B. DANIEL, Adjt. Gen. 47 4 W

BANK CONVENTION .- We learn that the Bank of the State has consented to unite in the proposed Bank-Convention, with a view of fixing upon a day for resuming Specie payments. There is probably no Bank in the Union better prepared to meet its liabilities, and there is none which maintains its credit abroad, better. We know this from recent personal observation.

THE DISTRIBUTION BILL. (

The country will learn with surprise, that a bill to deprive the States of their share of the Surplus Revenue, falling due on the first of Octoher, and secured by the terms of the Deposite Act! Fortunately. before it becomes a law, it has to receive the sanction of the House of Representatives, the members of which representing the people more immediately, will hardly dare give a vote, the effect of which is to chouse their constituents out of one-fourth of what Congress held out to them, and what they agreed to receive, when offered. We refer our readers to the sketch of the debate which occurred on the proposition, and to the Yeas and Nays, contained in this paper. It will be seen that our Senators, Messrs. BROWN and STRANGE, voted in favor of the Government and against the people, for this is the true issue. The Government has got so embarrassed, that it needs this money to carry on its operations, and, in order to relieve the Administration, the people are to suffer. Our Senators amongst others, it seems, consider the convenience of the Administration and the office-holders of greater moment than the prosperity of the people. If it be really true, as contended, that the Government is too poor to redeem its plighted faith, why not, instead give away millions of the people's money for extravagant schemes of fortification, and other works of ike character. There are unexpended balances to an enormous amount remaining from the extravagant appropriations of the last session, which ought to be drawn upon, before any proposal is made to of the Message. violate the plighted faith of the Government, and keep back from the States that which they have expected to receive. Independent of the rank injustice of this measure, there is no calculating the losses which the different States will suffer from not receiving the expected Instalment. Many of them have embarked in schemes for improving their internal condition, on the faith of these instalments, and will be thrown, as it were, on their beam end, if this iniquitous attempt to withhold them should succeed. In North-Carolina, the want of this payment will be most sensibly felt in another way. Since our Banks ceased discounting, the pressure of the times has been greatly relieved by the receipts of our quarterly instalments from the General Government-near ty the whole of it having been lent out, in conve nient sums, by the Commissioners of the Literar Fund, pursuant to authority vested in them by our last Legislature. Doubtless, many an anxious eye is now turned towards this source for relief, which is doomed to bitter disappointment, if the Loco-focoism of the Administration is to have sway. But we hope better things of the House of Representatives.

and how wholly ad captandum are the efforts which (they make to excite prejudices against the Whigs, tic joy which they manifest at Mr. Calhoun's supposed adhesion, they would be unwilling to admit the father of Nullification to full communion with

MAINE ELECTION. The success of the Whigs in Maine is one of the most astonishing results which has ever occurred since our existence as a Nation-not astonishing that Whig principles should have gained the ascendancy, but wonderful that in the twinkling of an eye, as it were, so great a revolution should have been achieved. But yesterday, and she was the very citadel of Van Burenism ! To-day, she has become, (to use a very elegant phrase of the Administration prints) the " hot bed of Whiggery." A just estimate may be formed of the moral influence which is purging the land of the dangerous heresies entailed upon it by a popular Administration, when it is recollected that, in proportion to its population, Maine gave, in November last, the largest Van Buren majority of any State in the Union ! With the exception of New Hampshire, this State has, for a number of years past, been more thoroughly the Globe under the date of November 20, 1834, Administration than any other ! Her Legislators, her Senators and Representatives in Congress, her Governors &c. have been up-to-the-hub Administration men, and nearly every Whig Office-holder in the State has been proscribed for his opinions. Now a Whig Governor has been chosen by nearly a thousand majority, and the Whigs have also the ascendancy in the State Legislature. A thousand guns then, say we, for the noble State. She has has actually passed the Senate of the United States, placed herself in the front rank of those who are battling in defence of the Constitution and the liberties of the people. This tremendous route of the Administration forces is attributed entirely to the Loco-foce character of Mr. Van Buren's late Message. If his own party make such wry faces at it, how can the Whigs be expected to stomach its crudities.

