"OURS ARE THE PLANS OF FAIR DELIGHTFUL PEACE, UNWARP'D BY PARTY RAGE, TO LIVE LIKE BROTHERS"

THE REGISTER IS PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY,

By Joseph Gales & Son, Raleigh, North-Carolina.

TERMS.

Tener Doctars peramum; one half in advance-Those who do not, either at the time of subscribing, or subsequently, give notice of their wishtohave the Paper discontinued at the exo'ration of their year, will be presumed as desiring its continuance until countermanded.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Not exceeding surteen lines, will be inserted three times for a Dollar; and twenty-five cents for each subsequent publication: those of greater length, in the same proportion. If the number of insertions be not marked on them they will be continued until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

THE BASHFUL MAN.

Let him who has never suffered from the hor rors of bashfulness, pass by this article. He will find here nothing with which he can symnathize. But he who knows the exquisite miserv of a temperament, whose very nature almost shuts him out from human sympathe, while it opens upon him the full sluices of laughter and ridicule, he only should read, for he only can understand, this chapter of my sufferings. To all others it will be only a scaled fountain ; and as they pass by it in the proud conscious ness of the unspeakable blessing of impudence, let them thank heaven that its waters can never flow from them.

As my object is but to give a specimen of the numerous contretemps that incessantly be set me. the moment I appear in ladies' society, I shall merely speak of those that befel me at the only dinner in Paris to which I was invited .-Though laden with introductory letters, I never

I pass by the various efforts I made, before 1 could muster sufficient resolution to deliver to Madame O' the one that procured for me, and a friend who came with me, the dinner in question. I pass by, too, my trepidation at the everlasting peal which the hell responded to my timid touch. Scarcely could I distinguish the Parlez an misse, over the porter's ledge where probably Swiss never stood since its creation. I pass by too, several minor blunders; such as asking the porter to direct us to 'la chambre de madame,' meaning her drawing room. Suffice it to say, that my less nervous companion, dictionary in hand, boldly led the way; that having raversed a goodly number of courts and stairs, we at length arrived safely at an ante-room, where stood a servant before a pair of folding doors, which he threw wide open and announced us by a pair of names that we should never have recognized as our own, had we met them

Already agitated and perspiring with nervous trepidation, this ostentations mode of entrance. so different from the republican simplicity to which I was accustomed, was a formidable trial to me, my cheeks tingled, my knees trembled, and my heart beat violently. I sunk silently behind my unabashed companion, and endeavored to gather sufficient courage to conceal the tremor that shook me like an ague fit. Madame O. received us; and, as we approached her, it became neeessary that I should deploye from behind my friend. But in so doing, I did beside his mistress, directly in my path. On I went, anxious only to get through the introduc-

'The world forgetting, by the world forgot,' hind legs. To save himself, he instinctively my pocket. grasped the back of her chair; and his weight filled the apartment. Happily the female suf- in seeking his own hat, to look into mine. ferer in this melee, engrossed all the sympathy and attention of the company; but I well knew, enemies, of a man, a dog and a lady.

For my own part, as soon as I had extricated ming up herarm. myself from the terrible crash, covered with confusion and shame, I retres ed into the most a terrified tone. obscure corner of the room, where I sought to

The call to dinner served as a relief to my embarrassment, for I hoped that that would engross every one's attention, which now I could not but help feeling, must be occupied with my awkwardness. Following the company into the dining room, I saw that each plate contained a card, on which was written the name of the neck and bosom. nest who was to occupy the place thus desighated. Every one seemed to find his own place ly magic ; but for me, four or five times did I hake the circuit of the table, looking in vain ir mine. Indeed I know not but I might have continued running about unnoticed among the crowd of servants all dinner time, had not Madam O's eye at length detected me, as I circled round and round, with a hysterically increasing self. rapidity, my eyes dim with confusion, and a clammy perspiration bedewing every pure of my boy; and I at length sunk into my seat, when ound, fairly exhausted with mortification and shame. Here, again I found myself embarrass rel with my hat, which having observed that all retained in their hands in the drawing room, at Il grasped with nervous pertinacity. This I at length disposed of, as I thought at the time, with wonderful ingenuity; for I hung it by the rim between my knees, spreading my hand-er."

