THE REGISTER

IS PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY,

By Joseph Gales & Son, Raleigh, North-Carolina.

TERMS.

THREE DOLLARS perannum; one half in advance Those who do not, either at the time of subscribing, or subsequently, give notice of their wish to have the Paper discontinued at the exp ration of their year, will be presumed as desiging its continuance until countermanded.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Not exceeding sixteen lines, will be inserted three times for a Dollar; and twenty-five cents for each subsequent publication : those of greater length, in the same proportion. If the number of insertions be not marked on them they will be continued until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT MEETING.

large concourse of the citizens of the town. at the Court House in this place, on Tuesday evening last; William Gaston, Esq. was called to the Chair, and James W. of the meeting, deplored the present condition of North-Carolina, & drew a cheerthat no progress for the last thirty in their several counties. years, in public improvement, physical or | then we should be scorned and derided, upon them to use mutual forbearance towards each other in their expressions and it will adjourn subject to the call of the Chair. you want.' expectations; all classes to join in the tions at Ocracocke. The following restructions were then inafter being discussed, and having the town. blanks filled by inserting the names of the gentlemen therein mentioned, were unanimously adopted:

1 Resolved, That as a part of the people of North-Carolina, we are not prepared to admit their inability to improve the physical and moral condition of their country, that we are determined and ready to make every exertion in our power, and that we earnestly conjure our tellow-citizens to join their exertions with ours, to raise confided to him. up within the State good marts of traffic, and provide the means of cheap and convenient

2. Resolved. That the operations now in progrees at Ocracocke Bar having already furnished to this port a channel of navigation, exceeding by one foot in depth that which was lately in use give high assurance that the impediments which EVC heretofore obstructed our communication with the ocean, may thus be effectually removed and that therefore the Representative in Congress from this District in particular, and the excitous to arge on the prosecution of these operations with increased energy, as pregnant with most important consequences to this section of North Carolina.

the communication between Newbern and the fitted him ' like a shirt on a hoe-handle.' recipe, from a paper down East: laterior, we believe that our afforts should be directed in the first place to the improvement of ultimately adopted, the removal of the obstructions to mivigation in these water courses, cannot shove W vneshoro, at an expense bearing no comparison to that of a Railway, and a conveniby a Rollway of comparatively small cost.

Wayne, Johnston, Greene, Pitt and Jones, to the least noticeable part of his person, beproceed immediately to the exercise of all the nowers confided to them by law, for working mon the rivers and principal streams running through their respective Counties, and causing to the full extent of all the means in their power

5. Resolved, That Wm. Gaston, John Washington, John H. Bryan, Wm. Hollister, Jno. M. Bryan, John T. Lane and James C. Cole, be a Sam. Committee, to be called the Craven Committee of Navigation, whose duty it shall be to cause the Aver Neuse to be examined so far up as Wavnesborn or Smithfield, if they shall deem it expedient, (also the Contentney, as far up as Snowhill or Stantonsburg, it deemed advisable,) to ascertain what are the principal impediments to the navigation of said rivers, and to apply the funds which may be raised, as her-inster pro-Pursuant to notice previous'v given, a pesed, in such way as may best effect such examinution and remove such impediments, and county and adjoining counties, convened that they have the power of appointing their dispensery.'

6 Resolved, That a subscription be forthwith opened to enable the said Commissioners to perform the duties confided to them and that Jno. Bryan, Esq. elected Secretary. The M. Roberts, John I Posteur, Thos. Watson, Joo. Chairman, in an animated and spirit-stir- T. Lane. Fred. P. Latham and John B. Dawson ring address, after explaining the object be appointed a Committee to invite subscriptions from our fellow-citizens not attending this meeting, to be paid over to said Treasurer:

7. Resolved, That copies of these resolution less parallel between the present depress- be transmitted forthwith to the committee of ed situation of this section of the State Correspondence, appointed by the late Convenand what it was only twenty three tion for the counties of Lenoir, Wayne, Johnyears ago. He reminded the meeting ston, Greene, I'm and Jones, and that they requested to have corresponding exertions made ston, Greene, Pitt and Jones, and that they be

