REGISTE AND NORTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE.

"OURS ARE THE PLANS OF FAIR DELIGHTFUL PEACE, UNWARP'IL BY PARTY RAGE, TO LIVE LIKE BROTHERS"

VOLUME XXXIV.

TUESDAY, SEP FEMBER 10, 1833.

THE REGISTER IS PUBLISHED EVERT TUESDAY, By Joseph Gales & Son, Raleigh, North-Carolina.

TERMS.

THERE DOLLARS perannum; one halt in advance. consider me a man of honor." Those who do not, eitherat the time of sub-

ADVERTISE MENTS.

out, and charged accordingly.

THE SURGEON OF CALAIS. Translated from the French.

the pistol, and took deliberate aim at the In the fall of 1782, a surgeon of Calais knee joint. Thevenet rushed to prevent named Louis Thevenet, received an in- him. " Approach not," exclaimed the vitation in writing, but without signature Englishman, coolly, ... if you do, I fire .--to repair next day to a country house on Now only answer me this question, do the road to Bairs, and to bring with him you wish to increase or prolong my sufferthe instruments necessary for an amputa- lings needlessly ?" tion. Thevenet was at that time well "Sir, you are mad: but your will be known as a distinguished operator; so done, I am ready to obey you." All was soon ready for the operation.

much so indeed, that he was frequently sent for from the other side of the chan- As soon as the surgeon took his instrunel, to make a display of his talents. He ments, the Englishman lit his pipe, and had served a long time in the army and swore he would swoke 'till it was all over. his manners had some degree of military He kept his word. The lifeless leg reyou loved him for the natural goodness of smoked.

Thevenet performed the amputation in fore the fire with a bottle of wine before his heart. Thevenet was surprised at this anony- a masterly manner. Thanks to his skill, him, sat a portly personage, his obesity mous note ; the time and place were men- in a short time, the patient was perfectly was so great he could hardly rise. tioned with the greatest exactness, but as well. He rewarded his surgeon, whom already mentioned, there was no signa- he esteemed more and more every day ; ture. He was apprehensive some one thanked him with tears in his eyes for the than Sir Charles Temple. "Be not of- from New-York on Long-Island, we have was amusing himself at his expense, and loss of his limb; and sailed for England fended, I receive you thus, but my cursed been surprise I at the instances related to did not keep the appointment. with a wooden leg.

" How so sir."

will bet you sir, that then you will say ; "Notwithstanding all this, allow me! The Cotton Seed Oil has many advantathat my reasons for this seemingly extra- to adhere to my old opinion. For the ges over ot er oils. It is said to be prevagant conduct, were most noble. present doubtless you are right for you ferable to I aseed oil for paints, and to " It is impossible for me to comply, are now in the honey moon ; but at some be a superi r lamp oil, being freer from unless you tell me your name, place of future time you will assent to the truth of smoke and Smell than the best now in abode, rank and family." what I advanced. use. In cleansing metals, tortoise-shell "You shall know all that at some fu-"I beg your attention to what I am a- &c. it is unit whiled, and the gentleman ture time, but not now. I beg of you to bout to say, sir! I fear that in two years on whose authority we make these stateyou will repeat of having had your leg ments, Mr. Clayton, says that, "when "A man of honor threatens not his sur- amputated above the knee joint. You fresh, it can be used in bread, for the same merly ow ied an loccupied by Mr. Rossar Pau scribing, or subsequently, give notice of their geon pistol in hand. I have my duty to will think to have had it cut off lower purpose, and with as good an effect as wishtohave the Paper discontinued at the ex perform, even towards you who are a stran- down would have been sufficient. In three lard, having nothing offensive in smell or of Custom; and she fitters herself that by piration of their year, will be presumed as de- ger to me ; my reasons for refusal are you will be persuaded that the sacrifice of taste, the latter resembling that of the her constant attention to it, she will receive a siring its continuance until countermanded. Sound. Do you wish to be the murderer a foot would have answered all purposes ; bickory nut."-From the same source we of an innocent father of a family ?-fire!" in four that of the big toe; in five that of learn, that & very superior machine has "Well, Mr. Thevenet," said the En- the little toe; and at last you will contiss been invented for the purpose of separat-Not exceeding sixteen lines, will be inserted glishman, taking the pistol, .. I will not that to have parted with a noil without ne- ing the lint and halls of the seed from the best that the market affords. Her ROOMS are three times for a Dollar; and twenty-five cents fire upon you, and yet I will compel you cessity was egregious folly.