My seat was next to a young lady, whom of ourse I was expected to entertain. Tentertain! Wofully, sir a y, had I entertained the comany; but I found myself infinitely better austed to entertain a company en masse than augulatim.

kerchief over its open cavity.

commenced. Soup and bouille, fish, and fowl, quid butter, and the soft pastelike vigetable, and flesh ; entremets and hors d'auvres, while a which had daubed and dripped down them, till regular series of servants appeared each instant it seemed as if I were actually dissolving in my at our elbows, inviting us to partake of a thou- pantaloous. sand different dishes, and as many different kinds | Darting from the spot, I sprang to the place position, or than they did my gaucheries. Re- the door. olute to avoid all further opportunities for dismouth; and in order to reply as quickly as poseves, which involuntarily I had fixed on her, caudiflower and outter, at every nore.

when I think of it. " Monsieur est malade?" at length she gently. and in an axious tone, inquired. I could bear no more. My mouth was flayed with intolerable pain; so, quietly abandoning the point, I opened it to its utmost, and out dropped the infernal firebrand upon my plate. Not the slightest tendency to a smile, visibly ruffled the imperturbable politeness of the lady. She soothingly condoled with me on my misfortune, then gradually led the conversation to a variety of topics; till exerting the magic influence that true politeness always exercises, I began to forret even my own blunders. Gradually my cheeks burned less painfully, and I could even join in ed as one person; and on this principle the conversation without the fear that every all their duties, rights and disabilities rest. word I uttered shared the fare of every action ! attempted. I even ventured to hope, nay to ngratulate myself, that the catalogue of my calamities was completed for the day.

March were not yet over. Before us stood a dish of cauliflower, nicely done in butter. This my vocabulary was not extensive enough to em. cuted and punished. brace all the technicalities of the table, and when my fair neighbor enquired if I were fond of chou fleur, I verily took it to be the French for custard pudding; and so high was my pancgyric of it, that my plate was bountifully laden principle which makes them legally one. welf-attested-case, in a late number of with it. Alas! one single mouthful was enough to dispel my illusion. Would to heaven that the clou fleur had vanished along with it. But that remained bodily; and as I gazed despondingly at the huge mass, that loomed up almost as large, and as burning as Vesuvius, my heart died within me. Ashamed to confess my mistake, though I could almost as readily have swallowed an equal quantity of soft soap, I struggled manfully on against the diabolical coming my mouth, to inhume as large masses as I could without stopping to taste it. But my stomach soon began, intelligibly enough, to intimate its intention to admit no more of this nad- real estate to his wife. seous stranger beneath its roof, if not even of expelling that which had already gained unwelcome admit ance.

The seriousness of the task I had undertaken and the resolution necessary to execute it, had not notice a large pet dog, who, comfortably given an earnestness and rapidity to my exertistretched on a red velvet cushion, lay napping ons, which appetite would not have inspired; made prior to their union. when my plate, having somehow got over the edge of the table, upon my leaning forward, tory ceremonies as soon as possible, and then to tilted up, and down slid the disgusting mass in enscence myself in some remote corner, where to my lap. My handkerchief, unable to hear so weighty a load, bent under it in its turn ; and a great proportion of it was thus safely deposit. I might escape all notice or remark. As I hast ed in my hat. The plate instantly righted itself, ened on, all glowing with confusion, and quak- as I raised my person; and as I glanced my eye ing with fright, just as I begun to bow, I stum- round the table, and saw that no one had noticbled over the detested pet, and was suddenly led my disister, I inwardly congratulated myself precipitated head foremost, like an ancient bat- that the nauscous deception was so happily distering ram, into the lap of Miss P. overturning posed of. Resolving not to be detected, I inepisodically a country man of my own, who was stantly rolled my handkerchief together with s-ated near her, balancing his chair on its two all its remaining contents, and whipped it into

The dinner table was at length deserted for at her rear, acting at the same moment that I the room, where coffee and liqueurs were serv- curities are of course involved in the leadwas hurled at her in front, decided all hesitation, ed round. Meantime, I had sought out what I ing principles. If he die before the reand over we all rolled together, the chairs up- considered a sate hiding place for my hat, bepermost. The vile cur who had been at the neath a chair in the dining room, for I dared hostom of the whole mischief, seized me by the pot carry it any longer in my hand; having first leg. and receiving a hearty kick in return, add- thrown a morsel of paper into the crown, to hide ed his howling to the chorus of dismay that now the cauliflower from view, should any one chance.