> WHAT WILL CONGRESS DO! We repeat our belief that nothing will be done either now, or at the regular session of Congress, to elieve the people from their embarrassments. Mr. Van Buren's loco foco Scheme cannot go down, and the friends of the people are not strong enough to carry through any measure that will effectually relieve them. Patience must be our watchword .--Two years hence, we can send to Congress a marity able to carry out the views of the Whigs, Annexation of Texas .- Mr. ADAMS declared the [other day, in the House of Representatives, that a THE ARMS required by Act of last General by calling them "Nullifiers," &c. If they were large portion of the citizens of the North would honest in their denunciations, so far from the extalarge portion of the citizens of the North would sure. We believe from what we have seen with our own eyes, and heard with our own ears, that this is true. Though we knew the deep-rooted feeling which pervaded the Northern States on the subject of Slavery, we had no idea how universal and rancorous the prejudice was against this Institution of the South, until the painful truth was forced upon us, on a recent visit to New England. It absorbs all other party or political distinctions. However men may differ with regard to the general policy of the Government-whether they call themselves Whigs or Loco-focos-they all agree in condemning Slavery as a National sin which ought to be extirpated.

THE SUB-TREASURY SYSTEM.

This audacious stride, on the part of Mr. VAN BUREN, to uncontrolled power over the money of the country, is warmly applauded and sustained by the "Globe" and the other Presses in the interest of Loco-focoistn. Concerning such a system, when proposed by Mr. Gordon, of Virginia, in 1834, as a substitute for the system of deposites in State Banks, held this language :

"The proposition is disorganizing and revolutionry, subversive of the fundamental principles of our overnment and of its entire practice from 1789 down to this day."

" It is paipable as the sun, that the effect of the cheme will be to bring the public treasure much nearer the actual custody and control of the President than it is now, and expose it to be plundered by a hundred hands, where one cannot reach it now.' Can these objections, these fundamental perilous his charges to the Jury; and many praise bijections, be now removed! We wait to see how.

MILITARY.

At a recent Election for Brigader General of the 7th Brigade of North Carolina Militia, Col. D. S. CRENSHAW, of Wake Forest, in this County, was hosen. His opponent was Col. GOSTIN PERRY, of Franklin, and the united vote in the Counties. composing the Brigade was as follows: Crenshaw 78-Perry 61.

ELECTIONS.

CANNON, the Whig Candidate for Governor in Cennessee, is elected by about 20,000 majority. BAGBY, Van Buren, is elected Governor of Alaama by about 4.000 majority.

JENNISON, (Whig) is elected Governor of Verment by about 3,000 votes. The Legislature stands

How things are going .- Mr. Van Buren has | been President for about six months. Since that time, elections have taken place in ten States. The Whigs have succeeded in all but three, Mississippi Alabama and Michigan. Moreover, Mr. Van Buren obtained the electoral vote of three of those States by the following majorities:

11,299 These majori ies have, by subsequent elections een turned into a majority twice as large on the other side! Mr. Van Buren received 170 electoral votes, including those of Michigan. From the three States named above and which have since declared against him, he received 27. Had these States voted then as now, he would have had but 143 votes and would not have been elected President. It is apparent then that his Administration is, at this moment, in the minority. Every day lessens the number of its adherents, and enervates its power to do harm. The people have indeed awakened to a' sense of their danger, and in every subsequent battle, but one, have defeated and prostrated their enemies. Phe day is near at hand when Marylanders are to strike for liberty. Let her sons do justice to her onor, and all will be well .- Balt. Chron,

The Superior Court of Law for the county of Lincoln, closed its term on Saturday ast. Of the distinguished Judge who presided, we feel convinced that we express a universally entertained opinion, in saving, that he gave entire satisfaction to all parties. Judge Toomer possesses, in an eminent degree, those qualities calculated to fit him for the station he occupies-a readiness in deciding, and a manner which carries conviction to all, of the justice of him, for the clearness and impartiality of Session, to pass a Bankrupt law. him for the suavity of his deportment.

A very fine Steamboat, 130 feet long, by 29 feet beam, was launched on Saturday, the 2d instant, at Baltimore. This boat has been built under the direction of Capt. Thompson for the United States Engineer Department, and will have a Dredging Machine on board, to operate in clearing the channel in Core Sound, North Carolina.

Mr. Fox and the Methodists .- The folowing high compliment was paid Methodism by Mr. Fox in his Finsbury Lectures. " The first circumstance which I think operated to the amelioration of Montgomery County to Miss Letitia Brower.