greater length, in the same proportion. If through kindness to me, through love of est degree impugning the merit of your plete oil-press, will not cost over $1000. Stall also be provided. the number of insertions be not marked on gain, or fear of a bullet, you shall do thro' admirable helpmate. In my youth I We earnestly hope that some of our neigh- up, she feels assured that it will present as con-my mistress, but never my leg, for I be induced to establish a press in this ty. " I intend to fracture my leg with this should have feared repentance for the rest place. The gins in the vicinity will sup-pistol, and that under your very eyes." of my days. Had I really done so, I ply vast quantities of seed at a fair price, The Englishman seated himself, cocked should every moment have said to myself and if success attend the experiment. . Thevenet you are a madman !?

" I have the bonor of being, sir.

"Your very obedient servant, G. THEVENET."

THE REPENTANCE.

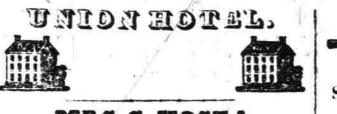

terror, the surgeon of Calais, accased of being an aristocrat by one of his younger prethren who eavied him his practice, serve his neck from the guillotine.

Temple. It was pointed out to him, he bluntness, but once acquainted with him, posed upon the floor, and the Briton still sent up his name, and was immediately admitted. In a huge arm chair seated be-others will be more easily induced to follow our example. The large amount which passes annually out of the State for the purchase of oils would thus be kept at home, or extended for other articles of In the year 1793, during the reign of necessity which we cannot manufacture. Estimatin four manual cotton crops at 50,000 bales, and taking the above facts for the basis of calculation, the cotton FTHE SUBSCRIBER, thankful for the liberal

gia. - Newbern Spectator.

MRS. C. HOSEA

STAVING become the Proprietress of the above named ESTABLISHMENT, (forar,) begs l-ave respectfully to inform the Public. (liber A support. No efforts on her part shall be spired to render the Accon nol dion suisfacto. ry to such as may favor her wit i their Company kernels. This, together with the press next & commolions; and her Sl'ABLES well for each subsequent publication : those of to cut this leg off. What you will not do "All this I assert without in the slight- and other necessary apparatus for a com- supplied with Provender. Attentive Ostlers would at any time have given my life for bors here will investigate the matter, and fortable accommodation as any House in the Ci-

was obliged to escape to London, to pre- seed alone is worth to the State upwards | patronage which has been extended to the of half a million of dollars per annum. If CITY HOTEL, while under his Superinten !- MIE Subscriber has feft Raleigh on a C dlect-Without employment or acquaintance, farmers were once convinced, by actual ance, begs leave respectfully to inform his, I mg tour through the greater part of the friends and the public, that he has taken a fresh Wes . n. North-western and Northern Counties he enquired the residence of Sir Charles experience, that such is the fact, in a ve- lease of the ESTABLISHMENT, and is pre- of North-Corolina, and is prepared to exchange ry few years our exports of cotton would pared to accommo late all who may favor him for CASH, Accounts due the following Offices, vie with those of South-Carolina & Geor- with a call. Flattering hims if with the belief viz: National Intelligencer, Globe, American that he has heretofore given satisfaction to his Farmer, Raleigh Register, Star, Constitutionalcustomers generally, he thinks it only necessarist, &c. &c. As money is very requisite to sus-

NO. 41.

a few doors east of the Market House, in the City of R.deigh,

SEVENTY PACKAGES OF SHOES,

Containing between five and six thousand Pair : of which, 13)) are Ladies' Shors, made to order in Phladelphia. Among these my be found End I ned Dress Slippers--- E ench Morocco do Kid Straps and Village tits do. Prunelle and Lasting, of every kind, Gater Boo's &c.

Also, 300 Pair of BOOTS, from $2 53 to $7. Patent India Rubber Shoes, with soals, lined and bound.

do Common Boy's. Misses' and children's Shoes, of every description. Brogans and Negro Shoes, of various gua lities. HATS, of every kind, and at various prices. Calf, Seal, Lining and Morocco SEIN S.

Having purchased these Goods in the best markets, and on the most favor ble tering, the Subscribe: flatters himself that he will be able to give entire satisfaction to his customers.

