coke) has reinforced his colleague. Will these some unprincipled litigant has craftily proffered I have spoken of him as an American citizen. being under consideration, Mr. Burges, heaven, are covered with eternal snow, is the the benefits, in addition to the triumphs of vicof Rhode Island addressed the House as monument of imperishable parity—while the tory, relinquished her territorial claims to an land until such appropriations were made; and and to discredit all others. He has founded name of the treacherous and cowardly Tatquin, with infame, will be, as it has been, throughout Mr. Spraken; Permit me to justify myself, un- all time, the name of whatever is most vile and I reproach Virginia! Is it not the birth place, der all which has been said, both again t me, & odious. Sir, Virginia is not dishonored; the is it not the burial place, of Washington? Sir, that this House had the right to judge concerning Let him go on to improve the condition of the against whatever has been advanced by me in tempter, and not the tempter

t may be well to look back to the question made | would overthrow our objections to this approby this motion; for, gentlemen in their zeal to printion by eulogizing the man sent on the Mis- President and his Machiavelian policy. I have for people, that the honest, the independent papers of was always understood, before the vote of eulegize the Minister or to abuse those who sion. He alludes to the monuments of Mr. Randolph should not receive this country, are vehicles of falsehood, and mere Friday, that Lafayette's appointment was doubt the correctness of his appointment, dolph's fame; and lest men might call on him of the nation, and in no terms of disrespect. I doubt the correctness of his appointment, doubt's tame; and lest men might can be started almost entirely from the matter to shew where they are, he has placed them in have alleged, that, like monarchs in the old to Russia. Has the gentleman from Virginia floor, branded as false, foul, and let the hearts of his countrymen, were no being but world, he has been advised by ministers; and (Mr. J. S. Barbone) form ten that the motion to the member who quotes from their pages the the searcher of hearts" could discover their under that advisement, has permitted those mi- strike out the enacting charge of the bill appro-The objection to this appropriation, and the vine searcher of nearts' could discover their motion to strike it from this bill, have been made existence. What indications has Virginia given nisters to furnish, in his name, his annual mesbecause it is proposed for the payment of a salary that those monuments are where the gentleman sage to Congress. Will the gentleman pledge that the bimself with nine of his callegands and that he himself with nine of his callegands and that he himself with nine of his callegands and that he himself with nine of his callegands and that he himself with nine of his callegands and that he himself with nine of his callegands and the himself with nine of his callegands and the himself with nine of his callegands. to a foreign Minister, who, by his commission of has located them? He has long been a Repre-to a foreign Minister, who, by his commission of has located them? He has long been a Repre-this literary reputation, upon a denini of this al-legation, or by certain secret articles given to sentative in Congress from that State. This is him, is authorised to leave the Court to which semething in his favor; but from a State so miscounselled; has suffered his confidence to be own incompetency to question this appropriation? Charles the throne of France; and to the patri- diately sent (as he called him) for "his. he is sent, to go to any other country whenever, in long separated into districts, it is not conclusive. shused by an artful Minister; and that, too, in Sir, we are, by the Constitution, vested with a ots of that country, their revolution. his own opinion, his health may require it; and It is confined to his constituents, and only proves this very appointment. I put it to the gentle ligh competency and discretion on these impornot to return to that Court so long as, according what the gentleman himself has often asserted man, upon his conscience, to sav, whether he lant matters; and to these constitutional attri- Turkish Trenty, from the newspaper; dares the to the same opinion, it may be injurious to his on this floor, "that never had man such constithealth to do so. We deny such mission to be a wents." He represented the whole State in the this House, if Mr. Tazewel had been Secretary ed. egal one; we deny that the salary provided by Senate-true; but this was for the fragment on- of State? ith such privileges reserved, and such powers Virginia had been placed under his guardianvaletudinarian; or because, if then in health, that pointment. In this great Areopagus, than which tree. The leaves of the ivy will soon concept me." monument of this man in his heart or his house, be removed, render it a sapless trunk. public service; No. Sir; nor because that re- read the inscription upon it. On what with he The gentleman recommends to us charity reshment might not be found unless under a tried? Not on its political creed-he did not Christian charity. Where does he learn, that suffer, as the best of men have, for heresy .- the delinquencies of Rulers are to be visited onexcite, as they certainly have excited, the spe- himself, and this works alone were brought charity went over the coming ruin of his nation, this mission; but they have not been, nor will was published, he must have read it. It belong. legality of this Mission, and because the Secre- fore the nation, had not the eulogist of this fro- creased in size, and outgrown the covering. tary of State, knowing the feeble health of Mr. | ward son of Virginia told us, that the monuments Randolph-knowing his in-bility to attend of his exploits were in the hearts of his country- eulogizing Virginia. It is all supererogation .vice-knowing that his constitution could not firm the gentleman's assertion? He was weighendure either the winter or summer climate of ed; and "mene mene tekel upharsin" was no one deemed her quite so proud as the gentle. as the Roman carpenter. Russia did invent this mission, and did advise the written on all his monuments. He was reject-President to send out this gentleman with cre- ed, and a distinguished Virginian was chosen to dentials as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister represent that State in the Senate, and restore scorn Neptune's trident, and Jove's power to his ponderosity into the scale of panegyric, on earth? Plempotentiary of the United States at the her ancient honor and dignity in the councils of thunder, as the gentleman says she does; and thereby to render the weight of eulogy on the such Minister, in whatever country he might in the great arts of civil life? In agriculture, choise to reside. Such a mission cannot be form his own peculiar vocation? It has never been