8. Resolved, That the citizens of Lennir, our expense; Virginia on the north, and at Kinston, on the third Monday of September South-Carolina on the south, were tapping next, in order to confer freely together and to the springs of our prosperity, and when bring about concert of action on this subject of noggins, as it were.' all should be accomplished for their good, common interest and that John H. Bryan, John Washington, G. S. Attmore, John M. Bryan, John B. Dawson, W. C. Stanly he the delegates or taken into humble keeping. He called to represent this county in the said Convention. Resolved, That when this meeting adjourns,

Messrs. John H. Brvan and Manly, adwork ; the rich and the poor to contribute dressed the meeting upon the great imaccording to their ability; to let a spirit portance of doing something now, for the of harmony and union prevail, and thus, Internal Improvement of the State-that by "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull the spirit was abread, and unless Newaltogether," the great work might be ac bern now sustained herself, (for much back, as it were, to my gentility. complished, and the evils under which we was expected from her, and they had a labour, remedied. The Chairman then right to expect much from her) we must and your dispepsery too, if you'll follow efit of what he had already done. Besides fore him: The dark night is unto HIM a addressed the meeting upon the plan of in truth and fact "give up the ship." my advice. Internal Improvement, which was about They spoke much in detail, upon the to be submitted to them; assured them great internal resources of the State, her that although it contemplated an improve- vast products, the great spirit of emigrament of the Neuse River, &c. that the tion which had been produced by her deproject of a Rail-Road was by no means pressed condition, the languishing state abandoned; that if after the survey and of her commerce, and the apathy of her examination which the Resolutions con-citizens. They wished it distinctly untemplated, of the River, it should be derstood, that the Resolutions did not found that the Neuse was not susceptible contemplate, the abandonment of a Railof steam boat navigation, the plan would road—that the route lately surveyed by be abandoned; but that it deserved at the Engineer, passed through all the work, I've put my veto 'pon that long a- trees. I'll give it up for a bad job. I pallid flame in the profoundest hell. least an experiment, as it was a natural towns on the Neuse, and if a good and go. channel running through the heart of the available communication by means of country, capable of being improved at a Steamboats could be obtained from Newmuch less expense than would be neces- bern to either of those towns, or to any insary for the construction of a Rail-Road, termediate place, it was deemed most adand would not require frequent and ex- visable in our present situation, to begin tensive repairs. He informed the meet- the Rail-road there; if however, upon ing, that previous to the introduction of examination, this plan should be found steam boats on the Cape Fear river, the to be impracticable, then their sole reliance freight of a bale of Cotton from Fayette- would be upon the construction of a Railville to Wilmington, was one dollar, but road; that no definite action could be upon inquiry, he found that it was now had upon the matter, until the sitting of reduced to fifteen cents. He then allu- the district Convention at Kinston on and topped off with an apple-dumpling .- Work two hours more to day, and to- race of Ismael, in the fountain of pity. ded to our means of communication with the third Monday of September next, the ocean, and gave a cheering account to which place, they trusted the counties of the successful progress of the opera- enumerated would send full delegations.

On motion of Mr. W. C. Stanly: Resolved. That the proceedings of this meet troduced by Mr. John Washington, and ing be published in the newspapers of this

> On motion of Mr. Edward Stanly, Resolved, That the thinks of this meeting be

's deliberations. On motion of Mr. M. E. Maily,

Resolved. That the thanks of this meeting be endered to the Secretary, for the impartial monner in which he has discharged the duties

The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

Newbern Spectator.

SAM CROOKSHANK OR THE MEDICATED AXE.

Sam Crookshank was his mother's pride and his father's grief. Having no taste pepsia as bad as ever. Representatives from this State in Congress g - either for study or work, he commenced this character set upon him, the honest resided can best tell; and they aver, in 3. Resolved, That for the purpose of facilitating the homely language of the place that it eye chanced to meet with the following a course.

But the condition of a gentleman, however desirable it may be in several re- pulverize and mix them together .- er each day than he did the day before, is his Apostle. their main tributery streams- We have come to spects, is not entirely free from miseries Then bore a hole in the upper part of an sleeping soundly at night, and eating his Lift up your hands to the eternal, and annual contribution of One Bollar. this conclusion, first because at all events and and vexations. It is expensive without Whatestrother modes of communication may be being profitable; and is apt to produce envy without gaining respect. At least, but be immediately as well as permanently ben- such is the case in a country where the it is fit for use." clic al to all residing in their neighbourhood, & people mostly get their living by the sweat thus tend to the growth and improvement of our of their brow, or by some active businescommon market. Secondly, because there is or profession. But among other troubles did not so much admire. It was no other from a single hour's work. which gentility brings, is that very pre- than this-namely, to get up every morsudered fit for steam boat navigation to a point valent disease, called Dyspersia.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1833.

