"OURS ARE THE PLANS OF FAIR DELIGHTFUL PEACE, UNWARP'D BY PARTY RAGE, TO LIVE LIKE BROTHERS."

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, By Joseph Gales & Son, Raleigh, North-Carolina.

TERMS.

THREE DOLLARS per annum; one half in advance Those who do not, either at the time of sub scribing, or subsequently, give notice of their wish to have the Paper discontinued at the expiration of their year, will be presumed as desiring its continuance until countermanded.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Not exceeding sixteen lines, will be inserted three times for a Dollar; and twenty-five cents for letters. for each subsequent publication; those o greater length, in the same proportion. ne number of insertions be not marked on them, they will be continued until ordered out, and char ed accordingly.

Agricultural.

The task of working improvement on the earth is much more delightful to an undebauched mind, than all the vain glory which can be upted career of conquests. Washington.

From the National Journal.

The Massachusetts Society have this Mrs. Smith best lot of Butter, not less than 500 lbs. ; at all. Parsnips, of Rutabaga, of common Turn- and gone back to the old country ? ips, of Onions, of Cabbages, of Corn. Barlev. Rve. Wheat, Millet, Peas, Beans, expect to receive money from him. aggregate amount to be nearly 1800 dol- man where he buys his whiskey."

of the Tuscaloosa Intelligencer, measurmeasure 18 inches in circumference,

HORTICULTURAL.

Strawberry vines should be planted out should be previously well manured, & dug ed up to the place of letter delivery. at least a month before the plants are put out; the vines should be placed from John Smith.' twelve to eighteen inches apart.

The seed of the nut-bearing pine tree has been lately sent to this country by John Smith. Commodore Porter. Mr. Skinner, who advantage. The nut is described as an in a little less than no time." agreeable table fruit, ing Tomatoes, objecting to the boiling ian in surprise. process, as having a tendency to change tipe tomatoes, and place them well, and to you like a streak of lightning. without pressing them, in a stone or gla- I merely wish to know where you ex- their humble place of assembly. is such a manner that it presses upon the letter contains money.

ieveral hours," bout the size of the small yellow bug that during the present season. A writer in what account is money to him?" the New-England Farmer says, " It aptheir buds, and eat into the centre of the

MISCELLANGOUS.

JOHN SMITH.

From the N. Y. Even ng Post. of Smith has led to numerous, whimsical verting little drama, & others have been | The next applicant for a letter for John | all dress alike, and eat and drink alike, than either their gallantoy or their relucnot long been deposited in its proper box, iver a letter for Mrs. Smith ?"?

good woman ?"

usband's name ?"

bition of Manufactures, &c. and in lieu or thereabouts. The villain John Smith a chubby negro woman; and a thick-set, thereof, offer premiums for the encourage- (that I should say so!) promised to write heavy looking Dutchman followed her .ment of Agricultural Science. Among me these two months, and not the bit They none of them, however, gave satisthese we notice, one of 100 dollars for the scrape of his ugly pen have I seen at all factory answers to the questions which second best, cultivated Farms; and is on the tother horse. It would be ask-the Union, would work miracles in the you this letter. It appears to contain a epistle passed out of his custody. condition of our agricultural knewledge. large sum of money, and must be for A Beet was lately left with the Editor some other person of your name.'

The woman went away grumbling and ing twenty-one and a half inches in cir- scolding, and vowing 'it was all a chate,' cumference, and twenty-two inches long. and threatening, if there was law in the The grower says he has a bushel that will land she would have her letter. In about an hour after, a tall, sallow looking man, whose straight black hair, keen eye, and Indian gait, denoted him as one of that portion of our countrymen who style themselves half horse, half alligator, and zed earthen pot, which is to be filled with pect a letter from, to avoid mistakes, as the brine; cover the pot with a deep plate there are so many John Smiths. This they should be soaked in fresh water for I arn't worth no money. I tell you what, leader of their devotions. The Roman of your college life; & be assured, young A small bug, of a palish blue color, a thinks no more of a hundred dollars of music, the tinkling of a small bell, and or the casualities of life, or the invasions (State Bank, you see, not rail specie) a perpetual change of service and cere- of disease shall bring on that painful moinfects cucumbers, has committed depre- than you do of a hundred cents. Why monial. A profound silence and unvary- ment in which you are to take a last look dations on the grape vines in Connecticut should he? Arn't he a director, and ing look and posture announced the self- of the parent who has watched and work-

The Horticultural Society of Paris re- | did you expect a letter from ?'