On my return to the drawing room, I chanced to be again seated by the lady by whom I had that in the short minute that had elapsed since I sat at dinner. Our conversation was naturally entered the apartment, I had made three mortal resumed, and we were in the midst of an anima- to his heirs. ted discussion when a huge spider was seen run-

"Take it off-take it off!" she exclaimed in

I was always afraid of spiders; so to avoid hide myself and my overwhelming mortification, touching him with my hand, I caught my hand helind the guests who were lounging about kerchief from my pocket, and clapt it at once upon the miscreant, who was already mounting over her temple with rapid strides. Gracious heavens! I had forgotten the caul flower; which was now plastered over her face like an emollient poultice, fairly killing the spider, and blinding an eye of the lady; while little streamlets of soft butter, glided gently down her beautiful

> "Mon Dieu! mon Dieu!" exclaimed the astonished fair.

" Mon Dieu !" was echoed from every mouth. "Have you cut your head?" inquired ine. "Non! non !- l'araignee-l'araignee. Mon sieur vient d'ecraser l'araignee.

" Quelle quantite l'entrailles !" ejaculated an astomshed Frenchman, unconsciously, to him

Well might be be astonished. The spray of the execrable vegetable, had spattered her dress from head to foot. For myself, the moment the accident happened. I had mechanically returned my handkerchief to my pocket, but its contents remained.

"What a monster it must have been;" observed a young lady, as she helped to relieve my victim from her cruel situation, "I declare I should think he had been living on cauliflow-

At that moment, I felt some one touch me; and turning, I saw my companion who had come

"Look at four pantaleons," he whispered. Already half dead with confusion at the disaster I had caused, I cast my eyes on my once white dress, and saw at a glance the norrible VEGETABLE POWDER, extent of my dilemma. I had been sitting up-

The ordinary to time of a French dinner now on the fated pock: t, and had crushed out the li-of wine, all under strings of names which I no where I had left my hat; but before I could more understood than I understood their com- reach it, a sudden storm of wrath was heard at

Sacr-r-r-e! bete! Sacr-r-r Sacr-r-r-re! the playing my predominant trait, I sat in the most in the last syllable being made to roll like a obstinate silence, saying 'oui,' to every thing wa chman's sattle, mingled with another epithet that was offered me, and eating with most devo and name that an angry Freedomen never ted application, till in an evil hour, my fair spares, was heard rising like a fierce tempest neighbor, weary of my taciturnity and her owe, without the door Suddenly there was a pause at length herself began a conversation, by inqui | -a gurging sound, as of one swallowing inter ring how I was pleased with the opers. The luntarily - and the storm of wrath again broke question was put in an unlucky moment. I was out with redoubled fary, I seized my hat, and ust raising a large morsel of potatoe to my opened the door, and the whole matter was at once explained. We had exchanged hats; and sible. I hastily thrust it in, intending to sw dlow there he stood, the soft cauliflower gushing tas hastily. Heavens! it was hot as burning down his cheeks, blinding his eyes, filing his ava. What could I do? The lady's eyes were mouth, har, mustachies, ears, and whiskers. fixed on me, waiting a reply to her question. Never shall I forget that speciacle. There h But my mouth was in flames. In vain I rolled s ood astride, like the collos-us, and stooping the burning morsel hither and thither, rocking gently forward, his eyes forcibly closed, his arms ing my head from side to side, while my held drooping out from his body and dropping vere straining from their sockets. She regard. I staid no longer; but retaining his hat, I ed my grimaces, of the cause of which I believe rushed from the house, jumped into a face, she was ignorant, with an expression of amaze- and arrived safely at home; heartily resolving. ment and surprize, at which I can laugh now that to my list hour, I would never again deliver letter of introduction.