between the head of steam boat navigation, and ject farther than ever; his under lip, which through his whole frame, adding new life me in the articles." was naturally one of the rather pendent and vigor to his enervated constitution. 4. Resolved, That it be earnestly recommend- sort, now hung most lackadaisically down, ed to the County Courts of Craven, Lenoir, and his calliper legs, which were never gan to bow out if possible farther than e-pletree, with a look of contempt- what brought to labor again. mought that be?'

pepsery is, you're no gentleman.'

the farmer, but I should like to know only thing that'll cure me. what sort of a thing this is you call the

. Why, it is a kind of-a sort of complaint.

· Umph! so it appears.'

ail my life, until I become a gentleman. · It's a right down gentleman's comlaint then. But what is it like?" · Like! why, it's like to make a notomy of me, if I don't get better of it soon. . You'd make a monstrous pretty notomv, would'nt vou? But how does your gentility complaint feel ?'

Why, it makes me feel all over som- to cut down one of these trees, to say nomoral, had been made, and that other Wayne, Johnston, Greene, Pitt, and Jones be bercholy and down-in-the-mouth like, as thing of chopping and splitting it up .-States were aggrandizing themselves at invited to send delegates to meet delegates from if I'd lost all my friends. In short, Mr. And then what the deuce has the ingredithis county in a district Convention, to be held Whippletree, it's a kind of a sort of an ences in the axe-helve to do with the > no doubt,' said the farmer, pointing to his newsprint, and there's no disputing what the beloved; Omar the meek; Omri the head - at least it began there, but I can that says. cure your stomach for you, if that's all > body the promise of a thousand dollars in breath, and was obliged to slack away in The earth shall vanish before the decrees a minute that would free me from this order to recover his wind. He took spe- of his eternal destiny; but HE liveth and dreadful dispensery. It's the only draw- cial care, however, not to let go of his reigneth for ever.

returned Sam, pulling up his fal-e collar elevating the skin like puffpaste. about his ears - I like the life of a genthe plaguey dispepsery.' "Go to work, you lazy varmant."

cure his complaint. He ate largely of I sav. his mouth burnt like fire and his eyes watered again. At the same time he fed S-a-m! S-a-m! stir not an inch, if made his immutable decrees in eternal He also added a little whiskey to his morrow be here bright and early.' plaint worse and worse.

olicons, and the infallible specifics. He mustard.

Such was the substance of the Eastern recipe. But the manner of using it Sam ning before the sun, and use the axe-be-

Sam Crookshank proved that he had at ginning moderately at first, and increas- I cant smell the Camphire and the murleast one title to the character he had as- ing the exercise by degrees, until the heat rer, oozing through, as the newspaper said: ent ransportation by means of steam hoats, has sumed—he was wofully troubled with the produced by his hands should dissolve I'm sure I've het the axe-helve nearly red thirdly, because if it should be found that the dyspepsia. He grew pale and wan; his the mixture within the helve; which, hot every day for a month, and yet I can't gia, whose violent opposition to the re-Neuse cannot be made navigable for steam boots cheek bones, which had even been a most oozing through the wood, should enter the perceive the ingrediences come through chartering of the U.S. Bank, was only as high as we believe, the intermediate distance prominent part of his face, seemed to pro-taking the incdicine at all. He debated with himself for some days for his pains. what the torment ails you? You look in the medicine, as he had in all sorts of come through the axe-helve; yet, intas-· I-I've got the dispepsery!' replied farmer Whappletree, and the rest of his the virtue of the remedy had insensibly strictly in the manner prescribed, not neighborhood. omitting to set it in a warm place twenty- There is one thing, however, which four hours before using. His father took appears to him not a little mysterious, care that the instrument should be well and that is the voice from the hollow tree. · It's a kind of a-sort of a-as it were ground; and, that there should be no lack But some of his neighbors are thought to -a queer feeling, which I never felt in of materials to work upon, assigned him be wiser on that subject than he; and it is an acre of the primitive forest, thickly shrewdly suspected that Jack Whipplecovered with oaks, beeches and maples, tree, a waggish son of the farmer above