JAMES NEWLON. Rileigh, Sept. 2, 1833. 43 4 & 3L

N. B. Country Shoemakers will find it to their dvantage to chil an I examine his Stock, where they can at all times procure every variety of FINDINGS.

Cash Wanted in Exchange.

ry to assure them, that no exertions will be tain the lives and spirits of the Printer, it is hoomitted to sustain the reputation of his House. ped that every one for whose particular notice this advertisement is inserted, will begin immediately to look up his receipts, and have his money in readiness, in order that there may be no delay, and that the meeting may be mutually agreeable.

Three days afterwards he received a similar summons, but couched in more pressing terms than the first, and he was told that at nine the next morning a carriage would be sent to bring him to the place where he was anxiously expected. the door. Thevenet hesitated no longer, and seated himself in the carriage.

As he was getting in, he asked the coachman where he intended to take him? concerned for."

"So it is an Englishman," said Thevenet to himself as they drove off. The carriage at last stopped. .. Who lives here? who is the patient I am to visit ?" again asked Thevenet as he got-out ; he received the same reply from the coachman, and the impatient surgeon hastened into the house.

He was received at the entrance by a fine looking young man about twenty-eight vears of age, who ushered him into a large and handsome room in the upper story. His accent declared him English. Theyenet was able to converse with him in the language of his own country, and the following dialogue ensued between them. "You have sent for me sir!" said the surgeon.

" I am extremely obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in coming here,' answered the Briton. "Be so good as to seat yourself at this table, you will find eternal celibacy. chocolate, coffee, or wine, in case you should like to take any thing before commencing the operation."

"First show me the patient ; I wish to be satisfied that an operation is necessa

. It is necessary, Mr. Thevenet ; pray be seated; I have entire confidence in you, only listen to me. Here is a purse containing one hundred guineas, I offer it you as the fee for the operation you will perform, whatever the result may be. In case you refuse compliance with my wishes, you see this pistol, it is loaded and you are in my power. As I hope for sal vation I will blow your brains out !"

"Sir, I have no fear of your pistol ; but what do you wish ? speak without preface! what am I to do ?"

"You must cut my right leg off!" " With all my heart, and your head too if necessary. However, unless I am much 40 INL . mistaken, your limb is perfectly sound. circulation of air whic, the extent of the Estab-Come to London, stay with us, become cent. A thousand pounds of seed cotton is, why, there is positively nothing in the saw you trip down stairs with all the 1-shment insures to its apartments, renders it a LAND FOR SALE. acquainted with my charming Emily, and will yield about 250 pounds for market ; least ridiculous about him. The whole activity imaginable. What can the matvery desirable residence. The Dining & Coff.e then say whether or not I was mad! the average price in this State, for a num- world has been upon the grin for 6000 Rooms are spacious and pleasantly situated, ter be with your leg ?" CHARLES TEMPLE." ber of years, may be estimated at ten dol- years about one particular branch of genthe Sleeping Rooms airy and comfortable. In THE Undersigned has a good little Parm on Black Creek, in the County of Rindolph. "Nothing: but it must come off." The surgeon answered the letter of his lars a hundred, and at this rate the oil a- eral employment; and if the world were addition to the other range of accommodations, lone is worth half as much as the collon ! seriously questioned as to the source of he has added a splentid Enting Room on the 43 miles from Ashboro', containing 220 Acres : "Sir, you are mad !" "That's no concern of yours, Mr. English friend in the following terms: European plan, where Breakfast will be sorved on which is a Saw Mill, nearly new, and 50 or "Sir-I thank you for your generous But the seed is yet more profitable than amusement, I verily believe that not a up from 7 to 10 o'clock, and Dinner from 11 to 5. 60 acres under cultivation Also, 134 Acres of Thevenet." "Whatharm could that handsome limb present; for so I must term what you this. The cake from which the oil is ex- single individual could give the least ex-All G-atlemen putting up at the United States Pine Land quite convenient, which he offers tor sent me, having been already magnificent- tracted is said to be very superior food planation. The truth is, the laughter at note, can have Dinner any hour they please, sale, and will give immediate possession. On "None: still you must make up your ly paid for my trouble as you were pleas. for cattle and hogs, and commands a dol- tailors is an entire delusion. While the whout any additional charge. The Cellars are this farm 3 or 4 hands can be worked to adhave done ?" lar a hundred weight. Every thousand world laughs, the artists themselves make always well stocked with the very best Liquors vantage. I wish you, as well as your charming pounds of rough cotton, or in other words, riches, and than laugh in their turn-with every delicacy of the New-York, Puiladelphia mind to amputate it !?? ed to term it. Aug st 26, 1833. , 43 in "Sir, I have no acquaintance with you, give me some proof that you are in your wife, all imaginable happiness. True it every twenty-five bushels of seed, yield, this difference-they laugh with a cause. HADLOCK'S is that to give a leg in exchange for a beau- it is said, upwards of three hundred pounds I am almost tempted to suspect that the Grateful for the liberal patronage already relight wind." of this cake. The price of this added to tailors themse wes are at the bottom of ceived, the Proprietor will be ever ready to me-"Will you consent to my wishes, Mr. Liful, tender and virtuous wile is not too rit its continuance and ex ension, in confident VEGETABLE POWDER, much, if happiness only lasts. Adam that of the oil, amounts to fifteen dollars this plot of rificule, in order that they inticipation of which, he pledges himself to use Thevenet ?" on every thousand pounds of seed collon. - may have the less competition, and the his z-alons exertions for the comfort of his For sile by J. GALES & SON. "As soon as you can assign any rea- sacrificed one of his ribs, to become possecond of our general mother, and more What can we say to farmers who neglect higher wages ; for again, I positively say, PATRONS. soughle motive for the mutitation." BLANKS OF ALL KINDS "I cannot now enter into any explana- than one man has laid down his life for their interest so far as to cast from them I cannot see i that there is about the busi-Terms very moderate: T. B. REDMOND. For Sale at this Olice, this noble reward of their toil and anxiety? laess to be law hed at - Montreal Mar. in a year perhaps I will. But I his mistress. 45 1m 1st Mar, 1833.

