

DOMESTIC

Mr. H. warned the Convention against following this example, which they would do in depriving these people of voting...

the situation of freemen and to be our equals, who may admit our Slaves to the same equality...

be well regulated, it is not simply necessary, that Officers should be Commissioned and Mustered...

Judge Gaston's Speech.—We read with unmingled satisfaction the able, eloquent and powerful speech by Judge Gaston...

ble earnestness.—"Did any body ever hear of John S. Horner before?" and the Editor adds, that Horner's neighbors in the county of Culpeper were as much astonished...

all and Winter Goods. The undersigned having established themselves at the Store, House recently occupied by Mr. Under...

Mr. M'Queen observed, that if freemen of colour had a right to vote, there was an end of the argument.

Mr. CARSON, from Burke, did not believe the free negro ever had, or ever was intended to have a vote for a Member of Assembly.

Mr. HOLMES said, a decision of the Supreme Court of this State had declared free coloured persons to be citizens.

Mr. H. referred to a case where the Captain of a vessel had been indicted for carrying away a slave, the property of a free man of colour, and the question was raised, whether the owner of the slave was a citizen?

Mr. CARSON observed, that the Court might have decided that the owner of the slave was a free man, but he doubted whether they could have declared him to be a citizen of the United States.

Mr. H. referred to a case where the Captain of a vessel had been indicted for carrying away a slave, the property of a free man of colour, and the question was raised, whether the owner of the slave was a citizen?

For the Register.

Messrs. Editors: Will you oblige a friend by the publication of the following excellent Address, delivered at the General Assembly, on the 2d inst. by Col. Joshua G. Jones.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to call your attention to the patriotic Speech of Col. McLeod, at the Lenoir Dinner. It is replete with sentiments which ought to have a place in every American bosom...

FOR THE REGISTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to call your attention to the patriotic Speech of Col. McLeod, at the Lenoir Dinner. It is replete with sentiments which ought to have a place in every American bosom...

FOR THE REGISTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to call your attention to the patriotic Speech of Col. McLeod, at the Lenoir Dinner. It is replete with sentiments which ought to have a place in every American bosom...

FOR THE REGISTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to call your attention to the patriotic Speech of Col. McLeod, at the Lenoir Dinner. It is replete with sentiments which ought to have a place in every American bosom...

FOR THE REGISTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to call your attention to the patriotic Speech of Col. McLeod, at the Lenoir Dinner. It is replete with sentiments which ought to have a place in every American bosom...

Mr. M'Queen observed, that if freemen of colour had a right to vote, there was an end of the argument.

Mr. CARSON, from Burke, did not believe the free negro ever had, or ever was intended to have a vote for a Member of Assembly.

Mr. HOLMES said, a decision of the Supreme Court of this State had declared free coloured persons to be citizens.

Mr. H. referred to a case where the Captain of a vessel had been indicted for carrying away a slave, the property of a free man of colour, and the question was raised, whether the owner of the slave was a citizen?

Mr. CARSON observed, that the Court might have decided that the owner of the slave was a free man, but he doubted whether they could have declared him to be a citizen of the United States.

Mr. H. referred to a case where the Captain of a vessel had been indicted for carrying away a slave, the property of a free man of colour, and the question was raised, whether the owner of the slave was a citizen?