is proper to give some reply to what has been in our country, who despise traffic and traders; and every power which can grant, is, my its ve- oke plantation has better reasons to remember called a "houry headed incendiary," by a vaga offered by several gentlemen against this motion, and would have considered Cosmo de Medicis, ry nature, endowed with the power of refusal. the elequence of the overseer. Much as that ec-These gentlemen have said less to support this the princely merchant and founder of Florence, Sir, our power to refuse appropriations is the Con | centric man loved his joke and his sarcasins, he pudence. The "bald head" is, I assure the gen appropriation, than to impugn the motives of us no better than a tin pediar. He is literary, stitutional check placed in our hands not to stop loved his fame more; and he would have spaced clemen no joke a though the seems to be original. those who oppose it. With my motives these mord, I trust pious; but what has he done to but to regulate, the movements of the Execu- the lash on that occasion, could be lave sus in using it as such. This mountements those who oppose it. With my morality, or religion! In this gentlemen are welcome to amuse themselves — advance learning, morality, or religion! In this tive. Without this power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition the power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition to power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition to power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition to power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition to power and its discreet and pected it might bring non-ning munition to power and its discreet and pected it might be at the disposal tion of enduring praise at the hands of the gentlement of the laws original to the laws or grant to the laws o often passed over the humble dwelling of my nated, or sustained by his eloquence; and which boyhood, without shaking a stone from the chim- will carry, his name to post-rity as a patriot ney, or starting a shingle on the roof. I have statesman! When the gentleman shall point to -of salaries without services. Sent to one Court, has the gentleman so long been a more abject the Lored crown than torany other of their gifts; Duke Constantine in his retreat, had retoo much respect for myself to believe that they these monuments, and shew them to belong to where he did nothing; and, in the exercise of tive to the Secretary of State, that he thinks it because the wearing it enabled him to conceal furned to Warsaw. A proclamation had

ments at dassaults of power, must always expect federal power. He it so ; let the man enjoy the mon for it. The Secretary does avow, in the to encounter vociferous, if not infuriated adver- entire time of all the benefit, and all the mis- Message, that the " power to leave the Russian chief he has done. I had no share in that pow- Court for the advantage of a more genul climate. "counting the cost " A school of high authority er which every citizen did not equally enjoy - was given to Mr. Rindolph in consideration of the taught me that, in at war of aggression, "He It gave me no honor, no emolument. I do not extent to which his constitution had been imbelieve, and I think thousands who aided in its paired in me purite service. What were those overthrow, do not now believe, that any structure services! The duties of a member of this House all which he is distinguished, the character of the services and for which he received his three, since that time erected on its rains, has prof the Schate, and for which he received his incomplete the services and the services are services and for which he is distinguished, the character of the services and for which he is distinguished, the character of the services are services. The duties of a member of this House all which he is distinguished, the character of the services and for which he received his incomplete that time secretary is fixed; it cannot be defined by swered? How by the gentlement from Virginia! [Mr. Bannoun.] First of all, I am accussion the people. If this giant partizen did over-vices? Were not the constitutions of others in that I should throw a stray in the way of any