CONGRESS. 1944 (P. 1) Our diary is brought up in the preceding page, to Wednesday. On that day, in the Senate, Mr. Calhoun moved that the amendment to the Sub-Treasury bill which he submitted the other day, be added as an additional section to the bill, and called for the Yeas and Nays. Mr. Niles delivered his views at length in favor of the Sub-Treasury system, and Mr. Smith, of Indiana, rose to reply, when the Senate adjourned.

In the House, the whole day was spent in considering the bill for the postponement of the 4th instalment. Messrs. Cambreleng, Underwood, Dawson, Garland of Va. and Biddle spoke on the sub-

Mr. Pickens moved to amend the bill so as to ostpone the instalment till the 1st of January 1839, nstead of postponing it indefinitely. Without coming to any conclusion, the House djourned.

Thursday, September 21.

In the Senate, after the presentation of petitions remonstrating against the annexation of Texas.

Mr. Wright reported a bill appropriating $1,600,090 to carry on the Florida War, which passed to its second reading.

The Sub Treasury bill was then taken up. Mr. Smith, of Indiana, having delivered his views against the measure. Mr. STRANGE took the floor in favor of the scheme, but in the course of his remarks, ADMITTED that some of the measures of the Government had produced the evils which now afflict the country!

In the House, Mr. Thomas, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a Resolution his decision. We heard many admire declaring that it is inexpedient, at this Louisville Medical Institute.

THE Trustees of this Institution, properly estimating the importance of the duty to be performed, in selecting suitable gentlemen for the respective Chairs in a Medical School, occupying such a prominent position and so munificently provided for by the liberality of the City, have spared no pains necessary to enable them to obtain the requisite information, and they have, at length, the satisfaction to believe hat the expectations of the public will be fully met, by the announcement they are now prepared to make.

The Lectures will commence on the last Monday of October next, and continue until he last of February, on the several branches of Medicine by the following Gentlemen, viz t

Anatomy, by Jedediah Cobb, M. D., (late Professor of same in the M edical College of Ohio. Surgery, by Joshua B. Flint, M. D. (inte of Boston.)

nstitutes of Medicine and Clinical Practice, by Charles Galdwell, M. D. (late Professor of same in Transylvania University.) Theory and Practice, by John E. Cooke, M. D. (late Professor of same in Transylvania University.)

bstetrics and Diseases of Women & Children, by Henry Miller, M. D.

hemistry and Pharmacy, by John Locke, M D. (late Professor of same in the Medical College of Ohio.)

In relation to one of these gentlemen, Dr. Locke, it should be slated that he is at in time in Europe, and the Trustees appointed him, believing from the assurances of his friends that he will accept. Should he decline, Cher mistry will be taught by Dr. Yandell the ensuing winter. The Institution has been provided with a sufficiently extensive Library, Apparatus, and all the appliances necessary for the illustration of the several topics of instruction; ample Lecture Rooms have been fited up for their accommodation, with commodious smaller ones for Anatomical rooms, Library, Museum, &c. Clinical instruction will be delivered by the Profess. ors in the Hospital which is now an extensive and well ordered establishment. As an idea has prevailed that Boarding is ex; ravagantly high in this city, it is thought proper to state that it may be had, including fuel and lights, at from $3 to $4 per week, which is about as low as it can be furnished in any American city. The price of the Tickets is $15 to each of the Professors, and a fee of $5 for Matriculation and the use of the Library. Graduation fee $20. Payment will be received in notes of solvent Banks of the States in which pupils may JOHN ROWAN. reside.

MR. CALHOUN.

A malignant slander refuted !- The Richmond Whig contains an interesting Correspondence be-Many speculations have been afloat with regard tween Mr. Leigh and Doct. Selden of Huntsville to the probable course of this gentleman in Congress, (Ala) on the subject of a charge made by the Hon. at the present Session, and rumor has even gone so far as to charge him with apostacy from principle, Wm. Smith of Alabama, (formerly a U. S. Senator from South Carolina)-against Chief Justice Marand with having united himself to the Administration. This, we knew, could not be so, for indepenshall, of having in his possession seventeen shares dent of Mr. Calhoun's peculiar position as an opof stock of the U.S. Bank, in the year 1819, when he decided in the case of McCulloch vs. the State position man, we learn there has not been for years the slightest personal intercourse between Mr. Van of Maryland, that the Bank of the United States Buren and himself. The-extent of Mr. Calhoun's was Constitutional. Mr. Leigh shews, by the most satisfactory evidence, that the Chief Justice had sold conversion, may be gathered from the remarks made by him in the Senate, a few days since, a sketch of every share of U.S. stock he ever owned, before the which appears in this paper. It seems that it has decision in question; and that he assigned as his always been a favorite project with him to disconreason for selling the last five shares, that he did nect the Government and the Banks, and he therenot choose to remain a stockholder in the Bank of fore approves so much of the President's Message the U.S. as questions would come before the Suas looks to this issue. And this is the whole founpreme Court in which the Bank might be concerndation of the ridiculous story, that he has become ed. On this determination of the Chief Justice, an Administration man ! We know Mr. Calhoun's Mr. Leigh says :--- whether Mr. Van Buren is willing or not, and until then, we despair of better times.