But this letter is from England .-Peared just as the vines were putting forth Your father is not an Englishman, is he?'

· Look here, stranger, if you mean to bud. In many cases it was apparently insult me, jist step out here, and I'll lick the cause of the entire failure of the fruit, you within an inch of your life. English. attention, and was often impatient to in- NOBLE CONDUCT OF ST. PIERRE. and a serious injury to the vine, as, when man!-I reckon if you had seen me at the vines grew, instead of a single healthy Orleans, with old Hickory, you would n't shoot, several feeble ones started out from a' thought there was much English blood him to disturb any of the congregations in me, though there was a pretty considerable smart chance of it onto me. And my wife's rail Kentuck to the back-bone, too, none of your half and half Yaikee should n't touch it, if it contained ever The frequent occurrence of the name saying the stranger turned indignantly in the same way? from the office, satisfied that a letter from blakes and perplexities, some of which England could not be intended for him his father. Do you not see that people in its place. But they had to learn that he furnished the groundwork of a di- or his.

expanded into humorous stories. There Smith was a small dapper gentleman, with and keep the same hours, & use the same tant submission could atone for, He gave A BAPTIST CAMP-MEETING will commence are clerks in our postoffice, who, were hair of a reddish cast, light eyes, and diversions? they afflicted with the caeaethes scribendi, sandy complexion. The boson of his Ay—but those are things in which would not receive their surrender unless light Meeting House, eighteen miles north of the vielded implicity to his mercy with. Raleigh, Ministerial and will be thankfully retry their hands at more diffuse composi- strings of silk braid and safety chains, . And they have a right, too, to worship out any capitulation either for their lives tions than the brief and pithy sentences and its collar was rolled back with great God as they please. It is their own bu- or their property. When this severity which they are accustomed to endorse on precision, so as to display to the best ad- siness, & concerns none but themselves, was objected to, even by his own comthe backs of letters might contribute, in vantage a curiously plaited bosom to his 'But has God ordered particular ways no inconsiderable degree, to the enter- linen, and a set of gilt-mounted study with of worshipping him? tainment of the public, by "a plain un which it was adorned. His upper lip was 'He has directed the mind and spirit varnished tale," of the scenes which shaded with some dozen or twenty hairs, with which he is to be worshipped, but sometimes occur at the postoffice window, which, as the weaver said of the threads not the particular form and manner. in consequence of the endless number of of his carpet, were not as neighborly as That is left for every one to choose, ac-Smiths who appear among the claimants they should be; but they glistened with cording as suits his temper and opinions. By the last Liverpool packet, a double infinite pains from their bristling to a su- and why should they leave it for the choice surrendered to him. These six men were letter, folded and sealed in a way which pine position, so that they presented of another? Religion is one of the things led to the belief that money was enclos- quite a snart apology for mustaches.— for which mankind are made to differ.