LEGAL RELATION HUSBAND AND WIFE.

From Porter's Family Journal.

The effects produced by marriage on the legal rights of the parties are important to be known in every family. In law, husband and wife are consider- debtors.

The wife cannot sue in her own name. If she suffer injury or wrong in her person or property, she can, with her hus-Let no one call himself happy before death,' band's aid and concurrence, prosecute be the defendant. In criminal cases, I naturally enough took for custard pudding, however, their relations assume a new form which it sufficiently resembled. Unfortunately the wife may in criminal cases be prose- knees.

> The wife can make no contract with the But they may contract through the agen- the New-England Farmer, has been cured cy of trustees, the wife being under the by a very simple remedy, viz : the inhalprotection of the husband.

All contracts made between them be- Lime. fore marriage, are of course dissolved up-pound. I endeavored to sap the mountainous may settle them through her to a trustee- worse, so that his physicians gave him facilities of good marketing from Petersburg, heap at its base; and shutting my eyes & open- ship. The wife may release her power to up for lost. It is supposed that he Norfolk (and if necessary, from the Northern benuest, the husband can always devise his lungs in the 24 hours.

If the wife die before the husband and strength. there be no issue, he succeeds to her real remains in possession of her lands during convenient fray. - Nat. Int. his lifetime only, and at his demise they go to the heirs of his wife.

All debts due to the wife become, after marriage, the property of the husband, who becomes invested with power to sue on bond, note, or any other obligation, to his own exclusive use. The power of discharge and assignment, and change of secovery of the money, or the change of securities, the wife becomes entitled to the debts in her own right.

All personal property of the wife, such as money, goods, moveables, and stock, become absolutely the property of the hus-

Property may be secured to the use of the wife, by deeds of marriage settlement n order to secure to the wife a comfortable competence against the vicissitudes of life, or the extravagancies, vices or cruelty of her husband.

Property may be settled on the wife afsolvent at the time, and not made with a view to defraud creditors.

The wife of course cannot demise lands on her in trust, she may bequeath, or any aving from property given to her separate

The husband is bound to provide his wife with all necesaries suited to her condition in life : and of course becomes liable for debts contracted by her for such necessaries, but not for superfluities or extravagancies.

The husband and wife cannot be witnesses against each other, or for each other, in either civil or criminal cases, where the testimony has the least tendency to and which ther offer for sale on the most acfavor or criminate each other.

One exception to this rule exists, where the law respecting the personal safety and with special case and attention. life of the wife, permits her to give testimony against her husband forher own protection.

HADLOCK'S

For sale by J. GALES & SON.

SAYINGS FOR FARMERS, By Dr. Franklin.

He that lives upon hope will die fainting-industry need not wish.

There are no gains without pains.

looks in but hever enters. Plough deep while sluggards sleep, and you shall have corn to sell or keep

One to-day is avorth two to morrows. Handle your tools without mittens-a cat in gloves catches no mice

He that by the plough would thrive, Himself must either hold or drive. The eye of the master will do more work than both his hands. Not to oversee workmer is to leave them your purse

A fat kitchen makes a lean will. If you would be rich, think of saving as well as getting. What maintains one vice would train up two children. Beware of little expenses -a small leak will sink a great ship.

mes borrowing goes sorrowing. Pride is all loud a beggar as want, and a great deal more saucy. Pride breikfasted with plenty, dined with povertis, and supped with infamy.

Lying rides on debt's back. It is hard for an empty bag to stand upright. Creditors have better memories than Brogans and Negro Shoes, of various qualities,

For age and want save what you may, No morn og's sun lasts the whole day.

If you donot hear reason she will sure ly rap your Tauckles.