This, I know, cannot be done; and I must suf- ting the storm of party, set themselves in ear- civilized nations, and to the hordes of Normale from the question to bring into the debute on fer the imputation, wherever his speech is read, sest to rebuilding this man of monuments resist-without my correction of its errors. Be it so; ed their labors. Little floes the gentleman know the places or tents of the foreign power; the thing rendering our Russian relations ifhout my correction of its errors. Be it so; of their labors. Little loes the gentleman know the places or tents of the threign power; the thing rendering our Russian relations important the labors, or formality of a visit and a presentation may soon comes, into any question concerning their o much moral sentiment in Virginia, to set envy at the fame, of the man whom he has en-be omitted, and the Envoy Extraordinary and Do not our new relations with the great Eu-own one of their fellow men as quite so stupid, logized. He will be remembered, when much Minister Plenipotentiary will, "in consideration repeat rival of Russia demonstrate more strongbetter Virginians, and perhaps the gentleman of his public services,23 he permitted to receive by our need of an efficient mission at the Com-The gentleman alleges that I consider this hims If, may be forgotten; but he will be re- his outfit and salary, while he continues to reside of St. Petersburgh? The Secretary has told mission as a bribe offered to Virginia. This membered as the years of mildew and blight and on his plantation, mission as a bribe offered to Virginia. This membered as the years of mildew and blight and on his plantation, when those of plenty with the Sublim What a scheme of speculation does this system opened to us by our treaty with the Sublim of his country men."

I should have said no more of the Secretary ments of pleasure beset our youth; the toils of enteen years. By this classical allusion, I pre-mitted to spread her snares around us, that the gentlemen never have do e with mistating men triumph of virtue may be more conspicuous?" Have I reproached Virginia? Never, sir, never! The ermine of the judge is not tarnished because When speaking of any one of her citizens here, a bribe to the court. The name of the insulted When speaking of that State, I have, on this Lucretis has arrived to us after a journey of more floor, & elsewhere, spoken of her as one which than 2000 years. Is it soiled by time, or by the poured her whole Spartan soul into the Revolubreath of any one of the millions of millions who tion, which sent to the field of conflict a band the appropriation was under consideration for the treaty. The other part of the secret article, ever, took fire, and determined not to subhave pronounced it? That name, Sir, like the of patriot warriors, "who have filled the world currying into effect the second treaty with Great from the newspapers, Alps of her own Italy, whose tops nearest to with their and our glory;" and which, to secure Britain, Mr. Gallatin declared, in this House, Sir, it has been the labor of the Secretary's empire, preferring to State sectional interest the that this House, holding the power to control school, and is at the head of it. In that school more glorious objects of Union and Independence. secrated region, or even suppose the enormity decide that question, to grant or refuse appro- wherever he can extend the finger of power-man has announced her to us. In wielding the