ed, and addressed to Mrs. John Smith. Our beau was highly indignant that a postwas received at our Postoffice. It had office clerk should dare to question him, to be dismissed, and the street was again or withhold a letter addressed to his la- overspread with persons of all the differbefore a short, fat, smirking little woman dy; but said it was no more than might ent sects, going promiscuously to their made her appearance at the window, and be looked for under a rascally Jackson respective homes. It chanced that a poor in a broad Irish accent, said-" Have you administration; told him with impressive man fell down in the street in a fit of apo-"Yes, here is one for Mrs. Smith-threw his card down with the look of an children stood around him crying and la-Mrs. Catharine Smith-is that your name, langry Cæsar; and attered mighty threats menting in the bitterest distress. The in a very weak and effeminate voice, beholders immediately flocked round, and "No, that's not it-my name is Brid- which was not without a certain quaver with looks and expressions of the warmthat seemed to denote that the speaker est compassion gave their help. A Church-"Ah, here is one. Pray what is your was not altogether sure, whether the in- man raised him from the ground, by lift-Out on the vagabond, his name is his exquisite person. The clerk, howev- terian held his head and wiped his face be forgotten while disinterested patrioter, receiving no satisfactory answers to with his handkerchief. A Roman Catho-The clerk was about to give the letter his inquiries, was not intimidated into lic lady took out her smelling bottle, and to the woman, but his experience had giving the dandy the letter, and the dis- assiduously applied it to his nose. A Me- fair town from sack and spoil," said this ed mind, than are the state of the most uninter- taught him that John Smiths were as plen- appointed applicant walked off in a most thodist ran for a doctor. A Quaker supty as blackberries : and he held it back, unbecoming passion. A long blue-eyed, ported and comforted the woman, and a white he asked a few more questions .- | red-cheeked, raw-boned, awkward look- | Baptist took care of the children. 'And where did you expect a letter from, |ing man from 'down east' was the next | Edwin and his father were among the year omitted the usual Cattle Show, exhi- oh, from Cincinnatior New Orleans, Mrs. John Smith ; he was succeeded by thing in which mankind are made to agree. the careful clerk thought it his duty to one of 100 for a similar lot of the best . But this letter is from Liverpool, my ask, and were obliged to go away as they Cheese. There are also premiums for the good woman, and of course is not for you.' came. At last a small pretty woman, best acre of Carrots, of Potatoes, of Beets, . Liverpool, did you say? O the ruf with high cheek bones, rosy complexion. of Mangel Wortzel, of Sugar Beets, of fian! has he then deserted me entirely, dressed in a neat close habit, a gipsy hat, and having altogether a John Bull air, estly asked if there was a letter by the most recesses of your hearts. The anxi-Mustard Seed, Flax and Hemp. A pre- Is it money you mane? Sure then Liverpool packet for Mrs. John Smith. ous wishes of your parents present a powhesitation at giving it to her, she author- terested witness of your efforts are those beyond a doubt. The contents of the of your success, they are watching your lars. Such a sum annually appropriated . I fear, if that is the case,' said the letter proved her right to it. and, much collegiate career as affording some indica-

DIFFERENCE AND AGREEMENT: SUNDAY MORNING.

From Budger's N. Y. Weekly Messenger.

Mr. Ambrose led his son Edwin round hearts a thrill of satisfaction which monall these different assemblies as a specta- archs on a throne might envy." tor. Edwin viewed every thing with great quire of his father the meaning of what he saw ; but Mr. Ambrose would not suffer bear's grease, and had been forced with All these people like their own way best, earnestness that he was a gentleman; plexy, and lay for dead. His wife and dings were followed by a general lamentermediate wall afforded a protection to ing him under the arms, while a Presby-

IMPROVEMENT OF YOUTH.

We extract the following passage from an Ad dress delivered by the Rev. Dr. DELANCY. Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, to the Students, on opening the Collegiate Session. It bears convincing marks of baving emanated from a parent :