He that fath a trade hath an estate : said Solon; and he said wisely. The ides of for redress, but the husband must always and he that bath a calling hath a place of profit and Boner, A ploughman on his legs is higher than a gentleman on his

> Consumption. - This distressing com husband nor the husband with the wife. plaint which carries off so many valuable This disability is involved in the first young men annually, it is stated, in a ing the gaseous perfume of the Chloride of

The person whose case is here referred to, is 25 years old, had been much re-The husband cannot convey lands or duced by the disease, his lungs being real estate to his wife directly; but he badly ulcerated, and he daily became

Having seen an account of the experi-Upon marriage, the bushand becomes ments in pu monary complaints, made by perty, whether personal or real, and at Lime, the friends of this young man had the same time he becomes liable for all her recourse to this simple remedy, from

The Chloride is dissolved in soft water, and then a little vinegar put to it, and But in case of the issue, the husband applied to the nose by a rag, or in any

> Jan Brewers. "You must be phleotomized," Jaid a pompous physician to poor invalid. "I can't, I can't, inother thing, I'm sure I couldn't bear it." all genteel company. We can tell as good a story as thatand of the same description. A Dr. E. now or late of the county of Herkimer, going Advertisement weekly for one mouth, and excelled all the quacks we ever heard of, forward their bill for the some to me, at Blakety, in applying fechnical hard words to the most simple cases in the walks of his pro- miner, Greensboro' Patriot, Fayett-ville Obser fession. The good quiet people of Ger- ver, North-Carolina Journal, Tarborough Press, band upon marriage, and on his death go man Flats were utterly astounded with Warrenton Reporter, Roanoke Advocate, Milhis volubility, and the rivers of learning ton Spectator, Columbia, S. C. Hiv., Charleston that were everylowing spontaneously from Courier, Petersburg Intelligencer, Richmona that were ever flowing spontaneously from Ecquirer, and Norfo k Herald. his lips. Oc one occasion, Dr. Wan eminent hysician from a neighboring UNITED STATES HOTEL town, was called upon to sit with him in 178 & 180 Pearl Street and 138 Water St. consultation upon the case of a patient .-After the examination was finished. Dr. E. inquired ... Pray, sir, what do you ter marriage, by the husband, he being think of the patient? What course would you pursue?" "Why," replied ed the above ESTABLISHMENT, which he Dr. W- the case is a very plain has newly furnished and put in complete or let one. Is should resort to philebotomy at for the reception of Boarders, Merchants and but any personal or real estate settled up- once." . Well, so I was thinking," Travellers. says Dr. E , "but really Doctor, I - sents peculiar advantages to Merchants and I-I havn't got any in my saddle bags .-If you have brought any along, won't you Banks, Exchange and Public Offices. The free lend me a little ?"

Holderby & McPheeters, Are now receiving their Fall Supply of CHERIDORS

WillCil i very extensive—embracing a large assortment of Goods in their line; commodating frms. MERCHANTS and FARMERS trading at Pet returg, are requested to call and Having undertaken the COMMISSION BU SINESS in its various branches, they assure their mends in North Car lina, and the public generally, that their advantages for giving satisfaction are equal to any other House in the place; and no exertions on their part shall be wanting, which may add to the interest of all PATRONS. that may favor them with their patronage.

Petersburg, September 2, 1833.

Just received from New-York, And for Sale at J. Giles & Son's Book Store, the principal Agents for North-Carolina, MORRISON'S PILLS.

British College of Health, Which, by removing all obstructions in the Intestines: thoroughly cleansing the Bowels; may be to their advantage to attend. giving more purity to the Blood, and thereby promoting its free circulation : strikes at the root of all Diseases, and is good in all cases; giving rest, appetite and strength. Price one dollar a

Packet. Fashionable

SHOE AND HAT STORE.

WHE Subscriber is now opening at his Store, force one. a few doors east of the Market House, in the City of Raleigh,

SEVENTY PACKAGES OF SHOES,

Containing be ween five and six thousand Pair ; If you would know the value of money of which, 1300 are Ladies' Shoes, made to orgo and try o borrow some-for he that der in Philadelphia. Among these may be Morocco do. Kid Straps, and Village ties do. of Wake, on the 3d Monday of August, 1833. Prunelle and Lasting, of every kind, Gaiter

> Also, 300 Pair of BOOTS, from $2 50 to $7. Patent India Rubber Shoes, with soals, lined and bound. Common Boy's, Misses' and children's Shoes, of every HATS, of every kind, and at various prices.