ed-such a Minister cannot be sent abroad either said of him. Have manufactures been fostered tency of this House to question this appropriati- took his family name from a bear on some part and bloom & modesty of invenescence, that he under our laws of our constitution, or under the usages and laws of Nations. I ask the attention of the House, therefore, to the enquiry, whether of the House, therefore, to the enquiry, whether this salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be due for an illegal and soil the salary can be salary c Mission? whether it can be due as a quantum —the sheep is so hateful to him, that, with all this appropriation in support of it. Are we planted with vanity." Who ever in respect by barbarians in all countries, and meruit, or a pro rate compensation for the services the poetry of the golden age in his blood, this ced by the People as the constitutional keepers saw a Cock Sp. tow measuring his wing in by even the most prefligate and unnumented which were rendered at the Court of Russia; or gentleman has said "I would go twenty rods out of the public treasure, and yet bound to follow flight with the Fulcon! T believe there are in all ages, yet knowing that (abo to ad plumas last of all, whether it can be due, because this of my way to kick a sheep." Commerce has been every Executive call for their money ! Is it our gentlemen in this Bouse who could give us I am not disappointed in the language or denission may subserve certain purposes, highly as little encouraged by him as either of her sis- whole fiscal duty to obey orders, and grant subuseful to the Secretary of State ! Before these fer arts in our family of national industry. He sides! Does not deliberation, and debate, and of Roanake is so well recollected by the gentle- better than I am, have been revited in their age enquiries can, to the best purpose, be made, it is one of a class of men, now grown quite small discretion, belong to the Boan- by men no better than he is. Washington was ords. could be expected from him? When he shall scientific times, who have, advanced somewhat has scanted men in wit, she has made up to The gentleman from Virginia (Mr. Barbour) return next June, what will be have done? His into the mysteries of chemistry do, after beat, then in hair, then the gentleman I believe, believe, and I think thousands who nided in its paired in the public service." What were those throw that fabric, he could not bury under its paired, and even their lives consumed, in like man's advancement. Their friends are duits

it to be true. If said, was it said, or could it be and prosperity are forgotten. He may live in open to the crafty and unprincipled, to men alntended in derogation of Virginia? Is Virgin; story; but not, like Washington, "in the hearts ways at market either to sell themselves or to that the swords of our brave Russian friends no buy others! By this, unstable politicians of every only hewed their way through the Balkan down variety of creed may be kept to the true faith. to the plains of Adrianople; but that by the By this, tempest-beaten partisans, ship wrecked treaty of that City they, for all purposes of nav in principle and fortune, may be towed into port, gration, widened the Bosphorus to a breadth equal Not those who hear, but those who listen to the ceremonial of bestowing the Toga Virilis. This and laid up and preserved for future use. Esta- to the Hellespont, and thereby united the Eus blish this system, sir, and add to it a Govern- ine with the Egran, Levant, whole Medite ment Treasury Bank, and the Secretary might ranean, the Atlantic, and all other seas & oceans, buy into the Presidency with your own mo. What may our Russian imperial friend say to us ney; nor, like that Roman who hought the Im- for receiving from the Turk as a boom, to se perial Purple at auction, be obliged to lay down nothing of our promise in return, what his valor his own gold and silver for the purchase. Shall blood, and treasure hall conquered for us and we, sir, through any feer of transcending our all nations? Omitting, therefore, the secret ar. chief of the National Guards, unnecesjurisdiction, give our sanction to such a system ? ticle, does not the opening of the Euxine, either A bolder stand than is now required was taken by the Bussian power or the Turkish treaty 16 years ago, an this floor, by an honorable mem- mightily enhance the importance of this quest ber, now in office, and presiding over the deli-berations of the other House of Congress. I an efficient mission of the Court of St. Peterswill, said he, vote no speropristion for the bergh ! If the gentleman cannot perceive this, Navy until the Secretary of that Department is he is less a statesman than he would seem to be; removed.' What was the result ! The Secretary and even much less such, if that were possible. was removed; and the naval branch of the ser-

