

From the Huntsville, Alabama Democrat, of January, the 21st.

Five Hundred Dollars Reward. Is offered by the citizens of Huntsville for the apprehension of the murderer of Alexander P. Porteus...

In order that the public may be able to trace up and arrest the murderer, we have again copied into our paper the two statements heretofore published...

The place where Porteus was murdered is South of the Tennessee River; Calhoun, where the grey horse was traded, is likewise South of that river...

We are authorized to say that five hundred dollars will be paid by the citizens of this place for his apprehension and security in any jail...

It is thought by many that $3000, or more will be subscribed, to be paid in case the murderer is apprehended.

Huntsville, November 5.

Porteus, a young gentleman, who was clerk in the house of Wm. E. Phillips & Co. left this place for Talladega on business for his employers...

During the first week in this month, about day break, as a servant boy was passing along the public road about a mile from Raleigh...

Wednesday, Jan. 28.—In the House of Representatives, besides other morning business, Mr. Adams (of Mass.) submitted a Resolution requesting the President of the United States to communicate to the House...

THE MURDERER NOT TAKEN. $100 certainly, and no doubt $500 or $1,000 would be readily subscribed by the citizens of this vicinity...

Huntsville, Nov. 26.

It is supposed to be the name of the individual who has committed this inhuman and cold-blooded act. A report having obtained circulation that he was taken, renders a prompt contradiction necessary...

The consideration of the Post Office Reports was resumed, and, after debate, $20,000 copies of the Reports and Documents were ordered to be printed.

The bill making appropriations for payment of claims for French Spoliations prior to 1800, was then taken up and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading by a vote of 25 to 21.

Thursday, Jan. 29.—In the House, as soon as the journal was read, Mr. Pickens of S. C. rose, and informed the House of the death of one of his colleagues, the Hon. Warren R. Davis...

Friday, Jan. 30.—No legislative business was transacted to-day, both Houses having attended the funeral of Mr. Davis.

Saturday, Jan. 31.—In the House, this day is appropriated to private business. The Senate did not sit.

Monday, Feb. 2.—In the House, after the presentation of reports, receiving memorials, &c. the resolution relative to alleged frauds in the Land and Indian Agencies in the Western States...

In the Senate, after the usual morning business, Mr. Calhoun rose and said that he had seen in a newspaper, published in Washington, an editorial article...

The late Dr. Caldwell.—We have received for publication the subjoined Resolutions, adopted by the Executive Committee of the University, and cannot but express our gratification...

Resolved, That Professor Anderson be requested to prepare a Memoir, or Oration in the Life and Character of our deceased President...

Resolved, That Messrs. Nash and McPreeters be appointed a Sub-committee to prepare and report a plan for an appropriate Monument to be erected over the remains of the Deceased in the burial ground near the University.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the several Gazettes printed in Raleigh.

THE REGISTER.

RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1835.

Supreme Court.—THOS. P. DEVEREUX, Esq. has been re-appointed Reporter of the Supreme Court; and we understand, that he has associated with him in the discharge of his duties, WM. H. BATTLE, Esq. of Franklin.

Convention Lets.—The Legislature directed the Governor to have printed for transmission to each county in the State, 400 copies of the Acts concerning the call of a Convention. This has been done, but it may be, that in some instances, the packages have miscarried.

Mr. Outlaw's Speech.—The Legislature of 1834 will long be remembered for the great ability which characterized its debates, as well as for some other matters which we wot of. Amongst the very best Speeches of the Session, is that which we publish to-day.

The late Dr. Caldwell.—We have received for publication the subjoined Resolutions, adopted by the Executive Committee of the University, and cannot but express our gratification, that the duty of preparing a Memoir of the Life of the late venerated head of the College, has been so appropriately assigned.

Resolved, That Professor Anderson be requested to prepare a Memoir, or Oration in the Life and Character of our deceased President, and to deliver the same in the College Chapel, on Wednesday afternoon, preceding the next annual Commencement, in the presence of the Trustees, Faculty and Students of the Institution, who on that occasion, will wear the usual badge of mourning on the left arm.

Resolved, That Messrs. Nash and McPreeters be appointed a Sub-committee to prepare and report a plan for an appropriate Monument to be erected over the remains of the Deceased in the burial ground near the University.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the several Gazettes printed in Raleigh.