UNEQUALLED LOVE.

About two months after his patient's departure the surgeon received the following letter from England:

" Inclosed you will receive a token of You have made me the happiest of men by ridding me of a limb which was an obstacle to my felicity.

" Learn now the reasons of what you termed my madness. You asserted there gular a mutilation. " I offered you a wager fort me."

and think you were right in refusing it. "After my second return from the West Indies, I became acquainted with Emily Hartley, the most accomplished of women.

were agreeable to my parents; as for me I thought only of her heavenly charms -Ah! my dear Thevenet, I was soon happy enough to gain her affection, she sought not to conceal it, but still obstinately refused to make me blessed. In vain did I beseech her to accept my hand ; in vain did her relations and friends second my part with the paring of a single nail! be- lost by drenching of rain, excessive ferrequest ; she was inflexible.

"For a long time I could not discover but keep that to yourself." the reason for her repugnance to a marriage which she herseit confessed would make her happy; one of her sisters at last revealed the fatal secret to me. Miss to you, my dear Theyenet, my wishes were have been unattended to, and this valua- convenience and pleasure of the human accomplished!

friends in England that I had fractured another attempt to induce our agricultu- one, which to say the least of it, eminent- E.quirer, and Norfolk Heraldr

Emily!

MANURE IS WEALTH.

In our intercourse with some of the far-"Ah welcome, Mr. Thevenet!" cried the huge Englishman, who was no other mers resid it within forty or fifty miles leg will not allow me to do any thing. - us of the provtableness of farming Some You have come no doubt, my friend, to farmers known to have labored and toiled see if in the long run you were not right." hard have co tinued yearly to fall in ar-"I am a fugitive seeking an asylum a- rears until t ey have commenced buying manure. Firfy-six cents are given per mong you."

"You shall stay with us for you really carman load it the landing, for the appa-Next day in effect, on the last stroke of my boundless gratitude, a bill of exchange are a wise man. You will console me; rent worthles, dirt swept from the street. nine, an elegant calash drew up before on my banker at Paris for 250 guineas. do you know, my dear Thevenet that I This applied it the rate of twenty loads should be Admiral of the Blue, had not produces weath. The very farmers who this abominable wooden leg made me use- could not obtain a living by using only LISHMENT will be furnished in a neat and taless to my country. I spend my life in manure made on their farms, have, in a reading the newspapers, and in curses very few years, not only freed their farms that I am no where when every body else from incumbrances, but purchased others verb: "Things unknown to me, I am not could be no justifiable motive for so sin- is acting. Remain here, you shall com- in addition, and are now, from the yearly Norfolk (and if necessary, from the Northern

> "Your charming wife can doubtless do at interest. If then it is found so profitthat better than me."