· Condemn it !' said Sam, as be reached the thick and lofty wood, 'this is a pretty business for a gentleman? By jumping Joseph, it's a good week's work anectation of the stomach and indigestible chopping, I should like to know. But, howsomever, as I said afore, that's nither | Soliman have slept with their fathers ; . This complaint is in your noggin I've here nor there, it's so set down in the Cadijah the first born of faith; Ayesha

Sam now pulled off his gentleman's coat, the, and the sent of God himself all died; and fell to. He worked according to the but God most high, God most holy, liveth 'Good!' exclaimed Sam, 'can you cure recipe, with a due degree of moderation for ever. Infinities are to him as the nu it though? . Pon my soul, I'd give any at first; nevertheless, he soon got out of merals of arithmetic to the sons of Adam. axe for a minute, lest the handle should | God ALONE IS OMNISCIENT! Michael. getting out of breath, his hands began to the rays of the morning; for HE noticeth

tlaman all out, if I could only get rid of down on a log to rest- this is a hard open air. medicine. I'd rather take three bushels | God ALONE IS OMNIPRESENT! HE touchof the bitterest roots and varbs that ever eth the immensity of space as a point . To work ! Oh no, Mr. Whippletree, grew. This work will kill me, as sure HE moveth in the depth of the ocean, and I could'nt think of that-could'nt 'pon as I live. I may as well die with the Atlas is hidden by the sole of his foot my soul. Any thing else that you'd pre- dispepsery, as to be cut off in the prime HE breatheth fragrant odours to cheer the never can endure these bloody blisters ; God ALONE IS OMNIPOTENT! HE thought, . Then I give you up, for one of the besides I am so tired I can scarcely stand and worlds were created: HE fromneth, Devil's incurables', returned the farmer, on my feet, let alone pegging-pegging, and they disolve into smoke: He smileth, into the trees like a rotten red-headed and the torments of the damned are sus Sam resorted to a variety of means to woodpecker. Good bye to the chopping pended. The thunderings of Herman are whom I give the same to them and their heirs and other sharp and powerful condiments axe, and was about quitting the wood, quake; and with the shadow of his gar--pushing them to such an extent, that when a deep voice came, as it were from ment he blotteth out the sun.

enormously on beef, cabbage, & turnips, you, the Devil will have you for certain. wisdom, HE tempered the miseries of the

not do. The strong condiments and the With that he turned back and fell to tine pillars of justice were softened by the whiskey, although they helped him to the chopping again. He continued until his beamings of his eyes. He dropped a tear destruction of no small quantity of beef, hands were nearly worn out, and his upon the embryo miseries of unborn man, cabbage, and other matters, did not in strength so exhausted that he could stand and that tear, falling through the immeasthe least aid his stomach in converting it no longer; when he again shouldered urable lapses of time, shall quench the those things into good chyle, for the sup- his axe, and without being farther molest- glowing flames of the bottomless pit .-tendered to the Chairman, for the oble and im- port and nourishment of his gentlemanty ed by the voice from the tree, dragged HE sent his prophet into the world to en partial manner, in which he has presided over person. On the contrary, they rather himself home. He slept soundly that lighten the darkness of the tribes, and 600 yards of Wake Forest Pleasant Grov, Acatended, in the end, to render his com- night, not being troubled in the least with hath prepared the pavilion of the Houris, dyspeptic dreams. His hands the next for the renose of the true believers. He next had recourse to all the root day were terribly sore, and he was lame | God ALONE IS JUST! HE chains the la-

even took a newspaper for the sole pur- He would fain, however, have declined suited his soul to future torment. He to purchase are invited to come and view the pose of reading the advertisements of new going to the wood; but the deep voice promulgated the ineffable creed; and the lands, as there will be a bargain sold so in and important medicines, and the certifi- was still ringing in his ears, and the De- germs of countless souls of believers, cates of wonderful cures done and per- vil seemed, in his heated imagination, which existed in the contemplation of the formed through the agency thereof. But ready to catch him. He once more, there- Deity, expand at the sound. His justice To the Members and Friends of after all, poor Sam-" Gentleman Sam" fore, took his medicated axe and repaired refresheth the faithful, while the damned as the neighbors called him-had the dys- to the forest. He continued longer than spirits confess it in despair. the day before; but so sore were his hands | GOD ALONE IS ONE! Ibrahim the faith-But though he most heartily hated all that every stroke he struck gave him ful knew it; Moses declared it amidst the nordly, be requested to use their influence and the character of gentleman. How well study and from his soul esche ed reading severe pain; and he was once or twice thundering Sinai; Jesus pronounced it; in general, he accidentally derived one on the point of giving the matter up, when and the messenger of God, the sword of people of the neighborhood in which he advantage from taking a newspaper. In the same deep voice from the hollow tree his vengeance, filled the world with that as soon as possible, post paid, to the Subscriber looking, as usual, for infallible cures, his again warned him of the danger of such immutable truth.