Calf, Seal, Lining and Morocco SKINS. Having purchased these Goods in the best markets, and on the most favorable terms, the Subscriber flatters himself that he will be able o give entire satisfaction to his customers.

JAMES NE LON. Raleigh, Sept. 2, 1833. N. B. Country Shoemakers will find it to their advantage to call and examine his Stock, where they can at all times procure every variety of

BAHSOM'S HOTEL

BLAKELY, N. C. End of Petersburg Rail-Road, Roanoke.

WILL be opened by the Subscriber in September. This new and splendid ESTAB. LISHMENT will be furnished in a neat and fashionable manner, with new Furniture, and every other necessary and comfort requisite for travellers and genteel company. The ease and his grantee. As it respects the right of coughed up two quarts of matter from Civies) by Cars, &c. and the wealth and plenty of wis neighborhood, together with the advanta ges of the products of the rich Valley of our Rom ke, induces him to say, no location can be better supplied. And he feels assured, that he possessed of all right and title to the pro- Dr. Cotteren of Paris with Chloride of has acquired a reputation and knowledge in the business, from having conducted for a long time, large and similar Establishments in this State and the West, that will ensure him success. He debts, and must fulfil all her contracts which the patient found immediate relief. respectfully refers to the Advertisement of the and is now daily regaining health and P tersburg Roll Road Company for the facilities afforded Travellers. Three Stages and Accom modation Coaches will leave Blakely every day, one for Fayetteville with the great Southern mail, and two to, and by Warrenton, going South and West. All gentlemen who are disposed to take the Rail Road at Blakely, may depend on having their Horses well taken care of, and their Gigs and Carriages put under good shelter and houses built expressly. New Roads and sate Ferry Boats are establishing and will be in full operation in a few days. Liquors and Wines, all hid in from the oldest makers and importers. deed !" replied the sick man. "I tell be Houses, Mint beds, and Sturgeon pens, are you, you must be bled!" cried sir Pom- erecting, and will be in readiness. In fact, no pous; to which the other rejoined - thing shall be wanting as far as his limited means Well, you may do that; but as for the will go, to meet the satisfaction and comfort of

> Blakely, N. C. August 24, 1833. OF The following papers will insert the fore Northampton county, viz. Releigh Star and Const tutionalist, Carolina Watchman, Oxford Exabetween Wall St. and Mailen Lane. NEW-YORK.

B. REDMOND, respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has re-open-Travellers, being within a minute's walk of the circul,tion of air which the extent of the Estab I shment insures to its apartments, renders it a very desirable residence. The Dmin & Coff of Rooms are spacious and pleasantly situated, the Sleeping Rooms airy and comfortable. In addition to the other range of accommodations, re has added a splendid Esting Room on the European plan, where Breakfast will be served up from 7 to 10 o'clock, and Dinner from 11 to 5. All Gentlemen putting up at the United States Hotel, can have Dinner any hour they please, without any additional charge. The Cellars are always well stocked with the very best Liquors examine for (beniselves. All orders executed -the Larder will be constantly supplied with every delicacy of the New-York, Philadelphia and other Markets.

Grateful for the liberal patronage already received, the Proprietor will be ever ready to merit its continu mee and ex ension, in confident anticipation of which, he pledges himself to use his z-alous exertions for the comfort of his

> Terms very moderate. T. B. REDMOND.

NOTICE.