"Oh! as for that, no. Her wooden leg expenses attending the carting, how very prevents her from gadding about and dan- important it is to give special attention I sought her hand, her fortune and family cing, so she has given herself up to cards to increasing the quantity and improving and scandal. There is no possibility of the quality of that made on the farm .-living with her ; in other respects, she is There is no question but that almost evea good euough woman."

" What! I was right then ?"

net; but silence on that subject, I was a too, that at least fifty per cent. of the fool. Had I my leg again I would not nutritive properties of vard manure are twixt ourselves I must have been crazy, mentations, and injudicious, application

COTTON SEED OIL.

object in farming. - N. F. Farmer. Among the many sources of wealth which our State offers to industry and enterprise, Hartley was a miracle of beauty, but was most of which we unaccountably & blame- which astonis ed me when I first opened so unfortunate as to have but one leg; she ably overlook or neglect, may be ranked my eyes upon it, and which I have never had in consequence condemned herself to the one which we name at the commence- since been ab e to understand. One of ment of these remarks. We have fre- these is the popular ridicule about the bu-

"My resolution was soon formed. I quently called the attention of our read- siness of a tailor. The arts and crafts determined to become like her. Thanks ers to this subject, but so far our calls all refer alike jo one grand object, the ble seed is suffered to rot on the fields or race ; and though there may be some "I returned with my wooden leg to farm-yards. A late publication which we shades of comparative dignity among

London. I hastened to gain intelligence have seen on the subject, and which con- them, I must profess I never could see of Miss Hartley; the report had been tains more information than had previous- any grounds, either in reason or jest, for spread and I myself had written to my ly come before us, encourages us to make the peculiar contempt thrown out upon Coarier, Petersburg Litelligencer, Richmond my leg by a fail from my horse, and that ral friends to convert this now compara- ly conduces to the comfort of man. amputation had been pecessary. I was tively useless article to a profitable and joke is a joke, to be sure; but then it generally pitied. Emily fainted the first saleable product. The following is the should be a real joke. It should have 178 & 180 Pourl Street an 1138 Water St. time she saw me; she was for a long time substance of the publication to which we some bottom in the principle of ridicuinconsolable, and at last consented to allude. Every thousand weight of seed lous contrast, or else it cannot be what it marry me. It was only on the morning cotton produces twenty-five bushels of pretends to be, and must consequently after our union that I confessed to her the seed, from which half a gallon per bushel, fall to the ground. Now, it strikes me, Thevenet, had I ten legs to lose, I would from ten to twelve perscent, higher than humbug-a mith without the least foun-

give them all up without a sigh for my linseed oil, say at one dollar a gallon .- dation in nature ; for, if we divest our-Here is at once an increase to the income selves of all recollection of traditionary

About 40 Members of the ensuing Legislature can be accommodated with Board.

EDWARD RIGSBEE. Ralaigh, August 15, 1833 41 tf.

BLAKELY, N. C. End of Petersburg Rail-Road, Roanoke.

WILL be opened by the Sub-criber in Sep-tember. This new and splendid ESTAB-EARTHENWARE, CHINA, GLASS shionable manner, with new Furniture, and every other necessary and comfort requisite for travellers and genteel company. The ease and facilities of good marketing from Petersburg, profits of their farms, putting money out [Ciries] by Cars, &c. and the wealth and plenty of this neighborhood, together with the advanta ges of the products of the rich Valley of our able to buy manure, and be at the various Roanoke, induces him to say, no location can be better supplied. And he feels assured, that he has acquired a reputation and knowledge in the misiness, from having conducted for a long time, large and similar Establishments in this State and the West, that will ensure him success. He respectfully refers to the Advertisement of the ry farmer can double the quantity of his Petersburg R il Road Company for the facilities domestic or yird manure without scarce- afforded Travellers. Three Stages and Accom "Oh! a thousand times, my dear Theve- Iy any additional expense. It is thought modation Coaches will leave Blakely every day, me for Favetteville with the great Southern mail, and two to, and by Warrenton, going South and West. All gentlemen who are disposed to take the Rul Roud at Blakely, may depend on having their Horses well taken care of, and their Gigs and Carriages put und ir good shelter and to soil. The more we consider this subhouses built expressiv. New Roads and sale ject, the greater does it become in impor-Farry Boats are establishing and will be in full tance, and jus ly regarded as the primary operation in a few days. L'quors and Wines, ill hid in from the oldest makers and importers. the Houses, Mint beds, and Sturgeon pens, are erecting, and will be in readiness. In fact, no-