this has stood 24 hours in a warm place, ened to work, and his whole frame so ET IS HIS PROPHET. strengthened that he could labor from morning to night without feeling half as much fatigue as he endured the first day

> But what a plague is the reason, said he, applying his nose to the axe-helve,

A murgain take the nork! said Sam. apothecary for putting him on with bad ter, the had, at any time been accommoif it 'twasn't for that. I should nt mind medicines, when the latter threw his dated by that Bank with loans, has found pestle at his head, and called him a fool it necessary to come out in the public pa-

means to take it; and so, likewise, did the instrument, he finally concluded that whole system. · If I could only git the ingrediences. He did not, however, relax his endeav-. What mought it be?' returned Sam- into the pores of my hand without chop- ors, nor lay aside the medicated axe, un-Why, if you don't know what the dis- joing for it, said Sam. I shouldn't care. til his acre of woodland was completely But howsomever, work, or no work, I chopped, and his dyspepsia most tho-· I hope not, in all conscience,' replied must take it, for I'm persuaded it's the roughly cured. He was also cured of his gentlemanly pretentions; and is now one He accordingly prepared him an axe of the most industrious young men in the

to be cut down and wrought into fire mentioned, knows more about the voice than he who heard it.

MAHOMETAN SERMON.

In ev'ry clime adored, By saint, by savage, and by sage, Jehovah, Jove, or Lord."

GOD ALONE IS IMMORTAL! Ibrahim and benevolent : the companions of the Apos-

· I'll cure you of both, your gentility cool, and thereby he should lose the ben- whose wings are full of eyes, is blind be-· Could'nt think of it no how at all,'- get sore, and numerous blisters were seen the creeping of the small pismire, in the dark night, upon the black stone, and ap-. Consarn it all, said Sam, as he sat prehendeth the motion of an atom in the scribe, in reason, I'll take. But as for of my days by chopping these infernal big blessed in paradisc, and enliveneth the the whisperings of his voice; the rustling mustard, cayenne pepper, horse-radish, As Sam said this, he shouldered his of his attire causeth lightning and earth-

When he laid, the foundations of the meals, by way of corrective to the sad . What ! exclaimed Sam, if the trees world, HE cast a look of benevolence in condition of his stomach. But it all would begin to talk, it's time to look about me. to the abyses of futurity, and the adaman-doctors and doctresses, within fifty miles. in almost every joint; but his appetite tent cause to the distant event, and binds Fills of Neuse, near the Fills Rand, that con-He took likewise all the patent medicines was greatly improved, and he was able them both immutably fast to the fitness of tains 183 Acres, with a small Dwelling-House he could hear of-the panaceas, the cath- to eat his meat without either pepper or things. HE decreed the unbeliever to and some other Out-houses; and as to the situwander amid the whirlwind of error, and ation for Health and Society in this neighbor-

Surely there is ONE GOD IMMORTAL In short, Sain Crookshank repaired to OMNISCIENT, OMNIPRESENT, OMNIPOTENT .. Take 1 oz. camphor, 1 oz. Myrrh- the wood daily-working longer and hard Most MERCIFUL and JUST, and MAHOMET axe helve, sufficient to contain the mix- meals with a constantly increasing appe- pronounce the ineffable, adorable creed: ture, which put in and stop close. When tite. His hands by degrees became hard- THERE IS ONE GOD, AND MAHOM-

HADLOCK'S VEGETABLE POWDER,

For sale by J. GALES & SON.