Dr. Caldwell.—As soon as intelligence of the death of this estimable man reached Raleigh, Mr. A. S. Waugh, Artist, hastened to Chapel Hill, for the purpose of taking a cast of his countenance. We understand that he succeeded in his object, and a bust of this good and great man will be the result.

The Post Office.—A debate of unusual interest sprung up in the Senate unexpectedly, last week, on this subject. The Report of the Minority of the Committee, appointed to investigate the affairs of the Post Office, concluded by recommending a bill for re-organizing the Department.

What has Congress done?—Congress will break up next month, and we should like to know what is the sum total of the real, practical benefit which has resulted from their labors. The answer will not require much space, and if any ingenious person will contrive to winnow the two grains of wheat out of the bushel of chaff, we may spare him a corner in which to exhibit them to the country.

The Norfolk Beacon has some just remarks in relation to the Act passed by our Legislature concerning a Convention. The Editor is however mistaken in supposing that the Convention is authorized to insert a provision in the new Constitution, vacating the Commission of Judges at the age of 65. It is only clothed with authority to provide for the removal of Judges, in consequence of mental or physical inability, upon the recommendation of two thirds of both branches of the Legislature.

The People are moving.—Meetings of the People have been held in Chowan and Tyrrell counties, censuring the conduct of the majority in the Legislature for passing the Resolutions of instruction to Mr. Mangum; and requesting that gentleman not to resign. Particulars in our next.

Marriages. At the residence of James Somerville, Esq. in Warren, Mr. Eaton G. Field, of Boydon, to Miss Elizabeth Kemp Macdon Eason, daughter of Wm. Eaton, son of Warren.

Barthenware, Glass AND China. T. J. Barrow & Co. No. 88, WATER STREET, NEW YORK.

Are now receiving an uncommonly great variety of GOODS, in the above line, selected with great care by the senior partner of the firm, who is now in England, expressly for the purpose of procuring the Newest and most Fashionable Styles.

An act was passed at the late session of the Georgia Legislature, giving to Carpenters and Masons, a lien on buildings for debts due on account of work done, and materials furnished for the same.

In announcing the result of the re-election of Mr. Leigh to the Senate of the United States, the Richmond Whig remarks: "Benjamin Watkins Leigh is re-elected to the Senate of the United States, by a majority small in number indeed, but which, while it is sufficient to the end, the enthusiasm reflected in this city by numerous visitors from all quarters of the State, the stern and determined spirit of resistance to Executive usurpation which we see here exhibited, and which is manifested to us from every portion of the Commonwealth, assures us that it will be increased and enlarged from day to day, until Virginia disenthralled from man-worship, will again, as in her days of glory, present an almost unbroken front in resistance of federal aggression, and an almost unanimous determination to stand unflinching, by the Rights of the State and of the People."

Expurgation.—Mr. Benton has given notice of his intention, to move to expunge from the records of the Senate the obnoxious Resolution passed at the last session. To use his own language, he "will never give up the subject, but persevere and move onward with the regularity and precision of a steamboat." We hope that the worthy Colonel, in the excess of his zeal, will not burst his boiler.

Look out for the Swindler. A YOUNG MAN, calling himself BENNY A. F. MILLER, came to our Village about the 24th Dec. last, and having ingratiated himself into favor with some of the citizens, obtained a credit for clothing &c. and decamped a few days since, leaving his creditors unpaid. MILLER is a Tallor by trade, about 23 or 24 years of age, of handsome personal appearance, about five feet, 8 or 10 inches high, stout built, has a swagger in his walk, a smooth, round, beardless face, black eyes and auburn hair, much addicted to profane swearing, and fond of singing Comic songs. He had on when he left here, a dark colored cloth coat, with a velvet collar, striped pantaloons of the same color, black vest, black stock, black hat, boots, and new, steel rimmed shoes. We have no doubt he has been guilty of similar conduct very frequently, we therefore hope, the public will keep a good lookout for him. THOMAS WADWELL, Jr. J. G. STURDIVANT. Weldon, N. C. Jan. 30.

LOST.

A Stout, black-tipped-hound DOG, the end of his tail tipped with white, has a good nose, a fine mouth, and is a lively hunter. The subscriber will reward liberally for his return to him in Raleigh, and will be grateful to Sporting Brethren abroad, for any information that may lead to his recovery. GEORGE W. HAYWOOD. Raleigh, Feb. 4, 1835.