THE CONSERVATIVES.

It will be seen from our Congressional diary, that Messrs. RIVES, GABLAND, &c. have taken decided ground against the Sub Treasury Scheme. Mr. of repealing an Act which only gives to the people Rives likens it to a grain of mustard seed, which is what they are entitled to, repeal those Acts which to spring up and overshadow the land with corruption. How can the Administration hope to carry through their plans, when they are so preposterous that even their own party cannot swallow them .-It is not an unimportant sign of the times, that the Richmond Enquirer is also out against the doctrines Whig 113-Administration 85.

Sacrilege .- The Edenton Gazette states that the tomb in which were deposited the remains of the late Josiah Coffield of that town was entered on the morning of the 1st inst, by some persons whose object was plunder. The brother of the deceased, Mr. James Coffield, offers a reward of One Thousand Dollars for the detection of the perpetrator of this shameful outrage.

Sales of Public Lands .- The President has issued his Proclamation ordering sales of the Public Lands on the 9th day of October next, at the following places (to wit:) Laporte, Indiana; Opelousas, Louisiana, St. Stephens, Alabama; Chocchuma, Mississippi: Milwaukie, Winconsin. The sales will continue two weeks.

Cotton Cashed .- It is stated in the Grand Gulf Advertiser that the Mississippi Banks have deter. mined to advance money to the Planters of the State, to the full amount of their present crop, and also to one half the amount of the succeeding crop. at an interest of seven per cent. The Cotton to be delivered at certain points agreed upon, on the river, whence it is to be shipped by the Banks direct to Europe, and sold for Cash. Thus, it is said. the Planters are to save the expenses of shipment . &c. and the Banks are to obtain the means of replenshing their vaults with Specie.

In Mr. Van Buren's recent Message, he expresed the opinon, in substance, that the recent Elections furnished no test of the popularity of his Administration. If the Maine Electon does not force him to abandon this position, neither will he do so, though one should rise from the dead. The handwriting is on the wall, and now is the time for those who wish to be on the strong side, to enlist them, selves under the Whig banner.

DILLON JORDAN, Jr., Esq., of Fayeiteville, has been appointed by the Secretary of War. Commissioner to assess damages sustained from spoliations by the Creek and Seminole Indians.

The Message condensed. - The Alexandria Gazette gives the following brief but clear synopsis of Mr. Van Buren's Message, for the benefit of those who may be deterred by its great length from perusing it: "I propose no step for the general relief of the Country, but recommend, to facilitate the operations of the Government, the establishment of the Sub-Treasury system." This is the sum and substance of the Message.

Horrible death.- A fisherman named

Thompson, was drowned at Boston on Thursday night, under the following strange circumstances. It appears that the man had fallen asleep in the bottom of his small boat, which, as it is conjectured, drifted under a wharf at the north part of the city. There it became wedged in among the timbers; while the tide rising rapidly, every moment was hastening the catastrophehis death; and still he waked not ! In all probability, the fellow was not awakened until the continued rising of the tide pressed the boat against the top of the wharf, and forced the water in upon him. There was no way of escape-he was boxed up, as it were-coffined alive! The agonizing cries of the wretched man, as the horrible conviction of his inevitable death presented itself, was heard by the watch, but ere assistance could reach him, the waters had closed over him forever. - N. Y. Sun.

The ruling passion strong in death. --Dr. Harris, in his life of Commodore Bain bridge, speaking of his last illness, says, " his intellect continued perfectly sound and collected till about two hours before his death, when occasionally it wandered. At this time he called for his sword and pistols, which, not being attended to, he raised himself partially out of bed, and demence, and ordered that all hands should be called to board the enemy !"