Suppose he has, you would probably came to the Post Office window and mod- chord which I trust will vibrate to the in- that King had lately instituted. In their mium is also offered for the best, and you have put your fut in it. The saddle Noticing that the clerk felt some little erfut incentive to exertion. The most in- before Edward, to whom they submitted other premiums are proposed for Experi- ing for money, not sending me any, that ised him to break the seal, telling him to whom you are bound by the closest ransom for the pardon of their fellow ciments, discoveries, Inventions, planting John Smith would be after. No, no, what amount of money it would probably ties: With minds impressed with a sense tizens. The king looking on them with Trees, and live Hedges. We have has sharp's the eye that ever sees the color of be found to contain, and one or two other of the value of your present opportunities, indignation, upbraided them with the lossfilvadded up these premiums, and find the John's money more nor himself and the facts, which would establish her claim and with hearts beating high with hopes es he had sustained through their obstiand judiciously applied in every State in clerk, that I shall not be able to give to the joy of the character of your future efforts the bravest English nobles and warriors, in life, and as testing your disposition of interfered to prevent the execution, and gratitude and love to them. We can scarcely dwell upon a more touching spectacle, than that of a virtuous youth not was the last resource of these unfortunate only urged on in his struggle for knowledge by the love of science, and by a band's camp, in circumstances equally sense of its importance, but burning with flattering to Edward as a monarch, and It was Sunday morning. All the bells the holy purcose of making by his mental interesting to him as a husband. It was were ringing for church, and the streets triumphs a father's heart beat with de- during her regency in England that the were filled with people moving in all di- light, and a mother's breast glow with great victory of Neville's cross had been rapture, sacrificing, with manly energy, obtained; and it was under her auspices Here numbers of well dressed persons, the customary follies of his age, yielding that David II. of Scotland was made priinto beds early in September. The ground a little touch of the snapping turtle, walk. and a long train of charity children, were his whole soul to the effort, and, like the soner. The queen was, also, at this time thronging in at the the wide doors of a Christian in his struggle for salvation, with child, and thus, in every respect, en-'I say, stranger, I want a letter for large handsome church. There, a small- pressing forward in his preparation for titled to the highest regard of her royal er number, almost equally gay in dress, that more enlarged arena on which dis- husband. When she saw that Edward There is none addressed to that name, were entering an elegant meeting house. tinction and profit are obtained. If the would be moved with no less entreaty said the clerk; but here is one for Mrs. Up one alley, a Roman Catholic congre- bosom of a parent ever burn with joy, it than her own, she rose hastily from her gation was turning into their retired cha- is in witnessing the efforts of such a son ; seat, and kneeled before the king saying, Ah, that's me, or what's the same pel, every one crossing himself with a fin- if, when contemplating the possibility of with many tears, "Ah! my lord and husteceived it, is distributing it to the best thing, it's my woman, so shell it out here ger, dipt in holy water as he went in .- his own premature dismissal from an band, have I not a right to ask a boon of The opposite side of the street was cover- earthly stewardship, his soul can advert you, having come over the sea, through so Stay a moment, my friend; where ed with a train of Quakers, distinguished with comfort to any anchor for the shat. many dangers, that I might wait upon you? by their plain and neat attire and sedate tered vessel which he leaves behind, it is therefore, let me now pray you, in honor commends the following mode of preserv- Whar from ? exclaimed the Kentuck- uspect, who walked without ceremony when revolving in the recesses of his of our blessed Redeemer, and for love of into the room as plain as themselves, and burdened mind the prospects and for-Look here, stranger. I reckon you took their seats, the men on one side and tunes of his bereaved family, he angurs six prisoners!" Edward looked doubtfulthe quality, and sometimes to entirely want to poke fun at me. Now let me the women on the other, in silence. A from the energy, the decision, the dili- ly upon the queen, and seemed to he sitate alter the character of the fruit-" A suf- tell you, I'm a pretty considerable of a spacious building was filled with an over- gence, the character of a son, that his wife for a space, but said, at length, "Ah ficient quantity of salt is dissolved in chap-I'm a ringfail roarer, all the way flowing crowd of Methodists, most of them and children will yet have one, around spring or river water to make it strong from Salt River. So none of your cock plainly habited, but decent and serious in whom they may cling with hope, one arm elsewhere this day; yet how can I deny enough to bear an egg; select perfectly loftical cavorting about me, or I'll be in- demeanor; while a small society of Bap- to stay them in distress, one pillar to sup- any boon which you ask of me? Take tists in the neighborhood quietly occupied port them, one shield to ward from them these men, and dispose of them as you the perils of desolate widowhood and or- will." The gracious queen, rejoiced at Presently the different services resoun- phan helplessness. Let then the reflec- having prevailed in her suit, and having ded with the solemn organ, and with the tion that you cannot infuse into the bochanged the dishonorable attire of the distinct murmurs of a large body of peo- som of your parents a purer feeling of joy burgesses for new clothing, gave each of fruit-and by this simple process toma- 'That's why I want it, and so you're ple following the minister in responsive than that which results from marking the them six nobles, for immediate use, and toes may be preserved more than a year gwaing [going] to keep the letter for the prayers. From the meetings were heard success of your collegiate efforts exert its caused them to be safely conveyed thro' without attention. Before cooking them sake of the shiners. May be you think the slow psalmand the single voice of the influence upon you throughout the period the English host and set at liberty. stranger, my old man's a heavy dog, and catholic chapel was enlivened by strains gentlemen, that when the progress of time, collected and mental devotion of the Qua- ed for you, the retrospect of such an effort to gratify him, will send thro' your