" YOUR BULL GORED MY OX

NO. 42

he imputed corrupt motives to the princi-Full of this idea, he went to scold the pal advocates of the renewal of that charpers, to vindicate himself from a charge. what to resolve upon. Though he dislik- But though Sam could not perceive by industriously circulated against him. of Sam, said the wondering neighbors, ed the mode of taking it, he had full faith any outward signs that the medicine had having been bought up by the Bank, found the logs and other bars in them, to be taken as for all the world as ghastly and we begone recipes. His father advised him by all much as he daily grew better by handling evidence upon which he relied to fix that same charge upon others-to wit, that the Bank had loaned him a large sum of moacquaintance. The neighbors wished, entered the pores of his hand, and with- nev. Judge Clayton, after giving a detail . The dispensery !' said farmer Whip- above all things, to see 'Gentleman Sam' out his knowledge diffused itself over the of the circumstances which rendered an application to the Bank necessary, asserts that he is innocent of any corrupt bargaining with that institution—that when he made the application for the loan, it was accompanied with no intimation that his opinion had undergone any chang -and that he is still as decidedly opposed to it as he has ever been. The Judg may he taught two things by his own case-1st. that those against whom he has preferred the charge of corruption may be as innocent as himself, against whom others made the same charge, deduced from the same facts-and 2dly, that the Bank will accommodate its enemies as readily as its friends, in the regular course of business. provided it have substantial security for the safety of its funds. We hope he may learn a lesson of charity from this circumstance-a virtue in which he seems sadly deficient. - Lynchburg Virg.

Office of Commissioner in Equity. Georgia, Richmond County. Between Grace Rowell, Complainant, Valentine Walker and Geo. I. Twiggs, surviving Evecutors of Edward H well, deceased ; Vilentine Walker and George L. Twiggs, Executors of Howell R. Marshall, deceased, Mary Rowell. Elizabeth Foreman, Name. Rowell, Milly Rowell, Sarah Howell, Benjamin Rowell, Hannah Rowell, Peggy Rowell, William Rowell and Edwar I Rowell, (children of William Rowell,) Eliza Williamson, Catharine Rowell, Sarah Rowell, Randolph Rowell, Mary Rowell, Dorcas Rowell, Jane Rowell (children of Benjamin Rowell) Mary Davies, Benjamin Strange, Patsey Foreman, Randolph Strange, Edward Strange, Hubbard Strange, (children of Charlotte Strange, formerly Charlotte Rowell) Elizabeth Sibley, Mary Westbrook, R. becca Jackson (children of B-niamin Marshall and Nancy Rowell) Lucy Bill, John Stiniy, James Stanly, Jun. John Horson and Elizabeth Morton, his wife, Jesse Westbrook and his wife, Susannah Westbrook, William Coombs and his wife, Winifred Coombs and Nathaniel Stanly (children of Winifred Westbrook,) Defendants. Bill for Discovery and Relief.

IN this case, the Court having decre-d to the Complainant one moiety of the Estate of the l'est tor, and that auditors be appointed to settle the several sums due the residuary legatees. under the fourth claus- of the Will, which is in the following words: " My will and desire is, that my Executors do sell all the rest and resihie of my estate, whether real or personal, and hat the proceeds of the same be equally divided hare and share alike between and among all . the children of my half brothers and sisters, to

NOTICE is therefore given, that all persons int rested under said clause, in the Testator's Will, are required to produce before me evidence of their interest and of their identity as children of the half brothers and sisters of the testator, on or before the first Monday in Janu ry next, at which time, the Audi ors will proceed to settle and determine upon their rights according to the decree.

SAMUEL M. JACKSON.

Master in Equity.

WAKE-FOREST LAND FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber being desirous to move to the West, offers for sale his Plantation whereon he now I ves, situated in the county of Wake, twelve miles north of Rabigh, on the Powell Road, leading from Raleigh to Lewisburg, and on the waters of Neuse River, within demy. Tois Tract of Land contains Four Hundred and Twenty-seven teres, with a wo story Dwelling House, and other Out houses .-He has one other Tract, within one mile of the hood, it is interior to noue. Persons wishing WM. B. DUNN.

August 20, 1833. the North-Carolina Institute of Education.

THE Funds of the Institute having been exhausted by the Publications of the last year. it is particularly requested, that those indebted for a year's Subscription will forward . He amount at Chapel-Hill. The number of members not being sufficient to defray the expenses of the publications of the present year, any persons friendly to the objects of the Institute, would aid those objects by becoming momers, which they can do by forwarding to the Treasurer an

By order of the Ex-curve Committee. WALTER A. NORWOOD, Treas. August 18, 1833. 41 3w. TEd.t is friendly to the cruse of Education broughout the State, are requested to in ert the above a few times.

> BLANKS OF ALL KINDS For Sale at this Office.