DY virtue of a Conveyance made to me, by D Jone Mantin, late of this vicinity, I will expose to Puble Sale, at his late residence, for Cash, on Tuesday, the 24th instant, all the At the working man's house hunger The Hygeian Universal Medicine of the HOUSEHOLD&KITCHEN FURNITURE, &c. This sale is made under said Conveyance, for the benefit of his creditors therein named. It

> JOHN S. RABOTEAU. Raleigh, Sept. 7, 1833.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber having taken out Letters of Administration on the Estate of Robert Cannon, deceased, at August Term of Wake County Court-her by gives notice to all persons having demands against said Estate, to present them for immediate payment : And those indebied to the Estate are requested to call at the Store, near the Presovterian Church, and have a settlement, or I shall be compelled to en-

HENRY J. CANNON, Adm'r. Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1833.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned were appointed Administratrix and Administrator, on the Estate of found Kel Lined Dress Slippers .-- French Hazzerr Krie, deceased, at the County Court And all Creditors of said deceased, are hereby notified to present their Claims for payment, within the time prescribed by law, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of a recovery.

LUCY ANN KYLE, Adm'x. GEORGE SIMPSON. Adm'r.

Raleigh, August 24, 1833. N. B. Those who are indebted to the Estate, re desired to come forward and settle without turther notice, or the Representatives of the deceased will be obliged to put them to costs and vex them by suits.

Rare English Editions.

JOSEPH GALES & SON

OFFER for sale the following valuable Works, at the prices annexed to them. They are London editions, illustrated with fine engravings and are beautiful specimens of Printing:

	Beloe's Herodotus,	Price	$ 3
	Murphey's Tacitus, 2 vols.	do.	4	50
ı	Bakers Livy, 2 do.	do.	6
		do.	8
	Hone's Every Day Book, 2 do.	do.	9
Ì	McKnight on the Epistles, 4 do.		12
į		10.
	Shakespeare's do. 2 do.	do.	6
	Do. diamond edition in 8 do.	do.	6
8	British Drama, 2 do.	do.	. 9
	Arabian Nights, 3 do	. do.	2	50
	Crabbe's Dictionary,		1
ď	Whiston's Josephus, 4 do.	do.	7
	Bowlker's Angling. Raleigh, July 2.		1
	1	76

MORE NEW BOOKS. THIS DAY RECEIVED, AND FOR SALE BY

TURNER & HUGHES, At the Session House, adjoining the Presbyterian Church. The following new, interesting and valuable Publications:

Godolphin, a novel, in 2 vols. Emma, in 2 volumes, by Miss Austin, author of Pride and Prejudice, &c. &c. Rosine Laval, by Mr. Smith The Buccaneers, in 2 vols. by Mrs. Hall The Stolen Child, by John Galt, Esq.

Waltham, by Leach Ritchie A Trestise of the Physical Condition of Man. principally with reference to the supply of his wants and the exercises of his intellectual faculties, by John Kidd, M. D. The Principles of Christian Philosophy, by John chures of Private Life, by Sarah Stickney fravels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a Re-Rush's Memoranda of a Residence at the Court

Burnes, M. D.

Young's Elements of Integral Calculus Ditto ditto of Geometry The Summer Evening Fete, a poem, with Songs by Thomas Moore the Electric Reader, with an Introduction new Dictionary of Medical Science and Literature, by Robley Dunglison, M. D. The 1st No. of the Cyclopedia of Practical Me dicine and Surgery, edited by Isaic Hays. with contributions from the most emment

Physicians in the United States. Also, a fresh supply of mith's new Grammar, 2d edition W.ddo's Spellin; Book, &c. &c. Raleigh, N. C. August 5, 1833.

MEDICAL WORKS.

THE Subscripers have on hand the following Volumble Medical Works, which will be sold at reduced prices, viz:

> Dewees on Females on Children on Midwifery Eberlee's Therapeutics, 2 vols. Brodie on the Joints Hunter on the Blood Carmichael on Venereal Abernethy's Works 2 vols. l'otts' Surgery, 2 do. Cooper's Lectures by Tyrrell Beck's Medical Jurisprudence Paris' Chemistry Armstrong on Fevers Rell on Wounds Buillie's Morbid Anatomy Thacher's Dispensatory Rush's Lectures Broussai's Physiology Condie's Examination Paris on Diet

Wilson Philip on Indigestion. JOS. GALES & SON. Raleigh, August, 1833