Of the Secretary of State I have spoken, and tleman from New-York. For myself, I would more manifestly and in reply to the King's earnest entreaty. law for foreign Ministers, is, of ever can be due by of a term. Will was no not respond to any man sent abroad under such credentials; The interests, the honor, and high dignity of will speak, as I believe he merits. He is a power let him pass. It is a kind of Donnton amuse standing all these assertions, accused me of that he would re-accept the command in this killion. use. The objection to this appropriation has, by these trusts? His conduct as a Senator from of the oak, it has crept, and clasped, and wound Toby, to the little buzzing inconvenience (when commit our first weath with the Great Disciple therefore, not been made because the gentleman Virginia was brought before the Legislature of itself around the trunk, spice above spire, until I have him in my hand,) "Go, poor insect, 50; of Mahomet to the Christian Senators of the Unitwas, when sent abroad, and had long been, a that State, on a question concerning his re-ap. it overtops the loftiest branch of the magnificent the world is surely wide enough for title and to the speech of the gentleman from Net -York, appear by the published journals of that body The place, however it may be filled, the s give to have no place in their proceeding until the a kind of character to what is said or doce mit. No matter how utterly inconsiderable, or even climate than that of Russia. Such things may His faith was, for every purpose beneficial to ly in charity? While the Messenger of divine stitutional portion of the people has placed him. stitutional portion of the people has placed him gentleman whose mission is now under considecial wonder of the Nation; and they are, and into question. On this question a deep and in- did he not severely renake those Rulers, that at one of these desks, replying to what he may ration, did on this floor, pronounce a studied they will be very proper topics of de-feresting debate arose. The gentleman may generation of vipers, stinging and poisoning that have said, though it may not be very creditable, enlogium on Stephens Thompson Mason, the bate, when considering the "state purposes" of have been present and heard it; or if not, as it pation, and hastening on that destruction. yet must be excusable, in any Member of this Senator who published that treaty. Would be tial change which has taken place among Sir, we are charitable. The people have House. The Romans were wont to place a sulogize pargury? Sir, the secret article was the ministers ; but it has not yet been they be made the grounds of objection to the ap- ed to Virginia, and was a part of her great com- looked on in charity. Charity has done her ut- twooden image in their gardens, as the special pro- published before the treaty was announced to monwealth cancern; nor would I have brought most. Her " mantle has covered a multitude tector of the place; and Horace has related to the House, or sent to the Senate. The chrees us the solution of these Roman deities, pondence on the West India question was pubwherein he gives some account of his nwn apo- lished in the same manner. Has the Secretary ting entreaties of the King to retain his This gentleman unites with his colleague, in theosis : "I was," said the Prinpus, " a madess of State adopted this method, and put out his command of the National Guard, he went log, until the carpenter took me in hand's but he fee less, to take the nation I pulse ? to the laborious details of that public ser- men. Does this debate, or the result of it, con- History has done it justice. The lofty-minded has now worked me up int, a god!" The People matron, we knew, thought well of herself; but of New-York can surely turn out as gold work rized or instructed, or encouraged the gentle-

> some of her children have given us fair samples Russian Minister overwhelming -- scrap iron in- revited? I do not ask by what statesman or creases the weight not the value of gold. He gentlemen, but by what apology for a man?does admit some sort of talent in speaking, to In what other assembly on earth has "the heavy All these gentlemen agree in the argument the p reismentary rivals of himself in et quence head" been used as a term of reproach? Has -to Lowndes, to Clay, and to Webster, Cicero the gentleman passed so far beyond the vigour Sir. this mission may be regarded as the com- a cause, is said to be peculiar to that gentleman. Come is said to have been more grafeful to the inflated and gittering, to sail away a moment, and then burst and canish into their original nothingness. For aught I know the Secretary name bright with the glories of opening Heamay be annising himself by the same innoc experiment. Who would interrupt the sentimental harmony of political friendship! For Profligate young men, bows children as they are all which he is distinguished the character of all which he is distinguished, the character of called the scum and succeptures of the city, and the secretary is fixed; it cannot be elevated by as we find by the historian, fit only for food for any labors of the protege-it cannot be fowered by the efforts of others. God forbid

But I drew my facts from unprincipled parti vice did receive, as it always has received, his sans, and newspaper remour! I said so before cordial and efficient support. In 1795, when -I drew part of the truth from the Secretary-that a treaty had no binding force as a law of the life to establish newspapers, entitled to no credit; such appropriations, held the constitutional pow- the great axiom is, " every thing is fair in polier of rejecting treaties. Mr. Madison contended ties ;" and to him are not politics every thing I suming his station as a simple soldier of possible, "and hope to be forgiven!" printions for carrying them into effect. This Let him do one thing more—aided by his minI have, as the gentleman says, abused the case does not require the aid of these doctrines: ions, no matter where—let oim persuade the Had I drawn a bow with a more advised aim.