From Walter Scott's Tales of a Grandfather

When the inhabitants of Calais Beheld even by a whisper. When they had gone at length, the pennons of King Philips through the whole, Edwin found a great host retiring from their view, they knew many questions to put to his father, who all hopes of those succours, which they expressed every thing to him in the best waited for so anxiously and vainly were trash. If the letter's from England, she manner he could. At length says Edwin, at an end. They had suffered such ex-. But why cannot all these people agree tremities, that human nature could endure sich a powerful heap of money.' And so to go to the same place, and worship God no longer; and to intimate that resistance was at an end, they lowered the banner And why should they agree ?' replied of France, and displayed that of England differ in a hundred other things? Do they their obstinacy had offund if the King more they yielded implicity to his mercy, withmanders. Edward would agree to show no further favor than to the following extent. He demanded that six of the chief burgesses of the town should come before him bareheaded, barefooted and in their shirts, having halters round their necks, bearing the keys of the town and the castle of Calais, which were to be humbly to submit to the king's pleasure howsoever severe it might be, without reservation even of life; and, in consideration of their doing so, the stern conquerer reluctantly promised that the rest of the citizens of Calais should have mercy. These conditions were sent to the town, and read bebefore the assembled citizens. The titation, which, the difficulty of finding men willing to take upon themselves this strange submission considered was not to be wondered at. After some deliberation. a burgess, the most substantial in the city, addressed the assembly. His name Eustace de Saint Pierre, ought never to ism is held valuable among mankind .-" He that shall contribute to save this gallant man, "though at the price of his own blood, shall doubtless deserve well that publication be made for three months, in of God and of his country. I will be one that the Defendant appear at the next term of who will offer my head to the King of En- this Court, to be held for the County of Rangland, as a ransom for the town of Calais. dolph, at the Courthouse in Ashborough, or The greater part of the assembly were moved by his speech to tears and exclamations of gratitude. Five other burgesses caught emulation from the noble devotion of Eustace de Saint Pierre, and offered to partake with him the honorable peril which he had incurred. They quickly put themselves into the humiliating attire required by Edward, but which assumed in such a cause, was more honora-.. But I turn from this point to touch a ble than the robes of the Garter, which shirts, barefooted, and with the halter around their necks, they were conducted themselves for disposal, as the stipulated nancy, and commanded them to be presently beheaded. Sir Walter Manny and their lives in vain. The Queen Phillippa men. She had recently joined her husme, that you would take pity upon these Goldsmith's Pectical and Miscellaneous Works. madam, I could well wish you had been > SEA SERPENT AGAIN. - This animal eems peculiarly attached to Boothby harbor, and no wonder, for it is a very Sir Walter Scou's Poetical Works, complete in pleasant harbor, and one of the finest watering places" on the coast of Maine His snake-ship paid another friendly visit there on Sunday before last, as well are informed by Captain Walden, of the United States Revenue Cutter Detector. The Cutter was at anchor in the harbor, and the officers and the crew all had a fair view of the Leviathan of the deep, as he boomed along in the neighborhood of the Light House. They judged him to be over one hundred feet in length .-They sent a boat to reconneitre, but his snakeish majesty marched off with a those who are aspiring to office were required much dignity as a bashaw with three by their constituents to be conversant with the tails .- Portland Courier.

-000-

These two lines-that look so selemn, Wert just out here to fill the column.

them presently to understand, that he on the second Priday in October next, at New-Bank Stock for Sale. WILL BE SOLD under an order of the Court of Equity, for the County of Wake, on the 3d day of October 18.1, being Monday of Wake Superior Court, at the door of the office of the Bank of Newbern in Ruleigh, Twentyof Bank of Newbern Stock.

B. A. BARHAM, three Shares of State Bank, and Fifteen Shares

NOTICE.

August 24.

THIE Subscribers having qualified at August, Term of the County Court of Wake, as Exser Powrtt, Esq. deceased ; hereby give notice to all persons indebted to said Estate, to come forward and make immediate settlement And those persons having claims, are requested to present them for payment, within the time pr scribed by law, properly authenticated, or this notice will be plead in bar of the recovery.