There are ome things in this world thing shall be wanting as far as his limited means will go, to meet the satisfaction and comfort of all genteel company.

ROBT. PANSOM & CO. Blakely, N. C. August 24, 1833. (17 The following papers will insert the forecoing Advertisement weekly for one mosth, and forward their bill for the some to me, at Blokely, Northampton county, viz. R deigh Star and Constatutionalist, Carolina Watchmon, Oxford Exami ier, Greensboro' Patro', Fayett ville Observer, North-Girolina Journal, Tarborough Press, Warrenton Reporter, Rounoke Advicite, Mil-

UNITED STATES H) LEL between Wall St. and Willen Line, sacrifice by which I had become possess- or twelve and a half gallons of superior that all the miggering which there is ed the above ESTABLISHMENT, which he able School where the same bruches are taught, ed of her. This avowal increased the in- oil can be made, which will sell in the about tailors, ince the beginning of the has newly furnished and put in complete or ler and a second one in this. It is understood, tensity of her love. Oh my excellent New-York and Philadelphia markets at world, has been quite in vain-perfect for the reception of Boarders, Merchants and however, that those Students who have already Trivellers.

The situation of the United States Hotel pre- land, shall be entitled to the privilege of Gradusents peculiar advantages to Merchants and ation under the form r regulations. Traveliers, being within a minite's walk of the

"Whilst I live, rely upon my gratitude. of the planter of from forty to fifty per ridicule, and think of a tailor as he really Banks, Exchange and Pub ic Offices. The free Baltimore, Aug. 1, 1833.

WILLIAM H. WILLIAMS. Raleigh, August 26, 1833.

P. S. The Subscriber is also Agent for Mo RAE's Map of North Carolina, Farmer's Register, Reprint of Blackwood, Metropolitan, and Foreign Quarterly Review, besides a number of Religious, Political and Literary Periodicals .--During his absence, all letters addressed to the care of Messrs. Gales & Son, for him, will, if

AND LOOKING GLASSE?.

T.J. BARROW & CO.

IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS,

No. 88 Water St. New York, IN THE ABOVE GOODS.

DESPECTFULLY invite the attention of their I friends, and the Southern Merchants generally, to their Splendid Stock of WARE, just received by the late arrivals, comprising every variety of FANCY AND STAPLE GOODS, which they are enabled to offer on the most liberal and accommodating terms. LOOKING GLASSES of every description constantly on Particular attention will be given to Packing nd forwarding in the most careful manner, and purchasers may rely on receiving their goods in good or ler.

All orders by lett-r punctually attended to T. J. BARROW & CO. No. 88 Water St. N Y. August 10, 1833. 42-$3

University of Maryland.

THE LECTURES in the Medical Department a of this Institution, will commence on the list Monday of October, and continue until the irst of March.

> NATHANIEL POTTER, M. D. Pathnlogy and the Practice of Medicine. RICHARD WILMOT HALL, M D. Obstetrics and the diseases of Women and Children. NATHAN R. SMITH, M. D. Surgery. JULIUS T. DUCATEL, M D. Chemistry and Pharmacy. E. GEDDINGS, M. D.

Anatomy and Physiology. ROBLEY DUNGLISON, M. D. Materi , Medica, Therapeutics. Hyriene, and Medical Jurispru lence.

CLIVICAL LECTUR swill be given at the Bilmore Infirmary, by the Professors of the Pracice of M dicine and Surgery.

According to a recent enastment of the Board of Trustees, conductes for the degree of Doc. tor of Melicine, are required to atten I two full T. B. REDMOND, respectfully informs his courses of the Lectures of each Professor of this institution, or one full course in some respectstten led one course in the University of Miry.

E. GEDDINGS, M. D. Dean,

NEW-YORK.

RTAJOWS HOLER