> drawing my facts from a perjured Senator. Has chief of the Guards from his hands, said ed States, until their lips were sealed by the sopresent session. When a treaty in 1795 was led late in the day on terms of warm musublished by a Senator against an injunction of tual respect, and the King held a council man to connect perjury with that venerated but the King replied, it was then too late word which designates the members of a Na- for Gen. Lobau had received his commistional Council, the most dignified and honorable

How could I shun insult, when such men are Who reviled the prophet, returning from the blazing translation of his master, with a counter ven and wrapt in the mande of Elijahwen and wrapt in the mancle of Elijah—who Sir, revited the prophet for his "bald head? those animals which are fed on offal.

The gentleman is equally out of his orthinolo

Foceign News

Continued from the late arrivals.

LAFAYETTE.

The motives which led to the resignaion of Lafayette, are thus stated in one of the papers :--

The Chamber of Deputies, apparently alarmed for reform, passed a vote enacting that the National Guards should not be permitted to choose their own General. On Friday evening, December 24th, resolution was passed by the Chamber of Deputies, declaring the office held b General Lafavette, as commander-in-

The necessary consequence of the vote in the Chamber of Deputies last Briday evening, upon the new organization of the National Guard, was the removal of Gen-Lafavette from the command of that body, with, however, the perfect understanding, that he was to be re-appointed by the King. The General and his friends, howmit to this piece of coquetry, and yesterday, after a consultation with his friends, the venerable patriot resigned his commission into the hands of the King, in a letter, in which he declared that, in rethe revolution, he was determined by all the means still at his disposal to support the throne and the principles which had grown out of the events of July. It for life, but that the office would die with bim. This splended mark of public conold and long attached friend." The terview was the result. Lafayette declars ed that he appeared not as an unconneccould the pigeon on the pole have flutered ted individual, but as a negotiator; and that he could never do so, without an inty's present councils, and the introduction of such an electoral law as would satisfy the people, and give solidity to the institutions of the revolution. They part.

> Paris, Dec. 28. You will see from the Journals the par mentioned that, although General Lafayette refused the earnest, indeed supplicato the palace at three o'clock on the following morning to revoke his resignation.

The four ex-ministers were removed on the night of 29th December from Vincennes, to be transferred to the fortress of Ham, in Picardy, there to undergo their sentence of perpetual imprisonment.

THE POLISH REVOLUTION.

Advices from Warsaw, through the German papers, are to the 9th December, and from the frontiers of Poland, to the 12th-both inclusive. The number killed during the commotions at Warsaw is stated to be 6,000, but it could not be ancertained with accuracy.

The Messager des Chambres states that all the last accounts from Warsaw. confirm the previous intelligence of a division of the Lithuanian army about from 25,000 to 30,000 strong, luving declared rial Guard, which accompanied the Grand have abused me from the wantonness of malice, Mr. Randolpis, he may realize a fame some his powers, gone to another, where he can do slandarous to associate the name of that Political the exterior believes of his head. If it be true, been published at Warsaw enjoining the but do believe it was done simply because they what less fugitive and perishable than mere mothing, what service is required, or was, or can with any other accident. Children, in these as Shakespeare tells us it is, that what nature inhabitants to return to their work, and ordering the churches and public establish-This motion has been made to protect the would carry my opposition to this salary to mere most zealous friends must say, NOTHING. If, ing up soap and water together in a basin amuse should be win a laurel crown, would never like ments to be re-opened. On the 5th instant of power, Those who resist such encroach- pecuase Ms. Randolph overthrew the fabric of without service of any kind rendered to the na the command of all the troops and National Guards of the Capital, and wears. the title of Dictator; but he issued a proclamation, in which he stated, that he had only accepted it in consequence of the importance of existing ciscumstances, and in imitation of the example of the Romans, who, in times of danger, confided the sovereign and absolute power to the hands gy, as in every thin, else. The bird of Jove, of a Dictator. The proclamation also in-

One soldier had been shot for insubordr