JESSE POWELL } Executors ALLEN ROGERS, August 27, 1831.

P. S. The Executors have a quantity of prime BACON, which they will sell on 12 months credit, if applied for soon.

State of North-Carolina. Randolph County.

Superior Court of Law-Spring Term, 1831. Mary L. Moss or. John G. Moss. Petition for Divorce.

IT appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, I that the Defendant in this case is not an inhabitant of this State: It is, on motion, ordered, the Raleigh Register, and Greensborough Patriot, the 4th Monday of September next, and plead, answer or demur to the Plantiff's Petition otherwise, the same will be taken as confessed, and set for hearing accordingly. A Copy.

J. WOOD, C. S. C'

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber having qualified at August.

Term of the County Court of Wake, as Executor of the last Will and Testament of Mrs. Prisiclla Bell, dec'd, hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said Estate, to come forward and make immediate settlement; and those persons having claims, are requested to present them for payment, within the time prescribed by law, properly authenticated, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. W. R. GALES.

41 3w

Just received and for Sale. BY TURNER & HUGHES, A splendid collection of cheap Books;

MOMPRISING a very extensive assorta ent Law, Medical, Theological, Class al and Miscellaneous Books, new Novels &c. &t. ; the most approved editions of English, Latin, Greek even the Prince of Wales interceded for and Prench School Books-ull of which will be sold at low prices. Among the splendid collection received, are the following :

SPLENDID LIBRARY EDITIONS, Beautifully printed on superfine paper, in a clear, bold, and legible type, with very fine For raits, engraved by Ellis, Longacre, &c.&c. capious Riographical Memoirs, and fac. similes of hand-writing.

Byron's Works, complete in 1 vol. 8vo. including all his suppressed and attributed l'oema. Burns' Poctical and Prose Works, complete in 1 vol. 8vo.

Cowper and Thompson's Prose and Poetical Works, complete in I vol. 8vo. including two hundred and fifty Letters, and sundry Poems of Cowper, never before published in this country; and of Thompson a new and interesting Memor, and upwards of twenty new Poems for the first time printed from his own MS. taken from a late edition of the Aldine Poets, now publishing in London. Coleridge, Shelley, and Kars' Poetical complete in 1 vot. 8vo. · Goldsmith can never be made obsolete, while delicate genius, exquisite feeting, fine invention, the most harmonious metre, and the happiest diction are at all valued.

Works, complete in 1 vol. Svo. Goldsmith's Animated Nature, in 4 vols. 8vo. illustrated with eighty-five copper plates. This is a work that should be in the Library of every family, being written by one of the most talented anthors in the English language.

dosephus' (Flavius) Works, the learned and aus thentic Jewish historian, and celebrated warrior; containing twenty books of the Jewish antiquities, seven books of the Jewish war, and the life of Josephus, written by himself, translated from the original Greek, according to Havercamps' accurate edition, together with explanatory notes and observations. Embellished with elegant engravings By the tate William Whiston, A. M. from the last London edition, complete in 2 vols. 8vo. All those who wish to possess a beautiful and correct copy of this invaluable work, would do well to purchase this edition.

Moore's Poetical Works, complete in 1 vol. 8vo. Milton, Young, Gray, Beattie, and Collins' Por et cal Works, complete in I vol. 8vo.

The Works of Laurence Sterne, in 1 vol. 8vo. with a life of the author, written by himself. The Poetical Works of Rogers, Campbell, Montgomery, Lamb, and Kirk White, complete in 1 vol. 8vo.

Say's Political Economy - A Treatise on Polical Economy: or the Production, Distribution, and consumption of Wealth, by Jean Baptiste Says Fourth American Edition, with additional Notes, by C. C. Bid.le, Esq. 2 vols in 1, 8vo. The Eduor of the North-American Review, speaking of Say, observes, that " he is the must popular, and perhaps the most able writer on Political Economy since the time of Smith.

It would be beneficial to our country if all pages of Say. No public nor private library which does not include the principal part of the above, can be deemed complete.

The above books can be had in complete sets n a uniform style of binding, or in single to: